SMILEY

Old-Fashioned Party

An evening of much hilarity and merriment was thoroughly enjoyed when the Smiley Community club members and their friends had their club meeting in the form of a party as their Hallowe'en theme. Mr. and Mrs. Adam Lendobeja, chairmen, were in charge of the arrangements for the evening. Old-time games such as "Skip to the Moon" and "Three Old Maids in a Skating Rink" plus a Virginia Reel and loads of other games were really fun for one and all. It was sort of a revival of memories of house parties years ago when games of the sort were the order of an evening's entertainment. There were relay races for young and old also, and everyone had a wonderful time. Musical accompaniment for the games was supplied by Mrs. Mark Olson at the piano. Hungry and gay, the gang feasted on a delicious lunch prepared by the Owen Weckwerth, Mark Olson, and Norton Nelson families. The November club program will be prepared by a committee consisting of the Rollie Haynes family as chairmen, the Henry Bolstad family, and the L. O. Stenseth family. Refreshments will be served by a committee of the Adam Lendobeja family, chairmen, the Edwin Helgeland family, and Julian Lendobeja.

FOOTBALL TILT TO MARK N. W. SCHOOL PROGRAM NOV. 9TH

Homecoming Festivities to be Held at Crookston School

A strong West Central School football team will oppose the Northwest School, Crookston, on Saturday, November 9. The triangular arrangement of games between the North Central, West Central, and Northwest School teams makes it necessary for the Northwest School Homecoming to be late in the 1940 season.

Elaborate plans are now underway for a gala homecoming day at the Northwest School. The school band, under the direction of B. M. Bakkegard, is training diligently as a marching unit and will inaugurate innovations of interest to the Homecoming crowd. A sufficient quantity of bleachers has been erected to accommodate the homecoming alumni and former students.

The Homecoming celebration will start with the traditional torchlight parade on Friday evening and conclude with the "pep" meeting at the bonfire south of the football field.

A special assembly has been arranged for 11:30 on Saturday at which time a surprise program will be given with the faculty and football team of Morris as guests. The football game is scheduled for 2:00 p. m. and the banquet for alumni and guests will be held in the Dining Hall at 6:00 p. m. The program for the day will be concluded with the Homecoming dance in the gymnasium and the Homecoming party in the Aggie Inn.

73 Hurt, Two Dead in Two-Month Bike Toll; Greater Care Is Urged

Inquiry following the serious injury last week of four youthful bicyclists, riding four abreast at night on a highway near St. Paul, has shown that 73 cyclists were injured and two killed in Minnesota during the last two summer months of the year.

It also brought an appeal this week from W. F. Rosenwald, traffic and safety engineer of the state highway department, to both cyclists and motorists for greater caution in traffic on streets and highways.

Although the two-month report showed an alarming number of bicycle mishaps, Mr. Rosenwald pointed out that during the full year 1939 there were 203 reported "bike" accidents, in which 8 youths were killed and 106 injured.

The four St. Paul boys injured were riding four abreast, oblivious to motor vehicle traffic. A motorist approaching from the rear failed to see them for the lights on an oncoming car, and crashed into all four cyclists.

UNCOVER ANCIENT INDIAN TOMAHAWK

Aitkin—Ray Burbite uncovered a 14½ pound tomahawk on the Ted Arens farm at Hill City where he was plowing in a potato field. The tomahawk, composed of hard grey granite, measures 13½ inches long and 7 inches wide. Familiar with relics of this type, Mr. Burbite believes that it was made by the Persian "white" Indians, who settled in America about 4000 years B. C. This would make the tomahawk more than 6,000 years old. Mr. Burbite took his find to St. Paul to be registered with historical experts.

These figures are from a statement by Hon. Frank Carlson, a congressman from Kansas, in the House of Representatives on September 7, 1940.

This increase in imports, resulting from the reciprocity treaties, add to the surplus of farm products in this country and act to further depress prices paid to the farmers for their products.

Reciprocal trade treaties SHOULD NOT be made exclusively by the President of the United States and the Secretary of State, but SHOULD be subject to approval of Congress, and should be publicly debated and full hearings given the representatives of agriculture. "Reciprocity" during the present administration has mainly consisted of trading off the home market of our farmers for foreign markets for our manufacturers.

The American farmer must have cost of production and the American markets.

BETTY DOESN'T HUNT BUT GETS HER BIRD

Sleepy Eye— Betty Klein of Sleepy Eye was too young to go hunting a few Sundays ago but that didn't stop her from getting a bird. While playing at her home on Main Street, Betty saw a pheasant fly from the trunk of a car passing her home. Apparently stunned by a nimrod who thought he had killed it, it had been thrown in an open trunk and coming to, flew out of the trunk near Betty's home. Landing on the Klein lawn, the pheasant put up a game fight against Betty, but nevertheless it graced the Klein dinner table that evening.

Partridge Hunting Is Expensive for Iowa Man

A few minutes partridge hunting cost five residents of Lamoni, Iowa, $180 after game wardens asked for their licenses. They didn' have the non-resident shooting permits, so the wardens took the hunters to Aitkin where they appeared before Justice W. F. Hudson. They paid $30, including costs, each. In adition the wardens seized two shotguns from the hunters.

FINDS TICKET BEFORE LOSS IS DISCOVERED

Benson.—Upon arriving in New York recently, Miss Mary McGough of St. Paul received a wire from her mother informing her that she could recover her lost railroad ticket at Grand Central Station. A red-cap had picked up the ticket, handed it to a ticket agent who wired the Burlington office in St. Paul and they in turn called Mary's mother. And up to time Mary received her wire, she was totally unaware of the fact that she had lost it.

Elect Oscar R. Knutson FOR JUDGE of District Court

14TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
General Election Nov. 5

The campaign is now drawing to a close. I have tried to conduct this campaign on the high plane on which a campaign for a judicial office belongs. I am sorry I have not been able to meet all the voters but that is a physical impossibility. I appreciate greatly the kind and courteous treatment I have received at the hands of so many fine people whom I have met. In this final newspaper publication I wish to make the following statement to the voters:

I believe there are two major requirements that you should look for in a candidate for the office of Judge of the District Court. The first is legal ability. I feel that I have demonstrated the necessary legal ability by now conducting a moderately successful private law practice in the same location for several years.

The other requirement which is equally important is the possession of an inborn desire to deal honestly, fairly and impartially with your fellow-man. I believe I have established a reputation for fair dealing in and among the people whom I have served in the past and in my dealings with the members of the bar and I believe that any candidate's reputation in the community in which he lives is the best test of this qualification. I sincerely commend you to those with whom I have dealt and the people of my home community.

Without any desire to boast about myself or my ability, I feel in all humility, that if chosen by the people of this district to fill this high office, I can and will honestly and impartially carry out the duties of the office with honor to myself and my profession.

There will be four names on this ballot. Two judges are to be elected. You may vote for any two of the four candidates on the ballot. There are no combinations that you are compelled to vote for in this election.

I Will Appreciate Your Vote and Support

Pennington County Voters Club

The Pennington County Voters Club is a non-partisan organization. Its members consist of Pennington County voters, who, regardless of party affiliations, will support its purpose and objective. This purpose and objective is of special political interest to Pennington County.

The Tri-County Agreement

Ever since the organization of our present legislative district, the 65th, which consists of Pennington, Red Lake and Clearwater counties, it has been generally agreed that Pennington county should be the residence of the State Senator and that the other two counties should each have one resident member in the House of Representatives.

Purpose and Objective

The purpose and objective of this organization is to actively support this Tri-County arrangement. It is of special importance to Pennington county which so far undisputedly has had the privilege of the senate seat. Red Lake and Clearwater counties have always been loyal to this arrangement having consistently discouraged anyone from their counties to campaign for the senate. This year Pennington county has a candidate for the House of Representatives. Naturally, Red Lake and Clearwater counties feel very keenly on this matter. It looks as if Pennington county wants to hog everything. In fairness to the other two counties of our district, and certainly in fairness to ourselves, we can not afford to violate this arrangement which has worked so smoothly and advantageously in the past.

With This in Mind

With this in mind it becomes apparent that Pennington county voters can only consider the three candidates for the House of Representatives which reside outside of Pennington county. These are Mellby, Mead and Day. This club especially endorses Carsten Mead, an independent and most capable candidate from the city of Red Lake Falls and Red Lake county. We believe that Red Lake county and the city of Red Lake Falls is entitled to this consideration.

1240 MILES TRUNK HIGHWAYS BEING BUILT THIS YEAR

56 Miles of Pavement Included in Projects Totaling $7,300,000

After a year (1939) in which all activities were severely restricted by the necessity of paying off carried-over obligations and effecting the transition from a delayed-payment to a cash-in-advance encumbrance system of financing its operations, the state department of highways this year is completing or has underway a total of 1,240 miles of contract trunk highway construction projects costing more than $7,300,000.

The lineal miles of 1940 contract improvement work, some of which is over-lapping as to miles of trunk routes, as for instance in grading and gravelling operations, includes 56 miles of concrete pavement, which, because of its extra width, is the equivalent of slightly more than 70 miles of 20-foot pavement.

These trunk highway construction projects are entirely separate and distinct from the program of federal aid secondary improvements on main-travelled county roads. A total of 350 miles of these projects, costing approximately $1,500,000, have been contracted through the highway department in 1939 and 1940, but have been financed out of county-matched federal aid secondary funds.

The projects now completed or under contract for early completion, including uncompleted portions of 1939 contracts carried over into this year, comprise:

Concrete pavement, 56 miles; grading, 323 miles; new bituminous surfacing, 327 miles; base stabilization, 303 miles; new gravel surfacing, 239 miles; stream crossing bridges, 39 miles; overheads and underpasses, 19 miles; Concrete box culverts, 139 miles.

Of these projects, 69 miles of grading, 37 miles of stabilized base, 88 miles of gravel surfacing and 84 miles of bituminous surfacing were carried over on uncompleted 1939 contracts.

Improvements on county roads under the federal aid secondary program, to which especial attention has been paid by the department in 1939 and 1940, include 196 miles of grading, 126 miles of gravel or crushed rock surfacing, 16 miles of bituminous surfacing and 13 miles of treated soil courses.

Costly Transportation

When the 1900 auto chugged down the road, without top, without headlights, without windshield or fenders or bumpers, it cost the driver 30 cents a mile to own and operate.

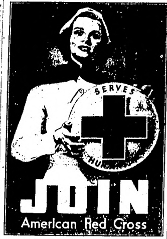
1940 Call for Red Cross Recruits



The 1940 Poster of The American Red Cross sounds the call to the nation to serve humanity within the ranks of this army of mercy.

KEEPING step with the boys called to the colors in America's new defense army and navy, will be the American Red Cross, fulfilling its mission of service to the men in the line and to their loved ones at home, Chairman Norman H. Davis announced in Washington.

"Several thousand Red Cross nurses already have been called to the colors," Mr. Davis said, "and Red Cross field directors, and thousands of Red Cross workers in Chapters throughout the nation, are ready to help America's soldiers and sailors with personal problems, just as in the 1917-18 World War period.

"Every patriotic man and woman in the United States, who wants to do his or her share in upholding the national defense of our nation, can do so by sharing in the vitally important work of the Red Cross. Join as a member of the local Chapter, during the roll call, November 11 to 30, and through your support you will strengthen the Red Cross army of mercy.

"Recruits are needed not alone as members, but also as volunteer workers in the Red Cross Chapters."

Red Cross work will continue undiminished in its usual domestic program of relief in disaster; community public health nursing; safety education and promotion of the Junior Red Cross. An individual membership supports all of this work, not only in Red Cross Chapters, but in the nation. Relief to war victims in Europe is financed by the $20,000,000 war relief fund contributed by the public during the summer of 1940.

All Except Two of 18 Pedestrians Killed in Traffic Broke the Law

Out of eighteen pedestrians killed in Minnesota traffic during the month of August, only two met death while in compliance with pedestrian traffic regulations, a study of accident causes for that month, just completed by the State Highway department, discloses.

Three were killed walking on the roadway. All three were walking on the right with traffic, instead of on the left facing traffic as the law prescribes.

All of the others met death from motor vehicles while standing on or crossing streets or highways. Of these 15 fatally injured, only three were crossing at prescribed intersections, and one of these was walking diagonally, in violation of traffic rules and all safety preachments.

Witch-Hazel Is Found in Southern Minnesota

Witch-hazel is blooming on Guinn's Bluff in Winona county, the point farthest north where this strange shrub is to be found. The division of forestry is displaying a twig with the blossom, the fruit from the previous summer, the seeds and the large oily leaves. The bark is used in the manufacture of astringent fluid extracts. Elizabeth Bachman, secretary to the director of the division of forestry, climbed Guinn's Bluff and found witch-hazel which blooms in October. The plant is common in the south and central states.

MILL POND SOLVES AUTOMOBILE THEFT

New London—Three weeks following the report of the theft of his 1931 Chrysler by Stanley Mueller, New London trucker, the "thief" was caught with the goods, so to speak, but because of the nature of his identity, was not apprehended. Mr. Mueller had left his car on a sloping street as he shopped for a few minutes and, unnoticed by anyone, the car had backed down the street straight into the mill pond where it rested until a passerby investigated an unknown object protruding above the surface of the water.

2,999 BALLOTS CAST AT POLLS HERE TUESDAY

City Casts Record-Breaking Total; County Vote Is Also Heavy

ROOSEVELT IS GIVEN COUNTY ENDORSEMENT

Kjos Named Probate Judge; Henry Storhaug Clerk of Court

The record-breaking total of 2,999 ballots was cast by Thief River Falls voters in the general election Tuesday, compared to the former high mark of 2,367 cast in the 1936 election. In the county as a whole, more than 5650 ballots were cast for the presidential candidates, Roosevelt receiving 3,-786 votes to 1,851 for Wendell Willkie, a two-to-one margin.

Aside from the presidential race, contests for county offices attracted the usual keen interest. There will be two new faces in the court house next January, Herman A. Kjos having defeated Andrew Bottelson, incumbent, for the office of judge of probate by a vote of 3437 to 2,306; and Henry Storhaug winning the race for clerk of court over John Gullingsrud 3,421 to 2,379. Adolf Eklund, incumbent, was eliminated in the primary election.

Frank Race was reelected county commissioner from the first district, defeating Alfred Longren 684 to 532, while in the third district Paul Roy won a decisive 661 to 106 victory over S. E. Hunt, sticker candidate; and in the fifth Pat W. Culkins lost an exceedingly close race to O. M. Mandt, incumbent, by a vote of 484 to 514.

J. O. Melby and Gilbert Brattland led by a narrow margin for the two legislative posts from the 65th district, but when the complete vote from the three counties in the district was received it showed that Melby and W. E. Day of Bagley, incumbents, had been elected with votes of 6,409 and 5,926 respectively, closely followed by Carsten Mead of Red Lake Falls with 5,863. Brattland's total vote was 4,672.

In the Pennington county vote on congressman, R. T. Buckler, incumbent, led Colvin G. Butler, Republican, 2,729 to 2,047. Unofficial returns from other counties of the Ninth district indicated that Mr. Buckler was reelected.

In the contest for the two posts of district judge, M. A. Brattland and J. E. Montague led for reelection in Pennington county with votes of 4,042 and 3,018 respectively, followed by Oscar Knutson with 1,522 and A. A. Trost with 1,431.

Governor Harold E. Stassen, who in 1938 failed to carry Pennington county by a scant dozen votes, running against Elmer Benson, showed less strength Tuesday in his contest with Hjalmar Petersen, the latter receiving 2,971 votes to 2,354 for Stassen and 580 for Ed Murphy, Democrat.

Senator Henrik Shipstead, running this year as a Republican, ran ahead of his opponent, Elmer Benson, in Pennington county, by a vote of 2,478 to 2,272, John E. Regan, Democrat, trailing with 990 votes.

Mike Holm, secretary of state, again led the field in this county, getting 3,213 votes to 1,761 for James I. Heller, Farmer-Labor. Others who won in the county voting were Julius A. Schmahl for state treasurer, David J. Erickson for attorney general, Charles Munn for railroad and warehouse commissioner, and Julius J. Olson and Clifford Hilton for justices of the supreme court.

The total vote of 2,999 in Thief River Falls was divided among the four wards as follows: First 798; second, 760; third, 486; and fourth, 955.

PTA VOTES DOWN PROPOSAL TO HOLD MORE H. S. DANCES

Suggestion Is Voted Down by Decisive Margin of 162 to 68

Following a spirited two-hour discussion, featured by numerous arguments over parliamentary procedure, at the November session of the Parent-Teacher association in the high school auditorium Monday evening, the large audience went on record by a vote of 162 to 68 in opposition to a proposal that monthly dances be held in the school gymnasium. Mrs. V. C. Noper, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Opposition to the proposal was led by Rev. E. L. Tungseth and Rev. R. M. Fjelstad, supported by Rev. S. S. Olafsson, Rev. J. O. Jacobsen, Rev. V. E. Schroeder and several parents and students. They contended that school dances would create more problems than they would solve, and would serve as a kindergarten for dancing under other auspices.

Speaking in support of the dances were Mrs. W. L. Carlisle, Mrs. John Lind, Mrs. H. G. Gleaner and several other mothers, in addition to Lloyd Alness and Charles Gustafson, high school students. The mothers maintained that students may safely attend such functions, and that they will tend to keep them from going to other towns to seek amusement. This position also was taken by the students.

The musical portion of the program included selections by the high school mixed chorus and the mixed ensemble, both groups being directed by Miss Ruth E. Nelson. A group of grade pupils gave an entertaining preview of the grade school operetta to be presented shortly.

Mrs. Noper submitted a detailed report on the Minnesota PTA congress which she attended at the Radisson hotel in Minneapolis October 15-17. James Carlson was elected secretary to succeed Hilding Peterson, who has left the city. A committee served lunch at the close of the program.

Beckwith Loses Close Race for Lower House in Marshall County

H. S. Beckwith, incumbent Marshall county representative in the state legislature, appeared certain of going down to defeat in Tuesday's balloting with all but four precincts tabulated giving Beckwith 3,021 with Emil Morberg 3,-119, according to reports in the office of Levi G. Johnson, county auditor, at a late hour Wednesday afternoon. The four missing precincts were: Como, Holt Township, Espelie and Thief Lake. The race for representative was close throughout, but with returns from Eastern Marshall county coming in, gradually whittled a lead gained by Beckwith in the early tabulations. Mr. Morberg represented the county in the legislature for one term before, and was defeated by Beckwith in a close race in 1938.

President Leads Willkie by More Than Four Million Votes Tuesday

GOV. STASSEN LEAD STEADILY MOUNTING

Shipstead Wins Easily Over Elmer Benson, Farmer-Labor Opponent

By a popular vote of 25,694,747 to 21,427,832 for Wendell Willkie, with more than 90 per cent of the nation's voting precincts reporting, President Roosevelt received a substantial endorsement in the general election Tuesday to his bid for a precedent-breaking third term.

While the margin in the popular vote was close as compared to the Roosevelt landslide of four years ago, the president was leading in 39 states with 466 electoral votes, while Willkie led in nine with 65.

The broad geographical sweep of the president's victory carried with it a Democratic gain of a dozen or so seats in the house. Of 35 senate seats at stake, 21 Democrats and nine Republicans had been elected, which—against the trend—gave the Republicans a net gain of two. Sixteen Democrats and 13 Republicans were elected to gubernatorial posts, with the Democrats ousting four Republicans and the Republicans capturing four seats from Democrats.

Minnesota Republicans, who appeared to have fallen short in their effort to swing Minnesota's 11 electoral votes to Wendell L. Willkie, cheered themselves Wednesday night by surveying the virtual routing of the Farmer-Labor party from state offices.

On incomplete returns, President Roosevelt continued to hold his lead in the state, but in all state contests Republicans either were assured of victory, or holding seemingly comfortable leads.

They were led by U. S. Senator Henrik Shipstead, a recruit from the Farmer-Labor ranks which he abandoned last summer. He won re-election at the expense of former Gov. Elmer Benson, Farmer-Laborite.

Governor Harold Stassen won handily over Hjalmar Petersen, Farmer-Labor ex-governor who currently is a member of the state railroad and warehouse commission, with two years of his term still to serve.

Petersen Wednesday night appeared the probable lone survivor of the once-powerful Farmer-Labor regime. His Farmer-Labor colleague on the commission, Charles Munn, was trailing far behind N. J. Holmberg, Republican.

The Minnesota vote for president in 3,581 of 3,696 precincts was: Roosevelt, 622,032; Willkie, 583,630. For governor, all precincts reporting, the vote was: Stassen, 634,011; Petersen, 440,-109; Murphy, 133,590. For United States senator, 3,623 precincts: Shipstead, 623,231; Benson, 299,-409; Regan, 140,818.

OFFER CHANCE TO OBTAIN PHOSPHATE THRU AA PROGRAM

Cost Would be Deducted from Conservation Checks Next Year

Farmers of Pennington county who operate land needing phosphate have an opportunity to correct this deficiency under the conservation materials program of the AAA, it was pointed out today by County Agent Lester A. Lerud.

Cooperators in the agricultural conservation program are invited in 1941 to purchase phosphate through government contract. The orders are pooled through the county and state AAA committees, and the cost to the individual farmer is deducted from his 1941 agricultural conservation check.

The phosphate, containing 48 per cent superphosphate, will cost $40 a ton delivered to a central point in the county. The government will contract the fertilizer from TVA and commercial fertilizer companies.

Farmers interested in securing conservation materials should contact the local AAA committee at once. The county committee will accumulate orders up to a carload or more and submit them to the state committee, specifying an early spring delivery. The agreement calls for use of the fertilizer only on ground used for soil conservation crops, preferably alfalfa.

General soil surveys have shown that farms of this county are quite definitely deficient in phosphate. If in doubt as to specific needs, it is well to consult the county agent or arrange for suitable tests.

Goodridge 4-H Girl Is County Canning Winner

Lois Swanson of Goodridge is to receive the gold medal as county winner in the national 4-H canning achievement contest conducted for the twelfth season by the extension service, the county agent's office announced. The medal, a shield nearly an inch deep on which is embossed a horn of plenty, is provided by the Kerr Glass Corporation as an incentive to canning work. Marie Sjartz of Onamia was named State winner and receives a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, November 29, Dec. 7, where five college scholarships of $200 each will be awarded to a selected group. Fifty-seven counties participated in the state.

THE STRIPES, ETC. GAVE SKUNK AWAY

Grand Marais—From now on Frank Cherry will be more careful when he goes out to feed his pet cat. Reason? The other night he placed the usual plateful of supper on the ground and called "Come kitty, kitty, kitty," into the darkness. Soon, what he supposed was the cat, moved up to the place and then shied away. Still laboring under the delusion that it was his pet, he stretched out his hand to reassure her and that's when things began to happen. A faint white stripe disappearing into the darkness and a distinctly unpleasant odor which didn't disappear attested to the nature of the animal with which he had been dealing.

CHRISTMAS SEAL WORKERS NAMED FOR LOCAL DRIVE

Margaret Hessburg Selects Campaign Committee This Week

Members of the 1940 local Christmas Seal committee were announced this week by Miss Margaret Hessburg, local chairman. They are Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. Justus Larson, Mrs. Haldwin Botteson, Mrs. H. O. Chommie, Mrs. H. R. Baum and Mrs. Roy Oen.

All local workers donate their services to the cause. The group here is a part of a nation wide army of lay volunteer workers who cooperate with the county, state and National Tuberculosis Associations. The beginning of this volunteer movement is given in the following statement from the local committee:

"In 1904 a handful of courageous men and women organized themselves into a crusading army to face an enemy as old as mankind. This early band, the National Tuberculosis Association, knew in general what was needed—Clinics to discover cases, sanatoria to care for them, public health nurses to solve the family problems, and an intensive campaign to teach the public facts about tuberculosis. There are now more than 1,600 state and local tuberculosis associations marching under the banner of the double-barred cross and deriving their funds from Christmas Seals."

CHICK, 4 MONTHS OLD, HAS BROOD OF FIVE

Ellendale—Last March 28 on the Oscar Peterson farm north of Ellendale, was hatched a little Plymouth Rock chick which four months later was laying eggs daily and on top of that had five little chicks of her own. The nest was not discovered until a day or so after the chicks had hatched and the remainder of the fourteen eggs which had not hatched were so unbelievably tiny that it was hard to realize that a nice, normal, healthy chick could be hatched from them. The mother pullet was one of a batch that all started laying eggs when but four months old, which is very rare in a large type chicken such as the Plymouth Rock.

Resident Center for Girls at Warren Plans Open House Wednesday

In conjunction with National Education Week, the Warren Resident Center at Warren is holding open house on Wednesday, Nov. 13. The general public is cordially invited to inspect the work being done by the eighty girls enrolled. The purpose of the project is to give unemployed young women between the ages of 17 to 25 an opportunity to gain experience in various phases of vocational work. The eighty girls enrolled come from six northwestern counties of Minnesota namely: Kittson, Lake of the Woods, Marshall, Pennington, Polk and Roseau. The girls are enrolled at the center for a period of six months. While enrolled, they receive experience in home management, sewing, home mechanics and other vocational fields.

MAYOR PRICHARD ASKS SUPPORT OF RED CROSS DRIVE

Cites Growing Calls on Agency as Result of European War

Mayor W. W. Prichard today issued a proclamation urging all local citizens to cooperate in the annual Red Cross roll call, which will open on Armistice Day. The mayor's statement reads:

WHEREAS it is a known fact that no section of the United States and its insular possessions is free from threat of natural catastrophe in one form or another: famine, fire, flood, hurricane, explosion, epidemic, blizzard, drought, tornado, earthquake or other calamities of nature; and

WHEREAS conditions in the world today necessitate an unprecedented peace time expansion of our Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard; and

WHEREAS the current European war continues to cause intense distress among innocent victims, making essential the extension of American aid to suffering humanity abroad; and

WHEREAS the American Red Cross is the only organization in our land equipped and ready, first, to protect us against the aforementioned disasters and render relief when they occur; second, to assist, comfort, advise and otherwise serve the men of our armed forces and to act as liaison between them and their loved ones at home; third, to undertake the administration of American mercy to stricken non-combatants and refugees in Europe when assurance is had that such activity will not be interfered with by belligerent powers; fourth, to continue at the same time in our own community such indispensable welfare programs as Red Cross Public Health Nursing, First Aid and Life Saving, Accident Prevention in the Home and on the Farm, Home Hygiene, and the Junior Red Cross in the schools;

THEREFORE I, Mayor of Thief River Falls, PROCLAIM the period of the 1940 Annual American Red Cross Roll Call, November 11-30, a period during which public spirited men and women of this city should bend every effort to support the Red Cross through their local Red Cross chapter, by becoming members of the Red Cross through their chapter or by renewing memberships therein; and I further PROCLAIM that it is the sense of all of us, residents of Thief River Falls, that our response to Red Cross Roll Call this year, in view of world events, must be stronger numerically than it has ever been before.

Signed, W. W. PRICHARD,
Mayor.

Hint on Painting

When erecting door frames, window frames or other wooden constructions which come into contact with stonework or brickwork, the back of the wood should be thoroughly painted. This reduces moisture absorption by the wood, which sometimes gives rise to premature paint failure.

Motorists Warned of Seasonal Road Hazards

Winter death and accident rates in northern states are 40% higher than summer mishaps, as compared to volume of traffic on the highways, W. F. Rosenwald, traffic and safety engineer of the Department of Highways, disclosed this week in warning Minnesota motorists of seasonal hazards of the road.

Longer hours of darkness, slippery driving surfaces, fog, rain, sleet and snow all are contributing factors, Mr. Rosenwald said.

He urged motorists to check their brakes to see that they drag evenly, reduce their speeds to conform to changing conditions, and beware of frosty, slippery surfaces, especially where fallen leaves may have caused moisture to accumulate beneath them on the highways.

THE MAJORITY HAS SPOKEN

It's all out and over now and for a couple of more years at least we can settle down to routine chores. It was an interesting election, especially so because there were definite issues involved. These issues were thoroughly discussed in the campaign. Voters had heard the arguments and on Tuesday a verdict was reached. It was not a unanimous verdict but a verdict nevertheless, the decision of a clear cut majority of our citizens.

Majorities are not always right. It is possible that some of the decisions made Tuesday may prove to be unwise. It isn't always easy to draw a straight line between right and wrong and it is not strange that there should be differences of opinion on difficult public problems. Mistakes can be corrected however and the future will provide us with opportunities to make adjustments as we go along.

The important thing is that a decision has been made. The wishes of the majority has been ascertained. As a nation we are confronted with critical problems. With conditions thruout the world as they are today it is essential that we stand united as a people. Every effort should be made to encourage a spirit of harmony in the nation. Insofar as it is possible we should lay aside our petty differences and work together in the interests of the nation as a whole. Toward this end, the quicker we forget the differences of the political campaign the better it will be for all of us.

While waiting for the bad news Tuesday night we interested ourselves in the figures on the 1936 election the relation between popular and electoral votes. In the past we have defended the electoral college system for no better reason than it favored lightly populated states. After checking the figures, however, we concluded the system is wrong and should be replaced by a system of direct votes. We came to this conclusion when we discovered the great advantage the electoral system gives to the voters of a few southern states. They have this advantage because electoral votes are based on population and not on the number of votes cast. Alabama, for instance, casts less than 300,000 votes but has the same number of electoral votes as Minnesota where the vote totals pass the million mark. Minnesota has one electoral vote for each block of 90,000 voters. Mississippi has one electoral vote for each 18,000 and South Carolina has one for each 15,000 voters. The reason for this great difference, we presume, is due to the fact that southern negroes are included as population but do not venture near the polls on election day. Voters of this block of southern states enjoy the same advantage in their representation in Congress. Why the rest of the country should continue to let this block of boss ruled states enjoy such an advantage in the affairs of our government is another one of the things we do not understand.

President Roosevelt received 30 more votes in Pennington county this year than he did four years ago, while Willkie received 600 more votes than Landon did. The President went from a 3 to1 to a 2 to 1 win, proving that the theater poll conducted here recently was approximately correct.

In terms of electoral votes the election was a one-sided victory for Roosevelt. By popular vote, however, the election must be considered close. Subtract from the President's total the votes of those who supported him in order to keep their names on the government's payroll and Willkie's 20 million probably would be a majority.

A new record for total votes cast was established in the city Tuesday when the number barely missed the 3,000 mark. The increase in the number of voters since 1930 has been steady, each election showing a consistant gain. In 1930 1876 voters went to the polls, increasing in 1932 to 2061, 1934 to 2295, 1936 to 2366, and in 1938 to 2637. There were nearly a thousand votes cast in the fourth ward alone this year. Before another election rolls around the city should be divided into at least six precincts instead of the present four. And it should be done at once while the problem is still fresh in our memories.

In the consideration of any pension plan, as in the consideration of any other public program, it is necessary to consider the possible benefits in their relation to probable costs. And in any plan that involves the distribution of cash it is easy to establish this relationship. It is impossible for the government, over a period of time, to spend more than it collects. If the government is to remain solvent, its income must balance its expenditures. Whatever the government gives to the people it must take from the people. This is elementary. Now, therefore, if the government is to pay more to its aged citizens it must take more from the younger citizens. It is impossible for the government to increase the sum total of the nation's buying power by taking from one group and giving to another group. The only thing government can do is to shift buying power from one group to another group but that in itself does not increase the wealth or the buying power of the nation nor will it increase the business volume of the average merchant.

"SCIENTIFIC LOOTING"

(Dr. V. O. Watts in Northfield News)

Certain nations invaded by Hitler's armies during the past year will soon be in a Seventh Heaven of prosperity—IF a spending program can bring prosperity.

This spending program is the "gift" of their German conquerors to Norway, France and Holland. In these nations the German authorities compel the central banks to issue new money and grant unlimited credit to the armies of occupation. The armies then spend the money to buy whatever they need from the citizens of the conquered countries.

> Thus, the German conquerors "pay for everything and pay generously—with the conquered nation's own money." (The London Economist," August 24, 1940, p. 249.)

According to the Spend-More-Work-Less theories, such a policy should be a blessing to the conquered peoples. The German armies, like the "retired senior citizens over 60" of Ham-and-Eggs fame, should provide the markets needed to make producers prosperous. And, as the new money stimulates business, jobs should multiply and wages rise.

"Scientific looting," however, is the more accurate description applied to this Nazi policy by The Economist.

> Such spending by non-producers is a business stimulant in the same way a tapeworm is a tonic.

It creates employment as fleas or hives do. But all the while it is gutting the nation of its productive capital and destroying its morale. The citizens of the conquered nations may get the money, but their conquerors get the goods. And the Nazis know who gets the best of that bargain!

> Yet, as The Economist points out, "large sections of the conquered communities are placed under the delusion that they are being paid generously for the goods they have to sell to the Germans."

This delusion is even more likely to prevail when producers are being "scientifically looted" by their own countrymen. The politicians and others who do the looting can more readily than foreign invaders deceive producers as to the real effects of their inflationary policies.

That is why history records so many cases of national bankruptcy brought on by government deficits and inflation of money or credit.

And the end is not yet!

FARMER'S HOME MARKET

(Minneapolis Tribune)

There has been a steady increase in the imports of competitive farm products since the Hull reciprocal trade program went into effect. It could not be otherwise, despite the smooth explanations and assurances from Secretary Hull and others. We have let down tariff bars for such imports, not only for countries with which agreements have been made directly, but by the operation of the "most favored nation" treaties, we have extended the same favors to nearly every other country we trade with, and without any quid pro quo.

Most of us can read the handwriting on the wall. Where we err is in refusing to believe it.

Russia, it seems, is a silent partner of the Axis—and at present an ominously silent partner.

Topics of the Times
By N. A. H.

With the Minnesota-Michigan football game coming up, don't expect to get a room in a hotel if you go to Minneapolis this weekend.

Things must be quiet in Europe. All the millionaire ambassadors were in this country last week campaigning for the Third Term.

Last week was observed as National Doughnut Week—a sort of holey week, so to speak.

The world's laziest man, says a colleague, is he who lives by the sweat of his frau.

We'll bet Senator Shipstead doesn't like Time Magazine after it referred to him in its last issue as a "handsome nonentity."

Neville Chamberlain, former British prime minister is reported to be on his way to California. We hope he finds appeasement there.

November arrived with several kinds of flowers still blooming in local yards. That would seem to be some kind of record.

Even a crooner sounds good over the radio this week compared to the recent barrage of political speeches.

That national draft drawing was one the newspapers were permitted to publicize regardless of the federal lottery laws.

Speaking of names, Bob Sparrow works for Arthur Tweet in an East Grand Forks grocery store.

That Hallowe'en party for the youngsters last Thursday helped a lot to discourage depredations, and the rain did its bit too.

'Tabby' Dress Goods

In the early Middle ages, tabby denoted a thick, rich taffeta silk with a watered or moire surface. It also signified silk and cotton fabrics of figured and variegated patterns such as came from Atabi, a quarter of Bagdad. To tabby was to produce a watered surface by calendering. Modern usage restricts the word to one of the textile weaves, that is, the plain, calico, or tabby weave.

UNBALANCED, OF COURSE

Wife—I do believe that groceryman's crazy—he's always giving short weight!

Hubby—Of course he's unbalanced, my dear.

1930—TEN YEARS AGO

Floyd Olson was re-elected governor, carrying Pennington county by a three-to-one margin over Ray P. Chase. Frank Race, O. M. Mandt and A. K. Lockrem were named county commissioners.—N. A. Holen became city editor of the Times.—Dr. L. W. Boe, president of St. Olaf college, addressed a meeting of Lutheran college graduates here.—Dr. W. L. Billings and County Agent R. M. Douglass conducted a tour to farms of local turkey raisers.—Dr. A. E. Jacobson was selected as the Armistice Day speaker.—The $123,000 power plant bond issue was sold to a Minneapolis firm on a five per cent interest basis.

1920—TWENTY YEARS AGO

J. A. O. Preus defeated Henrik Shipstead for the governorship. Warren G. Harding was elected president.—The proposal to divide Marshall county was defeated by the voters of the county.—Peter Eberhardt returned from The Pas, Manitoba, where he had spent nine months building boats for the Wintons.—Mike Holm, newly elected secretary of state, was a visitor in the city.—Miss Alvina Jonas visited her sister in St. Paul.—Mrs. H. W. Kinghorn left for a visit in Minneapolis.

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor The Times:

Yesterday I received my first communication from Norway since the invasion of that country which began April 9th, 1940. This communication came from relatives who live in the ill-fated city of Christiansand. As is usual now under the strict censorship no specific information could be given. A part of the message read, "Most of the city has been burnt and lies in ruins, but now life goes on much as usual. The building of barracks is progressing." The communication was dated September 1st, mailed September 2nd and arrived here November 4th.

So many are asking concerning the progress of getting relief funds across to Norway. That apparently is still a problem. Our national committee will insist on such delivery and distribution which will actually benefit those in need and which will augment their supply of food, clothing and shelter for the winter. There must not be any indirect benefit to Hitler by having him withdraw supply materials from Norway in the proportion that our relief materials come in. In that case there will be no actual benefit to Norway by our relief. We must insist on having our relief supplies actually augment such supplies as now may be on hand.

Thief River Falls and community has now gathered $814.75. This whole amount is still here. Our goal for this initial ingathering must not be less than $1000.00. This amount should be ready to send any day that the proper agreement and assurances are made. We will therefore ask those who are holding back their contributions, because as yet nothing can be sent across immediately, to bring in their contributions now in order that we may have at least $1000.00 ready. Contributions may be given to O. H. Ekeren who is our treasurer. Winter is coming closer every day and since the collection of contributions always takes some time, and time will be precious the minute we can deliver our relief, therefore this appeal at this time.

Sincerely,
E. L. Tungseth.

Editor, The Times:

As a citizen of Bemidji, I resent very much a statement made by one of your local pastors at the P. T. A. meeting Tuesday evening. He was grossly misinformed. We have dances at our schools, well conducted and well attended. The Bemidji people are whole heartedly behind these dances.

REA BUILDS HIGH LINE TO SAVE BABY'S LIFE

Hutchinson. —The McLeod County REA proved recently that it was human—something more than merely miles of gleaming wires and towering poles to carry electric current to farmers' homes. In less than 6 hours, the crew, working like beavers, build nine tenths of a mile of line to an isolated farm house near Hector so that the current could be obtained to keep an incubator going in order that a one and three-quarter pound premature baby born to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tieden of Hector, could remain alive. Without the incubator and the current necessary to operate it, Dr. Ralph Erickson of Hector stated there could be no possible hope to save the child. Virginia Mae, the baby, is now doing very nicely.

SO. ST. PAUL LIVESTOCK

(By U. S. Department of Agricultural Economics and Minnesota Department of Agriculture)

South St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 5, 1940—Top on hogs returned to the $6.60 level, prices denoting mostly 10-25c as compared with the close of last week. Lamb prices were also higher, advances measuring 25-35c, while practically all classes of cattle held a steady level. Short supplies failed to stimulate broad demand in the cattle yards, according to the Federal-State Market News Service, a rather sluggish beef trade tending to counteract the light receipts. Steers and yearlings were largely of medium to good grades which sold at [illegible], although a few packages of good to choice offerings brought [illegible], and choice heifers reached $11.00, but bulk consisted of common and medium grassers and short-feds, which moved at [illegible]. Common and medium cows cashed [illegible], with canners and cutters at [illegible]. Medium sausage bulls turned at [illegible]. The extreme top on vealers was $10.50, with bulk good and choice [illegible]. Stocker and feeder prices firmed, with good western yearlings at [illegible], good steer calves [illegible].

Demand for all classes and weights of hogs early in the week was fairly brisk with supplies somewhat reduced. On Tuesday bulk of the good and choice [illegible] lb. hogs sold at the top of $6.60, while [illegible] lb. offerings made [illegible]. Similar grades [illegible] lb. lights cashed at [illegible], with [illegible] lb. kinds getting [illegible] and [illegible] lb. light lights selling at [illegible]. Good sows at all weights were taken at [illegible] to mainly [illegible]. Feeder pigs shared in the advance and were fully 25c over last Friday at mostly [illegible].

Broad demand for slaughter lambs Monday with shippers especially active accounted for the higher trend at times. Tuesday's trade was quiet on a small supply of lambs at steady rates. Yearlings show some strength for the week to date while killer sheep and replacement classes are steady. Good to choice fat lambs under 100 lb. cleared at [illegible], while comparable 110 lb. weights were sold at [illegible]. A few scattered loads of good [illegible] lb. Montana and Dakota lambs sold Monday at [illegible].

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Pursuant to adjournment the City Council of the City of Thief River Falls, Minnesota, met in session in the Council Chambers in the Auditorium and Municipal Building on October 25, 1940. The meeting was called to order at eight o'clock P. M. with all members present excepting Alderman Halvorson.

In accordance with notice duly published the Council proceeded to conduct a hearing on benefits to property by reason of the construction of cement walks, curbs and gutters, according to statement of costs and assessments as submitted by the acting City Engineer and dated October 4th, 1940. In response to such published notice there were no objectors present and a resolution was introduced by Alderman Kinghorn that the amount of benefits be fixed in the amounts as set forth in the assessment roll submitted and filed under date of October 4th, 1940, that such assessments be made payable in three yearly installments with interest at the rate of six per cent from and after December 1st, 1940 and that the Clerk be instructed and directed to certify such assessments to the County Auditor of Pennington County and moved the adoption of the resolution. The motion was seconded by Alderman Sande and on roll call the resolution was unanimously passed and adopted.

BUT 3 LETTERMEN BACK ON PROWLER QUINT THIS FALL

Lindenmeyer Is Faced with Necessity of Building New Cage Team

Only three lettermen, Eddie Flasch, Tommy Carlisle, and Babe Peterson, were in the squad of thirty Prowlers that reported to Coach Lindenmeyer for the opening basketball practice last Monday afternoon.

Seven lettermen from last season's district championship team, Wayne Bredeson, Bob Kielty, Len Furuseth, Bill Claffy, Loren Jung, Allen Connor, and Si Kompellen, have been graduated, and of these seven, four were considered regulars, Bredeson, Kielty, Furuseth, and Claffy, which makes it apparent that Lindenmeyer has quite a problem in rebuilding this season's Prowlers into a title-contending team.

Ed Flasch is certain of being in the starting five, perhaps at a forward position; and Babe Peterson may win a guard position. Four candidates have been scrambling for the center spot, with the odds favoring Armand Pederson. Other centers are Orrin Pederson, Johnny Parbst, and Jack Melby.

Some others of the more promising players are Lenny Lorentson, Johnny Campbell, Don Berg, Orlin Gjernes, Jimmy Connor, and Gordy Reierson.

RECREATION PLAN ATTRACTS LARGE ATTENDANCE HERE

Ferd B. Elstad, Supervisor, Releases Figures on Participation

Attendance and spectator figures for the summer recreation program have just been released by Ferd B. Elstad, local recreation supervisor. During the months of June, July and August a total of 47,507 men, women and children took an active part in the program. Some 44,353 were spectators. Of the total participants 20,641 were boys, 15,588 were girls, 6,815 were men, and the remaining 4,463 were women.

These figures are for all summer activities which include swimming and playground games at Tindolph park, playground activities at East-side park, softball at the fairgrounds, puppetry in the arena, craft in the arena, and nature hikes. Eight leaders handled these activities.

"All leaders are required to make daily participation and spectator reports," Mr. Elstad explained. The total figures appear to be unbelievable. However, there is an explanation for that. If a child comes to the swimming pool and takes swimming lessons, plays in the park, and is supervised by a lifeguard, he is under the care of three leaders. Hence, he is considered as three participants. The same is in effect as far as spectators are concerned."

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

By Ferd B. Elstad

The recreation program is sponsored by the city council in cooperation with Works Projects Administration recreation leaders.

Cold weather has forced discontinuance of activities at East-side park. No activities will be held there until the spring season of next year.

Arena Recreation Center

Basketball has been introduced as a new activity at the center. Children from the grades through junior high school will have use of the court from 7 until 7:30. Senior high school students and those beyond will have use of the court from 7:30 until eight. Other games will be played while the court is being used, however.

Arena Craft Shop

Footstools are being made this week at the shop. Anyone interested in making one is invited to come to the shop. You will be helped by capable instructors. A new pattern enlarger has been installed in the shop. Persons having small patterns wanting them enlarged may have that work done anytime. Participation is excellent in the shop, but more are encouraged to take part in the craft activities. As was announced before, many people are using the shop for the manufacture of Christmas gifts.

Puppet Theatre

This weeks show, starting at 4:15 Thursday afternoon in the arena, is "The Left Handed Safety Pin". Several shorts will accompany the main production. Everyone is invited to attend these shows without charge.

Cold Weather Ahead!
WINTERIZE Now!

WARNING!

Don't Take Chances!

There is too much DANGER and MONEY involved. Come in today for a complete checkup and make sure of a WORRY-FREE winter of driving. The cost is surprisingly low and the job we do is guaranteed right.

Prestone and Zerex costs $2.65 per gallon and one filling lasts all winter (some motorists use the same solution 2 or 3 seasons). Trek and other Anti-freezes are economical too and cost only $1.00 per gallon.

The Best Football Players

The best high school football players that I saw this year were LaRue Anderson, Eddie Flasch, Tommy Carlisle, and Orrin Pederson, of the Prowlers; Bob Worth, George Thorbrogger, and Sid Nelson, from Bemidji; Ray Brenden and Norman Erickson, from the Moorhead Spuds; Thad Richards and Dan Linnihan, from Red Lake Falls; Bill Crane and Charles Graham, from Crookston; Benett Larson and Don Harney, East Grand Forks; and Willard Hustad and Chuck Cheney, from Warren.

Arranging these players into their playing positions I would get a line-up something like this: ends, Brenden and Larson; tackles, Nelson and Orrin Pederson; center, Hustad; quarterback, Eddie Flasch; halfbacks, Andy Anderson and Thorbrogger; and full back, Bob Worth. I havent any guards in this line-up, but that's because the guard play that I saw this year wasn't so very impressive. You could put the Prowlers' Don Michalsky at one guard position, and shift Moorhead's huge Norm Erickson from the backfield, and he doesn't belong in the backfield, to the other guard.

And of all these players LaRue Andy Anderson was the roughest, toughest, and ablest. In fact Red Wilson, Bemidji's coach, when told that Andy wasn't with the Prowlers for the game at Bemidji this year, expressed considerable relief and said that Anderson was the finest halfback that Bemidji had faced last year. And that was last year when Andy was a sophomore. But Andy did have a couple of weaknesses, and one of these was that he wasn't a very effective blocker, and the other that he could have had a better team attitude. In blocking he would frequently miss his assignment or throw a half-hearted block. But as a ball carrier, either on a drive off the tackles or in the running back of punts, and as a receiver of passes, well, Andy was the class of northwestern Minnesota.

But Andy has concluded his athletics as a Prowler, and he was eligible for another year of football, for he has joined the navy. He and Bob Kielty left town yesterday in search of a navy recruiting office and I guess that they will find one.

Wayne Kielty in Town

Wayne Kielty, the older brother of Bob and the younger brother of Wendell, and one of the finest basketball players that the Prowlers ever had, is in town. For the past four years Wayne has been with the navy, in the Pacific; and he's enlisted for another four years, but has been transferred to the Atlantic fleet.

Wayne was a member of the Prowler basketball team that had Gil Mickelson at one of the forwards, and you can get arguments around town that that team would have been even money to defeat our state champions of 1932 and 1938.

It's a Fact

Orvis Olen and I were chewing the fat about duck hunting, and Orvis made the comment that the duck hunters up here, those that are getting ducks, are the biggest liars ever. Especially do they lie about where they are getting their ducks. Ask a duck hunter where he's been getting his shooting and he'll send you to some pot-hole thats been dry since the Fourth of July, or he'll send you to Goose lake, or to Connolly slough, or to ditch 200, or into the middle of Thief lake. You can go to these places and youll be lucky if you see a snipe. And these hunters can draw you maps and diagrams of these dry pot-holes. Orvis showed me a map of Goose lake that Ames P. I. Pederson had drawn, explaining the various duck passes and where one could stand to knock down ducks with a club, etc. We thought we had something until we learned that P. I. didn't even know the way to Goose lake! This duck business is getting to be a problem.

Note to Plummer's Krueger

Hemmy Sahl, Jesse and Wally DuChamp, and Woody Almquist are hoping that you haven't forgotten them. They have been making daily trips to the post-office, but so far the letters that they have been expecting haven't been there.

Saved by a Mirror

Saved by a mirror. That is the report of a barber and a customer after an irate bull invaded a barber shop in Varese, Italy, while on its way to market. When the snorting and bellowing animal appeared the barber was shaving the customer and both men fled. Seeing its reflection in the mirror, the bull lowered its horns and charged. The entire shop was wrecked before the dazed and angry beast was captured.

CHAMPION BEEF NETS $1.05 LB. AT LIVESTOCK SHOW

4-H Stock Exhibits Fetch High Prices at South St. Paul

The grand champion baby beef owned by Robert W. Anderson of Blue Earth, brought a top price of $1.05 a pound from the Stockyards National bank of South St. Paul Thursday when it was knocked down by the auctioneer following judging of animals in the junior livestock show in South St. Paul.

The baby beef weighed 875 pounds, and brought five cents a pound more than last year's winner.

The First National bank of St. Paul bought the grand champion hog, which brought $1 a pound to its owner, Howard Hill of Canby. The hog weighed 310 pounds. Last year's champion hog brought 75 cents a pound.

Miss Katherine Fuller of Mankato, was the recipient of $3 a pound for her 85-pound grand-champion lamb, bought by the First National bank of Minneapolis.

An all-time high in the history of the show was paid for the grand championship pen of turkeys, exhibited by Willard Rohn of Mountain Lake. The Northwestern National bank of Minneapolis paid $2.80 a pound for the 98 pound lot.

Game Wardens Will be Supplied with Uniforms by Conservation Dept.

Standard uniforms of forest green color and .38 calibre pistol sidearms were ordered for game wardens by the department of conservation this week.

In eight communities scattered throughout the state, measuring stations for the new equipment were conducted. In all, 135 wardens will be outfitted with the cost to be borne by the department of conservation.

Officials estimated eight weeks will be required to manufacture the new garments. That would mean Minnesota's warden force will be outfitted around mid-December.

The uniforms will consist of a jacket, two pairs of trousers, two shirts, two ties, a mackinaw, a cap with visor, black leather "Sam Brown belt and gun holster, and .38 calibre revolver.

The law enforcement bureau of the department will issue regulations when the uniform shall be worn. Outside of a few specified periods, use of the uniform shall be discretionary with the individual warden.

NORTHWEST ANGLE FIRE IS QUICKLY CONTROLLED

A fire on Northwest Angle, northernmost portion of the United States north of Lake of the Woods, provided a scare for forest rangers guarding this forest area. Ranger Dick Willems reported the Angle blaze did no tree damage. It burned an old unoccupied log cabin, and adjoining grass, then was quickly controlled.

SIGRID UNDSET WARNS U. S.

Hundreds of Sandhill Cranes Migrating Thru the Moorhead Vicinity

One of the rarest of all birds—the sandhill crane—appeared by the hundreds in southward migration through the Moorhead vicinity last week to the amazement of veteran wild life observers.

Game wardens reported the unusual influx to the department of conservation at St. Paul, and a motion picture photographer from the Minnesota Museum of Natural History recorded the spectacle.

At one point 30 miles north and east of Moorhead the observers reported 500 cranes. Near Rothsay a flock of 600 was observed the same day. The sandhill crane was believed bordering on extinction a few years ago.

In recent years there have been no regular nesting records in the state. Sandhills have been observed in small flocks on their regular migration, but the present concentration establishes a new record.

WATCH PLOWED UNDER IN 1936 STILL TICKS

Franklin—A dollar pocket watch lost four years ago and plowed under by John Engstrom of Franklin was recovered this fall when Mr. Engstrom was engaged in the same occupation in the same field. Picking up the watch Mr. Engstrom wiped the dirt from the case and crystal, wound it up, and lo! it ran. Exposed to the elements and to the erosive effect of the soil for four years, the watch was a husky one to come out of the ordeal still ticking.

Iowa Sends Most Summer Visitors to Minnesota, Tourist Bureau Reveals

More Iowans came to Minnesota for their 1940 summer vacation than from any other of the more than 30 states which contributed to this state's total of tourists this year, it is indicated by data in the office of the state tourist bureau, it was announced this week by Victor A. Johnston, director.

Illinois came a close second, Kansas third, Nebraska fourth, Missouri fifth, followed by Indiana, South Dakota, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Ohio, Wisconsin, Texas, New York, Pennsylvania, California, Nevada, Michigan, Kentucky, Colorado, Washington, Montana, West Virginia, Maryland, Maine, Connecticut, Georgia, Virginia, South Carolina and New Mexico.

In addition to these U. S. visitors, tourists came from several provinces in Canada, Mexico, Central America and South America. Because of war time exchange restrictions, Canadian tourists travel was drastically curtailed, resulting in a reducing of Canadian vacationists to less than 3 per cent in Minnesota resort areas where last year they exceeded 30 per cent of the total patronage, according to reports to Director Johnston.

Minnesota Groups Open November Campaign to Prevent Loss of Sight

Loss of eyesight is one of the most tragic of human accidents and it can be prevented in a vast majority of cases. This is the text of a campaign for prevention of blindness in Minnesota which will be carried on during the month of November by the Minnesota State Medical Association in cooperation with the Minnesota Society for the Prevention of Blindness, it was announced by association officials today.

Among the principal causes of blindness which can be controlled or prevented entirely the physicians list the following:

The first is accidents, many of which happen at play or in athletic sports as well as in industry and on the farms. Even trifling accidents should have immediate attention the doctors warn. Many a grave eye injury seems trivial at the time of the accident and expert help is not sought until serious inflammation or damage to eye structures has occurred.

The second is cross-eyes in children. Vision in the crossed eye will be lost entirely the doctors say, unless the child has treatment before he reaches the age of six or seven. It should be emphasized, they declare that nobody outgrows cross-eyes.

The grave eye disease known as glaucoma is the third. This disorder is occasionally present at birth but does not usually develop until after middle age, the doctors' bulletin points out. Early signs include headaches, misty or narrowing vision and, too often, the trouble is dismissed as a simple eye defect. Early treatment will control glaucoma in most cases.

Minnesota Leads in Sale of Duck Hunting Stamps

Minnesota this week took honors as the duck hunting capital of the nation. The U. S. Fish and Wild Life Service, Department of Interior, announced that 116,461 federal waterfowl hunting stamps were sold in Minnesota during the 1939 season, more than any other station in the union. Wisconsin was second with 79,[illegible], and California third with 52,577.

A colonel was being feted and stood at the end of a long line shaking hands with all comers. In the line was his tailor, who only the week before had delivered the military man a dozen very fine shirts. When he arrived at the colonel's station he noted a blank look in the officer's eyes.

"You remember me, Colonel," said the tailor, "I made your shirts."

"Oh, of course I do," smiled the forgetful colonel, very much relieved. "How do you do, Major

Garden Wall

A garden without a wall is only half a garden. It need not be a brick wall or a stone or concrete wall, for a living wall of evergreens or some hedge shrub will serve admirably. But there should be something to shut out the world and form a background for flowers. If the garden is small, the wall can be kept low so as not to shade it too much, but even a low wall gives a feeling of privacy that is necessary for the real enjoyment of a garden.

THIS MAN INSISTED ON ATTENDING FUNERAL

ERIE

Considerable road construction has taken place this fall in our part of the county, several short pieces of road being built. Farmers who will be benefitted are Jim Savage, H. A. Larson, P. Lewis, Walter Martinson, John Mostrom, Arnold and George Hovet, Tharald Tharaldson, E. Shulestad, Little Oaks school, Ole Trontvet and the general public. After being without decent road service during the 25 or 30 years of residence these people deserve a road which they greatly appreciate.

Install Water System

Ole Trontvet and son Norris are busy aided by a crew of men installing water in their spacious barns which will mean better health to the stock and lessen the work for the chore boys. Every improvement on any farmstead is worthy of mention. Not so long ago this part of the country was wild and vacant.

A carnival and social was held Friday evening at the Clover Nook school house under the direction of the teacher Mr. Charles Samson. The pupils presented a short but good program. USE YOUR OWN JAM

There's a challenge in the neatly labelled jars of colorful jams, jellies and preserves which adorn our shelves as this 1940 canning season draws to a close. We're proud to serve them with piping hot muffins or biscuits when company comes for lunch or dinner. And we have a weather eye out, too, for new and interesting ways to offer this horde of summer fruits and berries.

Jam pinwheels are lots of fun . . . and they always bring such a gratifying number of "ohs" and "ahs" and "how did you make them?" from your guests. Afternoon "coffee" or "tea" . . . a company lunch . . . or a light supper where a crisp salad is the main dish . . . these are the sort of backgrounds in which these delicious little pinwheels shine.

THIS IS HOW IT'S DONE

Use the jam you like best . . . currant, plum, blackberry, strawberry or gooseberry. Then make a regular biscuit dough . . . roll it in a long strip . . . spread with the jam and roll it up like a jelly roll. Now slice this "roll" and place the little sections cut-side down in well greased muffin pans.

When they are baked, brush the tops immediately with butter. Then turn the pan upside down onto a cooky sheet. And let stand for a minute to allow the gooey, sticky filling to run down over the rolls. Here is the complete recipe:

JAM PINWHEELS

- 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 tsp. salt
- 3 tsp. baking powder
- 4 tbsp. shortening
- ¾ cup milk
- Jam

Sift flour, salt and baking powder together.

Cut in the shortening with a pastry blender or 2 knives until the mixture looks like fine "meal". Now stir in the milk to make a soft dough. Round up this dough on a board covered with a cloth that has flour rubbed into it . . . to keep the dough from sticking.

Roll out the dough into a long oblong strip . . . about 15 inches long and 10 inches wide. It should be about ¼ inch thick. Spread with the jam and roll up tight like a jelly roll.

I've already explained about the baking. Be sure that your muffin pans are very generously buttered. And the pans should be a little larger around than the rolls. Give them room to expand a bit.

Use a moderately hot oven, 425° F., and bake for 12 to 15 minutes. This will make about 18 of these little jam pinwheels.

If you happen to be making your biscuits with a prepared biscuit mix . . . just follow the directions on the package for regular biscuits.

FOR ORANGE PINWHEELS

These little pinwheels are attractive and delicious, too, with an orange filling, and here are the directions for making this filling.

ORANGE FILLING

Cook ½ cup sugar, 1 tbsp. grated orange rind, ¼ cup orange juice and pulp, and ¼ cup butter together 3 or 4 minutes until slightly thickened, stirring occasionally. Cool before using as a filling for Orange Pinwheels.

Cooking School Questions

Olga V. Hanscomb

Q. Why or how do you rice bananas?

A. They can be riced through a potato ricer. I mashed the ones I used.

Q. What vegetables are best served with stuffed baked chicken, and please suggest a salad for a chicken dinner?

A. Mashed potatoes or sweet potato croquettes, pineapple rings with spiced apples, creamed onions, creamed oyster plant. In the salad line, something crisp. A garden salad, cold slaw, carrot sticks, etc.

Q. When making a graham cracker pie, should the crust be baked before the filling is put in?

A. Not necessarily. If the filling is to be baked, the crust may be baked along with the filling.

Q. How much water did you add to the prunes?

A. They are covered with water while cooking.

Q. What thickness are the cheese pin wheel cookies cut?

A. About ¼ inch in thickness.

Q. What makes cakes heavy and contain large holes?

A. It is most likely caused by improper mixing. The heaviness might be caused by insufficient baking, or incorrect proportions of flour or shortening.

Q. How can wild duck be prepared to remove the strong flavor?

A. I have always placed a small onion in the breast while baking, and removed it when I served the fowl. However, one of the slips from the audience contains a suggestion which I will pass along. This lady says that whole allspice on wild fowl will flavor it and take out the wild flavor.

Q. Do you use any of the juice that the prunes are cooked in when you make the torte?

A. No, the prunes are drained and cut up.

Q. Can you sift flour and sugar together in making an angel food cake?

A. No, because you would add too much weight to the egg whites.

Q. I still cannot pan fry steak right. Should it be fried fast or slowly? Some say to sear it quickly and then continue to fry slowly for a while. What is the correct method?

A. The answer to this depends a great deal on the steak. If it is tender it will contain some streaking of fat. Then the pan should be very hot before the steak is put in, and the steak should be room temperature, not just out of the refrigerator. If it is not so tender, get some fat hot in the pan and brown the steak on both sides. Then add a little moisture, cover and continue to cook slowly until done.

Q. What makes white sauce curdle when you mix canned asparagus in?

A. Heat the asparagus to about the same temperature as the cream sauce, and do not let it come to the boil while cooking.

Q. Why does sour cream devils food cake crumble? I use ¼ cup shortening and 1 cup of sour cream. Is it too rich or not rich enough.

A. Off hand I would say that you should not need additional shortening with the cup of sour cream. However, it would be impossible to tell without having the whole recipe. Try it without the shortening.

Q. How would you go about canning Concord grapes in an open kettle?

A. Wash, stem and put in kettle with thick syrup made with two parts sugar to one part water. Let come to the boil and fill in jars to overflowing. Seal at once.

Butter Furnishes Vitamin A

Two ounces of butter a person each day will furnish the entire day's need of vitamin A.

North Pole, Minnesota, Voted into Existence

To "Santa Claus, Ind.," you can now add "North Pole, Minnesota."

The village of North Pole came into being last week when citizens of the district around Ruttger's Birchmont Hotel and Harry Roese's Shorecrest resort north of Bemidji voted 44 to 30 at a special election to establish the place.

Beltrami county board of commissioners authorized the special election. It will be followed by an organization meeting to elect a mayor and other officials.

North Pole, on Lake Bemidji, is one and one-half miles long and one-half mile wide. It has a summer population of approximately 1,200 which dwindles to about 135 in the winter.

Organization of the village is intended to develop greater recreation facilities in the area, backers of the proposal said.

NATIONAL DEFENSE ★★★★AND BEER

OUR Government will require everybody to participate in the cost of National Defense.

The Federal Government from July 1st has levied an additional Federal Excise Tax of one-dollar-per-barrel on draft beer as a National Defense tax.

The new Federal Excise Tax of one-dollar-per-barrel, thus makes a total tax of $6 per barrel. This will increase the Federal Excise Tax for Minnesota Brewers for the 1940 Fiscal Year to approximately $15,184,000 . . , or about $2,500,000 over 1939. This means the Brewing Industry of the Nation will pay over $300,000,000 Federal Excise Taxes during 1940.

Beer is the popular national beverage of moderation and sobriety, and the new Federal Excise Tax will produce a large revenue for the National Defense. The sale price of draft beer will increase one dollar per barrel . . . with proportionate increase per case on bottled beer. This additional tax on a case of twenty-four 12-ounce bottles will be 8 cents.

Inasmuch as the increase in the cost to the retailer is only ⅓ of a cent per bottle the cost to the consumer should not be increased.

RED CROSS RADIO BROADCAST OPENS ROLL CALL SUNDAY

Noted Stars of Theatre and Radio Will Appear on Program

The greatest peace-time appeal for American Red Cross members will be launched in a coast-to-coast broadcast over combined facilities of the three major networks Sunday, November 10, at 1:30 P. M., E. S. T., when Chairman Norman H. Davis delivers a message to an estimated 1,000,000 Roll Call workers throughout the nation.

The program will run an hour and will bring to the microphone Katherine Cornell in the initial broadcast of her career. Leopold Stokowski, Clifton Fadiman, Raymond Gram Swing and Bob Trout are included in the program.

Stokowski, directing a 90-piece symphony, will present an uninterrupted 18-minute special arrangement of the "Prelude and Love Death" from Tristan and Isolde.

A discussion of the part the Red Cross is taking in the national defense program will be given by Swing and Fadiman. Bob Trout, the presidential announcer, will act as master of ceremonies.

The Red Cross this year is seeking its greatest membership since World War days due to its growing responsibilities in military stations, First Aid in defense industries and other defense services. Although no membership goal has been set for this year's drive, Chairman Davis has pointed out that every membership that can be obtained is needed to enable the Red Cross to meet its current obligations.

Egg Production Costs

The higher the egg production, the less it costs to produce a dozen eggs. It costs very little more to feed a laying flock laying at 60 per cent than it does when they are laying at 40 per cent.

13,361,000 Gallons of Road Oil Are Utilized on State Roads in 1940

Twenty-five railroad tank-car freight trains, or 13,361,000 gallons, of bituminous material have been applied to Minnesota state trunk highways this season to provide motorists with improved, dustless, all-weather driving surfaces, and at the same time protect the state's good roads investments.

These materials, used by the state highway department's maintenance division in bituminous treatment, retreatment and sealcoating operations on the 4,500 bituminous-surfaced miles of Minnesota's 11,350 mile trunk highway system, consist of road oils, asphalts, tars and asphaltic emulsions. Had the material all been delivered at one time, it would have required 1,336 railroad tank cars, or approximately 25 freight trains averaging slightly more than 50 tank cars to a train.

The cost of the material was $765,000 or $170 per mile for 4,500 miles of bituminous roads in the system. This mileage is comprised of a number of different types of surfaces. Some are high type bituminous on stabilized bases, constituting what are termed more or less "permanent" surfaces. It was on such mileages, and with a view to preserving and increasing the life of the bituminous mat, that the department this year carried on 575 miles of sealcoating operations.

He stated that we live in a world of sickness and worry, but some day if we learn to know the Lord, weeping will be no more, but we weep not as those who have no hope. He said we see how uncertain life is and it behooves us to be ready as we don't know when the Lord might call us.

CATCHES SIX RATS IN TWO SINGLE TRAPS

Clarissa—The Pied Piper of Hamlin has nothing on Ray Sutton, Clarissa village resident, for Ray made somewhat of a record in rat catching last week. With many of the vermin moving in, Ray began setting traps and twice caught three rats in a single trap. The rats caught were all young ones and had evidently been feeding on the same bit of bait when the trap sprung. In a single trap, it is unusual to catch even as many as two at a time.

CO. TAXPAYERS HEAR [illegible]KS BY STATE LEAD[illegible]

Officers of State Association Address Meeting Here Friday

TAXES RISE DESPITE BIG FEDERAL GRANTS

Lay Emphasis on Mounting Burden of Public Relief

The spending by congress of billions for national defense makes the tax problem more important than ever before, and renders imperative the making of cuts in local taxes, declared J. P. McDonnell, president of the Minnesota Taxpayers association, in an address before the Pennington County taxpayers association in the Auditorium last Friday evening. A. J. Rau, president of the county group, was in charge of the meeting.

A statement by Norman Borgen, secretary of the state association, who cited figures on governmental costs in Pennington county, appears elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. McDonnell pointed out that taxes in Minnesota communities in the past five years have mounted in spite of tremendous sums in federal grants paid to the state and its subdivisions, as well as directly to the citizens Tax levies and borrowings, he said, have reached their limit in some communities, notably the Twin Cities.

Calling attention to the fact that a total of $112,000,000 was spent in Minnesota in 1939 on various forms of public relief, the speaker said every effort should be made to prevent the development of a class permanently on the dole, and that unworthy cases should be weeded out.

Mr. McDonnell said the state association is urging the postponement of all public projects not essential to the national defense. The time to get taxes cut, he added, is when the annual budgets are set up by the townships, villages, cities, school districts and counties. He advocated a pay-as-you-go policy and better budgeting and bookkeeping methods.

It was announced that the industrial committee is looking into the possibilities of securing the establishment here of a flax straw processing plant.

Secretary Rulien was instructed to invite Victor Christgau, state director of employment and compensation, to address an evening meeting of the association Thursday evening, November 28.

TAX COLLECTIONS SHOW GOOD GAIN FOR TEN MONTHS

Current Tax Payments to November 1 Aggregate $307,402.46

Collections of current taxes in Pennington county for 1940 up to November 1 aggregated $307,402.46, an increase of $8,846.93 over the total of $298,555.53 for the same period in 1939, and a still bigger gain over the $261,204.40 paid in the first ten months of 1938, County Treasurer A. R. Johnsrud announced this week.

Payment of delinquent taxes for the same period increased by a still bigger margin, rising from $25,299.30 in 1938 and $28,384.48 in 1939 to $40,167.35 this year.

Current taxes paid in the month of October aggregated $106,131.68, Mr. Johnsrud reported.

COUNCIL ACTS ON VARIOUS MATTERS WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Approves Building Permits for Two Residences in City

At the November session of the city council, which had been adjourned from Tuesday to Wednesday evening, several building permits were approved, and contracts were awarded for a supply of sewer tile for city projects.

Permits for the construction of new residences were granted to Bernard Barzen, Maple av., at an estimated cost of $6,000; and to the Central Lumber company for a new house near the corner of First st. and Arnold av. to cost an estimated $2,500.

A group of residents on Crocker av. N. appeared at the meeting in regard to a petition submitted some time ago for the installation of sewer and water mains. It was indicated the council would act on the matter when technical requirements had been complied with.

The contract to supply sewer tile was divided between the Central and Robertson Lumber companies, lowest of four bidders. The council approved a $402.55 assessment roll covering sidewalks, curbs and gutters installed in various parts of the city, and set December 10 as the date for a hearing on the assessments.

LITTLE CHANCE OF CALLING MEN BEFORE JAN. 1ST

Voluntary Enlistments Are Expected to Care for First Quotas

STATE DRAFT HEAD OUTLINES PLANS

Postcards Will Notify Each Registrant of Order Number

That there is little likelihood that any local men will be called to duty under the selective service act before the first of the coming year is revealed in a statement by Lieutenant Colonel J. E. Nelson, in charge of Minnesota selective service headquarters, which reads in part as follows:

"The program of manpower mobilization under Selective Service contemplates the induction of approximately 400,000 men by March 31, 1941, and an additional 400,000 men by June 30, 1941. The number to be inducted during the months of November and December in 1940 will be very small, Minnesota's call for the month of November being 353 men; and the number to be called in December is expected to be approximately the same. This headquarters is confident these men will be available through voluntary inductions.

Minnesota's gross quota for training and service between now and June 30, 1941, is 38,321. Deducted from this number are the estimated credits of 6,851 for members of the National Guard; and 13,018 for all other men from Minnesota in the land and naval forces of the United States, including estimated enlistments up to June 30, 1941. Deducting these credits from the gross quota places the net quota for the State of Minnesota at 18,452. Therefore by June 30, 1941, the War Department expects this latter number to be inducted into federal service through selective service. This figure is now being broken down into local board quotas and the quotas will be furnished all local boards within the next few days.

The immediate objective of the selective service system in Minnesota is the classification of a sufficient number of registrants to fill Minnesota's calls under the mobilization of the first 400,000 men desired by the War Department to be inducted prior to March 31, 1941. In view of the fact Minnesota's net quota is 18,452, it will be necessary that we immediately proceed to classify a sufficient number of registrants to assure one-half of 18,452 or 9,226, being available for induction by February 1, 1941. It is

Morris Bye Delivers Armistice Day Talk

Substituting on short notice for Joseph E. Kise of Moorhead, department commander of the American Legion, who was detained at Bemidji by a blizzard, Supt. Morris Bye delivered a stimulating Armistice Day address at formal exercises in the high school auditorium Monday afternoon. Dr. A. E. Jacobson presided over the rites, which were sponsored by Elmer J. Eklund post of the Legion and auxiliary.

Recalling the great joy which greeted the first Armistice Day in 1918, Mr. Bye pointed out that today, with wars raging in many parts of the world, there is no occasion for rejoicing. He reminded his hearers that freedom is a relative term, involving the restraint of the liberties of a few to protect those of the many.

In order to be free men, he said, citizens must be able to think intelligently, which principle is now in conflict with those of most foreign governments. To prepare students of today for their role in national defense, Mr. Bye said, they must be trained to make intelligent decisions, which will enable this country to present a united front.

The program opened with a group of spirited selections by the Lincoln high school band directed by Glendon Ahre, followed by the advancement of the colors by the color guard and the invocation by Rev. Charles W. Erickson.

The Lincoln high school chorus presented two selections, and H. M. Hitterdal sang "I Pledge Allegiance to Our Flag", accompanied on the piano by Harold F. Harrison and on the trumpet by Vern Keifenheim. The exercises closed with thirty seconds of silence in tribute to the World War dead, followed by retirement of the colors.

45 CARLOADS OF TURKEYS HAD LEFT CITY WEDNESDAY

Receipts Are Heavy in Spite of Interruption Caused by Blizzard

Despite the blizzard which halted all traffic Monday afternoon and Tuesday, no less than 45 carloads of dressed turkeys had been forwarded to central markets by local agencies up to Wednesday evening. The Thanksgiving marketing season opened early last week under favorable weather conditions and there was a steady influx of birds until the storm arrived, deliveries being resumed again in large volume Wednesday morning.

Land O'Lakes Creameries and some other agencies are extending until Saturday the time for receiving birds for the Thanksgiving market in order to offset the time lost as a result of the storm.

Many farmers in this area have reported the loss of small percentage of their flocks as a result of the fierce blizzard early this week, but reports reaching the city indicate that losses were much heavier in territory farther south, where more snow fell.

THANKSGIVING DAY WILL BE NOTED IN SCHOOLS NOV. 21-2

Board Advances Date for Observance at Meeting Monday Night

To conform to proclamations issued by President Roosevelt and Governor Stassen, the board of education at its November session Monday evening ruled that the Thanksgiving holiday for the local schools be set on Thursday and Friday, November 21 and 22, instead of November 28 and 29 as originally scheduled.

The board voted to accept the resignation tendered by Miss Harriet Ericksen, first grade teacher in the Northrop school, following her marriage October 24. Appointed to succeed her was Miss Patricia Lee of Winona, graduate of Winona state teachers college.

As a result of the donation of the necessary funds by the class of 1940, Supt. Morris Bye informed the board, another basketball scoreboard will be installed in the west end of the high school gymnasium in advance of the opening game with Fosston Saturday evening, November 30. Last year, he explained, some of the spectators could not see the score-board at the east end of the room.

In accordance with the custom of past years, the board voted to install skating rinks for the use of small pupils on the Knox, Northrop and Washington school playgrounds.

NASH'S HAYLOFT TROUPE AT FALLS THEATRE NOV. 20

To Make Weekly Broadcast over Station WDAY from Stage in City

The weekly broadcast of the Nash Coffee Hayloft Jamboree will for the second time this season be made from the stage of the Falls theatre Wednesday evening, November 20th. Two performances will be presented, the first at 8:30 and the second at 10:30, with the radio air show being broadcast at 8:30.

The Hayloft Gang, while making a personal appearance on the stage of the Falls theatre, will by remote control again be heard over station WDAY from the local theatre.

Heading the troupe will be Ole Anderson along with his famous troupe of entertainers including Tex, Mary Lou, Axel, Freckle Face Gertie, Teckla, Oscar Johnson, and their regular announcer, Bill Dean.

For the past six months this troupe of popular radio stars have been playing to capacity crowds throughout the Northwest. This fact was evident by the overflow throng which the show attracted while here last June.

WINTER COMES WITH BLIZZARD ARMISTICE DAY

Called Fiercest Early Winter Storm in History of This Area

TRAFFIC BROUGHT TO STANDSTILL BY STORM

Soo Train from Minneapolis Is Delayed 36 Hours by Storm

Characterized by pioneer residents as the fiercest early-winter blizzard in the history of this section, a powerful north wind swept into Northwestern Minnesota on Armistice Day Monday, piling into huge drifts a snowfall estimated at approximately six inches. The wind velocity was recorded at the Fargo airport at more than fifty miles an hour, and is believed to have approached that figure in this locality.

While the snow was blown off the highways in most places, visibility was so poor Monday afternoon and until late Tuesday that automobile, bus and truck traffic was brought to a standstill.

Railroad traffic also was disrupted on the Minneapolis-Winnipeg line and on the Great Northern, altho trains on the Wheat Line into North Dakota and to Duluth were not canceled, the running behind schedule. The southbound Soo train from Winnipeg, following its arrival here Monday night, was detained in the city until Tuesday morning before proceeding on its way.

The northbound Soo Winnipeg train scheduled to leave Minneapolis Monday evening was held there until Tuesday, and did not reach Thief River Falls until late Wednesday afternoon, having been delayed by the storm and by a wreck on the line south of Glenwood.

The only bus to reach this city Tuesday was one from Crookston, which arrived in the evening when the storm was abating. Roads were reported blocked near Detroit Lakes and from Crookston to Fargo, but by Wednesday regular bus service was resumed.

While public school sessions were not canceled in the city Tuesday, Supt. Morris Bye reported that attendance was only a little more than half the usual number, partly due to the fact that the school buses did not make their regular runs that day. Rural mail carriers were able to cover only a portion of their routes Tuesday.

There fortunately was no outbreak of fires in the city while the gale was at its height, in spite of the fact that near-zero temperatures made it necessary to keep furnaces and stoves well stoked. No damage of consequence from the high wind has been reported locally. However, the ski slide on the Henry Oen farm south of the city was toppled over and demolished during the storm.

In the metropolitan Twin Cities area, three-quarters of a million persons were, for all practical purposes, snowbound. Streetcars were operating at wide intervals, busses were slow and rare, and automobile traffic around the cities was almost at a standstill, blocked by deep drifts on top of glare ice.

Harrowing experiences were related Tuesday night by Winona duck hunters safely home again after a night and day in the Mississippi river bottoms where the fiercest November storm in the memory of many old residents caught and held them Armistice day afternoon and night and well into Tuesday.

Many came in with frost-bitten fingers and toes, but only three were at the hospital Tuesday for treatment.

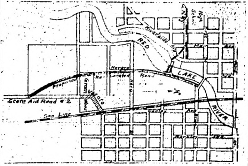
At least seven Winonans perished and the toll in the entire area is expected to total 20 or more.

Cherished guns, boats, decoys and other hunting equipment apparently counted for nothing in what became a fight of many hunters to save their lives.

U. S. Senator Pittman of Nevada Dies Sunday

United States Senator Key Pittman of Nevada, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations and president pro tempore of the senate, died Sunday morning in a hospital in his home state. He was 68 years old. Senator Pittman, first elected to the senate in 1912, defeated Samuel Platt, Republican, this year in the November 5 election, his sixth successive victory for that office.

Proposed Relocation of Road Would Eliminate Two Grade Crossings



Presented in the above plat is the proposed relocation of the road on the east side of the river in the old mill yard connecting State Aid Road 2 with the First st. bridge. The proposed change would give residents of the Horseshoe district better access to the downtown section, and would eliminate two dangerous railroad crossings. The county board took no action on the matter when it was presented at its November session November 4.

Open House Will Mark Library Anniversary

The Carnegie public library is observing National Book Week as usual with book exhibits for readers of all ages. Owing to road conditions, the opening day has been postponed until Saturday, November 16. The main room of the basement auditorium has been given over to this display of books and the public is cordially invited to view these exhibits during the coming week.

The library is also celebrating its 25th anniversary in the present building. During the past year some improvements worthy of notice have been achieved. Perhaps some of the most outstanding of these have been carried on in the basement rooms. Grey cement floors have been brightened with a coat of paint and new curtains have been hung.

Gift funds from various sources, over a period of years, have made possible the complete renovation of the directors' room. Ivory paint, early American furniture in maple, soft green rug and new draperies have changed it from a gloomy room to a thing of beauty. This will be open to the public on Saturday. Coffee will be served in the afternoon from 2:00 until 5:30 and during the evening.

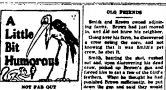
Old Man River

In the wet season the Amazon river reaches a width of 400 to 500 miles.



NOT FAR OUT

In a recent county court case one of the witnesses was a man who did not deny that he had "little love for the motor-car." He raised a roar of laughter by describing the defendant's chauffeur as a "chiffonier"!

On repeating the blunder, he was pulled up by counsel for the defense.

"Chauffeur, my friend, chauffeur!" corrected the latter. "A chiffonier, you know, is an ornamental, wooden—"

"Oh, well," interrupted the witness, with a nod in the direction of the chauffeur, "call him what you like. I dare say we're both pretty near the mark!"

Not Very Hopeful

The new curate was keen on getting up a concert in the village hall. The first problem was the piano. He was told the cobbler had one. So along he went.

"Lend the pianner?" was the cheery reply. "With pleasure. It's in the cellar, but I can soon get it ready."

Then he went to the door of the back room and shouted:

"Liza, where's the works of the pianner?"

Back floated a voice from the kitchen:

"Why, ain't they in the garden?"

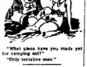
Efficient

"I'm specializing in nerve treatment," said a young doctor.

"Have you had any success?" asked a friend.

"I should say so," was the reply. "Why, when I had finished with my last case the patient asked me to lend him $10."

HAD SECURED THE TENTS, PERHAPS



"What plans have you made yet for camping out?"

"Only tentative ones."

Laugh That Off

Boogy—You're just about the funniest guy I know. Why every time I see you I have to laugh.

Woogy—And you? Why you're so funny that every time I see you I have a guilty feeling that I'm doing the government out of entertainment taxes.

Before or After

At a family party the men were discussing raspberry pie. "I can't eat it," said one, "the seeds get under my false teeth."

"Well that is easily solved," said his brother-in-law. "Just remove your teeth before you eat the pie."

In Common

Texan—Yes, indeed, Texas is a great state. You can board a train at dawn and 24 hours later you will still be in Texas.

Miss Smalltown—Yes, we've got trains like that in our state, too.

Climax

These squirrel coats are all of best quality and represent an exceptional bargain; fun guaranteed.—Advt. in a local paper.

Toy Greyhound Races

Greyhound racing over lighted tracks at night is drawing large crowds to the dog tracks in many Florida cities. Most of the speedsters that spring around the track chasing a mechanical rabbit are big greyhounds. But in Miami there are some Italian "toy" greyhounds. Only one-third the size of the big fellow, but faster by comparison, the vest-pocket dog, weighing from eight to fifteen pounds, can cover a sixteenth of a mile in eight seconds.

OLD FRIENDS

Smith and Brown owned adjoining farms. Brown had just moved in, and did not know his neighbor.

Going over his farm, he discovered a crow eating the corn, and not knowing that it was Smith's pet crow, he shot it.

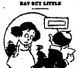
Smith, hearing the shot, rushed out and, upon discovering his dead crow, picked up Brown's gun and forced him to eat a few of the bird's feathers. When he thought he had punished Brown sufficiently, he put down the gun and said they would call it square.

Brown immediately picked up the gun and compelled Smith to eat a similar amount of feathers.

The next day the two met at the home of a third neighbor, who remarked: "I suppose you two fellows are acquainted?"

"Oh, yes," replied Brown. "We dined together yesterday."

EAT BUT LITTLE



His Wife—It's simply remarkable how much material moths eat and destroy.

The Professor—How can that be, my dear, when they eat only holes in the cloth?

The Masses

A senator anxious to see a procession in his constituency, and thinking he was well known to the people of that city, tapped a native on the shoulder, demanding: "Make way there."

"Garn, who are yer pushing?" was the reply.

"Do you know who I am?" inquired the indignant Senator. "I'm a representative of the people!"

"Hah!" grunted the native, standing unmoved, "but we're the bloomin' people ourselves."

Breaking It Gently

The engaged pair were talking over the future.

"Darling," she said, "when we are married you'll have a woman in the house who really knows how to cook."

He looked surprised.

"But, dearest," he said happily, "I didn't know that you were a good cook."

She shrugged her shoulders.

"I'm not," came her reply, "but when we're married my mother is coming to live with us."

A Modern Child

Mother (telling story of Sleeping Beauty)—Yes, the maid did not dust, the coachman did not take out the carriage, the cook did not make the bread but left the dough, everything was quite quiet.

Fritz (aged four)—I know, mummy, a general strike.

CHANCES WERE GOOD

"Jim, are you colored folks going to have turkey this Thanksgiving?"

"Well, suh, dat 'pends entirely on de 'bility ob de man. Pussonally, I has a good chance at three mighty fine birds."

Informal

A woman of recently acquired wealth was discussing with an artist the portrait of herself which she had asked him to paint.

"Shall I paint you in evening dress?" the artist inquired.

"Oh, no," replied the woman, "don't make any fuss at all—just wear your overalls."

Dog House

The B family has a brick furnace in its backyard for wiener roasts and outdoor picnics which is approximately the same size and shape as its dog house. Young Billy told his mother after visiting them:

"They've got a winter house for the dog, too, with a chimney to keep it warm."

All Set

"Now, children," said the teacher, "I want you to be perfectly still, so still that you can hear a pin drop."

For a moment silence reigned supreme; then a small urchin exclaimed, "Let 'er drop!"

He Liked Her Type

Father—I'm surprised that you should become infatuated with that girl. Why, you should have been able to read her like a book.

Son—Well, you see, Dad, the light was rather low.

University of Havana

Only three American colleges—William and Mary, Harvard, and Yale—are older than the University of Havana.

MUST HAVE USED HIS HEAD

Second Player—Yes, bo, dat he do! Ah ain't seen him do anything lak dat wif his hands yit!

Modest

Why is a watch the most modest thing in the world? Because it is forever holding its hands to its face and, no matter how good its works, is always running itself down!

A Good Reason

Soph—Aw, whatcha wanta be a doctor of philosophy for?

Frosh—So I can be a professor and walk on the grass.

No Smell—No Point

In a dog field trial held recently in Virginia, hand-reared quail were released from boxes. The idea was to give the dogs plenty of chance to point the birds. The only trouble was the scheme didn't work. Every dog with but one exception, disregarded the birds. Although quail were whistling and flying all over the course, the dogs paid no attention to them. How long it takes a hand-reared bird to acquire the odor to which pointers and setters are accustomed, is a matter of conjecture. Here is a chance for a biology student to make an investigation of this very interesting point for a Ph. D. thesis.

Accurate Prophecies by Five-Year-Old Child

In miniscule Trucksville, Pa., (pop. 200), near Wilkes-Barre, live Harry Harding, a manufacturer of rubber typewriter pads, his wife, and their four children. The youngest child is 4½-year-old Faith Hope Charity Harding. Mrs. Harding and her daughter were in New York and photographers' flashbulbs were popping around Faith Hope Charity.

Little Faith Hope Charity was in New York to be examined by an assortment of psychic researchers and mediums who were excited by her alleged powers of prophecy. A bright little child who looks like any normal girl, she has startled the world by her series of remarkably accurate prophecies, all duly recorded by her mother. Among them: The war in Europe, the Hitler-Stalin pact, the burning of the Trucksville school, the attack on the duchess of Kent, the loss at sea of Richard Halliburton.

Faith Hope Charity first disclosed her gift, says Mrs. Harding, at the age of 18 months when she exclaimed: "Mummy, Frank McWiggin is dead." McWiggin was a friend of the family. Upon calling his office, Mrs. Harding was assured that he was on a trip to New York; next day, she learned he had fallen dead the day before in a New York hotel.

"I've got so now, that when Faith's predictions seem important I have them notarized," said Mrs. Harding. "As a rule the most important prophecies come to her at night. She may be almost awake, in a trance or just on the borderland. Whoever she speaks through calls herself an Entity. Often she uses words I've never heard and usually talks in old English."

Since she came into the national headlines, Faith Hope Charity—or The Entity—has made one prediction that can be checked by millions of persons. Franklin Roosevelt, she said, would be drafted for a third term, and will run. She did not forecast the name of his opponent or the outcome of the election.

'Nickelodeon Talkies' Forseen for the Future

Since the juke-box (coin-operated phonograph) craze hit the United States, it is estimated that more than 400,000 of the machines have been installed. This number, operators believe just about represents the saturation point.

Juke-box operators have lately been looking around for a new field, reported Variety, omniscient journal of the amusement business. Both Wurlitzer, biggest juke-box manufacturers, and Mills Novelty company, makers of slot machines, Variety said, were interested in the nickel-in-the-slot talking movie machine.

Many people have been tinkering off and on, with the idea of "nickelodeon talkies" that could be operated in bars, cafes, railroad and bus stations, and barbecue stands. The projectors, automatic in operation and requiring no projectionists, would use 16 mm. sound film—far less expensive than the 35 mm. film used in modern movie projectors. The "subjects," one nickel's worth, run about three minutes each. Present 16 mm. projectors hold about 25 minutes of playing time. As each subject ends, the motor and light automatically cut off, requiring another nickel to restart the machine.

Men who have surveyed the field estimate that there is a market for 100,000 machines the first year. Each installation would cost about $1,000.

French Snail Farms

Burgundy, a province in France, has small farms where the famous French delicacy, escargots (snails) are grown. Some of the parent snails attain the age of 25. Infant snails, at most two years of age, are captured for consumption.

Southern Pulp May Lower Costs of U. S. Newspapers

Largely dependent on high-priced Canadian and Scandinavian mills for the millions of tons of newsprint it uses annually, the U. S. publishing industry has long been looking forward to the development in this country of a low-priced newsprint that would bring down production costs. Such a newsprint was successfully made and used in the South.

Responsible for the discovery of the new southern newsprint was the late Savannah, Ga., chemist, Charles H. Herty. Hoping to open up a rich, new industry that would speed the unfolding of the South's industrial wings, he began experimenting early in the thirties to find out whether commercial newsprint could be made from the common, fast-growing southern pine, already the foundation of the kraft paper industry (low-grade paper used to make some paper bags).

Herty discovered that it could, but he died in 1938 before mills could be built that could make the southern pine newsprint in commercial quantities. However, the Southern Newspaper Publishers' association sponsored construction of a mill based on the Herty process at Lufkin, Texas.

It was this mill—recently completed—that was turning out the new newsprint last week. Among the papers using it were the Shreveport (La.) Times; the Little Rock (Ark.) Democrat; the Lufkin Daily News (first to use the new paper); and the Dallas Morning News. Reports were that it met every expectation —that it fed evenly, took tension well, and reproduced pictures clearly.

Hardly had the success of the new southern newsprint been established when C. P. Winslow, director of the U. S. forest products laboratory in Madison, Wis., made the announcement that it could be produced even cheaper.

American Indians Used Modern Military Ideas

American Indians discovered and used some of the modern principles of military engineering long before the coming of the white man, according to Prof. W. Duncan Strong of the department of anthropology of Columbia university, who has reported on an extensive exploration of a prehistoric Indian fort with his associates.

Examining the remains of Indians who inhabited parts of South Dakota during the Seventeenth century, they arrived at the conclusion that the construction of the moat and stockade surrounding the fortified village made it apparent that they had some knowledge of engineering before their contact with European military.

The design of the fortification proved to be distinctly Indian, with the tribe living chiefly by farming. Their survey disclosed that approximately 4,500 Indians lived in a village surrounded by wooden stockades and a moat 1½ miles in circumference.

The explorers also discovered cache pits, evidently for the storage of corn and other food, dug in the floors and outside the houses. Hoes made of the shoulder-blades of buffaloes and charred corn showed that agriculture was practiced, while bone fish hooks and numerous bones of game animals indicated that hunting and fishing were also important economic activities.

Simple flesh burials were found as was pottery and other features connecting this village with the prehistoric ancestors of the Arikara and Pawnee Indians.

Sour Cream Substitute

When you need sour cream in a hurry to make something, don't despair. Take ordinary cream and add to it two teaspoonsful of lemon juice. Or you can use evaporated milk, in which case you add a teaspoonful of vinegar to each cup of milk.

Indirect Lighting Is Popular

Indirect lighting has become a popular form of illumination and from cellar to attic this type of lighting may be found. It may be used with equal success as a means of lighting the outside of a home. The entrance and front garden will be enhanced with light and the visitor will be able to locate the house with no trouble. A light so situated that it illuminates the walk between house and garage is doubly useful. Illuminated panels at the side of a doorway, or directly over it, will display the house number advantageously. In rainy weather it will prevent the visitor from stumbling in puddles or tripping on the bottom step.

80 ATTEND LEGION POST ARMISTICE BANQUET MONDAY

Blizzard Fails to Prevent Large Gathering from Attending Affair

Despite the fiercest blizzard in recent years, eighty members of Elmer J. Eckland post of the American Legion and auxiliary turned out Monday evening for an Armistice Day banquet and dancing party. The turkey dinner was served in the Civic and Commerce association rooms by wives of the Legionnaires and other women.

The program, over which W. E. Dahlquist presided as toastmaster, included the principal address by Dr. A. E. Jacobson, substituting ably for Elmer Eid of East Grand Forks, Ninth district commander, a history of the formation of Elmer J. Eckland post by J. J. McCann of Hibbing, first post commander; and brief talks by B. O. Norby of Minneapolis, former adjutant; Alex Cloutier, post commander; and Dr. A. R. Hulbert, adjutant.

Musical features included community singing led by H. M. Hitterdal, accompanied by Mrs. Helmer Carlson, and vocal solos by Mr. Hitterdal, accompanied by Mrs. Hitterdal.

LITTLE CHANCE FOR MEN TO BE DRAFTED BEFORE JANUARY 1ST

estimated the classification of 20 per cent of the registrants under the jurisdiction of each local board will be more than ample to fill these calls.

Attention has been called to numerous cases of registrants receiving information as to serial and order numbers from their local boards which do not concur with the list originally published by various newspapers throughout the country. Many registrants, feel, particularly when their boards assign them a lower order number than that which they had anticipated as a result of newspaper lists, that the local boards have made an error. This, however, is not the case. The order and serial numbers assigned to registrants by their local boards on small postcards received by every registrant are to be considered authentic and correct information regardless of any information received through newspapers or otherwise.

In the first place, in order to determine his order number, a registrant must know the exact number of registrants in his local board area. Without this information, he cannot accurately ascertain his order number. Order numbers must be assigned in sequence. No order number shall be skipped. Serial numbers on the national master list which are not held by any registrant of the particular local board are simply crossed off the national master list and ignored.

The Pennington county draft board made public the following statement addressed to registrants:

Mailing a questionnaire by the local board to the registrant is notice that the process of "classification and selection" with regard to that registrant has begun. Each day the board will post at its office a notice of the order numbers of the registrants to whom questionnaires have been mailed that day.

This local board keeps in its office a classification record. On this classification record will be entered the date each action is taken by this board or the board of appeal concerning each registrant. The entry of this date in the classification record is notice of the action taken. Other notice will be mailed to each registrant at his address last known by the local board, and to any other person who files a claim for him.

Either the mailing of a notice or the entry in the classification record of the date the notice was mailed shall constitute notice to the registrant and all concerned. This is true whether or not the mailed notice is actually received by the person to whom it is addressed.

LOSSES DECREASE IN STOCK HAUL BY RAIL

Truck delivery of livestock from farms to the South St. Paul market from 1928 through 1937 was accompanied by an increase in animal death losses, a Minnesota agricultural experiment station bulletin reports. The bulletin, reporting a comprehensive study of livestock transportation by A. A. Dowell and R. J. Eggert, also shows a decrease in death losses during the 10-year period for animals shipped by rail from farms to the South St. Paul market.

Teacher Training Notes

Our Hallowe'en party which was held Wednesday evening, October 31, was very successful. A large group attended, and the evening was spent playing games and making masks. A delicious lunch was served at the climax of the evening.

Last Friday the students of the training department started practice teaching in the second and third grade language classes in the city. We shall continue teaching until Thanksgiving. After our fifty minute period of practice teaching, we return to the Knox where we carry on our regular studies.

Since we are near the end of our second six weeks' period, we are making preparation for our six weeks' tests.

America's First Botanic Garden

George Washington, who cultivated limes, lemons and many decorative plants at Mount Vernon, recommended a botanic garden for the nation in 1796. His proposal received slight attention until 1820, when congress provided the Columbia Institute for the Promotion of Arts and Sciences with five acres of swamp land. Attempts at cultivation were not successful, and the project languished until 1842. That year saw the return of the Wilkes Exploring expedition, with rare plants from the Fiji, Sandwich and Society islands; New Zealand and South America. These were transferred successively to frames in 1841, to the first buildings of the garden after 1850, and to their present shelter in 1934.

HORNS PROVE ELK ONCE ROAMED STATE

Mahnomen— Considerable interest was aroused last week at Waubun where an enormous pair of elk horns were displayed in a local store. In a perfect state of preservation, the horns, having sixteen points and a four foot spread, were found by Fred Schmidt at Sucker Lake when he investigated what appeared to be a petrified stick a few inches above the water. The horns were nearly buried in the lake bed and it was with difficulty they were removed intact.

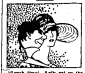
GREAT APPETITE



"Lunch time! Let's eat up the street."

"Are you as hungry as that?"

Immaterial

The deacon of a colored church invited the parson home for a Sunday dinner. During the meal the person said: "Brudder, dis is mighty good chicken. May I ax yo' where you got dis fowl?"

The Deacon: "Dat am an immaterial question; when yo' preaches a good sermon, I don't ax yo' where yo' gits it."

Sure Sign

The boy friend dropped around at his girl's house. As he ran up the steps, he met her little brother.

"Hi, Bill."

"Hi," said the brat.

"Is your sister expecting me?"

"Yeah."

"How do you know?"

"She's gone out!"

Popular Speech

Hotfoot—Old Borely, the after-dinner speaker, seems to have made a tremendous hit. I never heard an audience clap so much. What did he say?

Coldfoot—He said to them that he would not go on until they quieted down.

Honest Boy

Mr. Brown—You're a very honest boy; but it was a $10 bill I dropped—not 10 ones.

Johnnie—I know, mister, but the last time I found a $10 bill, the man didn't have any change.

Turn-About Business

Nit—Hey, Bill!

Bill—Yes; what is it?

Nit—The doctor's out there with a tire that needs fixing.

Bill—Diagnose the case as flatulency of the perimeter and charge him $5.

Drunken Wild Birds

Wild birds around Bend, Ore., get drunk. They eat juniper berries, which are used commercially to give the distinctive flavor to gin, and then drink plenty of water. The mixture apparently sends them on jags, for they fly erratically for many hours after.

Whisky-Jack

Cheekiest thing in feathers beyond any question, is the gray bird known variously as whisky-jack, camp-robber, meat-bird and (more correctly) Canada jay. He is as great a thief as his noisier and gaudier cousin the bluejay. He'll steal your food or camp cutlery from under your very nose, chuckling and talking gently the while, as though it were all just a good joke. Yet this picaresque rogue is popular in the Big Woods; any Canadian camp cook will tell you it's good luck to have a whisky-jack around.

Northwest Farmers sell us their finest barley to give HAMM'S BEER
EXTRA GRAIN GOODNESS

LAST year our partner, the Northwest Farmer, sold us direct over a million bushels of his choicest barley ... to give Hamm's Beer extra grain goodness.

Then we malted it in our own giant plant, so every step was under watchful control. Each batch of malted barley was certified "properly aged" to produce the full richness of the malt.

See what a difference in flavor this finer barley gives—ask for Hamm's "Smooth and Mellow." Theo. Hamm Brewing Co., St. Paul, Minn.

PRES. ROOSEVELT SETS NOV. 21ST AS THANKSGIVING DAY

Minnesota Is Included in States to Conform to Early Observance

President Roosevelt last week-end proclaimed Thursday, Nov. 21, as Thanksgiving day and declared that in these times of calamity and sorrow elsewhere in the world "may we give thanks for our preservation."

It was the second time the chief executive had set Thanksgiving a week earlier than the customary last Thursday in November, which this year falls on Nov. 28. In 1939 he said it was done to benefit merchants by providing a longer interval between the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.

Two-thirds of the states including Minnesota, have signified they will observe the Nov. 21 date this year.

Former Postmaster at Warren Passes Monday

A. B. Nelson, who had lived in Warren longer than any other resident, died at the Warren hospital Monday morning about 10:30 o'clock following a stroke on November 4. Mr. Nelson, who had passed his 80th birthday, had lived in Warren since 1878, coming to the city before the railroad. He has been one of the city's most active leaders during his entire period of residence and has held every major office that the citizens could honor him with. He is also a former county official and was postmaster for the city through the Republican administrations following the World War. Funeral services will be conducted at the First Methodist church this afternoon with Rev. C. E. Haynes, pastor of the church, officiating.

NOTHING EXTRA

The woman sitting in the specialist's waiting room was portly.

At a summons from an attendant, she rose and waddled into the specialist's sanctum. The doctor threw up his hands in horror.

"My good woman!" he exclaimed, "you are stouter than ever! Have you been following the treatment I prescribed? Are you quite sure that you ate exactly what I ordered?"

"Everything," replied the patient.

"And nothing else?"

"Nothing whatever," she replied, "except, of course, my ordinary meals."

CHAMBERLAIN A FAILURE?

Neville Chamberlain, a man of peace, died, by his own standards, a failure. He had sought to avert war by appeasement. Under his leadership his country had yielded to the pressure of the dictators. Later developments proved the futility of such a policy in dealing with men to whom treaties and promises meant nothing. The appeasement policy might have been justified as a means of delaying a war for which the British were not prepared. But when the war inevitably came, Chamberlain failed also as a war leader. When he finally was replaced by a more aggressive man, Britain hovered on the brink of disaster. And so he retired, broken hearted, to his death.

And yet it is possible that history may find in Chamberlain's failures the roots of Democracy's ultimate triumph. If England survives this war it will be because the people of the British Empire remain united in the struggle. They would not be united as they are today if they were not satisfied that every effort had been made to avert war. An Eden would have had the support of a large block of the people but there were many who considered Eden too rash. When Chamberlain finally declared for war, freedom loving people everywhere knew that there was no alternative for the English people. They knew that every effort to secure an honorable peace had been exhausted.

To what extent the disasters of the first year of the war should be attributed to Chamberlain's leadership is a question for the experts to consider but we doubt that even a Churchill could have done much better under the circumstances. It required the shocks of the Norwegian invasion and the downfall of France to arouse the English people to a realization that they really were at war.

Chamberlain, dead, may prove to be a greater leader than Chamberlain alive. Certainly it cannot be said that he failed until the cause he championed has failed and as long as the love of freedom still lives in the hearts of men, that cause will not have failed.

City engineer Irving Quist has prepared a map, you will see a reproduction of it on the front page, that offers a sensible solution to the city's approach problem from the south on the east side of the river. According to his plan this road should cut south from the old bridge, which should be a new bridge by that time, across the mill yard and the horseshoe and then proceed, west of the cemetery, to the present north and south grade. Chief advantages are that it would shorten the distance and eliminate two railroad crossings. There is little reason to believe that this proposal will become a reality immediately but there is merit in the suggestion that the new approach should be definitely located and planned at once, to be built when money becomes available.

Yes, the annual Red Cross drive is underway again, a worthy cause that deserves universal support. We are not worrying about how the organization uses its funds. Under the circumstances of course we would not like to have our contribution serve as an indirect aid to Hitler but we are not worried about it because the Red Cross is managed by capable officers who know their business. We will depend on them to use good judgment. Certainly the need for the work of this organization is greater than ever.

Because of the war there is little importation of European cheese but that doesn't mean we are going to face a cheese famine. On the contrary it is causing a greater development of our own cheese industry, many of the trick European cheeses being imitated by our own cheesemakers. Right here in Minnesota a good imitation of the French Roquefort is being turned out, the processing being done in caves along the Mississippi river. So far we have heard of no American substitute for ludefisk.

Now that the election is over, we will register our vote in favor of the pre-election polls that are conducted during each presidential campaign. If they serve no good purpose, neither do they do any harm. But they are interesting and make the elections more interesting. The polls conducted in this last election came fairly close in predicting the results. Elmo Roper, conducting the Fortune poll, is credited with the greatest accuracy, being less than one per cent off in the totals. The Gallup poll, which received most publicity, was also close.

We don't need to wonder any longer about when winter is going to arrive. It blew in like a Hitler blitzkrieg Monday. We hope the first storm of the season isn't just a sample of what's coming later.

Now is a good time for parents to impress upon their young sons the fact that there is a lot of cold water just underneath the thin coat of ice that covers the river.

Wendell Willkie made a more favorable impression by his talk Monday than he had by any of his pre-election campaign speeches. Even some of the leaders of the opposition commented agreeably on his remarks.

It is not at all discouraging to hear that Italy is having a lot of trouble in Greece. Experts attribute Italy's failure to the half hearted attitude of the Italian people, who, they say, do not like the war. If their recent performances are an indication of their actual capacity then Mussolini may prove to be a liability rather than an asset to Hitler.

Monday's storm brought a poor duck hunting season to a discouraging end. Many ducks and geese have passed over but local hunters have gotten few of them. Prospects for the deer season are encouraging, however, and so the hunters, who always thrive on good prospects, are cheerful again.

Explosions in three powder factories in one day, in fact within an hour of each other, are bound to raise a suspicion that their cause was not accidental.

ON GOOD BEHAVIOR
(Minneapolis Tribune)

Just before election, there were official senate inquiries into the voting practices of Chicago and the state of New Jersey. There were allegations that registration lists had been padded in wholesale style, that "ghosts" had been voted by thousands, and that some of the vote counting was peculiar. The Kelly-Nash boys in Chicago, and Mayor Hague in Jersey City, boiled with indignation at the aspersions on their honor. The New Jersey registration lists were purged of many dead names; otherwise nothing was done.

The effect of the publicity was salutary, nevertheless. In the Chicago wards to which attention had been directed, the Republican votes showed nearly a 50 per cent increase. Though Mr. Roosevelt did not carry the state, Dwight Green was elected governor of Illinois and he goes in with a pledge to root out rottenness in Chicago. In Jersey City the Democratic majority was reduced by 65,-000. At the same time, Republican majorities in south Jersey, where that party was also under accusation of wrong doing, were reduced.

When the heat is on, the gentry who thrive by various illegal practices always pass the word around to "lay off", and give at least the appearance of complying with the law for a while. The recent investigations did some good temporarily. That the benefits will be permanent is too much to expect. Eternal vigilance is the price of honest elections.

Well, anyway, folks no longer have to worry about Governor Stassen accepting a cabinet post under Wendell Willkie and leaving the state government in the hands of young Lieutenant Governor C. Elmer Anderson.

A Red Cross would dress up your home just now.

One robin doesn't make a spring, says a colleague, adding that one lark is often responsible for a fall.

Better buy two Thanksgiving turkeys this month. The traditional holiday falls on November 28, while President Roosevelt and Governor Stassen have proclaimed the observance on November 21.

This is being observed nationally as Education Week, and most folks will agree that the American people still have a few things to learn.

In spite of Michigan's Harmon, there was complete harmony for Minnesota rooters in the outcome of that football game last Saturday in Minneapolis.

With the deer hunting season opening Friday, war now comes to Northern Minnesota.

If that much desired national unity is to be achieved, we trust the president will give due consideration to the fact that 45 per cent of the votes were cast for the opposing candidate.

American Anglophiles, we read, are doing their bit by drinking twice as much Scotch whiskey as usual.

Baron von Pantz is visiting in New York, and we suppose he has a coat-of-arms.

1930—TEN YEARS AGO

Inattention, Not Old Age

If your memory is poor, it is not because you are "getting on" in years, but because you are more attentive to other interests, away from the immediate environment, according to a scientific study recently made.

How often has "my most embarrassing moment" come to you because you didn't remember the name of a companion, that you knew as well as your own name? It was because your mind and eye were filled with such a number of things that the name was temporarily lost.

To remedy the situation, the study report states, concentrate more on the immediate presence and forget interests of the past. Then you won't have to offer the apology, "I am getting old, I can't remember names any more."

Had No Pin

There is a story told about the early years when Thomas Edison was at Menlo Park. The electrical wizard surrounded himself with every necessity to carry on his work, and he felt proud of his equipment. On one occasion he offered a prize to anyone who could suggest any article which was useful in his work, and which was not to be found in his laboratory. A young fellow won the prize by suggesting the use of a pin; Edison did not have a pin in his workshop at the time.

Salesgirls in Bombay

Girls are replacing men in business houses in Bombay, India, and it is not due to war conditions. Business men have discovered that sales girls are more efficient and are more popular. The popularity of the sales girls is such that they have increased by nearly 50 per cent in a year.

PUBLIC OPINION

To The Editor:

In your last issue of the Times you again take a rap at a pension plan and since the only pension plan that has a nation wide following, with membership running into millions, is the Townsend Plan, I take it your rap is intended particularly for that Plan. Among the statements you make, I find: "Whatever the government gives to the people it must take from the people". From this statement, it is clear to me that while your aim appears to be at the Townsend Plan, you have not come within a thousand miles of it for the reason that the Townsend National Recovery Plan does not ask, nor expect the government to advance or invest one penny in the payment of pensions. All we ask the government to do is to set up the machinery that will utilize a dormant force within our borders a dormant buying, business making, employing agency that will not only pay its own way in every respect but will leave an amount to be applied to reduce the national debt. Your editorial is followed by an article by Dr. V. O. Watts. The article is made up of nonsensical statements where it touches the pension subject. Time forbids my offering you for publication a more complete statement on the two articles but I will offer a further statement for your next issue.

Respectfully yours,
T. J. Welsh.,

Maximum Eye Sensitivity Effected by Dim Lighting

When a person emerges from a brilliantly lighted room into a dimly lighted room, it takes his eyes a little time to adjust themselves to the new conditions of seeing. But after a few minutes the more prominent objects become distinct and vision becomes cleared up. This results, says the Better Vision Institute, because the sensitivity of the retina increases. Eyes attain maximum sensitivity after they have been shaded completely from all light for about 30 to 40 minutes. In that condition they are "dark adapted" and they can see a thousand times more clearly in dim light than can eyes just leaving a brilliantly lighted room.

However, "dark adapted" eyes cannot distinguish colors easily. A spectrum produced by feeble illumination appears colorless. The band of the spectrum that is green in ordinary light appears gray. Under these conditions vision is called "twilight vision." If the illumination is increased, the eyes soon become light-adapted and the spectrum is seen clearly in all its colors of the rainbow.

It is because of twilight vision that the colors in a landscape appear differently as the sun goes down than they do in the middle of the day. As the light dims the reds lose their color first and appear black. The blues next fade, and finally the greens become gray.

New Built-In Furniture Is Rising in Popularity

Built-in furniture, points out a housing expert, is steadily increasing in popularity.

In planning a built-in corner cupboard, upholstered wall seat, or some other piece of furniture, the home owner should decide well in advance about such important details as what fillers, finishing materials and colors to use.

According to an authority on hardwood finishing, it is important that the right fillers be used in accordance with the color and consistency desired, and also that the filler be wiped at the proper time.

A filler is basically a mineral pigment such as an asbestos compound, silica, whiting, or clay, bound together with a small amount of vehicle and thinned with gasoline or mineral spirits.

There are many finishing materials. Among those most often used are white and orange shellac, rubbing varnish and spar varnish.

Because there is such a wide choice of colors and demands vary so greatly, each home owner should select the color for his built-in pieces so that they will be in harmony with the general style of the room.

National Parks Service Bans Windshield Stickers

The national park service, as a highway safety measure, is co-operating with state and local governments in efforts to abate the increasing tendency of motorists to cover their windshields with stickers. Issuance of stickers to motorists visiting the national parks and other areas in the federal parks system as evidence that they have paid the required entrance fees has been discontinued, Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes has announced.

Widespread distribution of commercial stickers in addition to those indicating the automobiles had passed state inspection and those issued by the national park service to show a fee had been paid, has greatly increased traffic hazards, park service officials point out. Some state and local governments have declared the use of all but official stickers to be unlawful.

This action is in line with recommendations of the American Safety council, the American Automobile association, the American Planning and Civic association, and similar organizations.

Realizing the tendency of travelers to take the world into their confidence as to their journeys, as evidenced by the sticker-covered luggage of trans-Atlantic travelers in particular, the national park service is now making efforts to find a practical and acceptable substitute, as well as to meet the demand of the average tourist to have visual evidence that he has "been places."

Vegetables Are Grown Using 'Bathtub' Culture

Henry Glair, a Florida farmer, is taking up hydroponic—water culture—farming on a big scale.

He has built 12 huge tanks of wood in which he hopes to produce a diversified vegetable crop ordinarily grown in the field.

The tanks are covered with a small wire mesh that holds moss and similar substances as supports for plants, which will grow in a nutrient solution. Roots of the plants will reach down into the tanks. The bottoms of the tanks are covered with cinders as an added support for plants.

According to Glair the theory of what is humorously called "bathtub farming" is fairly simple:

"A plant gets its growth, flavor and fragrance from sunlight; and air from the chemicals carried in the soil. The soil merely acts as a support for the plant and provides it with a part of the chemicals that it needs. Soil itself may even be detrimental in that it may contain elements that retard instead of promote growth. So, theoretically speaking, if we give a plant mechanical support, heat, sunlight, air and water containing the proper plant food, the plant ought to grow."

Woodsmen Go West

The westward shift of the lumber industry is reflected in a forest service compilation of mill production from 1800 to the present time. Over the entire period the East has supplied more than four-fifths of the American lumber, three-fourths of which was softwoods and one-fourth hardwoods. At present, however, nearly half the lumber cut is from the western softwoods, which include Douglas fir, ponderosa pine, white pines, hemlock, spruce, and redwood. The central region has supplied more than 40 per cent of the hardwoods. The cut from 1900 to 1935 was more than half the cut for the previous century, but the mill value for the 35 years was considerably greater than half of the $38,000,000,000 which was the total estimated mill value of the cut for 135 years.

Invention of Gas Mask

Each type of gas mask has a distinct field of usefulness and is covered by a multitude of patents, most of which have expired. In the United States the first patent on an air purification type of gas mask was United States patent No. 329, issued to Haslett in 1849. The first patent on a self-contained breathing apparatus was United States patent No. 7476, issued in 1850 to Lane. The first hose mask patent was No. 16363, issued in 1857 to Nelson. Gas mask development thus goes back many years and is indebted to many individuals.

Movie Fans Miss Nothing

Movie fans are quite inquisitive souls according to Hollywood editors. Queries by the thousands stack their desks, about this and that. And some, with little patience, grab the phone to get the reason, or the answer.

Musical questions have increased, they say, which gives some evidence that the screen is filling some of the need for musical appreciation. One studio said that it received 15,000 inquiries about "The Unfinished Symphony," allegedly played in a recent picture.

Then there are the fans who see a face on the screen whom they think resembles a long-missing relative and write in for enlightenment. And the boner-hunters who find things wrong, or think they do, about historical or geographical incidents.

And for those who understand foreign dialects, but can't make them out on the screen, one studio informs them not to rack their brains, as a great deal of it is merely gibberish, and doesn't mean a thing.

Slot Machines and Art

People as a whole are unwilling to devote adequate time, energy and money to furthering cultural development, according to Alonzo Victor Lewis, famous sculptor and painter of the Northwest. He has suggested something rather unique and certainly original, as a means of developing curiosity and interest in art.

His suggestion is that paintings in public halls be veiled as they hang on the walls of public halls and that beside each painting there be placed a penny or nickel slot machine. As the coin is dropped in, the veil will lift, showing the painting to the coin owner for a couple of minutes. "After all," he explained, "artists must live—just like everyone else."

Sacred Human Head

Wild Rice Goes High Hat

Some years back wild rice was primarily the food of the mallard and the Chippewa. Today this wild grain of shallow lakes has gone high hat. It has moved from the wigwam to the stylish restaurants. Once all of it that was used was cooked by squaws. Now chefs with white aprons and caps serve it. Wild rice was once processed by the primitive methods of the Indian. Now making it ready for market is an industry with equipment and capital.

Motor Travel Expenditures

Last year motor travel expenditures amounted to $5,000,000,000. Of this amount it is estimated that $1,000,000,000 was spent for gasoline, oil repairs and garaging; $1,000,000,000 for sleeping accommodations, $1,250,000,000 for camping supplies, souvenirs and incidental purchases; $1,050,000,000 for meals, $400,000,000 for golf, theaters and other amusements, and $300,000,000 for pop, hot dogs and other refreshments along the way.

SAFER ROADS will decrease accidents!

Three Essentials of a Safe Road

MODERN ROADWAY DESIGN
Highway engineers know how to make roads safe by easing sharp turns, eliminating dangerous grade crossings, by providing ample widths, long "sight distance," AND a safe pavement surface.

SURE NON-SKID SURFACE
The safety answer is concrete—skid-resistant, wet or dry—durable, true of surface, free from bumps, ruts, waves and other accident-breeding defects.

UTMOST VISIBILITY
Concrete's light-colored surface reflects light without glare; makes headlights more efficient. Helps the driver see better.

* * *

CONCRETE SAVES—not only lives, but money. Concrete costs less to build than other pavements of equal load-carrying capacity. And far less to maintain than less enduring surfaces.

Refinishing Home Floors

The first thing to be done to wood floors that are to be refinished is to clean them thoroughly with a solution of lye. Then any ridges or rough places should be scraped down and a stain applied. If the flooring is edge grained, the stain should be combined with a filler, and after that the wax may be applied direct. Generally about three coats are necessary, as it is quickly absorbed by the wood. Shellac or floor varnish may be used before the wax if desired.

SO. ST. PAUL LIVESTOCK

(By U. S. Department of Agricultural Economics and Minnesota Department of Agriculture)

South St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 12, 1940: Tuesday's cattle trade was virtually suspended. The worst storm in history for this time of the year paralyzed most transportation facilities and only a few head of livestock were able to get through the drifted roads. Even on Monday conditions were not much better when a driving rain made cattle trading a difficult task. The weather did step in and put a halt to the declining tendencies that were in force late last week. Prices on most killing classes were unevenly steady to 25c higher than the close of last week. There was not much trade Tuesday, but included was a sale of 15 good mediumweight steers at $12.00. Common and medium heifers were quoted at $6.00 to $8.50; common and medium cows $5.50 to $6.25; good cows $6.50 to $7.25 and canners and cutters $4.00 to $5.25. Good and choice vealers bulked Monday at $8.00 to $9.50 with strictly choice $10.00. Stockers and feeder steers held steady, good western yearlings reaching $9.00. Stock calves lost fully 50c because of the weather.

Hog trading opened the week on a basis steady to 5c higher than last week's close, with the advance applied to good and choice barrows and gilts scaling from 200-300 lb. which sold mainly at $5.90. Other weights butchers and sows remained steady, barrows and gilts above 270 lb. selling downward to $5.75, while 180-200 lb. offerings cleared at $5.75 to $5.90. Good and choice 160-180 lb. kinds sold at $5.50 to $5.80, with 140-160 lb. light lights getting $5.00 to $5.50. Good sows of all weights cleared at $5.60 straight. Feeder pigs were slow and continued to sell in a range of $4.25 to $4.75, mostly $4.25 to $4.50. Due to strong conditions, Tuesday's run was too small to make a market and the few available sold steady with Monday.

Slaughter lamb prices followed an uneven trend the first two days of the week but, all in all, they averaged about like last Friday. However, the price spread was narrowed down to largely $9.15 Tuesday on good to choice native and Dakota lambs as compared with numerous lots at $9.00 the close of last week and this indicates some strength on just good kinds. At the same time the top price was 10c lower at $9.25 on a few loads of killer lambs to shippers. Slaughter ewe values strengthened slightly with good to choice handyweights making $3.75 to $4.10. Other classes held generally steady with the close of last week.

Local Men Make Unusual Journey to Minneapolis in Blizzard This Week

Postmaster Andrew Anderson and Stanton R. Dahlen had an unusual experience in the blizzard early this week. Boarding the Minneapolis-bound Soo Line train at the height of the storm, they retired to their sleeping car berths and went to sleep, expecting to awaken as they approached Minneapolis. Their astonishment can be imagined when they woke up Tuesday morning and looked out of the window, only to be confronted by the familiar Thief River Falls scenery. They then learned that the train had been held up in this city, owing to a blockade on the line farther south. The train finally started on its journey Tuesday morning at 10:30.

OPEN SEASON FOR DEER HUNTING TO START ON FRIDAY

All of Pennington County Is Included in Open Area for 10-Day Hunt

Minnesota with its estimated deer population of 330,000 will have an open season of 11 days this year, Friday, November 15 to Monday, November 25 inclusive. Minnesota territory open to hunting was extended southward somewhat compared with two years ago. All of Pennington county is included in the open area this year. Surveys showed the white-tails have spread downward from the former hunting ranges considerable distances and are present in good numbers in many new localities.

Many conflicting reports about the number of deer in Minnesota have been received. Some say they are overcrowded, others deny it and in the final analysis the report of this year's kill will probably determine who was right.

The department of conservation this week renewed its appeal for a "safe and sane" hunting season and advanced to sportsmen a three-point plan for preventing gunshot accidents.

1. Be hunting safety-conscious; talk and act in terms of safety.

2. When hunting, make others in your party safety conscious by appointing one member as overseer to see that no accidents are invited by carelessness.

3. Shun a careless gunner like the plague; regard every gun as loaded, even after shells are extracted.

Bean Production Decrease

United States bean production decreased last year by almost 2,000,000 bags.

STATES-DOMINION LEAGUE OFFICIALS PLAN FOR HOCKEY

Meet in Crookston Friday; Beverly Again to Play with Locals

Officials of the States-Dominion hockey league in a meeting at Crookston last Friday discussed plans for the approaching season. From all indications it appears that the league this year will be a four team circuit, with Crookston, Grafton, Thief River Falls, and Hallock being the member teams.

A proposal to have the league teams include a certain number of local players in their lineups was given some consideration, but Grafton announced that it did not have any local talent available. It is expected though, that the Crookston and Thief River clubs will make use of some of their local boys.

The local hockey situation made considerable progress last week when George Beverly, in a telephone conversation with Art Senstad, agreed to play with the local sextet this winter. In addition to Bev., it is probable that the 'three Mars boys'—Popiel, Novak, and Kornek—will return. Other players will be signed when a definite announcement has been issued by the league officials as to the salary scale that is to be followed this season.

Potato Improvement Group Names Officers

Paul Horn of Moorhead Thursday was elected president of the Minnesota Red River Valley Potato Improvement association, succeeding Herman Skyberg of Fisher. Ingvald Hanson of Twin Valley was named vice president and Don Peet of Moorhead, secretary. Moorhead was awarded the 1941 show. The officers were named by the new directors who were elected Thursday at East Grand Forks.

Rites for Cloutier Infant Held Wednesday

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 12:30 at the St. Bernard Church for Mary Helen Cloutier, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cloutier, who was born Tuesday, November 12 and lived but a few minutes. Father Merth conducted the services and interment was made in the church cemetery.

MAMMOTH GOURD IN MILK CAN

Sleepy Eye—Other things besides milk are kept in milk cans says Herman Essig farmer; gourds for instance. In a fence corner of a half acre garden on the Essig farm stood a discarded milk can last spring. Came the growing season and came a gourd vine. Into the can it crept and late this summer Mr. Juni discovered a mammoth gourd had formed inside the can, so large in fact that since the gourd's bottom is much larger than the can's top, the two are as inseparable as Siamese twins. Together they weigh 36 pounds.

BURIED 38 YEARS WATCH STILL RUNS

Browns Valley— After lying dormant for 38 years, a pocket watch which had been placed in the casket with G. Rank nearly 40 years ago was uncovered last week when the remains of four bodies were moved to a new resting place. In excellent condition, the watch kept almost perfect time when wound and the case, although slightly discolored, could be made to look like new with a little polishing. By a strange coincidence, the watch had stopped at exactly 2:13 which was the exact time it was found.

Smoker Is Chief Forest Peril

Man, and chiefly his cigarette, was responsible for 97 per cent of the forest fires that have denuded millions of acres of land in the Lakes States timber area since 1928. That is the conclusion of Dr. Raphael Zon, University of Minnesota forestry official, in a report analyzing some 73,740 forest fires over Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota. Chief causes of forest fires were listed as smokers, 34 per cent; debris and brush burning, 20 per cent; incendiarism, 10 per cent; campers, 7 per cent; railroads, 6 per cent; and lumbering, 1 per cent.

SPORTS Tid-Bits

By Huck Olson

Some Fine Averages

It seems to me that compared with the averages of last year at this time, the city bowlers have added about five or ten pins to their averages. Here are the five high average bowlers in the league bowling on the Mint alleys, listing only those bowlers who have rolled ten or more league games: City League— John Langseth 180, Kammy Berg 180, Wally DuChamp 179, Vern Williams 176, and Wally Carlson 176; Commercial League—Harold Colvin 180, Wally Carlson 176, Johnny Jaranson 173, George Larson 169, and Earl Effinger 168. Business League—John Langseth 200, Gay Strong 183, Vern Williams 176, Leo Aanstad 175, and Stan Cockrell 173; Women's City League—Edna Lee 154, Jule Michaels 149, Gladys Grovum 140, Lee Ristau 138, Dolores Urdahl 132, and Irene Kiewel 132.

Notice those averages in the Women's City League, with Edna Lees' 154 being the high.

And Wally DuChamp wants to make a wager with me that he will be the high average bowler in the City League before the season is much farther along. He's got his hook ball working on the Mint alleys now, or so he claims. Maybe I should take this wager of Wally's, and then make some bets with Kammy, Snort, Bob, Harold, Morky and Gay that Wally will be the league leader. But wager or no wager, Wally will have plenty of competition.

Ole Engelstad, with his 115 average, challenges Walt Larson, with his 113 average, to a three game match, the loser to give the winner a hamburger lunch. And Ole is to give Walt two pins a game, the difference in their averages.

Morky Jaranson is Tough

My nomination for the fellow that's a little bit more than medium tough goes to Morky Jaranson. Last Sunday, out duck hunting up the Red Lake river, and you know what kind of a day it was, Morky stripped off his clothes, broke ice, and waded into the river to retrieve a mallard duck that he had shot. Earlier in the day he had lost two or three ducks in the river and he became so exasperated that he promised himself that he would get the next duck he shot even if he had to go into the ice-filled river to get it, and he kept his promise. Asked if he wasn't afraid that he would catch double or triple pneumonia, Morky answered that the water was so cold that the pneumonia bugs were frozen stiff.

Tommy Carlisle Honored

The Prowlers played through their football schedule without an elected captain, it being the practice of Coach Lindenmeyer to appoint a game captain before each contest. In fact, for the Warren game the Prowlers had our captains on the field, Flasch, Parbat, Carlisle and Peterson. But last week the Prowler football lettermen elected Tommy Carlisle captain of this season's conference championship team. And Tommy well merits the honor of captain, for he was one of the most efficient and hardest-working members on the squad.

Basketball

Coach Lindenmeyer has been sending the Prowler basketball squad through intensive drills this past week, but prospects for a championship season does not appear very bright. So far the only man that is definitely considered a first team player is Eddie Flasch at a forward; the other positions on the team are still open. Lindenmeyer did set up a first string that had Flasch and Don Berg at the forwards, Tommy Carlisle and Babe Peterson at the guards, and Orrin Pederson at center, but this lineup is only tentative. Johnny Parbat looks like fine guard prospect, being an able ball handler and having enough size to handle rebounds. And Armand Pederson, with a bit more experience and scrappiness, is going to be a useful fellow to have on the squad.

12-POUND RADISH GROWN

Olivia—A white winter radish which attained enormous proportions was dug up recently in the Henry Yunker garden in Olivia. Long in shape and very solid, the over-sized vegetable weighed a good 12 pounds.

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

COUNTIES RECEIVE BIG ROAD AID SUM IN PAST 20 YEARS

Received 113 Million Total for Construction and Maintenance

Minnesota's 87 counties have received back from the state, in the form of financial assistance for local road improvements and maintenance since 1921 when the trunk highway system was established, a total of more than $113,000,000.

These financial benefits include gasoline tax and 1-mill road and bridge fund allotments and reimbursements for county highway bonds issued to improve county roads which later became part of the state trunk system.

A compilation recently completed by the state highway department's financial division for Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffman shows the counties have received, in a little less than 20 years, from state-collected revenue sources, the following sums:

Gas tax allotments (1-3 from June 1, 1929, to July 1, 1940)	$ 44,716,344
One-mill tax allotments (1921 to July 1, 1940)	32,843,636
County highway bonds assumed by state since 1921	35,982,430
	$113,042,410

These itemized county road benefits do not include any of the direct federal grants for emergency work projects, matched federal aid secondary funds or unmatched funds for grade separation structures off trunk highways. Nor do they include any of the financial savings accruing to counties as a result of their having been relieved of the burden and responsibility for maintaining and improving both the 7,000 miles of county roads incorporated into the trunk highway system by constitutional amendment in 1921, and the additional 4,500 miles of remaining heavily travelled roads which were added to the trunk system by legislative action in 1933.

Although the gasoline tax was first levied for trunk highway improvements in 1925, the state did not share it with the counties until 1929, when the legislature, following a new constitutional amendment allotted a one-third share of all net collections back to the counties for improvement of local county-aid or so-called gas tax roads.

The one-mill tax is a levy against all real estate in the state, the revenues from which have been allotted back to the counties for maintenance and construction on their so-called state aid roads. Since 1921 a total of $17,850,052 of this fund has been used for construction and $14,993,584 for maintenance.

State Tourist Bureau Gets 33,690 Requests for Data Past Season

Up to Oct. 1, the state tourist bureau had received and answered this year 33,690 requests for information about what Minnesota has to offer the tourist, the records of the bureau show, it was announced this week by Victor A. Johnston, director of the bureau.

This was an increase of 50 per cent of the 1939 total—23,204—and the largest number ever handled by the bureau in one year. It has grown from 2,176 in 1934; 6,818 in 1935; 10,224 in 1936; 15,204 in 1937 and 17,695 in 1938.

These inquiries came from every state in the Union, Alaska, District of Columbia, Canada and several foreign countries. Two were from Alaska, 68 from District of Columbia, 336 from Canada and 61 from other countries, while 3,903 Minnesotans contributed to the record breaking correspondence.

PLUMMER SCHOOL TEACHERS NEARLY FROZEN IN STORM

Two Young Women Stranded in Automobile on Highway Monday Night

Two Plummer school teachers were found huddled together in a car five miles south of Crookston where they had been for many hours during the Monday snowstorm.

They are Luverne Arneson of McVille, N. D., and Marjorie Menge of Finley.

The two young women had been at their homes for the week end and were attempting to get back to Plummer. Their brakes locked about 5 p. m. Monday, they said, and they found themselves stranded with the storm gaining force hourly.

They kept their car engine running to keep warm until the gasoline supply gave out an hour later and from then on until they were discovered by a passing motorist from Roseau at 10 a. m. Tuesday, they struggled to keep from freezing.

When they seemed certain of being stranded for the night they wrapped themselves in extra clothing they had in their suitcases and a blanket and took turns rubbing each other.

When they were found neither had been frozen, but snow had drifted into their car so that it was almost level with the rear cushion. They were brought to Crookston and later taken to Thief River Falls in a car. They went from there by train to Plummer.

Wit and Humor

IT SHOULD HELP

The home-team's center-forward was off form. Time and time again he was given a pass right in front of the goal, but on each occasion he either miskicked or sent the ball flying over the crossbar.

When he eventually failed to score a goal from a penalty kick the patience of the crowd reached breaking point.

"Hi!" cried an infuriated home-team spectator. "Here's a half-penny stamp that you want."

"What do I want that for?" asked the puzzled center-forward.

"T' stick on the ball so's it'll go through the post quicker," came the reply.

Orthography Gone Mad

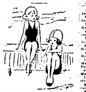
David, who just recently started going to school, feels that any combination of letters should spell a word. He had been coming in and asking his mother what "obl" or "wpe" might spell. Each time mother's answer had been "nothing."

"Mother," he said later, "what does n-n-g spell?"

"Nothing," replied mother, as usual.

"Boy!" David exclaimed, "I never saw so many ways to spell 'nothing' in all my life."

INDISPENSABLE



"I don't think I could live without George."

"Really?"

"Not unless I could have Teddy."

Not Eligible

Little Johnny came home crying.

"What be the matter, lad?" asked his grandfather.

"Billy won't play Red Indians with me!" wailed the boy.

"Never mind," said his grandfather, hoping to please the child. "I'll play Red Indians with you instead."

Johnny stayed his tears and looked thoughtfully at his grandfather's bald head.

"No, you won't do," he said. "you've been scalped already."

Slack Reply

"Send them back to repair."

Buckler Is Reelected to Congressional Seat in Very Close Contest

Re-election of Richard T. Buckler, Crookston, lone Farmer-Labor member in the United States house of representatives, was conceded Thursday by Colvin G. Butler, Fergus Falls, Buckler's Republican opponent.

Returns coming in slowly from the outlying precincts of the ninth Minnesota congressional district revealed a neck-and-neck battle between the two candidates with Frank R. Timm, Democrat, running a poor third.

Thursday, with only three of the 622 precincts in the district unreported, Buckler had 48,511 votes to 48,182 for his opponent, a difference of 329.

Thus the Republicans will have eight seats in the house for the next two years, having defeated the only Democrat, Elmer J. Ryan, in the second district.

$6,400,000 Suspension Bridge Falls at Tacoma

The elements won in the battle for the $6,400,000 Narrows bridge at Tacoma, Washington, and the floor of the world's third longest suspension span lay in Puget Sound today. But man and his science will try again.

Agitated and twisted by a wind of gale proportions, the colossal structure, which only four months ago was dedicated as a monument to engineering science, crumbled, then collapsed with a mighty roar Thursday, into the white-crested waves of the sound.

There was no loss of human life. Two men—an engineer and a newspaperman—who were on the bridge when it began to twist violently, miraculously escaped, even as sections of the floor began hurtling into the waters 200 feet below.

13 Deaths First Week of November Threaten Editors' Safety Goal

Thirteen traffic deaths in the first week of November have put Minnesota public safety officials, and newspaper editors cooperating in the state's "Save 100 Lives" campaign, squarely up against necessity for redoubled traffic safety efforts if they are to keep motor vehicle and pedestrian fatalities within the limits of the quota they have set for themselves between now and January 1.

The tragic car-truck collision near Pipestone on November 6, which took the lives of six adults and three children, leaving not one single survivor alive to tell the story, brought the traffic death toll for the first seven days of November to exactly one-fourth of the quota set for the entire 30 days of the month. This figure also leaves no allowance for those injured during this seven-day period who may later succumb.

Safety councils, peace officers, highway patrolmen, and editors were encouraged during the first two months of their 13-month "Save 100 Lives" campaign by the fact that the death toll of September and October was held down to 54 and 57 fatalities respectively. Although deaths may still result from October mishaps, these recorded fatalities are one below the fixed quota for each month, and 22 below the number of fatalities occurring during the same two months of 1939.

The late fall and early winter months of November and December last year claimed 131 lives in Minnesota traffic mishaps. The editors safety committee has set as its quota for the same two months this year a maximum of 110, allowing 52 deaths for November and 58 for December, or a grim total, between now and New Years day, of 97 deaths in addition to the 13 fatalities which already have been chalked up against the November quota.

BOLT SKIPS MAN BUT KILLS HORSE

Sleepy Eye—After refusing to let inclement weather keep him from his work, John Olstad, Hanska farmer, is thankful today that he is still among the living. While plowing Monday morning during a thunderstorm, one of Mr. Olstad's horses was struck, and instantly killed by a bolt of lightning. The other three horses hitched to the plow were stunned but unhurt as was Mr. Olstad who, though suffering from shock, was uninjured.

The change in home building caused in the past decade by the increasing importance of the garage is reflected in Federal Housing administration figures for its last year's operations, which showed that four of every five new houses securing insured mortgages had garages.

Traditional Thanksgiving in Tune with Your Budget

Five kernels of corn beside each plate! If you were invited to a Thanksgiving dinner and found these kernels of corn, would you know what they meant . . . and what would be expected of you?

Or would your hostess have to explain that they're an old New England custom . . . and they mean each person at the table will be called upon to tell five reasons why he is thankful.

There is a legend back of this. It's told that an early New England Puritan was once faced with starvation. Then he found five kernels of corn on his granary floor. Immediately he knelt to give thanks for them.

Bountiful Simplicity

Following such a tradition certainly should put each guest and member of the family in a humbly appreciative spirit. But most of all it should remind us that we Americans can enjoy many of the good old Thanksgiving standbys even though we may be compelled to manage our dinner this year from a very limited budget.

For instance, here is a Thanksgiving dinner menu shorn of many superfluities . . . yet still a bountiful feast.

Clear Tomato Soup Toasted Salty Wafers
Celery
Stuffed Chicken or Duck or Pork Roast Gravy
Cranberry Sauce or Apple Sauce
Mashed Potatoes Mashed Turnips Creamed Onions
Bread and Butter
Pumpkin Pie or Apple Pie or Cranberry Pie
Coffee

When we think of pumpkin pie and mince pie in connection with Thanksgiving, we sometimes forget that apple pie and cranberry pie held just as honorable positions at those early Thanksgiving feasts. So if you have an abundant store of apples, and want a de luxe apple pie for your Thanksgiving dessert, here is a grand recipe for an old-fashioned Country Apple Pie baked with cream.

Country Apple Pie

- Pastry for one-crust pie
- 5 cups sliced, pared tart apples (about 5 medium-large apples)
- ¾ to 1 cup sugar (depending on sweetness desired)
- ¼ cup sifted all-purpose flour
- ½ tsp. salt
- ¾ cup plain cream (25% butterfat) and 1 tbsp. soft butter OR ¾ cup whipping cream (35% butterfat)
- ½ tsp. cinnamon or nutmeg mixed with 1 tbsp. sugar (for top)

Place sliced apples in chilled, unbaked lower crust in pie pan. Add sugar, flour and salt to plain cream and butter or to whipping cream, and beat with rotary beater until very thick. Pour this thickened cream mixture over the apples . . . and then spread it out so it covers the apples completely. Sprinkle mixture of cinnamon or nutmeg and sugar over the top.

Bake 15 minutes in a very hot oven (450° F.) . . . then reduce temperature to moderate oven (350° F.) (open oven door a little to change temperature quickly) and bake 45 minutes longer. (If necessary, cover pie with piece of paper during last few minutes of baking to prevent apples from browning too much.) The cream is all absorbed with the juice so it is not apparent, but the taste is delicious.

This recipe makes a very deep 8-inch or fairly deep 9-inch pie (1¼ inches deep) for 6 to 7 servings.

Extra Care Urged to Safeguard Road Crews

Extra caution on the part of motorists travelling paved highway to prevent accidents to highway maintenance crews now engaged in sealing joints and pavement cracks, was urged this week by C. L. Motl, maintenance engineer of the Minnesota highway department.

"Crews are working throughout the state, completing this work before freezing weather sets in," he said, "and the cooperation of motorists driving past these locations is required to prevent accidents."

Highway employes have been instructed to leave half the driving surface entirely clear for the safe flow of traffic, and wherever practicable signalmen are stationed to insure the safety not only of the working men, but also of passing motorists.

Friendly Burglars

A fierce-appearing but apparently docile police dog was an interested spectator when burglars looted a gasoline station and stole tires and cigarettes valued at $75 in Rochester, N. Y., recently. According to police the thieves removed the dog's collar while they made a leisurely search for loot. The watchdog made no outcry, residents said.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE WHILE DRIVING CAR

Willmar—A woman screamed—an automobile came to a sudden stop—a car door banged shut and there stood its feminine driver crying and screaming all in one breath in the middle of the street. People rushed to the apparently tragic scene. Asked what was wrong, who was hurt or killed or missing, why the sudden burst of tears, the woman brokenly told her story and pointed to her car. N. J. Osterass approached the car, opened the door, and removed from the interior a very tiny, very dead little mouse.

REDUCED PRICE ANNOUNCED FOR AMERICAN BOY

With the announcement of an enlarged and enlivened magazine, The American Boy, foremost publication for boys ten to twenty, also announces a reduction in its subscription and single copy prices. Hereafter The American Boy will sell for 10c a single copy at newsstands or for $1.00 a year and $2.00 for three years on a subscription basis.

In announcing a change in editorial policy, publishers of The American Boy assure subscribers that the established fiction heroes who have made the magazine so popular with young and old alike, will continue to tell of their adventures exclusively in The American Boy. Included in this group are Renfrew of the Canadian Mounted, Connie Morgan and Old Man Mattie, prospectors; Square Jaw Davis, railroad engineer; Johnny Caruthers, flyer; Jim Tierney, detective; Ted Morgan, seaman; Alan Kane and Ted Dolliver, adventurers in science, and others identified exclusively with The American Boy.

However, with a larger magazine will come new fiction characters and an enlarged sports, defense and adventure program in the nonfiction field. Greater recognition will be given to outstanding boys the country over and an exceptional achievement will be rewarded with the boy's picture on the front cover. This feature was inaugurated with the November issue which carried on the front cover the picture of America's outstanding driver of high school age.

Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys groups recommend The American Boy enthusiastically. They have found that, as a general rule, boys who read The American Boy regularly advance more rapidly than boys who do not read it. Through the leadership and sportsmanship of its fiction characters, boys are imbued with a desire to become leaders, to develop the high ideals and courage the heroes themselves display.

To subscribe to The American Boy simply send the name and address of the one who is to receive the magazine together with proper remittance ($1 for one year or $2 for three years) direct to The American Boy, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan. 47

THE FIRST HALLOWE'EN JACK O' LANTERNS were made of turnips and were used in England since the days of the ancient Druids. And countless are the thousands who have been "frightened" by them every Hallowe'en since then.

Hallowe'en has its serious side, too: it marks the time of year when it will pay you to do something about those home repairs you've put off all spring and summer. Does your roof need fixing? Fix it NOW—before winter sets in. Melting snow, next spring, may damage the interior for a cost greater than a new roof—which you will need anyway!

Make sure your storm sash and doors fit right and close tight . . . that your foundations and sidewalls are in proper condition . . . that all necessary painting, insulating and weatherstripping is done now so you'll be more comfortable than ever this winter and for many winters to come! Won't you let us show you how little it will cost to put your home in the "shape" you want it? A phone call will bring you prompt attention without obligation.

ST. CLOUD MAN IS AGAIN SLATED TO BE HOUSE SPEAKER

Lawrence Hall Selected at Majority Caucus in St. Paul

Representative Lawrence M. Hall, St. Cloud, was selected for speaker of the Minnesota house of representatives at a caucus of the Conservative majority at Ryan hotel Saturday night. He received 98 votes out of 103 cast.

This indorsement insures Hall's election when the legislature meets Jan. 7, as he will have 85 or more votes out of the total membership of 131. Hall was speaker in 1939. He is a 31-year old lawyer.

The caucus call was signed by 85 men and women who will be members of the 1941 legislature. No other candidate was offered for the indorsement.

Indorsements also were voted by the Conservatives for such non-member offices as chief clerk and assistants, postmaster and sergeant-at-arms.

In another hastily called caucus, the Farmer-Labor and other members-elect not in the majority indorsed Representative George Hagen, Crookston, as their candidate for speaker.

About 22 members attended this course and they claimed they will have between 40 and 45 votes. They organized themselves into what they termed a liberal bloc.

In a resolution, they announced a program calling for attacks on the homestead lien, labor relations, small loan (36 per cent,) and bank tax laws enacted at the 1939 session.

They attacked the administration of Gov. Harold E. Stassen and, claiming they represented 48 cent of the voters as shown by the recent election, demanded proportional representation on all house committees.

Here's Chance for Lucky One to Secure a Cheap Meal for Thanksgiving

With the principal ingredients of a bounteous Thanksgiving dinner for prizes, a five-cent bingo party will be staged in the municipal Auditorium next Tuesday evening, November 19, starting at 8 o'clock. Members of the Thief River Falls Athletic association will be in charge of the affair, the net proceeds of which will go into the organization's hockey fund. Prizes will include turkeys, ducks, chickens, geese, sugar and coffee, in addition to blankets. There also will be door prizes.

1,700 SHEEP DIED IN MONDAY STORM NEAR CROOKSTON

Weighted Down with Snow as They Huddle Together in Open Field

A dozen farmers in the Crookston vicinity struggled in the raging storm Tuesday in an effort to save some of the 2,200 sheep on the H. G. Pester farm, one and one-half miles west of Crookston.

The animals were caught Monday in the storm and snowed under. Some escaped death, but Pester estimated Tuesday that between 1,500 and 1,700 had been killed.

The sheep, feeding on an open beet field without shelter, began to huddle together as the storm became more intense. Gradually their fleece became so heavily laden with snow, ice and dirt that they were weighted down. Whole groups of a dozen or more of the animals fell and were covered with snow.

As they were being dug out Tuesday, many were dead, but some, taken from the centers of the small flocks, were still living and it was believed they could be saved.

GOVERNOR GIVEN LEAD OF ALMOST 200,000 VOTES

Senator Shipstead Receives More Than Double Vote of Elmer Benson

Returned to office with one of the largest pluralities ever given a governor seeking re-election, Governor Harold E. Stassen began this week mapping out a program for the next two years which he hopes will continue the progress the state has made in the last two years.

Last tabulations of votes made up indicated that the governor's plurality will reach 200,000 when all returns are in. With 157 precincts still to report, Stassen's vote had reached 636,423, and all indications suggested that the total eventually would be close to the record vote of 678,000 which he received in 1938. Hjalmar Peterson's vote, with 157 precincts missing stood at 441,000.

Senator Henrik Shipstead, running for re-election on the Republican ticket, was about 12,000 votes behind Governor Stassen, but far ahead of Elmer Benson, his nearest opponent. Benson had only 301,210 votes, while Shipstead had 624,021. President Roosevelt's vote, with 132 precincts missing, was 623,075, and Wendell L. Willkie, his opponent, had 585,312.

Definite figures on the vote will not be known until the state canvassing board meets November 19th.

Thanking voters of the state for the expression of confidence in returning him to office, Governor Stassen said: "We shall continue to improve the financial soundness of your state government, and will soon call a conference of the leaders of our legislature and of local officials to work toward cutting down the taxes on real estate."

Governor Stassen said also he would call a conference of interested groups to "develop and pioneer in low cost housing to improve some of the slum areas of our metropolitan centers."

"We shall maintain and improve our labor peace law which has saved so many pay checks for the homes of workers in Minnesota and has at the same time protected the fundamental rights of labor. We shall endeavor to continue to improve and simplify the manner of conducting your state government, maintaining civil service, open and honest conduct of state business, with integrity as the watchword."

President Urges All Citizens to Support Red Cross Roll Call

Declaring that the American Red Cross has "an essential place in the great program of national defense," President Roosevelt urged "all who can possibly do so" to support the annual Roll Call.

Red Cross chapters throughout the nation launched the annual appeal for membership Armistice Day. The Roll Call ends November 30.

"The annual membership Roll Call of the American Red Cross," the chief executive stated, is vitally important to all of our citizens. As an auxiliary to all of our armed forces, the Red Cross has an essential place in the great program of national defense in which we are now engaged.

"Our people have learned through the years to turn to the Red Cross for practical aid in any emergency and that high trust always has been fulfilled. Behind this great voluntary relief organization is a record of public service, both in time of war and peace, which makes it an inseparable part of our national life."

70,000 Turkeys Are Lost in Worthington Region

An estimated loss of 70,000 turkeys as a result of Monday's storm was reported in the Worthington area Monday night as frigid, snow-laden winds whipped over "the turkey capital of the world". On farms the losses were variously reported at from 75 to 90 per cent. The Thanksgiving packing had already reached its peak when the storm struck.

State Taxpayers Chief Cites County Figures

Following are excerpts from a talk by Norman A. Borgen, Excelsior, secretary of Minnesota Taxpayers association, at a meeting of Pennington County Taxpayers association in Thief River Falls, Friday, November 8.

We taxpayers should look upon the problem of public expenditures and taxation constructively and realistically. Government provides certain services that are vital for the safety and welfare of the people. Sufficient money must be made available to provide proper educational facilities to protect life and property, to preserve the public health, and to provide food and shelter for the unfortunate.

However, every service now being performed by our governments is not to be accepted as vitally necessary. Investigation may reveal that some services are luxuries which a community cannot afford, and which may be discontinued without public harm.

Analysis on the part of taxpayers may reveal waste and extravagance, the elimination of which not only would result in lower expenditures and lower taxes, but also in improved public service. Almost every community has individuals and groups who would have government enter new fields or enlarge existing services far beyond what is necessary or beyond the capacity of the community to pay. Resisting such pressure is not always popular or easy, but it is necessary to uphold justice for the taxpayer.

Taxes have gone up sharply. County levies were $131,009 in 1934 and $176,228 in 1939. This is a 35 per cent increase. Unless citizens take a hand to curb this steadily mounting tax bill, it will continue to rise still farther. The time to do this is before the money is spent, or during the period when levies are being considered by the various spending bodies.

Vigilance may take some time, but the cost is indeed small. Lack of vigilance, on the other hand, may be exceedingly costly in relation to the taxes we pay.

Pennington county levies in 1934 and 1939 were as follows:

	1934	1939
General Revenue	$31,816	$34,160
Road & Bridge	35,351	36,890
Bonds & Int.	13,928	22,134
Welfare	22,872	41,796
Sanatorium	4,383	14,756
Special	22,650	26,492
Total	$131,009	$176,228

Total levies increased 10 per cent in the five-year period. Total property taxes levied in the County were:

	1934	1939
State	$ 42,244	$ 30,284
County	131,009	176,228
City & Village	52,377	43,952
Township	11,307	20,395
School Dist.	95,813	93,607
Total	$332,750	$364,466

The County average mill rate had increased from 84.29 mills in 1934 to 91.62 mills last year.

Meanwhile, the total assessed (taxable) valuation of the County had been changed from $3,535,057 in 1934 to $3,688,990 in 1939.

In Minnesota last year there were approximately 200,000 relief cases—federal, state and local. This means that if dependents were counted the total number of individuals aided would be about 500,000. In other words, for every person on relief there were about four self-supporting citizens. The total cost is immense. Over $112,000,000 was spent for this purpose last year, or approximately the amount of tax collected in the entire state on real and personal property. A considerable portion of the money spent was borrowed.

In Pennington county a large sum was spent for various forms of welfare last year, as follows:

Kind of Aid	Number Cases	Total Spent	Federal	Paid by State	County
Old Age Assistance	301	$ 99,776	$ 45,880	$ 30,240	$ 22,670
Aid to Dependent Children	64	24,310	7,580	7,598	9,133
Direct Relief (estimated)	9	3,496	1,749	1,748
Drouth Relief	38	7,411		7,411
Medical and Hospital	60	4,102		1,097	3,005
Institutional Care	110	12,560			12,560
Burials	1	23			23
Child Welfare Cases	94	700			700
Surplus Commodities	283	21,250	19,739		1,511
Soldier Welfare (estimated)	4	4,056		4,056
Farm Security Administration	60	3,161	3,161
Soil Conservation	1,277	151,700	151,700
Aid to Youths (estimated)	33	200	200
Administrative & Finance		5,520	879	[illegible]	2,110
Works Progress Admin.	181	120,333	81,902	3,774	37,619
National Youth Admin.	105	19,375	19,375
CCC	32	8,400	8,400
Unemployment Comp. Taxes	872	29,910			29,910
Total	3,000	519,026	340,222	68,417	118,187
Unemployment Benefits	872	17,330		17,330

What can be done to improve this serious situation? Several counties are now experimenting in different ways to taper off relief expenditures.

At a recent statewide conference of county taxpayer groups in St. Cloud, sponsored by the Minnesota Taxpayers Association, the following steps were recommended, as a start towards reducing relief costs:

1. As fast as conditions improve, welfare boards should require that employables accept jobs whenever work is available.
2. Provide relief for distressed only.
3. Give relief in goods and service.
4. Submit all names of clients to township and village boards for approval or rejection.
5. Keep control of financing of relief close to home, where local people know the needs of clients.
6. Publish complete reports of relief costs.
7. Pay for relief out of levies, instead of borrowing.
8. Get local costs under control to meet the day when federal grants may be curtailed.
9. Give help with objective of future self-support.

As previously stated, road and bridge levies for Pennington County were $35,350 in 1934 and $52,979 in 1939. But this does not tell the whole story.

The total amount spent for roads in the County, including receipts from all sources was $115,681 in 1934 and $173,563 in 1939, as indicated in the following table of Pennington County road costs:

	1934	1939
County Road and Bridge levy	$ 33,350	$ 52,979
Local Road and Bridge levies	12,609	12,022
Motor Vehicle Receipts	28,537	44,231
Gas Tax Receipts	29,000	50,000
One Mill Tax	10,185	12,000
Federal Aid Receipts		2,271
Total	$115,681	$173,563

The above represents a 50 per cent increase in road costs in the five-year period.

While it is a generally accepted and favored policy in this state to pay for road costs out of road taxes, it is significant that real estate taxes still pay for a considerable portion of road costs. As seen from the above table, property paid for $58,144 of the costs in this County in 1934 and $77,001 in 1939. This is an increase of 32 per cent.

Collecting buttons may seem drab and uninteresting but to Mrs. Carrie D. Jones of Tampa, Fla., it is an exciting and profitable pastime. She turned to button collecting 14 years ago after the death of her only son.

684 Drivers Forfeit Licenses in October; All-Time Record Set

Six hundred and eighty-four motorists, the largest number so penalized in any one month in the history of the Minnesota driver's license law, lost their licenses either by suspension or outright revocation during the month of October.

The Safety division of the state highway department today reported to M. J. Hoffman, state highway commissioner, the revocation of 172 driver's licenses and the suspension of 512 others during that month, for such violations of state traffic laws as have been shown to be major causes of traffic accidents and deaths.

Of the driver's licenses revoked, 120 were for driving while drunk, 19 for habitual inebriacy and 15 for repeated offenses of speeding.

Of the 512 driver's licenses suspensions, 217 were for speeding, 113 for intoxication, 64 for reckless driving, 23 for disobeying stop signs or signals; and 23 additional motorists were denied the right to drive because of their refusal to take driving tests or examinations, in compliance with law.

Seventeen of the driver's licenses revoked and 141 of those suspended were those of drivers under 21 years of age, and a total of 264 revocations and suspensions were enforced against drivers 25 years old or younger.

The highest previous number of revocations and suspensions was recorded during the previous month of September when 483 driving permits were suspended and 171 revoked outright.

So far during the first 10 months of this year, in the drive to take off the road, at least until he has learned to correct his faults, the motorist who habitually endangers the lives of others by violating the legal rules of traffic safety, the state department of highways has revoked 1,943 driver's licenses and suspended 3,048, or a total of 4,991. Of this combined total, 1,821 have been penalized for operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating beverages, and 1,546 for speeding.

NOVEMBER'S GOOD NEWS

Good news for us and for you this month is the announcement that FRED HANSON, associated with us for nine years in the capacity of mechanic and shop foreman, has returned to his old job, where he will head our enlarged staff of trained mechanics. He cordially invites his old and new friends to bring their lubrication and repair jobs to our completely revised shop.

Also good news is the fact that ALFRED ("SWEDE") RYMAN, long connected with the automobile business in this territory, has joined our staff to take charge of used car and truck sales. He, too, asks his many friends to come in and see him in his new quarters.

Good news to prospective new car buyers is the 1941 NASH AMBASSADOR "600" which has just arrived in Thief River Falls. The first "600" we received was driven up from Minneapolis with the almost unbelievable economy of 31 miles to the gallon. Nash's great new car in the lowest price field also offers "unitized" body construction, roominess not found in any other car in its price class, automatic overdrive and the only genuine air conditioning system of heating which does away with frost shields and lets you ride in shirt sleeves in below zero weather. Gustafson's invite you to come in and drive the biggest surprise in the lowest price field.

C. & C. TO CALL A COMMUNITY FUND MEETING

Propose Fund to Centralize Donations to Welfare Organizations

VARIOUS GROUPS IN CITY TO BE INVITED

Association Acts Also to Regulate Solicitation of Membership

As a result of action taken at a well-attended meeting of the Civic and Commerce association last Thursday evening, representatives of various local organizations will shortly be invited to a meeting to discuss a proposal to set up a community chest fund to start functioning in 1941.

If approved later by the membership of the various groups, the fund, to be financed by a city-wide solicitation, will contribute to the support of local character building and public welfare organizations.

To the meeting, to be called shortly by Secretary L. W. Rulien of the civic group, will be invited representatives of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Rotary club, Lions club, Ministerial association, Elks, Odd Fellows, Masons, American Legion, railway brotherhoods and other groups. If finally adopted, an independent organization will be created with its own set of officers.

The problem of solicitations by various organizations among the businessmen of the city also came in for extended discussion at Thursday's session, it being pointed out that the rule in effect in recent years providing that no donations be made by members without the approval of a central committee has frequently been violated.

To remedy the situation, the fifty businessmen in attendance voted that a $5 fine be imposed on any member making a donation for any purpose without the approval of a central committee of the association having first been secured.

15 From County Attend Welfare Conference

Killed While Hunting

LAWRENCE GRAM

Of the Gatzke vicinity, who was killed by a stray bullet Saturday while hunting northeast of Gatzke. He died in a local hospital.

Included in 150 persons who assembled in Red Lake Falls for a regional conference on social work was a delegation of fifteen representing Pennington county. Among them were Paul A. Lundgren, who presided at the afternoon session, Commissioners Paul Roy and Alfred Bredeson, Mrs. E. J. Richards and Mrs. Abbie Wassgren of the county welfare board; Dr. Baldwin Borreson, Miss Margaret Hesburg, Mrs. Clara Paulson, school nurse; Miss Ruth George, county nurse; Mrs. A. W. Swedenburg, Mrs. Mary V. Shaw, John X. Lynskey, L. G. Larsen, Miss Margaret O'Dell and Herman A. Kjos.

That Minnesota is a leader in legislation on adoption and placements of children was pointed out by Robert J. Mosher, field representative of the division of social welfare, St. Paul, in one of the principal addresses at the Red Lake Falls meeting. Mr. Mosher cited to the welfare workers the need of complete social studies of both the applicant and the child in making placements and adoptions. He also outlined the difference between licensed placement agencies and independent agencies, spoke on the length of time required to effect adoptions, and the number of children regarded as placeable.

Another feature of the conference was an address by Fred Thomas of St. Paul, who spoke on the treatment of children who have become delinquent, pointing out that first delinquencies are usually traceable to some acute unhappiness in a child's environment, for which the child seeks an emotional outlet. The treatment can only be effective if it reaches the seat of the trouble, he said.

Nutrition was the subject treated by Dr. Herman Hilleboe, medical coordinator of the department of social security, who cited cases where a child's failure to progress in school had been traced directly to a deficiency in nutrition, and declared that proper nutrition did not mean an expensive diet, but rather one wisely chosen and prepared.

STOCKHOLDERS GET REPORT ON FAIR OUTCOME

Secretary's Report Reveals Annual Event Showed Small Profit

ANNUAL MEETING OF ASSOCIATION HELD

McKercher, Dahlquist and Woolson Are Elected to Board

Despite the fact that it experienced unfavorable weather on two of its four days for the first time in recent years, the 1940 Pennington county fair showed a small profit, and ended the year with all bills paid and a $500 reduction in mortgage indebtedness, it was revealed in the annual report of George M. Wilson, secretary, submitted Tuesday evening at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pennington County Agricultural society, sponsor of the fair.

In the annual election of directors, R. J. McKercher and Harry C. Woolson were reelected, while W. E. Dahlquist was reinstated on the board after the lapse of a year to succeed Carl G. Hilliard. President S. E. Hunt, who was in charge of the meeting, will call a session of the board shortly to elect officers for the coming year.

Contributing to the successful financial outcome of this year's fair was a substantial reduction made in expenditures for labor and other items in connection with the maintenance of grounds and buildings, the directors of the organization having shouldered a larger part of the work, it was reported by O. C. Paulson, member of the board.

Major items of receipts in connection with the 1940 fair included concessions, $1,182.60; shows and rides, $1,040.02; gate, $4,309.20; grandstand, $2,301.60; merchants' free prizes, $1,178.25; and appropriations from the state, city and county, $2,179.29. Principal disbursements were $4,767 for music and attractions, $1,975.55 for premiums, and $1,364 for free prizes.

Also submitted was the report of E. O. Peterson, treasurer, which verified the secretary's figures. A straw vote was taken on the question of horse racing as a fair attraction, and a majority of the 25 stockholders present voted against it. However, the final decision will be left in the hands of the fair board, which also will select the dates for the 1941 exposition.

Lunch was served to the members at the close of the business session.

Alex Cloutier left Tuesday for Fordville, N. D. on a combined business and pleasure trip. He expects to return Saturday.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE DRIVE WILL OPEN ON MONDAY

Miss Margaret Hesburg to Conduct Campaign in Local Area

Plans are now underway for the 1940 Christmas seal campaign to raise funds for the fight against tuberculosis under the direction of Miss Margaret Hesburg, local chairman.

The campaign will open Monday, November 25, and will continue until Christmas. This is the 34th Christmas season that local workers have cooperated with the state and national association in the fund-raising and educational campaign against tuberculosis.

Pointing out the importance of increased efforts against tuberculosis, Dr. B. A. Slater, president of the Minnesota Public Health association, speaks as follows in a recent message to workers:

"We have come to think of our final victory over tuberculosis as inevitable. Unfortunately, it is not inevitable. We are even now confronted with a situation which, unless we artively fortify ourselves against it, may undo all that has been accomplished in this country in wiping out tuberculosis. I refer to the war now raging across the seas, and to the defense plans of our own nation, which overshadow all other needs. Europe has not been as successful in its fight upon tuberculosis as we have been in this country. Even in pre-war days, the tuberculosis death rates for Europe read like American rates at the turn of the century."

Sale of Tax-Forfeited County Lands Nets $3,251

Number Shows Big Increase Over Last Year's Total of 35 Carloads

That the Thief River Falls community did its full share to supply the nation's Thanksgiving table is indicated in the fact that well over 1,000,000 pounds of turkeys were forwarded from this city in advance of the holiday.

The total of 57 carloads shipped shows a substantial increase over the same period in 1939, when 35 carloads were forwarded from Thief River Falls. Local marketing agencies attribute the increase to the fact that the industry of turkey production is staging a comeback in this area, rather than to the fact that a larger percentage of flocks is being marketed early this year.

Prices on the New York market rose following the blizzard early last week, which killed thousands of birds thruout the state, particularly in the Worthington area.

The bureau pointed out that in hospitals where large quantities of radium are handled it is important to protect the technicians from overexposure.

Amateur Paper Hangers

Hint for amateur paper hangers: When patching wallpaper, tear the piece you need out of the roll instead of cutting it. This will give it a feathery edge that will not show as much as a sharp edge. Also, if in cleaning your wallpaper, you have taken the color out, you can successfully touch it up with water-color paint.

Aluminum Priming

Aluminum paint, because of its high resistance to water penetration, is an excellent paint to use for exterior priming or for any other place where a surface needs such protection. If the building budget permits, it is wise to have the backs of all clapboards or wood wall covering painted before erection. In this manner the life of the outside paint will be prolonged.

'Reign of Terror' Ended

One of a pair of leopards responsible for a reign of terror in the Harcoe region of South Africa has been slain, it is reported at Port Elizabeth. Escaping from the Addo game reserve, the two created great havoc in sheep and angora goat kraals. The female remains at large. Her mate, a huge brute, when one of his forepaws was caught in a trap, lashed about furiously, using teeth and claws on the bushes and branches of trees, but could not get loose. He was shot by two boys, hunting with their dog.

Containers Are Safer

A new provision of the new Food, Drug and Cosmetic act protects the public against dangerous containers, that is, containers from which the food may become contaminated. In practice, the Food and Drug administration officials expect the main effect of this new clause will be to prevent dangerous uses of lead in packaging foods, either lead in solders for cans or as foil for wrapping foods. Both these uses have made trouble at times in the past and have been difficult to deal with under the old law.

Chinchilla Is a Rodent

The chinchilla is a small ground rodent somewhat resembling a common squirrel and weighing about 1½ pounds at maturity. The female is slightly larger than the male. Both sexes are a delicate French gray in color, darkly mottled on the surface, with a bluish slate tint beneath. The fur is dense, soft, lustrous and silky, that on the back nearly one inch long in the finer skins, that on the side somewhat longer and thinner. The several species vary in the shade of the gray color and in the quality of their fur.

World's Smallest Principality

Monaco is the world's smallest principality. Its 370 acres would scarcely be considered a good sized farm in western America. But within those acres is compressed a wide variety of both climate and activity. Every resort along the Azure coast has its battle of flowers early each spring and Monte Carlo is no exception. Folklore festivals, sailing regattas and tournaments take up the time until midsummer. Those who don't go in for such things get a thrill out of strolling through the medieval streets, or climbing the steep grades, or touring the art gallery or visiting the gardens. But the center of everything is, and probably always will be, the casino.

Advice is that which the wise don't need and fools won't take.

RED RIVER VALLEY WINTER SHOWS TO BE HELD FEB. 3-7

Board of Managers Conducts Meeting in Crookston November 15

The fall meeting of the board of managers of the Red River Valley Winter Shows was held at the office of the president, T. M. McCall, at the Northwest School, Crookston, November 15. Plans for the 1941 shows, to be held February 3-7, were approved.

Directors reporting for the cooperating organizations included E. W. Spring, Crookston, Red River Valley development association; A. A. Habedank, Ada, Red River Valley Livestock association; C. M. Peek of Crookston, Red River Valley Dairymen's association; R. S. Dunham, Crookston, Red River Valley Crops and Soils Association; Harold Thomforde, Crookston, Northern Minnesota Poultry association; J. J. Flynn, Crookston Association of Public Affairs. Treasurer, E. W. Spring, reported the finances of the board in good shape and sufficient funds on hand to take care of all preliminary expenses for the 1941 shows.

Only minor changes in the premium list were suggested. The request of the livestock association that advertising be eliminated from the premium list and that lists be released by December first was approved. It was agreed to have a business agent for the board to act prior to and including Winter Shows week.

President T. M. McCall announced that judges for the shows and speakers for the day meetings had been engaged, according to the suggestions made by the cooperating organizations. One speaker, Wilfred Laurier Husband, has already been secured for the evening meetings. Mr. Husband will speak on Friday, February 7, on "The Far East." Other speakers are to be booked in the next few weeks.

It was also agreed to invite in to the meetings outstanding amateur music groups from the Red River Valley counties annual meetings of county agents, crop, livestock, potato, and wool growers are scheduled for the week, with recognition banquets planned for the newly elected honor livestock breeders and the development association's Valley Farmer and Homemakers from each county.

The action of the Red River Valley Livestock association in setting the date for the annual livestock sale to Friday, February 7, was unanimously approved.

SHERIFF'S CAR STOLEN AS SHERIFF SEEKS THIEF

Barred Heart — That "There ain't no justice" is true, was well demonstrated last week when Sheriff Henry Heaney of Renville county parked his car in front of the county jail last Sunday night after failing in an attempt to round up a pair who had stolen an auto in Montevideo and wandered down into Renville county. Later that night, or early Monday morning, someone needing a car helped himself to the nearest one and now the sheriff has two cars to look for, including his own.

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

By Ferd B. Elstad

The recreation program is sponsored by the city council in cooperation with Works Project Administration recreation leaders.

Arena Recreation Center

Parents are urged to visit the center where they will see all the games and activities. Many parents have been spectators in recent weeks. Because of these visits more children have become participants at the center. There is still room for many more. The leaders would like to have every child in town take part in some phase of the program.

Arena Gymnasium

More and more boxers and wrestlers are taking advantage of the training facilities in the gym. Others are urged to come to the gym and take instruction in boxing and wrestling. Wednesday night of this week four boxers from the gym were scheduled to put on a show for the Athletic Club. Other such bouts will be arranged from time to time for those from the gymnasium.

Puppet Theatre

Everyone is welcome to the weekly puppet shows held on Thursday afternoons in the arena upstairs. Game room activities and other quiet games are available for the children along with puppet work. A new leader, Miss Lucille Thomas, has just arrived on the program. She will specialize in art and handicraft work for the children.

Arena Craft Shop

Numerous Christmas gifts have already been turned out at the craft shop. Many others are working on gifts for relatives and friends. All persons interested in doing this work are cordially invited to make use of the equipment.

Miscellaneous

With the winter season here, or almost here, talk of basketball is only natural. Plans are being laid out for a regular league, with games being played in the city auditorium. A volleyball league for business men will also be started very soon. Volleyball will be held one night a week at the new high school gym.

One son and one daughter preceded her in death.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Larson at Grygla, Mrs. Vigin also at Grygla, and Mrs. John Anderson of Fordville, N. D., 5 grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Secy. of State Holm Sets New Vote Getting Record

Mike Holm, veteran secretary of state, holds the distinction of receiving more votes than any candidate who ever ran for public office since Minnesota was admitted to statehood in 1858.

Holm's history-making vote, the official canvassing board returns revealed today, was 800,754 as compared with 230,148 for his closest opponent, James I. Heller, Madison Lake, Farmer-Laborite and 170,105 for Austin T. Haley, Minneapolis, Democrat, giving Holm a plurality of 570,606.

Holm, who was re-elected for the eleventh consecutive two-year term, carried every county in the state.

Better to give than to lend—costs about the same.

STASSEN IS GIVEN OFFICIAL LEAD OF 195,077 BALLOTS

State Canvassing Board Finishes Tabulation of Nov. 5 Vote

Governor Harold E. Stassen's plurality over Hjalmar Petersen, Farmer-Laborite, in the November 5 election, was 195,077, while President Roosevelt carried the state by a margin of 47,922 votes over Wendell Willkie, according to official returns reported Tuesday by the state canvassing board.

A record shattering total vote of 1,301,573 was cast. The previous record total vote was in the 1936 presidential election year when 1,164,000 votes were cast. The total vote in 1938 was 1,144,926.

Governor Stassen's vote was 654,686 as against 459,609 for Petersen, while Ed Murphy, Democrat, received 140,021.

Although 156,647 more votes were cast this year than in 1938 Governor Stassen's total was 24,153 votes short of the 678,839 votes he got against Elmer A. Benson two years ago.

Governor Stassen carried 69 of Minnesota's 87 counties. The 18 carried by Petersen were Beltrami, Carlton, Clearwater, Isanti, Kandiyohi, Kittson, Koochiching, Lake of the Woods, Mahnomen, Norman, Pennington, Pine, Polk, Ramsey, Roseau, St. Louis and Swift.

On a percentage basis, the gubernatorial vote, totaling 1,254,316 was divided as follows: Stassen 51.19 per cent; Petersen 36.65; Murphy 11.16. If calculated on the basis of the total vote of 1,301,573 Governor Stassen's percentage would be cut to 50.2.

Although President Roosevelt's popular vote was larger than his republican opponent's, Willkie carried 46 counties, with 41 going to Roosevelt. Roosevelt got 644,196 votes as compared with 596,274 for Willkie.

The constitutional amendment, which would have made it easier to amend city charters insofar as official publications are concerned, was defeated because it lacked a majority of the total vote of 1,301,573. The amendment received 635,815 "yes" votes, but 650,787 was required for passage.

Chicago Livestock Show Will Open November 30

America's finest farm animals, from the Atlantic seaboard to the Pacific coast, and from Canada to the Mexican border, will soon be en route to Chicago for the contests of the International Live Stock Exposition, the country's largest agricultural show, which will be held in Chicago in its 41st annual renewal from November 30 to December 7. Stockmen from 32 states and three Canadian provinces will exhibit their best specimens in contests for continental honors at the Chicago Exposition this year.

Savings Plan Is Set up for Enrollees in CCC

The civilian conservation corps announced last week in Washington a compulsory savings plan for enrollees under which $7 of their pay will be set aside monthly, to be paid to them in a lump sum upon discharge.

Men in the CCC receive $30 a month, of which $8 is paid to them and $22 to their dependents. Under the new plan, to take effect January 1, dependents will receive only $15.

Paul V. McNutt, federal security administrator, said the plan would give the enrollee "a much needed fund for getting started upon discharge."

Finish Foundation for Minnkota Power Plant

Pouring of foundation concrete for the new Minnkota Power Cooperative generating plant at Grand Forks was finished Saturday night.

All foundation walls for the 325 by 50 foot structure now are poured but the engine base remains to be done.

Other work now in progress by Minnkota crews includes making a fill for a railroad spur track from a joint line of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern. The track will extend past the rear of the highway department building to the Minnkota site, which is opposite the state mill and elevator office building.

Digging of holes for the Grand Forks-Shevlin transmission line had gone past Euclid, Saturday.

Bids on New Bridge at Winona Will be Opened

Bids on the construction of the North channel section of the new Interstate bridge at Winona will be opened at LaCrosse, Wisc., December 10, according to M. J. Hoffman, Minnesota highway commissioner, and E. L. Roettiger, of the Wisconsin state highway commission. The cost of this section is variously estimated at from $250,000 to $290,000. This new Interstate bridge, on which the Minnesota department of highways has already let two construction contracts totalling $212,784 on sections entirely on the Minnesota side of the Mississippi river, not only will serve local interstate traffic, but will facilitate the heavy tourist traffic from the east and southeast, especially from lower Wisconsin and Illinois.

BARBER POLE ADORNS GRACEVILLE WATER TANK

Graceville—On the morning after Halloween, citizens of Graceville chuckled when they noticed the barber pole missing from the front of Hansons' barber shop but they stopped chuckling and started blinking when they discovered the missing pole adorning the top of the water tower and anchored so sturdily that high winds had failed to dislodge it. Now they are wondering how to remove the pole as no one cares to risk his neck to take it down as the Halloween prankster did to put it up.

GETS COON AFTER THREE MILE CHASE

Sleepy Eye—Art Bresson, three miles south of Essig, was rewarded at the end of a three mile tramp through cornfields and swamps on a recent Friday evening when he bagged a 41 pound racoon. Unable to keep up the pace of the fast stepping 'coon and his dog, which was trailing the animal, Art lagged more than a mile behind but his dog treed the 'coon and kept him there until Bresson arrived to put a shot through the animal's heart. This was the largest raccoon Art ever caught and he's been hunting raccoon for over 19 years.

Similar in principle, the RCA Victrola Tone Guard is an ingenious invention of scientifically shaped slots, built into the cabinet wall around record chamber. To bring you rich, pure record tone, these slots capture and suppress the unwanted mechanical noises present in all ordinary phonograph radios.

ANOTHER EXPLOSION COMING?

Observers seem to agree that the war in Europe and Asia is about to enter a new phase. Axis diplomats have been busy these past few weeks. Things have not been going so well. There have been many conferences and it is thought that now the details have been agreed upon for a new offensive.

It is expected that the war in Europe will now shift definitely to the south and that the combined power of Russia, Germany and Italy will move to gain control of the Mediterranean. Japan is expected to shift its attack in the far East, threatening the colonial possessions of conquered European nations rather than China, and thus forcing Britain to maintain a strong fleet in the Pacific, making more difficult a concentration of British power in the Mediterranean.

Something is going to happen soon. Hitler's failure to conquer England and Mussolini's reverses in Greece, along with the inability of the axis powers to break the British blockade, are going to force action of some kind. The only encouraging thing about the prospect is the thought that the dictators now are acting in desperation, forced by the failure of their original plans to take long chances.

Our country now is definitely involved in the war. It would be foolish to contend that we are neutral. We have already taken sides and stand pledged to support, with our resources, the nations that are resisting the totalitarian powers. Developments of the next few weeks, in Europe and in the Pacific, may involve us still further in the struggle that now seems destined to continue for a long time. If the dictators fail to win a quick war, and the struggle becomes an endurance contest, then the resources of our nation may prove to be a determining factor in the final outcome.

WHAT ELSE MATTERS?

Because most of the newspapers of the country opposed the re-election of Roosevelt, there has been considerable discussion since the election about the inability of the newspapers to control public opinion. In defense of the newspapers it has been pointed out that most newspapers, while opposing Roosevelt editorially, gave full publicity to Roosevelt speeches and in the handling of campaign news treated the issues and the candidates impartially.

But regardless of the merits of the argument, the question is one in which we are not greatly concerned. The primary function of a newspaper is to present the news. In the final analysis, a newspaper is judged by the manner in which it handles news and not by the opinions of the writer of an editorial column. A column of opinions by any writer of news is a safety valve through which personal views escape into thin air instead of into the body of a news story and the result, in most cases, is a more fair treatment in the news stories of controversial matters.

In our own community, most people read the Times and have read it for years. The majority of Times readers do not agree with the opinions that are expressed in this column but that doesn't mean that the Times is not serving its community well as a newspaper, and the fact that Times circulation not only holds its own but increases steadily year by year is the most convincing proof that readers are reasonably well satisfied with the service. What else matters?

Because they were printed a long time before official proclamations were issued, most calendars tell us that Thanksgiving will be observed next Thursday, and in some states the last Thursday in the month will still be the official holiday. But Minnesota goes along with the President this year and Governor Stassen is to be commended for yielding to the head of the national government in this matter. The day of observance isn't important. The important thing is that the spirit of the occasion be observed. It isn't a bad idea for a fellow to issue his own thanksgiving proclamation once in a while, without letting even the President or the Governor know about it, making it strictly a private party, and a private observance.

We still don't know how it is possible to give money to one group of people without taking an equal amount from some other group and if someone will explain to us how this can be done we will be truly grateful. Until this is explained to us we probably will continue to be skeptical about all plans that, by some painless process, are going to bring us unbounded wealth and prosperity.

By a vote of 191 to 148 our congressmen have decided to remain in session, and in Washington, for the time being at least. This is supposed to be displeasing to the administration. The majority who voted against adjournment probably thought that as long as they had remained there through the political campaign they could just as well stick it out another few weeks until the holidays. And we imagine life is more pleasant for the average congressman in Washington than in his home district. At any rate it is encouraging to know that our law makers are fearlessly independent and that there ain't no administration that's a going to tell them when to get out of town.

By far the most important event for Minnesota people this week will be the football game at Madison, Wisconsin, Saturday. The Golden Gophers are on the march again with a conference title already in the bag, and the national championship depending upon how they do against the Badgers.

President Roosevelt carried Minnesota by less than 50,000 votes but Willkie carried most of the counties of the state. Roosevelt's strength was in the cities and he lost heavily to Willkie in the rural areas. Considering the fact that his campaign was directed largely against Roosevelt, Governor Stassen's margin of nearly 200,000 votes is a record he doesn't have to be ashamed of. Mike Holm, with the support of nearly 900,000 voters, set a new record for the total vote ever received by any candidate in this state. Not that these things are now important but they are interesting.

It is not strange that there are hunting accidents when more than 550 men from this small county alone, go wandering thru the brush, armed with high powered rifles, eager to shoot. Deer hunting is good sport but it is dangerous. The strange thing, perhaps, is that there are so few accidents.

We were under the impression that we had had quite a storm last week but after reading the reports from other parts of the country, especially the southern part of the state, we know that all we had was a puff of wind and a flurry of snow. It was bad up here but it was a great deal worse farther south. Many lives were lost and the damage to livestock and poultry totaled hundreds of thousands of dollars. While in the season of Thanksgiving it might be well to remember that, among other things, our community has been favored with exceptionally fine weather this last year.

Fifty-seven carloads of dressed turkeys shipped out of here for the Thanksgiving market indicate that turkeys are still an important cash crop in this territory. And with the creamery now certain of more than a million pounds of butter production this year it is easier to figure out how the community's gasoline bill will be paid this coming year.

Topics of the Times

What with draft numbers, social security numbers, auto license numbers, telephone numbers and what not, it appears that the days of the American citizen indeed are numbered.

One month from today the sun starts traveling north again. Winter is practically over.

FDR is offering his New York residence for rent. Fortunately for the peace of mind of anti-Fourth fermers, he isn't trying to sell the place.

Thanks to last week's storm, the annual southern migration of the ducks happened so quickly that local hunters didn't get a crack at the birds.

Either Mussolini will have to quit talking big, or else his army and navy should stop making spectacles of themselves.

The game of bridge, we learn via Les Nelson of Mahnomen, is something in which a good deal depends on a good deal.

Splenetic Secretary of the Interior Ickes recently tendered his resignation, and it is to be hoped the President won't pass up this opportunity to improve the personnel of his cabinet.

It was a wonderful fall, but folks aren't so proud of the weatherman after last week's record-breaking blizzard.

Just 28 shopping days remain before you know what.

Those who thought it was quite a job to shovel off the front walk after the recent storm should be in sympathy with the fellows who had to take the snow out of the university stadium in Minneapolis.

Looking Backward

1930—TEN YEARS AGO

Electric light and telephone wires in the northwest were damaged by sleet following a steady rainfall November 16, totaling more than two inches.—Edwin J. Noto of Gary purchased the Gust Crown barber shop.—The Commercial club endorsed for the site of the proposed new postoffice building the half block facing Second street across the street from the Auditorium.—Mrs. A. Lein was summoned to Osakis by the death of her mother.—Enrollment in Lincoln high school this week reached the 500 mark for the first time.

1920—TWENTY YEARS AGO

The fourth annual Pennington county poultry show opens in this city Monday.—Mrs. R. W. Froehlich was elected president of the county Red Cross chapter to succeed T. P. Anderson.—An amendment to the state constitution providing for the Babcock trunk highway plan was approved in the recent election.—A proposal to divide Marshall county lost out by a better than two to one margin.—With the completion of storm sewers in the business district, all is in readiness to go ahead with the paving project next spring.

HUNT FOR WILD GEESE IS WILD GOOSE CHASE

Mahnomen — Making a wild goose chase, which was exactly that, the early part of last week was the misfortune of Happy Peterson and John Paskey of Mahnomen who were interrupted during an interesting game of cribbage by Cy Jannisck and Marvin Peterson of the same town who entered the room in haste with glowing tales about an immense flock of wild geese just west of town on a nearby lake. Running for guns and boats, the "victims" departed with instructions as to the location of the birds, only to return to town shortly afterwards with very red faces to face the guffaws of the pranksters and others who had been let in on the hoax.

METEORITE FALLS ON NOBLES COUNTY FARM

Worthington — Believed to be a meteorite was the 52 pound rock discovered on his father's farm by Wilbur Malenke last week. Malenke said he saw something flash to earth near his home about three weeks ago and although he searched for it, didn't run across it until he was husking corn recently. Half buried in the ground and deeply pitted, as if from tremendous heat, the meteorite is white and gray in color and its surface very uneven.

First Federal Death Sentence

The first sentence of death imposed by a federal court in the United States was passed in New Bern, N. C., in 1790, when four sailors were hanged for mutiny at Ocracoke Island, N. C.

NEVER AN IDLE MOMENT FOR LARRY

Winsted — Lawrence Litfin, manager of the Westrup Lumber Company at Winsted, is satisfied that he has set an all time record for getting things done, having become a husband and grandfather all in the space of five months, and in addition acquiring three sons-in-law all in the space of a year. Culminating the series of events was the birth last week of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klebe of Norwood which made Mr. Litfin a grandpa.

WHEN TO SPEAK

He—How and when do you think I'd better speak to your father, sweetheart?

Although insurance is now one of the most important factors in property ownership and protection, it originally was made use of only by shippers of goods by sea and by the owners of seagoing craft. Lloyds of London, originally a coffee shop, developed the world's first insurance

PUBLIC OPINION

To the Editor:

In your issue of the 14th I commented on one of your statements in the issue of Nov. 7th in your article on the pension plan. The whole article must be treated in the same way for I find you are contending against the idea of the government taking from one group, a large sum of money and giving it to another group without due consideration or service rendered on the part of the later group. In this position, I stand firmly with you and I am sure that every other person who has made a thorough study of the Townsend Plan, stands with us. As evidence of this, I am attaching to this statement for insertion, the following excerpt from a four column article, in the Townsend National Weekly, by Kathleen Norris, America's outstanding authoress.

"The Townsend Plan offers the simplest and sanest solution ever proposed to end society's injustices against society. In all reverence I say that no such inspiration has ever come to man since the beginning of all inspiration came to Him from a mountainside, 2000 long years ago.

It is a beautiful statement of a plan that will not take anything from the government or any legitimate business but will give to the government and every legitimate business in the country and will unlock the closed doors of opportunity to millions of young men and women in this fair land. In the same issue, your article was followed by one written by Dr. V. O. Watts in the Northfield News on the subject of Scientific Looting.

The Dr. speaks of Hitler's plan in the eastern hemisphere, the Ham and Eggs plan in the western hemisphere and tape worms, hives and flees in both hemispheres. I would like to say to the dear Dr. 'You take in so much territory, I can't grasp your wandering thought but I can positively tell you where you can find a full grown tape worm, a creature with insatiable appetite, gnawing at the very vitals of the economic life of this country, gorging itself on the natural wealth of the land, monopolization of the values in oil, coal, iron, copper, silver, gold and all other deposits within the earth and in site values, water powers, forests on the surface of the earth, values created by the public, rightfully belonging to the public and intended to take care of public expense, values entirely sufficient to meet all of the needs of the public, going into the pockets of private individuals with the result we see about us, everybody trying to cover up and avoid paying the taxes assessed against them, big guns, millionaires for lying about their tax son for lieing about their tax statements. Taxpayers groups forming to cut down on the ham and eggs of the unemployed and retired groups, what a terrible mess we are in and how funny it must all appear to the gentlemen who walk off with the wealth of the world in their pockets. Truly Dr. it is fortunate for the nation that you called attention to the sympathetic relationship between the scouling conqueror of Europe, with his ten million fighting men who must be fed and the ten million hungry men who are scrambling for more ham and eggs in America. Yes, Dr., this is Scientific Looting.

Respectfully yours,
T. J. Welsh.

Democratic Speakers Propose Elimination of State F-L Party

Elimination of the Farmer-Labor party from the Minnesota political scene by bringing its members into the Democratic party was advocated by two Democratic leaders in speeches in St. Paul Friday night.

Ed Murphy, recent Democratic candidate for governor, and John D. Sullivan, candidate for attorney general, took up the cudgels for a return to the two-party system in the state.

In talks over radio station WCCO, both deplored a continuation of three parties in Minnesota, and urged all anti-Republican groups to rally under the Democratic flag. Their talks were under the auspices of the Democratic state central committee.

After citing dangers and evils of three party political systems, Sullivan said:

"One of the parties in Minnesota must be eliminated in order to guard against these evils. Because of their national ties it is impossible to eliminate either the Democratic or Republican parties in any state."

THE CAT!

"If vanity is a sin then I guess I'm a sinner."

"Oh, I don't know! It's not a sin to be mistaken."

FIRST SYMPTOM

Wife—You're an old nut! Why didn't you say you were crazy before our marriage?

Hubby—That event was the first symptom of insanity I had ever shown.

CIRCUS GROUNDS

"Yes, sir, my wife's been trifling with a circus clown and I'm going to get a divorce!"

"On what grounds?"

"Circus grounds, of course."

DECORATING THE INTERIOR

"Our college has classes in interior decorating."

"Well, every girl should know something about cooking, I think."

REASON HE'D RATHER PLAY

"He says he'd rather play golf than eat."

"Don't blame him—he's got a wife who'd rather play tennis than cook."

TUT, TUT!

Runaway Leopard—I understand if I'm found I'm to be shot on the spot.

Snake—Which one?

Case Dismissed

Two automobiles can collide at a street intersection without either driver being criminally reckless or careless, a Hopkinsville, Ky., judge believes. Two drivers haled into his court were vehement in accusing each other. Both demanded an arrest. Officers charged one with recklessness and the other with carelessness. The judge held only a question of civil damages was presented by the case and "police court is no collecting agency."

SO. ST. PAUL LIVESTOCK

South St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 19, 1940: Lower prices were enforced in all sections of the cattle market. Liberal supplies the first two days of the week, which on Tuesday approached a glutted condition on cows, enabled buyers to depress values rather sharply. Slaughter steers and yearlings were fully 25c lower for the two days, according to the Federal-State Market News Service. Heifers and cows showed a big 25c loss and instances were 50c lower, especially on cows. Bulls were 25c lower and vealers declined fully 50c. Stockers and feeders sold slowly and around 25c lower. Good to choice steers topped at $12.25 Tuesday, with bulk medium to good kinds at $8.00-10.50.

Unloadings of swine the first two days of the week were the heaviest in many months and failed to change prices on most slaughter hogs, todays session marking the fifth consecutive day of steady money. Tuesday's top was $5.70, taking bulk of the good to choice barrows and gilts scaling above 200 lb. with only extreme weights selling downward to $5.55. Similar grades of 180-200 lb offerings ranged from $5.50-5.70, while 160-180 lb. hogs brought $5.30-5.60, and 140-160 lb. light lights cashed at $4.75-5.40. Good sows, all weights cleared at $5.40 straight. Feeder pigs were sharply lower Monday, recovered slightly on Tuesday, and clearance of good kinds made largely at $3.75-4.00.

The storm market with higher levels that prevailed a week ago about-faced on liberal receipts the first two days of current period. Price discounts of mainly 50c were enforced on fat lambs, with other slaughter classes offered in small numbers and not subjected to any material discounting. The supply of lightweight lamb carcasses in the east sold readily at $16.00-18.00 for 34-45 lb. averages, but heavyweights were draggy at $14.50-16.50. Live weight lambs topped locally at $9.25 on Monday, the practical limit on Tuesday being $9.00.

Canadian Pork Supply

A new market for fresh pork developed in Canada in the months of war in Europe. Under British food plans Canada is obligated to ship to the United Kingdom from 230 to 290 million pounds a year of bacon and ham. With curing plants taking so great a part of Canadian production, Canada drew on supplies in the United States—Canada—which took 310,000 pounds of fresh and frozen pork from the United States in 1935—took 21,066,000 pounds last year, according to the office of foreign agricultural relations, United States department of agriculture. The demand will continue, it is expected, as long as the United Kingdom continues to call for deliveries of Canadian cured pork.

Ephebic Oath

The Ephebic or Athenian oath was taken by the youth of Athens after completing their secondary education. It is as follows: "We will never bring disgrace to our city by any act of dishonesty or cowardice, nor ever desert our suffering comrades in the ranks; we will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the city, both alone and with many; we will revere and obey the city's laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in those about us . . . We will strive unceasingly to quicken the public's sense of civic duty; and thus, in all these ways, we will strive to transmit this city not only not less but greater, better and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

AAA COMMITTEE AGAIN WILL SELL WHEAT INSURANCE

Township Committeemen to Visit All Farmers in Next Few Weeks

According to the Pennington county AAA committee opportunity is being extended to farmers again to take out "All-Risk" wheat insurance for next year. A grower may buy a crop insurance policy which will insure himof 50 to 75 per cent of his average yield, covering losses from any unavoidable hazard such as drought, disease, insects, or hail. Community committeemen in the various townships will be calling on each farmer in the next few weeks.

The county committee reports that last year there were 371 crop insurance policies held with the F. C. I. A. by farmers in Pennington county, insuring 4,377 acres of wheat, or an insured production of 38,514 bushels of wheat. The premiums amounted to 3,382 bushels or an average premium rate of .79 bushels per acre.

Drought conditions and unfavorable weather conditions resulted this year in a large number of losses in the county, 102 of the 371 policy holders making claims covering a loss of 4,618 bushels. Consequently the collections for losses in the county considerably exceeded the total amount of premiums paid in the county.

The federal crop insurance program is carried out in the following manner. The premium a farmer pays is based on the actual risk of growing wheat on his farm as shown by the history or appraisal of his farm and county yields for the 14 year period 1926-1939. Premiums paid in by the farmer are invested in a stored wheat reserve. This wheat in reserve meets the losses of the insured grower. When a farmer suffers a loss, he draws an indemnity from the reserve sufficient to bring his total production up to the insured amount. While it is more profitable to harvest a full crop than to collect insurance, this protection should prove worth while.

City Bowling League Teams Break Even in 2 Intercity Matches

City bowling league teams broke even in two special matches rolled on the Mint alleys Sunday, J & B Drugs defeating the Schmidt's of Crookston, 2551 to 2496; and the Luxury Products of Bemidji defeated the Thief River Pharmacy, 2609 to 2533.

John Langseth bowling a 583 total at anchor for the J & B's was the high roller for the locals, with Ed Carlson's 575 being runner-up. Mike Carrigan's 595 paced the out of town bowlers.

Prowler Football Lettermen

Coach John Lindenmeyer announced that twenty members of this season's conference championship football squad had won letters. The letter winners are: Tommy Carlisle half-back, Eddie Flasch halfback, Jimi Ferguson quarterback, Johnny Parbat quarterback, Armand Pederson tackle, Babe Peterson end, Dake Ayers guard, Luther Fjelstad halfback, Homer Matheson end, Gordon Reierson halfback, Orrin Pederson tackle, LaRue Anderson fullback, Bob Wright guard, John Dablow center, Douglas Snelling center, Don Berg end, Don Michalsky guard, Roman Paulson tackle, Lenny Lorentson end, and Don Olson end.

Twelve of these lettermen, practically all linemen, are eligible for another season of play. Carlisle, Flasch, Ferguson and Parbat, all backfielders, and Armand Pederson, Babe Peterson, and Dake Ayers, linemen, will have been graduated; and LaRue Anderson, fullback, has joined the navy.

Bob Worth on the All-State

I see that Bemidji's Bob Worth was placed on the all-state high school football team. Well, Bob perhaps deserves the honor for he was a fine player; but I don't think that he had any more stuff, especially on offense, than the Prowlers' Andy Anderson. Worth was the surer blocker and the stronger kicker, but Andy was the more dangerous runner and a better receiver of passes. Bob Worth, by the way, will be here on Dec. 6, when the regional champion Bemidji Lumberjacks play the Prowlers.

And speaking of Andy, he has left for the Great Lakes Naval Training Station. Bob Kielty and he received their orders last Wednesday.

Encouraging Improvement

The Prowler basketball squad continues to show steady improvement. They had a fine scrimmage last Friday afternoon, playing a team that had Wayne Kielty, Jesse DuChamp, Dick Hattelson, Happy Erickson, and Hienie Waag in its lineup, and the Prowlers ran up a 4 to 1 score. Lindenmeyer started Eddie Flasch and Don Berg at the forwards, Orrin Pederson at center, and Tommy Carlisle and Babe Peterson at the guards, and these fast-stepping boys had a nice lead at the end of the first period. At the quarter the coach sent in another five, with Campbell and Reierson at forwards, Armand Pederson at center, Jack Melby and Lenny Lorentson at the guards. And this second five really clicked. Armand Pederson and Jack Melby, both rangy fellows, played at the guards on defense, and then swung up the floor on offense, taking forward and center position, and they scored quite a number of close in shots.

Bowling

While his team, the Thief River Pharmacy, was beaten, Ed Carlson gave a bowling lesson to his younger brother Carl, who bowled with the Luxury Products of Bemidji last Sunday. Ed had games of 205, 191, and 179 to beat his brother by 99 pins.

And that Mike Carrigan with the Bemidji team, who had a 595 total, is the Carrigan that was among the money winners in the recent Grand Forks Herald tournament.

The Alice Sexton, who bowled a 488 total for the Corner Drug team in their match with the local Women's City League all stars, is a sister of Bill Sexton. And I'll make a slow bet with Bill that he can't bowl a three game 488 total.

Wear Plenty of Red Clothes

It's too early to make a report on deer hunting, except to say that a number of hunters have got their venison; but it's not too early to warn hunters to wear plenty of red clothes, and to make certain that their target is a deer before they pull the trigger. Two fatal accidents have occurred in this vicinity and at least one of them, wherein Lawrence Sandland was shot, the victim was not wearing red clothes.

In the annual election of officers, Mr. Murphy, Jr., of Blue Earth was named to succeed Mr. Gustafson as president of the state group.

CHAIRMAN DAVIS SEES SUCCESS FOR RED CROSS APPEAL

Total Receipts for Past 12 Months Were $13,880,000, Report Reveals

As thousands of Red Cross volunteers redoubled efforts to successfully complete the greatest peace-time Roll Call, Catholic, Jewish and Protestant church leaders joined with Chairman Norman H. Davis in an appeal for memberships.

Roll Call will end November 30, climaxing an intensive 19-day campaign under way in more than 3,000 Red Cross chapters throughout the country.

Declaring that Roll Call memberships were needed for the support of Red Cross activities in this country, Chairman Davis declared he felt confident the drive would go over the top on a basis of the response last spring to the $20,000,000 war relief fund.

"Six months ago the Red Cross appealed for twenty million dollars to relieve the suffering of war's tragic victims," he said. "People gave more than twenty-one million dollars. It carried a ringing tribute to America's traditional generosity and compassion. As you know none of that money is being used for domestic Red Cross programs. Every cent is helping to lighten the cruel relief burden of nations under barbarous attack. The 1940 Roll Call, on the other hand, supports the domestic work of the Red Cross, to do its share in building our national defenses."

SHEEP NOT HURT BY 36 FOOT DROP

Princeton—Dropping down a 36 foot well under reconstruction on the T. W. Thompson farm in Greenbush was the thrilling experience of one of the sheep on the farm recently. Being chased by a dog, the sheep stepped into the open hole and hurtled past the startled Mr. McCormick who was working inside the well and who was warned by a companion above ground to duck. The sheep landed on its haunches at the bottom of the well and after being brought to the surface, it scampered away apparently uninjured and none the worse for its experience.

NEW LABOR BOARD HEAD

Washington, D. C.—Dr. Harry A. Millis, University of Chicago economist and veteran labor dispute arbiter, was named by President Roosevelt to be chairman of the national labor relations board. The appointment is subject to Senate confirmation. Dr. Millis succeeds J. Warren Madden, whose term expired last August.

Aliens Must Register at U. S. Postoffices by December 26, 1940

Alien registration will end on December 26 and all non-citizens who have not yet registered are warned that severe penalties will follow failure to comply with this federal law.

All aliens, 14 years of age and older, must register in person and be fingerprinted. Alien children, under 14, must be registered by their parents or guardians. Registration takes place at the post offices.

Earl G. Harrison, director of alien registration of the department, suggests that those aliens who have not yet registered do so as soon as possible and avoid the Christmas rush at the post offices.

All aliens are also warned that, having registered, they are required to report any change in their permanent residence address within five days to the immigration and naturalization service of the department of justice in Washington. Forms for this purpose are obtainable at all post offices.

Speaking of accidents—metal guards will never take the place of mental guards.

BAGS DEER WITH BOW AND ARROW

Lake Park—John Amdel, Jr., Lake Park, is the envy of all the younger fellows in his town and most of the old ones. Taking advantage of the advance season for hunters of deer who use bow and arrow, John, with his friend, John Holmgren, camped a couple of days near Deer River with Amdal bringing down his deer on Saturday noon. The young buck, 3 or 4 years old, dressed down to 147 pounds. He was brought down with an arrow of 30 inches long headed with a knife barb which penetrated the hide, severing a rib.

MISSES DUCK, AND GETS A DUCKING INSTEAD

Sleepy Eye—While enjoying a bit of duck hunting last week, Joe Stenstrom and Cecil Berkner sighted a likely looking flock flying above them. Although they were flying a little high, Cecil persuaded Joe to take a crack at one. Joe took the hint, stood up and took aim. He followed the duck with the business end of his gun so far that after he had pulled the trigger and sat down again, he found much to his embarrassment that he was sitting out in the boat but in the lake.

Driving Perils Linger in Wake of Worst Winter Storm, Road Chief Warns

Hoping to spare Minnesota's deer hunting season from traffic tragedies such as those which last week marked the most disastrous, widespread and violent early winter storm in the state's history, Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffman this week warned motorists of travel dangers still existing on trunk and local highways.

At the same time the state highway chief urged adherence to a few rules of winter driving caution, if obeyed, will not only facilitate travel under the difficult seasonal conditions prevailing in many sections, but also may prevent many serious, if not fatal, winter traffic accidents.

"With roads generally reported open and travel resuming," Mr. Hoffman said, "the need for driving caution is great. The motoring public should bear in mind, not only now but under any similar condition which may occur during the winter, first, that many highways reported 'open' may have been opened to make them passable only for a single lane of traffic, through heavily drifted locations, and may not yet have been widened out for normal travel; and, second, that whenever a heavy fall of light snow remains on the ground, a strong wind may blockade the roads anew in any section within a few hours."

'Bird in the Hand'

Harry Harper of Oroville, Calif., now knows that a bird in the hand is not worth two in the bush. Seeing a pheasant's tail protruding from a rice shock, and believing that it had been killed by some other hunter, he seized hold of it. Whereupon the very-much-alive pheasant kicked him in the face and made its getaway minus its tail—before Harper could pick up his gun.

LOCAL MEN DIE IN HUNTING TRAGEDIES

The whole community was shocked and grieved to learn of the accidental shooting which proved fatal to Lawrence Sandland, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Sandland. The young man was one of a group of men who were hunting deer northeast of Gatzke on Saturday and the accidental bullet was fired about 5 p. m. The deceased was rushed to a Thief River Falls hospital where he succumbed several hours later.

Lawrence Sandland was born at Grygla September 20, 1919 and was at the time of his death, 21 years, 1 month and 27 days of age. He was baptized in infancy into the Lutheran faith by Reverend Mako of Mavie and he was later confirmed by Reverend N. T. Anderson. He attended the rural grade schools near his home after which he attended Lincoln high school at Thief River Falls for one year. Death came early Sunday morning.

He is survived by his parents; and two sisters, Agnes of Grygla and Gudrun of Minneapolis. He also leaves several aunts, uncles and cousins to mourn his untimely passing. Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the home and at 2 o'clock from the St. Petri church with Reverend N. T. Anderson officiating. Burial will be made in the St. Petri cemetery.

Another tragedy occurred north of Grygla also on Saturday, when Lawrence Gram of Gatzke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benson Gram of Moose River, was shot and fatally wounded while hunting deer 1½ miles south of the Erling Gilthvedt farm near Moose River. He was taken to a Thief River Falls hospital where he died within a short while.

Lawrence Gram was born at Lostwood, North Dakota on May 21, 1915 and died on Saturday, November 16, at the age of 25 years, 5 months and 26 days. He came with his parents to Moose River in 1923 and he made his home there until four years ago when he accepted a job as a mechanic in a Gatzke garage. On December 24, 1939, he was married to Orpha Tengesdahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Tengesdahl of Moose River.

He is survived by his wife, his parents, of Moose River, four brothers, Buel of Roseau, Alfred of Middle River, Melford of Midland, S. Dak., and Roy of Moose River and three sisters, Mrs. Pearl Hartwick of Spokane, Washington, Mrs. Stella Johnson of Middle River and Mrs. Mae Sathre of Middle River. He was preceded in death by one sister. No time has been decided upon as yet for the funeral services which will be conducted by Reverend Anderson from the Northwood church, with interment in the church cemetery.

~~Mrs. John Stenen Called~~

Mrs. John Stenen passed away early Saturday morning at her farm home south of Grygla, death coming after a lingering illness caused by heart trouble. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the home with Reverend Charles Colgrove of Badger officiating. Burial will be made in the Bethesda cemetery, east of Grygla.

Mrs. Thorine Stenen was born March 2, 1884 in Norway and was at the time of death 56 years, 8 months, and 14 days old. She was married at Grygla to John Stenen in March 1910 and she lived here until about 24 years ago when she moved with her family to Bienfait, Sask., Canada. Our Partner, the Northwest Farmer, knows he can always sell his choicest barley to give HAMM'S BEER

We maintain a cash market for the Northwest's finest barley. Last year farmers sold us over a million bushels!

Then we malted it in our own giant plant, under the watchful eyes of the Hamm brewmasters. Each batch of malted-barley was certified "properly aged" to produce the full richness of the malt. This is one of the many painstaking methods which give Hamm's Beer extra grain goodness.

Give yourself this treat today. Ask for Hamm's "Smooth and Mellow." Theo. Hamm Brewing Co., St. Paul, Minn.

KEEP IT DRY

"Do you have any trouble with a wet cellar?"

"No sir, I've got too many friends."

Note to Henpecked Husbands

The kitchen, the most functional room of the house, continues to become more and more the product of new ideas and labor-saving devices. Even the handling of soiled dishes has passed through processes of refinement until dishwashing sinks now available relieve the housewife of this unpleasant task. New developments in dishwashing sinks include retractable sprays which fit in the drainage compartment. The dishes, secured in a rubber-sheathed rack, are rinsed by the force of the shower. The sinks can be obtained in standard materials with acid resisting enamel surface.

REDUCED PRICE ANNOUNCED FOR AMERICAN BOY

With the announcement of an enlarged and enlivened magazine, The American Boy, foremost publication for boys ten to twenty, also announces a reduction in its subscription and single copy prices. Hereafter The American Boy will sell for 10c a single copy at newsstands or for $1.00 a year and $2.00 for three years on a subscription basis.

In announcing a change in editorial policy, publishers of The American Boy assure subscribers that the established fiction heroes who have made the magazine so popular with young and old alike, will continue to tell of their adventures exclusively in The American Boy. Included in this group are Renfrew of the Canadian Mounted, Connie Morgan and Old Man Mattie, prospectors; Square Jaw Davis, railroad engineer; Johnny Caruthers, flyer; Jim Tierney, detective; Tod Morgan, seaman; Alan Kane and Ted Dolliver, adventurers in science, and others identified exclusively with The American Boy.

However, with a larger magazine will come new fiction characters and an enlarged sports, defense and adventure program in the nonfiction field. Greater recognition will be given to outstanding boys the country over and an exceptional achievement will be rewarded with the boy's picture on the front cover. This feature was inaugurated with the November issue, which carried on the front cover the picture of America's outstanding driver of high school age.

Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys groups recommend The American Boy enthusiastically. They have found that, as a general rule, boys who read The American Boy regularly advance more rapidly than boys who do not read it. Through the leadership and sportsmanship of its fiction characters, boys are imbued with a desire to become leaders, to develop the high ideals and courage the heroes themselves display.

To subscribe to The American Boy simply send the name and address of the one who is to receive the magazine together with proper remittance ($1 for one year or $2 for three years) direct to The American Boy, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan. 47c

Dangerous Ammonia Leaks

Scenes reminiscent of a war-time gas attack occurred in Johannesburg, South Africa, when an ammonia pipe in a giant refrigerating burst. Fumes filled the store containing the refrigerator and poured into the street. Passersby choked and ran. Motorists coughed and were blinded by the fumes. Firemen in gas masks, with the aid of an expert in refrigeration, stopped the leak.

Dear friends:

A writer suggests that we sit down with ourselves at Thanksgiving time and list the things we ought to be thankful for. If everyone would do that, we have an idea there would be more happiness and much less complaint.

We are especially thankful for our friends—also are we thankful for the many kindnesses that have come to us during the past year.

May your Thanksgiving be a happy one!

Respectfully,

Carl B. Larson

Missouri Hospitality

A few of the boys in Kansas City were showing a Texas rancher the city. "What do you think of our stock yards?" they asked of him.

"Oh, they're all right, but we have branding corrals in Texas that are bigger," he said.

That night they put some snapping turtles in his bed. He turned back the cover and said: "What are those?"

"Missouri bed bugs," they said.

He looked at them a moment and then said, "So they are. Young ones, aren't they?"

Supply and Demand

A party of American tourists in a bus were being driven among the mountains of Switzerland.

"Say, where did those large rocks come from?" asked the man next to the driver.

"The glaciers brought them down," replied the driver.

"But where are the glaciers?" was the next question.

"They've gone back to get more rocks," was the weary reply.

Fitting Tribute

Tombstone Dealer (after several futile suggestions)—How would just a simple "Gone Home" do for an inscription?

The Widow—I guess that will be all right. It was always the last place he ever thought of going.

Cleaning Piano Keys

Yellow, discolored piano keys can spoil the appearance of the most beautiful instrument. If you keep the keys exposed to sunlight, they are much less likely to turn yellow. If, however, the keys have already turned, clean them as follows: Dampen a soft cloth with alcohol and wipe off the keys, rubbing with the grain. Dry with a soft linen cloth. If the yellow persists, rub the keys gently with fine sandpaper or cover with a thick paste of lemon juice and whitening. Leave the paste on for a few minutes, then wash off with a soft cloth wrung out in warm water. Rub until all trace of oil has disappeared.

SHIPS AND CRANBERRIES

Cranberry juice for christening a ship! Whoever heard of such a thing! Yet it did happen recently. In fact two New England sea plane carriers . . . one at Plymouth and one at New Bedford . . . were christened with cranberry juice in silver-encased bottles.

Yet, when you think of the part these little red berries have played in the history and tradition of New England, it really wasn't such a strange idea. For, in addition to being "trimmin's" for the Thanksgiving turkey, cranberries always used to go to sea when Cape Cod skippers sailed their vessels to China, India and other far-away lands.

THEY'D NEVER HEARD OF VITAMINS

Of course, those old New England sea captains had never heard of Vitamin C and how it helps prevent scurvy . . . the dread disease of sailors. But they did know that when their sailors ate cranberry sauce several times a week, they did not have scurvy. That's why every boat carried several barrels of cranberries covered with cold fresh water and stored in a cold place because in this way the cranberries kept for months.

So the food chemists weren't really discovering anything new when they announced that cranberries, in addition to an impressive array of minerals, contained that important Vitamin C which helps to keep us in good health. The New England sea captains had known it all along, and considered themselves fortunate in having a native fruit that gave them this protection.

CRANBERRY SAUCE IN CANS

But they would have thought themselves even more fortunate, if they'd been able to buy their cranberry sauce already made and jellied and put up in cans . . . such as we have available to us today.

AN EASY AND REFRESHING CRANBERRY SALAD

I want to tell you about a delightfully refreshing and easy salad that was served me the other day. It was made by alternating slices of jellied cranberry sauce with orange slices (with the membrane removed) on a bed of frilly lettuce leaves. Mayonnaise modified with whipped cream was served with this salad. Grapefruit sections could be used as well as the orange sections. You'll find it the kind of a salad that you can serve at the beginning of the meal as an appetizer . . . or as a meat accompaniment. And it's a very happy choice to serve with a plate luncheon.

IF YOU MAKE YOUR OWN JELLIED CRANBERRY SAUCE

Cranberries contain so much pectin that they jell quickly,—so it will be an easy matter to make your own jellied cranberry sauce if the commercially canned sauce is not available in your community.

Boil together for five minutes	2 cups sugar and 2 cups water
Add	4 cups cranberries

Boil without stirring until mixture is thick and cranberries clear . . . about 15 minutes. Pour into a serving dish or jelly glasses and chill.

For a Clear Jellied Sauce: Rub sauce through coarse strainer before pouring into mold.

You'll made your jellied sauce in a jelly glass or tumbler for this salad. Turn out the sauce in a cylindrical mold . . . slice it . . . and then cut the slice in half so they'll fit nicely between the sections of orange or grapefruit.

SEVEN BOUNCES

When you are buying your cranberries to make this sauce, and bouncing them to determine their freshness and soundness, it may interest you to know that the commercial canners put their cranberries through this same bouncing test that has been used by our mothers and grandmothers. They do not want berries too old and weary to bounce in their sauce any more than you do. So they have a machine that bounces each berry seven times.

Betty Crocker will be glad to send you additional cranberry recipes—cranberry cocktail, cranberry pie, cranberry puddings, gelatin salads and cranberry relish. Simply send a self addressed and stamped envelope with your request to Betty Crocker, in care of this newspaper.

Entertaining the Teen Age

"No, Mary, you're not to go to the movies tonight! The show isn't worth seeing. Besides, I don't like the idea of your always chasing off evenings."

"What do you expect me to do—just sit around all evening alone, with my head stuck in a book?"

"Why don't you ever ask your friends to come here? Why must you always go away from home to have any fun?"

Perhaps such altercations might not be quite so frequent if parents would do a little careful planning to make staying at home attractive. The lure of commercial amusements, where the individual has to make little effort, is so great nowadays that mothers and fathers can't just sit back and complain about their children not staying home nights. They must provide something in the way of a counter attraction.

"But if I do ask a group of boys and girls in," says one mother, "they either act stiff as pokers, or else they rough-house all over the place."

This suggests the need of having up one's sleeve all manner of interesting things to do. Without bossing a party, a mother can unobtrusively switch the crowd from one activity to another, when interest in one thing begins to wane. She must use ingenuity, of course, but a good book of games should keep her from being at her wits' end.

In the early teen age years boys and girls are still not completely at ease with one another socially, so they're likely to form two groups, boys at one end of the room and girls at the other. It's necessary to have some clever ice-breaking ideas that will engage the interest of all at the outset. Contests are always popular. One such game is planned thus: two rival sides are lined up, and given pencils and paper. They are then told to look closely about them, to inspect the room carefully. After they have a chance to look around, some one should begin to remove from the conspicuous places where they have been put many objects that make up the list for the contest.

Another contest that causes much laughter is the paper-earing contest. Each person is given a sheet of newspaper and told to tear from it the outline of an elephant. The strange proportions that result, with the amazing placement of ears, trunk, and tail, show up how poor most people's powers of observation are. Stunts such as seeing who can tell the biggest fib, trying to bound certain states, such as Oklahoma or Ohio, may be fillers-in between other games.

Impromptu acting is always fun. After choosing sides, two groups may each select slogans, such as song titles, names of books or movies, or proverbs. Each selection is to be acted out, without the use of words, by a single individual from the opposing side. His colleagues have five minutes in which to guess the title. The two sides alternate in acting, and score is kept by the length of time taken by each side and the number of titles guessed correctly.

A recent book, "Betcha Can't Do It," by Alexander Van Rensselaer is a collection of all manner of amusing and seemingly impossible stunts that keep group interest from flagging. Edna Geister's books, "Ice Breakers," and "The Fun Book," are old favorites that never let you down.

RECORD BLIZZARD COSTS $250,000 TO OPEN STATE ROADS

Storm Reached Entire State Except Southeast Corner

Last week's untimely and record breaking snowstorm which claimed more than a half a hundred lives in Minnesota also took heavy toll from the state's trunk highway maintenance funds.

When all the work of widening out and sanding has been completed on roads which were hurriedly broken open after the storm subsided, C. L. Motl, maintenance engineer of the state highway department, estimated that its cost on state trunk highways will reach a total of $250,000.

Contributing to the extraordinary cost was the fact pointed out by Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffmann that, although equally severe winter storms have been experienced in many localities of the state, never before in his 26 year's experience with the department has a storm of such severity been so general and widespread as was this one which raged simultaneously over all of Minnesota except the extreme southeast corner.

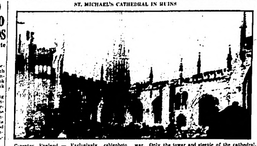
The highway department's snow fleet was in up-to-the minute readiness when the storm broke and went into action immediately. Forced to withdraw during the storm's greatest density, it resumed operations in every district as soon as visibility permitted plows to operate without undue danger to the lives and property of those in cars blockaded on the roads. Only because of this preparedness was the department able to accomplish the Herculean task of breaking open nearly 10,000 miles of state trunk routes within two days after the storm abated sufficiently to permit operations.

To achieve this feat against the worst storm since 1888, the highway department threw into the battle its entire fleet of "blizzard busters," comprising more than 500 motorized snow-fighting units. The cost of operating this extensive fleet of equipment, to uphold the reputation that "Minnesota's trunk highways are always open," is approximately $2,600 an hour.

Origin of 'Two-Bits'

Recent excavation at George Washington's birthplace, National Monument, Va., of an ancient coin concretely illustrates the origin of the phrase "two bits." The coin was a quarter segment of a spanish coin valued at two reales and minted early in the Eighteenth century. At that time it was common practice to cut large coins in two to make smaller ones. Hence the piece unearthed probably passed for one-half a reale.

ST. MICHAEL'S CATHEDRAL IN RUINS



Coventry, England — Exclusively cablephoto flashed to New York from London Saturday showing the ruins of the lovely 14th century St. Michael's Cathedral, after German raiders subjected the noted English city to the greatest terror of the war. Only the tower and steeple of the cathedral, 303 feet high, escaped. There were about 1,000 casualties and great property damage. Photo passed by the British censor.

Deer Hunters Urged to be on the Lookout for Black-Tailed Specimen

The department of conservation today called upon deer hunters to watch for the rare Minnesota black-tailed or mule deer during the coming season.

Any hunter bagging a black-tail during the 11 day shooting period that begins November 15 should report it to the Department of Conservation where the record will be of great scientific interest, officials said.

The black-tail was first described to science in 1899 by Charles Hallock for whom Hallock, Minn., was named. It differs from the white-tail—the common deer in Minnesota—in having a black tip on its tail instead of white.

Another distinguishing characteristic of the black-tail are its antlers. The antler prongs of the rarer species are always divided into two. The black-tail has larger ears than the white-tail, and also has a conspicuous white rump-patch around the tail.

Although originally found in Northwestern Minnesota, the black-tail has been considered extinct for more than 30 years. There have been frequent rumors it is still in the state.

'Give the Dew a Chance'

"Give the dew a chance. Try it for a week," pleaded Capt. S. J. Parker, the government's chief inspector of physical training, in a speech in Orpington, England. "We would all benefit permanently in our general health," he continued, "if we spent with discretion five or ten minutes every morning barefooted on the grass carrying out simple but purposeful movements, such as walking and arm, leg, trunk and breathing exercises."

STATE PROVIDES ONE-THIRD PART OF 'U' RECEIPTS

Greatest Peace Time Roll Call Will Come to End November 30

The University of Minnesota was a $13,880,538 business during the past year, of which sum almost exactly one-third was provided by the taxpayers of the state of Minnesota and two-thirds was derived from all other sources. This was shown today in the annual report of William T. Middlebrook, comptroller, published in condensed form under the title, "Brief summary of financial operations." The fiscal year in question ended June 30, 1940.

All categories of University of Minnesota support from the state totalled $4,726,378.30, and support from the federal government came to $1,776,409.93. This included Public Works Administration grants for new buildings in the amount of $1,012,829.89. The University of Minnesota's two funds derived from ownership of lands yielded income of $370,549.35, of which that from the so-called Permanent Fund was $294,616.94, and that from the Swamp Land fund $75,932.41.

Largest among all categories of university income was that provided by fees and receipts and by the income from self-supporting service enterprises and the like, which, together, came to $4,973,077.35. Fees and receipts are a major source of new income, whereas service enterprises, while operated on a narrow profit margin, require outlays approaching the size of the receipts.

From trust funds, largely endowments by gift of definite prizes, scholarships, loans and the like, the university derived income of $909,672.10 and income from intercollegiate athletics, the remaining major source, was $390,821.57.

All of the above categories of income came in total to $13,147,808.60, to which was added to make the total first given, $400,350 derived from sale of certificates of indebtedness in the Coffman Memorial Union financing, a decrease of $326,961.69 in outstanding obligations and allotted balances, and a free balance from July 1, 1939, of $5,414.79.

On the side of outgo, instruction and research claimed the largest amount, namely, $6,283,091, with physical plant extensions second at $2,534,861.55. The latter item was the largest on record because of the several PWA grants that covered such structures as Coffman Memorial Union, William J. Murphy Hall, the Museum of Natural History, Ada Comstock Hall, the new health service building at University Farm, Thatcher Hall, the dormitory for graduate students and the like.

Intercollegiate athletics cost the university $263,656.57, which includes that part of the expense of physical education defrayed by receipts from athletics. General university expense came to $637,767.15 covering such ventures as the library, publication of bulletins, storehouses, truck service, the employment bureau, intercampus trolley line, and the like. Administrative expense of $198,888.28 fell to a ratio of only one and five-tenths per cent from a normal of about two per cent, inasmuch as it did not vary materially while the gross turnover increased.

HOCKEY LEAGUE OPENS SEASON DECEMBER 17TH

Five-Team Loop Is Organized at Crookston Meeting Monday Night

PHIL LARSON RENAMED PRESIDENT OF LEAGUE

Crookston, Emerson, Grafton, Fargo and T. R. Falls to Compete

George Mains and Dr. Countryman from Grafton, Theodore Florence from Crookston, John Saul from Fargo, William Whiteman from Emerson, and Al Holzknecht and Joe Maruska from Thief River Falls, were the representatives from the various teams in the States-Dominion hockey league that met with president Phil Larson and secretary Ed. Johnson at Crookston Monday night and completed plans for the 1940-41 season. The league will be a five team circuit, with clubs from Crookston, Fargo, Grafton, Thief River Falls, and Emerson, Manitoba.

A 24 game schedule, with each team having 12 home games, was arranged, with the season to open on Dec. 17th, Fargo playing at Crookston, and Grafton playing at Thief River Falls. The complete schedule will be announced by league president Phil Larson as soon as a few date conflicts have been removed.

The league also voted to limit the monthly salary that a club may pay to $625.00; and restricted the teams to ten men in uniform for each game, although fifteen men may be registered for each team. Visiting teams are to be given a flat sum, $30.00, instead of the percentage of the gate receipts that has been customary in the previous years.

The American teams voted to affiliate with the American Amateur Hockey association, the Emerson club already being a member of the Canadian Hockey Association.

The league unanimously re-elected Phil Larson president, and Ed. Johnson secretary, and voted thanks and appreciation for the able and efficient manner in which they had conducted the league affairs.

50TH BIRTHDAY OF ZION CHURCH OBSERVED HERE

Services Held Last Week-end Commemorate Founding in 1890

MANY CONFIRMANDS ATTEND BANQUETS

Lutheran Free Church Head Pays High Tribute to Congregation

Fiftieth anniversary festivities held last week-end to commemorate the founding of Zion Lutheran church in this city in 1890 were well attended at all services, and attracted the attendance of all former pastors with the exception of Rev. Elias Berlie and Rev. George Larson. Rev. E. L. Tungseth, pastor of the church, was in charge of arrangements.

Attending banquets Friday and Saturday were 63 confirmands of classes previous to 1907; sixty for the period from 1907 to 1925; and 74 for the period from 1926 to date. Two of the confirmands' groups voted to create a fund for an anniversary gift of candeliers to the church in memory of the occasion.

Pastors participating in the exercises included Rev. Elias Aas of Minneapolis, who did much of the work preliminary to the organization of the congregation; Rev. August Bredeson; Rev. A. L. HOMESTEAD TAX IS CUT BY ATTY. GENERAL ORDER

Reduces State Tax on Homestead Exempt Property to 1.24 Mills

J. A. A. BURNQUIST MAKES RULING FRIDAY

Holds Tax Cannot Include a Levy for Payment of 1939 Debts

Attorney General J. A. A. Burnquist ruled Friday that the state auditor cannot order a 3.1 mill levy for 1940 against homestead property to meet debts incurred by the 1939 legislature.

Burnquist's opinion, which reverses Stafford King, state auditor, in his interpretation of the law, will mean a saving of between $600,000 and $700,000 for Minnesota home owners on their 1940 tax bill.

However, it was pointed out by Burnquist that there will be no corresponding increases in the 1940 tax rate applicable to other property since the total state rate is limited to ten mills.

In dollars and cents the difference in taxes will be $3.10 on a platted homestead and $2.48 on an unplatted homestead, the official opinion emphasized.

King said that, as a result of the decision, state tax collections will be short next year from $600,000 to $700,000. The deficiency problem, he said, will have to be met by the legislature.

The state levy on non-homesteads will remain the same as originally certified by King, 10 mills, which is the statutory limit. However, the rate on homestead exempt property will be only 1.24 mills as compared with the earlier certified rate of 3.34 mills. King said he was mailing out amended certificates as to the levies to all county auditors.

"To hold otherwise," said the opinion, drafted by Chester S. Wilson, deputy attorney general, "would open the door for partial or complete nullification of the homestead tax exemption law every time the legislature might pass a new act levying taxes for state purposes 'on all taxable property in the state'."

"Accordingly, it is my opinion that homesteads up to $4,000 true and full value are exempt from the three tax levy items in question."

The three items on which King originally based his tax levy were for financing of public relief, old age assistance and aid to dependent children, as passed by the 1939 legislature.

The attorney general's opinion resulted resulted from the alertness of Ramsey county officials who questioned King's figures. At the request of Eugene A. Monich, county auditor, Burnquist was asked by James F. Lynch, Ramsey county attorney, to rule on the matter.

A total of 190 aliens residing in this locality have registered and had their fingerprints taken to date at the Thief River Falls postoffice in accordance with a federal statute. City Tax Bill To Be Lower in 1941

As the result of a drastic cut of 9.75 mills in the tax levy for city purposes in Thief River Falls, together with a reduction of 2.39 mills in the state levy on homesteads, owners of homesteads in this city with a full and true value of up to $4,000 will pay taxes in 1941 on the basis of a total rate of 97.96 mills, compared to 107.84 mills in effect this year.

The total rate in the city on non-homestead and personal property will be 106.72 mills, compared to 114.21 mills levied in 1939, County Auditor A. M. Senstad announced. The higher rate on these classes of property compared to that enjoying a homestead-exemption status is due to the fact that they will bear a ten-mill levy for state purposes, instead of the 1.24 mill rate affecting homesteads.

The following items go to make up the total levy on homestead-exempt property in Thief River Falls:

	Mill rates 1939	1940
State levy	3.63	1.24
County levy	40.59	42.85
City levy	25.12	15.37
School Dist.	38.5	38.5
	107.84	97.96

Contributing to the higher levy for county purposes for the coming year is an item of 4.44 mills to raise $16,250.23, approximately the sum required to pay delinquent poor fund reimbursements to the city of Thief River Falls and other county subdivisions.

Auditor Senstad recently received word from G. Howard Spaeth, state tax commissioner, that the commission had made no changes in real estate and personal property valuations for Pennington county as approved by the county board of equalization.

Urges Public Support for Campaign Now Getting Under Way

Lending his official support to the annual Christmas seal campaign which opened in this community Monday, Mayor W. W. Prichard today issued the following proclamation:

"With a sense of fulfilling official duty as mayor and with wholehearted commendation as a private citizen, I hereby endorse the purchase of Christmas seals as a method of raising funds for the great national fight against tuberculosis.

"The approach of the holiday season once again has brought to the citizens of Thief River Falls the simple, direct appeal of the campaign. Each tiny seal is a contribution toward a cause of the utmost worthiness. To protect homes—all our homes—from the tragedies caused by the ravages of tuberculosis is the objective of the annual Christmas seal campaign. We pride ourselves that ours is a community of homes. So let us join whole-heartedly in this effort to safeguard our homes, our community, our state, and our nation.

"I hope that all our citizens will buy as many seals as possible this year. Let every greeting card and gift package that goes forth, come from our post-office, carrying these small decorations, attesting that our community is alive to its responsibilities and is doing its part in a great national drive."

COUNTY AGENT REVIEWS WORK IN PENNINGTON

Annual Report Covering Past Year's Work Finished Last Week

WIDE PARTICIPATION SHOWN IN AAA PLAN

4-H Club Activities Come in for Large Portion of Attention

Listing a wide variety of activities tending to promote the economic and social well being of citizens of rural Pennington county, the annual report of the county agent's office was completed this week for submission to county, state and federal authorities. Former County Agent Howard Grow reviewed the period from November, 1939, to October 1, 1940, while his successor Lester Lerud reported for the month of October.

The report reveals that 95 per cent of the county's farmers signed up in 1940 for participation in the agricultural conservation program, which is administered in connection with the county agent's office; and shows further that nearly 1200 cooperating farmers received payments for 1939 aggregating $147,199.

Following are some of the past years events affecting agriculture in the county as detailed in the report:

Pennington county was certified, following a county-wide test, as being free of Bangs disease in cattle, this being the second county in the state to be completely tested.

A total of 850 tons of poison bait was spread on approximately 25,000 acres of land in the course of the grasshopper campaign.

Wheat crop insurance policies to the number of 169 were issued, losses being sustained by 83 insured farmers.

Altho the drouth damaged some plantings, fifty windbreaks in the county were improved this year as the result of a payment for the purpose under the AAA program.

Commenting on the larger acreage being devoted to corn in the county, the report said, "Farmers are growing a bigger acreage of corn both for grain and forage, and have adopted many desirable farming practices. They have grown recommended varieties and have begun to realize the value of fertilizers in growing this crop."

Another evidence of progress noted is the rural electrification project now being carried to completion in this and adjoining counties, the 70 miles of lines in Pennington county being scheduled to serve 200 patrons, with a possibility of supplementary projects being applied for later on.

A considerable portion of the report is devoted to county 4-H club activities, in which the participants included 505 boys and girls who were members of 18 organized clubs. Features of the year were the annual banquet staged by the Civic and Commerce association for 550 4-h members and their leaders; dramatic and music festival; and 4-H club picnic.

Other club activities included participation of 93 members and leaders in 4-H club week at Crookston; trips of 21 members to the state fair, and seven to the junior livestock show at South St. Paul.

The report reveals also that 285 members and 88 leaders participated during the year in the home project for 1940, "Feeding the Family".

The Pennington county draft board today stressed the importance of selective service registrants returning their questionnaires within the allotted five-day period unless granted an extension by the board, it being pointed out that a considerable number of registrants have failed to comply with this requirement. With 500 questionnaires sent out to date, no more will be mailed out for the time being, it was revealed.

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

Plans for the winter recreation program sponsored by the city council in cooperation with Work Projects Administration recreation leaders are just about complete. Snow and cold weather are needed so that the shift from fall to winter activities may be made. Plans of the recreation planning committee, along with Supervisor F. B. Elstad call for inauguration of the winter program December 1st, subject to weather changes.

The arena gymnasium, game room, craft shop, as well as puppetry will be carried over from the fall to the winter season. The recreation center where many athletic games have been played will shut down during the winter to make way for skating and hockey.

The winter program will follow closely that of last year, but with a greater variety of activities to include all age groups.

Definite winter activities such as hockey and skating will play a large part in the winter program. Many other activities will be available, however. An independent basketball league will be formed, with games played in the auditorium. Provision will be made for these teams to play host to out-of-town teams. Another league for businessmen is planned. This will be volleyball, however, with games played in the new high school gym.

An attempt will be made to make tobogganing a major winter sport. The slide at Tindolph park will be manned by a recreation leader.

Ordinary skating, figure skating and hockey will be on schedule in the sports arena. It is hoped the services of a figure skating instructor can be obtained to give regular instructions. Hockey for all age groups will be had. Of particular importance here will be a grade school league.

Other activities to be included in the recreation program are a Christmas party, an ice carnival, card parties, checker tournaments, winter hikes, and other miscellaneous events.

Persons interested in any of the winter activities are encouraged to get in touch with the recreation leaders. From them more definite information can be received. The leaders may be found at the sports arena.

Snowstorm Kills 800 Pheasants at Madelia

Working day and night with picks and snow shovels, workers rescued more than 1,400 pheasants from drifts that buried them alive within holding pens on the Madelia state game farm. The sudden fury of the Armistice Day storm caught the approximately 2,500 Madelia farm pheasants off guard. Hundreds were buried under drifts that mounted eight and ten feet. Farm officials estimated 800 other breeder pheasants froze to death. Rescue operations prevented more than double those fatalities.

Each of the three hunters who took part in the killing of a 500 pound bear northeast of here this week told us that he would never attempt to shoot a bear again if he were alone. Bears do not kill easily, according to their story. One shot might do it, but probably not, and a wounded bear is not safe company for a person who is not accustomed to shooting under pressure. It sounded to us like good advice.

In less than three weeks, providing the weather remains frosty, we will see the opening game of another season of hockey, and that thought to some extent offsets the regret with which we say farewell to another summer. Prospects for the hockey season are not too bad. In the five team league that has been organized the local team is scheduled to play 24 games and judging by the interest that is being shown at the present time, each game will be a battle. Thanks to the energy of a few good workers, the deficit from last year's hockey is now nearly cleaned up and this year's team will start the season without a financial handicap.

One difficulty we have in our arguments with advocates of various types of pension plans is to get them to state specifically how their particular plans are to be financed. They prefer to speak of the hoped-for benefits, a phase of the subject on which there is little room for differences of opinion. But on the question of costs, and who is going to pay the bill, we find it extremely difficult to pin them down to any specific idea. We find that advocates of the same plan do not always agree among themselves as to how the funds will be provided to support that plan. Some tell us there will be transaction taxes and others tell us there will be no new taxes at all. A few speak vaguely of some mysterious kind of money magic that will provide the self perpetuating prosperity. Before we could subscribe to any plan that proposed giving billions of dollars each year to a special group of our citizens we would have to know where the dollars were going to come from. A small tax, unfortunately, raises only a small fund. To raise a large fund requires a heavy tax. Those who will be expected to pay have a right to know how much the cost is going to be.

For the first time in twenty years, Thief River Falls home owners will be assessed less than 100 mills when the levy is spread this year. That almost calls for a celebration. Owners of non-homestead real estate will pay substantially less too so everyone should be happy. Most of the decrease is due to the reduction in the city's levy, the council having cut to the bone in budgeting themselves for the coming year. A round of cheers for the city officials.

We can remember away back when old timers used to get together and tell tall tales about the Jesse James gang and, as we remember it, the old timers were pretty well agreed that the James brothers were a tough outfit. Under the circumstances it was only natural that we came to look upon them in much the same way. It upset us a little, therefore, when we saw the movie version of the outlaws here this week, to learn that the James boys really were splendid fellows. The picture gave us just a glimpse of Jesse himself. Evidently a fine, home loving chap, he was having a little difficulty getting a "God Bless Our Home" motto hung square on his living room wall when the dastardly Ford brothers shot him in the back. At this time brother Frank, who had gone west young man, was busy cutting logs for the cabin he was building by the side of the road in the county where he was going straight under an assumed name. Frank was a hard spitting but always clean shaven young man who, it was plain to be seen, had been wronged by society. His first reaction to the news that Jess had been killed was very noble. He knew that law and order would catch up to the criminals. It was not until he heard that the Fords had been pardoned and rewarded that his bosom heaved in unmistakable anger. Quick as a flash he dug his six shooter out of the oats bin and galloped away to square accounts. First he robbed the express company, which was not wrong, we were assured, because the express company had put up the reward money for dead or alive Jess. The express agent was killed but he was a hireling of big biz. After "getting" one of the Fords, Frank surrendered to save the life of a por ol darky and, incidentally to humor the gal in the story. The jury acquitted him of all crimes of course and he went directly from the court room to the livery stable across the street where he bumped off the remaining Ford and the picture ended with everyone happy apparently and the James brothers completely vindicated. Now that we have been set straight on the prankish youngsters who robbed the Northfield bank we hope the scenario writers will soon give us the true story of the lives of such men as John Dillinger and Pretty Boy Floyd. We are sure such movies will have a very wholesome effect on the thinking of young Americans.

Let's check the figures again and see where we would get if we attempted to finance a pension plan by a 2% tax on retail sales. A merchant doing a business of $100,000 would then pay $2,000 toward the pension fund, which would be spent right back with him, increasing his next year's volume to $102,000, on which he would then contribute $2,040, which, when spent back with him, would give him a volume of $102,040. This is as it would work out year after year, the merchant's volume increasing only as his contributions increased. And that which he contributed would reduce by exactly the same figure the amount that he would be able to spend for other purposes. In other words, the total amount of money spent would remain the same, the only difference being that the merchant would spend less for himself, and those who received what he contributed would spend more. Figure it out with fifteen different pencils and you still get the same answer. In order to give to some you must take from others. By such a procedure you can shift buying power but you cannot increase it.

PUBLIC OPINION

To the Editor:

Again I am intruding on your hospitality to try and help you and many other people who hold exactly the same idea as you do when you say, "We still don't know how it is possible to give money to one group of people without taking it from some other group."

In trying to dissipate from the minds of people, beliefs they have always held, it is well to remind them that for millions of years people believed the earth was flat and that the sun, the moon and all of the heavenly bodies were arranged to serve and beautify the earth. They were the trimmings, the earth the real important and object in the universe. Today most of us believe the earth is round and as compared with other bodies, just a mere atom in infinite space. Intelligent people have discarded thousands of beliefs that were held as truths for centuries. Had you told a man just a few days ago that iron would float on water you would have been thought insane but it does float on water as readily as feathers and again just a few days ago we had more crazy men trying to make it sail through the air, surely a crazy notion, but today we know that tons upon tons of iron is flying through the air swifter than the fastest flying bird. In line with many old but now discarded beliefs, a general belief prevails that advertising is a charge upon the public, that the money the merchant gives you for advertising his wares, must come out of somebody's pocket and of course the poor dear public are held in belief as the victims. This belief is just as erroneous as the belief that the earth was flat. The public does not pay the bill, it is paid by extra volume of business without costing the public one extra cent and generally leaving money in the public pocket rather than taking it out. The issue of the Times of Nov. 14th carried almost a full page advertisement of merchandise for sale by Geo. Peters & Son. It was well arranged, clean, clear and attractive. I noticed the smiling face at the top, the cluster of grapes and all of the cuts down to the turkey with butcher's cap and apron and pencil and pad waiting to serve the public. Looking over the prices, I decided to call at the store and examine an article I could use and while the article I wanted was priced at 29 cents, I left with Mr. Peters $2.16. If there was just fifty other people who were attracted by the ad as I was, I have no doubt the extra business would have paid for the ad and it is reasonable to suppose that many times fifty people were attracted by the ad. Did I pay for the ad or any part of it, with any loss to myself? No I did not. I was money in my pocket by reading it and Mr. Peters not only had sufficient extra profit to reimburse his expense but in paying you for the ad he blazed a trail that many who had not traveled that way previously, followed to his store.

Let us follow through just one more example. A small loaf of bread sells for ten cents, the grocer pays eight and makes two cents profit. Let us assume that he sells fifty loaves per day. His bread bill is $4.00 per day, his income is $5.00 per day, his profit on bread is $1.00 per day. We eat bread seven days in the week and it leaves the grocer with a profit at the end of the year of $365.00 on his bread business. This profit has cost him just $1.00, not one cent more for he has in his till every night the same $4.00 he paid for bread in the morning. This may appear unreasonable but it is true and the same principle applies to every article a merchant handles, large or small, although the turnover in bread is faster than any other article except milk and cream. The Townsend Plan comes into effect and the money injected into the business channels of the country raises the volume of retail business at least 30 per cent. Let us look at the picture now. The merchant sells 65 loaves instead of fifty. He pays out $5.20 instead of $4.00. He takes in $6.50 instead of $5.00, leaving a profit of $1.30 for the day and $474.50 for the year. But on his business he now pays two per cent on his bread sales which amount to $2,275.00 on which the two per cent takes from him $45.50 leaving him $429.00 profit instead of $365.00. He has made an extra profit of $64.00 on his bread business under the Townsend Plan of doing business and this same principle applies to every class of business except gambling or speculation in any form.

In a previous article, I said that volume of business is the essential element to success under the profit system and Mr. Peters and all other up to date merchants are willing to pay you for advertising space in order to maintain and increase their business. He pays you for the service although the sale may begin at a future date but whether it is done at once or a little later the business it brings to him, brings back all and more than he gave you and that is exactly the principle underlying the business phase of the Townsend National Recovery Act with the additional assurance in the later case that the business it creates is more assured, they must spend the money and must spend it for the things that are a part of their daily needs. Thus we find that it is not only possible but thoroughly rational to make use of this great latent buying agency without costing one man in the country who is in legitimate business or the public one penny. Yours respectfully, T. J. Welsh.

George Wallace Admits Guilt in Shakedown Try

Rev. Henry J. Soltau returned to Minneapolis from a deer hunting trip Saturday, "shocked" at the outcome of the gambling investigation he started in Scott county.

He was unaware, he declared, that George Wallace, legal adviser to the Minnesota law enforcement league (of which Soltau is secretary), had pleaded guilty, in the $6,500 Shakopee shakedown attempt.

He began calling a series of meetings of various church groups to discuss and consider the situation.

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor The Times:

A table in the form of a large chart is prominently displayed in the City Auditorium under the direction of the local taxpayers association. We believe that the purpose is worthy of praise. Good democratic government depends upon such interest being shown. However, on any matter as important as this one, any information submitted to the public should be true facts, and we would therefore like to call attention to the following errors and misrepresentations.

The purpose of any statistical table is to show in picture form rather than in sentences and paragraphs a definite conclusion. Because usually no written explanation accompanies such a table, it is very important to compile the data in such a way that there can be no misunderstanding in interpretation after reading it. The first lesson in an elementary course in statistical theory and mechanics gives five cautions which should be heeded lest the reader gain the wrong conclusion from the tables. These are as follows: (1) bias, (2) neglect of important factors, (3) non-comparable data, (4) insufficient data, and (5) errors in data.

The first caution, bias, has been violated through an apparent attempt at weighing by including such items as soil payments and unemployment insurance when there is considerable doubt as to whether these constitute relief. Why not include HOLC, FHA, etc.? Soil payments are a subsidy, in the same way that our million dollar steamship and air lines and post offices are subsidized, but they are not exactly relief. Unemployment insurance is no more relief than is life insurance.

The second caution, neglect of important factors, is violated by the improper title of the last column. Most persons reading the table would think that the county was making all of these expenditures, whereas over half of them are not made by any county official but are made by local citizens or by local political subdivisions. For example, the county spent only $533.83 of the $37,672 listed as being spent by the county under WPA; and it spent none of the $29,909.00 listed under UC as a county expenditure. It would appear from this column that the county had spent $119,186.00 as its share of Welfare in 1939, whereas it actually spent one-fourth of this amount.

Caution number three, non-comparable data, is violated in three ways: by including relief expenditures with those that perhaps were not; by including the so called emergency reliefs such as WPA, FSA, etc., with those permanent and absolutely necessary programs of long standing such as the T. B. Sanatorium and University Hospital; and, finally, by including those programs in which the county has a little voice, such as OAA, ADC, etc., with those on which it has absolutely no control of any kind such as WPA, NYA, etc.

The number four caution, insufficient data, is violated by failing to make known such facts as the amount of control which the county has over any one of the programs. For instance if the county pays either too much or too little OAA and ADC, the state and federal governments will compel the county under legal action to adjust the payment. Also, there should be accompanying data showing the source of funds other than just federal, state, and county. The table shows the federal government paying four-fifths of the total which is about correct. But neither Pennington county nor any of the other Minnesota counties paid much of these federal taxes. In 1939, the federal government put $35,000,000.00 more into Minnesota than it took out of it. The bulk of this money, when not borrowed came from the Eastern states in the form of export and import taxes and also by taxes on high incomes, both corporation and personal. For example, 30% of all import taxes are set aside by law for the specific purpose of purchasing surplus commodities, and Minnesota doesn't have many ports from which these taxes are collected.

Finally, caution number five, errors, is the most frequent and serious violation of the table. If $98,275.00 was spent on OAA in the county in 1939, then the county's share would be only one-sixth or $16,379.00 instead of the $22,475.00 listed in the table. This is an error of over $6,000.00 as to what the county spent on OAA. The county pays one-third of ADC and the division shown in the table could not possibly be correct. The county spent $1,000.00 less than the table shows. The next line, Direct Relief, we are unable to comprehend at all. All of the next items are correct up to the WPA item which shows the county spending $37,672.00, which is an overstatement of over $37,000. It is quite possible that the city spent this amount but it should not be listed as a county expenditure. We suppose that what the city spent on WPA was their share of permanent improvements such as curbing and sewers which will be returned to them in the form of taxes, and we also believe that the property owners have some choice on the question of these improvements. The Student Aid line of $200.00 should be twenty times that amount with the State and Federal government paying it all. The UC line shows the county spending $29,909.00 and actually it paid none of it. Perhaps individual stores paid this amount but it should not be inferred that the county did the spending. The next line of administration is very much wrong. Finally, the last line shows a county expenditure of $700.00 for Child Welfare and the amount was less than $50.00.

Thus we have the county spending as follows:

OAA	$ 16,379.00
ADC	8,129.00
WPA	700.00
Administration	2,146.00
Surplus	1,511.00
Child Welfare	50.00
	$ 28,915.00

We have not included the Sanatorium or the University Hospital as we do not believe that they are related items. Even if included, the total county expenditure would be raised to only $47,000.00 instead of the $119,186.00 listed in the table. Our figures are not exact but are quite close.

Sincerely yours,
Pennington Co. Welfare Board,
Alfred Bredeson
O. M. Mandt
Paul Roy
Mrs. E. J. Richards
Mrs. Abbie Wassgren

Dearest son, brother thou hast left us a year ago Nov. 29,
And our loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that has bereft us,

When the day of life is fled,
When in heaven in joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

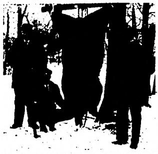
Bag Biggest Trophy of the Big Game Season



These three jubilant hunters, in quest of deer in the vicinity of Williams, bagged far bigger quarry Sunday, no less than a monster black bear weighing more than 500 pounds alive and 430 pounds dressed. Shown with their trophy are Sheriff Arthur Rambeck, left; Helmer O. Ness, center; and A. F. Berge. Six bullets fired by all three hunters were required to kill the beast, which had been spied by Mr. Ness in a swamp close to its den.

Conservation Division Retains Ban on Spearing G. N. Pike and Pickerel

The department of conservation this week continued its order prohibiting the spearing of Great Northern pike and pickerel in a move to preserve the fish life balance of Minnesota waters.

Acting on the recommendation of fisheries technicians, Commissioner W. L. Strunk extended the ban originally decreed last April 4 for an indefinite period. It will have the effect of prohibiting all winter ice spearing of this species.

The order pointed to investigations which disclosed an alarming decrease in the number of large pickerel in Minnesota lakes.

"It is known that there is danger of undue depletion of pickerel, and that the proper balance of fish life in lakes is still endangered by virtue of spearing," the order read.

SPORTS Tid-Bits

By Huck Olson

A Big Bear

That's quite a bear story that Art Rambeck, Al Berge and Ole Ness have been telling; but they have the bear for proof and evidence. The trio was south of Williams hunting deer when they stumbled on the bear as he was preparing his den for winter. After a consultation it was decided that bear steak would add variety to their menu and Ole, who had first spotted the bear, was given the honor of adding the bear to the bag. He drew a bead of the bear, pulled the trigger, and drilled a bullet into the bear's head. The bear cringed back into the den and Ole gave him another shot. This shot sent the bear out of the den with a roar, and Al Berge took up the battle, with Ole looking for a tree. Al knocked the bear down with a shot, and for a few minutes it was like a Joe Louis fight, he's down, he's up, he's down, with a bullet knocking the bear down every time he got up. And finally Art Rambeck put a clincher on the argument when he plugged the bear behind the ear.

The bear weighed 430 pounds dressed, so you can see that he was quite a tough customer when he was back on his haunches swinging rights and lefts at Art, Al, and Ole.

Hockey

With the States-Dominion hockey league schedule set to open on Dec. 17th, there is going to be quite a scramble for hockey players. That is, four of the teams will be scrambling for players, for it is rumored that the Grafton Millionaires are all set for the season. Their manager, a former St. Paul player by the name of Gordon Teel, was to report there yesterday and he was to have the players under contract. Eddie Beaulieau, a fine play-making wingman, is reported to be the only player of last year's Grafton team that will be with the club this year.

Crookston's plans are very indefinite, but there, too, rumors are circulating to the effect that Chet LaDoux, the league's high scorer last year, is to be the coach, and that Chet will have his brother Harley on the team with him this year. And it is probable that defense-man Ben Howard and Center-man Bob Allen will be back with the Pirates.

Bill LaFave, Bill Dahlquist, and Alex Campbell are on the committee that is to organize the local team and secure players for the season. This committee has reached an agreement with George Beverley, and he's to return; but other players have not been signed to contracts.

Judge Arnold in Fur Business?

It looks like it, because in a friendly game of cribbage last week Telmer Bauman handed the Judge a 'double skunk', and followed that up with a single 'skunk' in the next game. The Judge took these 'skunks', and now he's been seen studying the fur quotations.

Ducks, Very Limited

I've been patrolling the river banks the past couple of weeks, hoping to find a duck or two frozen in the ice. My report to the game commissioner will read: three or four shots, but no ducks. Of course with my percentage I need more than three or four shots before I can expect to get a duck. But this 'no duck' business is perhaps poetic justice, or something, for I'm the guy that said there were thousands of ducks around here.

Miscellany

'Bones' Stadum, freshman at the 'U', won a numeral and sweater in football this fall. He was listed as a tackle and end on the 'B' squad, but the classifications of 'A' and 'B' in freshmen football doesn't mean so much. If 'Bones' can put another ten or fifteen pounds on his rangy frame he's going to be able to play some Big Ten football, for he's rough and tough enough.

Roy Lee hasn't been able to do much practicing with the freshman basketball squad at the 'U'. Roy's taking engineering, and that course, especially in the freshman year, is quite a grind. He's able to get on the basketball floor about once or twice a week.

Milton Nesse, captain of this season's St. Olaf college football team, and who was plagued with injuries through most of the year, was selected on the United Press all-state second team.

Fined in Local Court for Drunken Driving

After tipping his car over late Sunday evening on a road in Rocksbury township, Clarence Warner, enrollee in the Middle River CCC camp, was brought into municipal court on a drunken driving charge. Judge Lincoln Arnold imposed a fine of $15 and $3 costs, and suspended Warner's driver's license for a period of nine months.

Glen Tasa of Hickory Shoots Fine Buck Deer

One of the handsomest specimens of deer brought into the city by hunters during the recent open season which closed Monday was a huge buck weighing 298 pounds and bearing a fine set of antlers with 48 prongs on its horns. The animal was bagged the opening day of the season by Glen Tasa of Hickory township while hunting 14 miles east of Plummer.

Independent Quintet Loses Well Played Tilt to Warroad Saturday

The Thief River Falls Independents opened their basketball season by dropping a well-played game to the Warroad team, 38 to 26, at Warroad last Saturday night. Wayne Bredeson, Earl Nicholson, and Loren Jung, were the high scorers for Thief River, while the two Dumas brothers, with 13 counters each, paced the Warroad team.

FRANK W. MURPHY, NOTED ATTORNEY, SUCCUMBS FRIDAY

Former Wheaton Man Had Been Regent of University of Minnesota

Frank W. Murphy of Wheaton, veteran battler for agriculture and one of Minnesota's best known citizens, died in his sleep Friday at the Radison hotel in Minneapolis, where he and Mrs. Murphy had been living for several years. He was 71.

Murphy was president of the Minnesota State Bar association in 1934, and named a committee which launched a study of the crime problem and which resulted in extensive changes in state laws. He had been president of the state fair board 20 years ago.

He had been a regent of the University of Minnesota and led in the movement to elect Guy Stanton Ford president.

For years he was chairman of the executive committee of the American Council of Agriculture and was a crusader for the McNary-Haugen farm bill. A delegate to the Republican national convention in 1928, he left the party on the farm issue, supported Al Smith and President Roosevelt, but this year swung to the Republican party once more.

Always actively interested in politics, he declined to follow party lines, but was a strenuous opponent of extreme radicalism. He was a law partner of Victor E. Anderson, United States district attorney.

GOOSE IS PET OF REDWOOD FALLS WOMAN

Redwood Falls—Mrs. John Zajic of Lucan has an unusual pet in a goose which follows her around expecting to be petted like a little dog and tries to help out with her chores. Among the tasks which the goose enjoys are filling a basket with corncobs, tugging clothes from the clothes basket when his mistress is hanging clothes (and, incidentally, dropping them on the ground if she isn't watchful) and picking up clothes pins.

ROBIN DEFIES STORM

Battle Lake—Seen preening itself contentedly and apparently paying no attention to the prevailing chilly winds that had been blowing for 24 hours on Tuesday, November 12, was a robin which had become so attached to the home of Miss Jennie Moore of Battle Lake that it evidently didn't care to leave for the south with its fellow birds.

VALLEY NEWSMEN HOLD MEETING AT MOORHEAD NOV. 23

Lee Nelson of Mahnomen Is Elected President for Ensuing Year

A large group of newspaper men from thruout Northwestern Minnesota assembled at Moorhead Saturday for the annual winter session of the Red River Valley group of the Minnesota Editorial association. Wayne Peterson, publisher of the Moorhead Daily News, presided over the meeting, which was held at the Moorhead Country club.

Speakers included Paul Keith and Allan McGowan, respectively president and secretary of the Minnesota Editorial association, and W. A. Currie of the faculty of the State School of Science at Wahpeton, N. D.

Lee Nelson of Mahnomen was elected president of the group for the coming year, and Ray Pfund of Ada was named secretary. It was voted to hold the 1941 summer meeting at Pinehurst resort east of Mahnomen, and the winter meeting at Crookston.

Attending the meeting from Thief River Falls were W. E. Dahlquist and C. W. Mattson.

Deaths of Young and Old Add Most to Ten-Months Traffic Toll Increase

The lives of the very young and the very old are the most easily lost in traffic accidents, according to a study made of fatalities for the first 10 months of this year by the safety division of the state highway department. A total of 459 traffic deaths have resulted from motor vehicle accidents in this 10-month period this year, compared with 432 for the same period of 1939, an increase of 27 deaths.

The greatest increases in the death toll are found in the age groups 0 to 15 and 65 and over. Fatalities in the children's group rose from 39 to 46; in the group of elderly people from 38 to 57. The age groups between these two extremes had a very favorable experience, with the age group 25 to 40 showing a drop of 9 lives—or 9 lives saved in this group alone.

By a strange coincidence, the increase in pedestrian deaths for this same period also totals 27—exactly the increase in the number of total fatalities for 1940 over 1939. Here again, the very young and the very old contributed the greatest number of victims, with 14 more children being killed this year than last, and 19 more pedestrians 65 and over losing their lives this year than last. Commendable gains were registered in the age groups 15 to 24 and 45 to 64, with 8 fewer pedestrian being killed in these two age groups this year than were killed last year in the same 10-month period.

High Scholarship Roll for Mid-semester Made Public at N. W. School

The senior class leads the other classes with sixteen students in the high scholarship group. Students listed by classes in the high scholarship roll include: (2.00 points through 2.5 points): Freshmen: Audrey Hylland, Grygla; Donald Boutain, Red Lake Falls; Marjorie Ofstedahl, Plummer. SOME FOLKS DON'T HAVE TO HUNT PHEASANTS

Good Thunder—Guns, hunting clothes, dogs, arising at early hours, and long tramps through the country are unnecessary to Dr. Schmidt of Good Thunder who merely has to drive his car along the road and pheasants kill themselves and fly obligingly to his window. At least that was his experience while driving along a road a few Sundays ago. Noticing five pheasants huddled at the edge of the road, he veered his car away from them, but they flew up in front of the car, two roosters hitting the windshield and going on over the car, or so he thought until he got home and discovered that one of the roosters had been killed and was drawn into the back of the car by the draft of an open rear window.

New Bridge to Span Niagara Falls

Niagara Falls—While bridges on international borders in Europe are being destroyed first concrete arches of Rainbow Bridge, 200 feet above famous gorge, take form from Canadian and New York shores. The Rainbow Bridge, to be completed in 1941, replaces Falls View Bridge which collapsed under ice pressure in 1938 and will be the longest fixed arch span in the world. "Maid of the Mist", familiar to many tourists, seems diminutive as it passes below.

MAIL CHRISTMAS PARCELS EARLY, IS POSTOFFICE PLEA

Parcels Post Service to European Nations Is Limited by War

With the season for mailing Christmas gifts and greeting cards shortly at hand, Postmaster Andrew Anderson this week issued to patrons of the local postoffice his annual appeal to "Do your Christmas mailing early."

The European war, it was pointed out, has greatly curtailed forwarding of Christmas parcels to countries in Europe, parcels post service to Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Germany, Italy and Greece having been suspended. The service to Great Britain, however, is being continued.

The postmaster urged that when the time comes for mailing Christmas greeting cards, local residents, and particularly those of school age exchanging cards, should make a practice of giving the street address as well as the name of the recipient. If the street address is omitted, delivery of the cards will be delayed.

WIFE LOST IN SNOW WITHIN OWN YARD

Aitkin—Memories of the hardships of the early prairie settlers were recalled when near-tragedy struck at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Stine on the first night of the November blizzard. With the storm increasing in velocity, Mr. and Mrs. Stine went out to rescue some pigs which were without shelter in an open pen. Finding that the wind took their breath away, they turned back, but the wife, becoming separated from her husband, took a wrong turn and lost her bearings being unable to see the lights of the house. Not finding his wife in the house, her husband set out in search of her and after quite a while stumbled upon her where she had become exhausted and fallen in a snowdrift and was unable to rise again.

SMALL BIRCH TREE SAVES MAN'S LIFE

Aitkin—J. A. Bright, resident of the Pallsade community near Aitkin, has a small lone birch tree to thank for his life, or at least the absence of extensive injuries. Recently his car skidded and jumped across the road, heading straight for a steep river bank 20 feet high, rising out of water 12 feet in depth. Unguided, the car came to rest on the very brink of the river, stopped by a small birch tree, the only tree along that part of the river bank.

Gasoline Taxes Bring in $15,920,000 to Nov. 1

The state gasoline tax brought in $1,749,700 in October, G. Howard Spaeth, state tax commissioner, reported late last week.

Total October collections were $2,071,702, with refunds for non-highway use amounting to $321,942. Comparisons with previous months and with similar months of previous years is not practical, because the current tax rate is three cents per gallon as compared with four cents last year, Spaeth explained.

To date, total net collections for the first ten months of this year are $15,920,043, as compared with $15,554,396 for the same period of 1939, or an increase of 2.35 per cent.

FAKE BROADCASTS ON SCHOOL CLOSING

Morris—As was the case in many places during the Armistice Day storm, the Morris school authorities notified a Twin City radio station that there would be no school in Morris on Tuesday. However, the following day there came the announcement that there would be no school on Wednesday. That the broadcast was not just an error on the part of the studio, but was being "sponsored" by someone who evidently did not care to resume school work even after the storm had subsided, was confirmed Wednesday night when the same station announced that there would be no school at Morris until the following Monday. The school authorities are putting forth every effort to ascertain the radio station's informant at Morris.

LOCOMOTIVES HAVE HUGE APPETITES

Willmar—The Bartles-Scott Oil Co. of Willmar discovered recently that when "fill her up" refers to one of those big oil burning locomotives, it definitely doesn't mean five or ten. When two of the engines were stranded in Willmar on Armistice Day they put through a call to the oil company to replenish their storage tanks. Bringing the fuel a truckload at a time, it took five trips with the truck and the total count was 5,900 gallons for the two engines.

114 FHA LOANS ARE PLACED IN COUNTY SINCE EARLY 1935

State Director Announces Payments on Housing Loans Being Met

A total of 114 families in Pennington county made property repairs or embarked on the road to home ownership under the National Housing Act in the period from 1935 through June 30th of this year, it was reported here today by Daniel J. Fouquette, Federal Housing Administration state director for Minnesota, North and South Dakota.

Included in this total were 97 property improvement loans insured under Title 1 amounting to $40,417.61 and 17 home mortgages accepted for insurance by FHA amounting to $66,100.00.

"This volume of small repairs and new and existing homes mortgage insurance is very encouraging," Mr. Fouquette stated. "Home buyers at the same time are meeting their mortgage obligations in almost perfect order. At present FHA has on hand five homes in the three states of Minnesota, North and South Dakota which have been acquired by default. When compared with the 11,439 small home mortgages accepted for FHA insurance in these three states, this lapse represents an almost negligible fraction."

Beneficiaries in State Collect Life Insurance

The families and other beneficiaries of Minnesota policyholders received an aggregate of $13,469,000 from life insurance companies in settlement of death claims during the first nine months of 1940, it was announced today by the Institute of Life Insurance. Of the death claim benefit payments made in this state, this year, up to September 30, 1940, $11,232,000 was paid out on ordinary policies, $1,480,000 on group policies and $757,000 on industrial policies.

Use of Safety Goggles Is Urged by Physicians in Industry and Sports

There is one simple way of protecting eyes from injury from hazardous industries ad sports.

Physician members of the Minnesota State Medical association's committee on public health education point the way out today because accidents are still one of the major causes of blindness in Minnesota.

Goggles made of non-shatterable glass are recommended by the committee for wear in all factories where there is danger from fragments of metal or stone or glass; for farmers whenever their work involves any danger to the ardous industries and sports.

People who have already lost the sight of one eye are especially urged by the physicians to wear protective goggles of non-shatterable glass even if no refractive correction is needed and only plain glass is used. Sight in the good eye is too precious to risk even to the casual hazard of foreign particles on the streets or at work.

Navy Department Lowers Enlistment Age to 17

The navy department announces that in order to encourage enlistments of young men, particularly those of high school caliber, it has reopened enlistments of minors between the ages of seventeen and enghteen to serve until they reach their twenty-first birthday. Enlistments of these young men will be made only with the consent of their parents or guardians.

Secretary of the Navy Knox stated today that this decision was made as a result of the Navy's previous experience with the enlistments of young men of this age from which approximately twenty per cent of its first enlistments were obtained.

Between the ages of eighteen and under thirty-one, first enlistments will continue for a period of six years as at present.

V. CHRISTGAU IS C. & C. SPEAKER LAST THURSDAY

Speaks on Work of Division of Employment and Security

CITES FIGURES ON JOB INSURANCE PAYMENTS

Says Unemployment Compensation Benefits Mount This Year

Job insurance payments to Minnesota workers during the first ten months of 1940 amounted to approximately $8,500,000, it was stated here Thursday night by Victor Christgau, director of the division of employment and security. Mr. Christgau spoke before a meeting of the Civic and Commerce association.

"From January 1,1940, to the following October 31", he said, "the division of employment and security paid out in unemployment compensation benefits $8,493,761. This amount is about $1,750,000 more than the $6,712,857 paid out during the corresponding period of 1939.

"The increase in benefit payments this year is characteristic of the trend of payments in practically all states. To a certain extent the increases have reflected legislative changes, rather than the influence of economic conditions, though higher earnings of claimants are a major factor in that such earnings have increased the amount of benefit credits available.

"The Minnesota, the benefit features of the state law were liberalized by the 1939 legislature, and the full impact of this liberalization has been more noticeable in 1940 than in 1939. Although unemployment compensation benefits have increased this year, the number of employables on direct and work relief has declined."

Mr. Christgau said that currently the average weekly payment is within a few cents of $10.00, which amount is about one-half what the average claimant had received in wages.

"During September, "he said "we paid benefit to 16,420 individuals. The number of claimants in 1940 is approximately the same as in 1939."

Also introduced at the session were Frank Halvorson, assistant director of the division; Stuart Russell, district director; and Mr. Benfield of the state department of administration.

Miss Elaine Bessler served as accompanist, and Miss Gladys Berntsen directed the dance numbers.

Community Chest Fund Discussed Wednesday

eets of City Take n Christmas Aspect

With the streets in the downtown section now donning their holiday regalia of colored lights and festoons of greenery, the city is fast assuming the aspect of Christmas. Lending itself to the spirit of the occasion has been the snow and sub-zero weather of the past week, in marked contrast to weather conditions prevailing at this time a year ago.

Thief River Falls business places, which now have their complete stocks of holiday merchandise on display, have also made their stores attractive with Christmas greenery.

Small children of the community are eagerly looking forward to Saturday, December 14, when Santa Claus will arrive in the city for an advance conference with his little friends, and will leave behind him mementoes of the occasion.

FIRE DEPARTMENT STARTS CAMPAIGN TO GET INHALATOR

Subscription Drive Planned to Provide Funds for Equipment

A subscription campaign for the purchase of a new H-H inhalator, a portable machine used for the successful resuscitation of victims of carbon monoxide poisoning, drowning, gas asphyxia, electric shock, pneumonia, whooping cough, and other causes of respiratory failure, is going forward in this community next week. The creation of a fund to purchase the machine is being sponsored by the Thief River Falls fire department.

Representatives working under the direction of Mr. C. S. Jensen, each bearing a letter of introduction and identification signed by Leonard Hanson, chief, and H. L. Schuster, secretary, will call upon all residents of the community in the near future to explain details of the plan.

The fire department feels that this is a much needed piece of life saving equipment in this community. Officers in charge of the drive aid the inhalator will be subject to use by any individual of Thief River Falls and surrounding communities.

All money earned through the plan will go into a fund for the purchase of the inhalator, and if the entire cost is not raised this year, the balance will be secured in a similar campaign next year. Funds so raised will not be spent for other purposes.

$94,112 IN SOIL CONSERVATION PAYMENTS HERE

1,043 Payments to County Farmers Made During November

MORE CHECKS WILL BE RECEIVED SHORTLY

Crop Insurance Program for 1941 Is Now Getting Under Way

A good proportion of the 1940 conservation payments have been received during the past month by Pennington County farmers cooperating in 1940 agricultural conservation program, reports the county committee. A total of 1043 payments aggregating $94,11289 has been received in the county office to date. It is expected that a larger part of the other payments will be made in the near future. Parity payments on wheat totaling $9,119.33 have also been paid in Pennington county.

Early completions of payments on the 1940 farm program will make it possible to present the 1941 program at an earlier date, which gives farmers ample time to plan their farming operations so they can receive the full benefits of the program.

The county committee reports that progress is underway with the 1941 crop insurance program. Township committeemen are contacting farmers in their respective townships informing them of their premium rates and offering them the opportunity of signing up. A total of 43 crop insurance applications have been received recently. Farmers have until February 28, to complete their applications for insurance, but are urged to sign up when they are visited by their committeemen.

Crop loans have also been taken advantage of by many farmers this year. The conservation office reports that 105 elevator loans on 15,141 bushels of wheat have been made, in addition to 75 farm storage loans on 29,567 bushels of wheat. Barley was also included in the loan program this year. 11,185 bushels of barley have been placed under seal on various farms in the county. In addition loans have been issued on 4,126 bushels of rye. Commidity loans have enabled farmers to store their crops until the seasonal rises in price occur. They have also aided in stabilizing the market by keeping back a part of the supply from the seasonal market.

REA PROJECT IS SUBJECT MONDAY AT RIVER VALLEY

Twenty Residents Sign up for Membership at Meeting

Nearly fifty people turned out for the rural electrification meeting held Monday evening at the River Valley community hall, despite the very cold weather. A genuine interest was expressed on the part of those who attended the meeting in securing rural electric service through the extension of lines of the Red Lake County Electric Cooperative Association.

In the absence of F. F. Kiland, superintendent of the association, Mr. Borque, lineman for the electric association discussed briefly the possibilities of securing services, and what the responsibilities of the prospective members are. Lester A. Larud, county agent and R. E. Hunt of Thief River Falls a director of the association were also at the meeting, and briefly discussed a few problems of interest relating to the services offered by the electric cooperative. Memberships were received from twenty of the people who attended the meeting on Monday evening, in addition to those who had previously paid up to become members.

The Red Lake County Electric Association offers an opportunity of extending its service considerably, providing they can secure sufficient density of memberships. Through secondary projects they may reach into several new communities. Further information may be had from Mr. Kiland or any of the directors, or from the county agent.

DRAFT BOARD IS NOW LOCATED IN AUDITORIUM

CLASSIFICATION TASK NOW GOING FORWARD

Registrants Warned to Get Physical Examinations at Appointed Time

The Pennington county draft board Tuesday moved its headquarters from the second floor of the court house to the veterans memorial rooms in the basement of the Auditorium, the new location being more convenient as well as offering ample space.

W. J. LaBree, chairman of the board, announced today that most of 500 registrants who have received questionnaires to date have now returned them, and have been classified as to whether or not they will be given a deferred status in the draft.

At the same time Chairman LaBree stressed the fact that registrants must report promptly at the appointed hour to the assigned physician for their physical examinations, in order not to impede the work of the board.

Men now receiving questionnaires under the selective service act were warned today by Lieutenant Colonel J. E. Nelson, state director, to be extremely careful in completing every part of the form. He pointed out that reports received in his office in St. Paul indicate that nearly 50 per cent of all questionnaires had to be returned by local boards because of incomplete answers.

"Registrants must realize", said Colonel Nelson, "that they are subject to penalties if they fail to complete and return their questionnaires within the five day limit prescribed by law, and that failure to fill in the questionnaires completely may result in a delinquency report with consequences which are none too pleasant."

Most questionnaires have been returned, Colonel Nelson explained, because men have failed to complete the section dealing with dependency, and dependency was expected to be the major cause for deferment.

Commenting upon letters addressed to headquarters by persons seeking deferment, Colonel Nelson stressed that no action of any kind can be taken on a claim for deferment before it has been passed upon by the local board of the registrant.

"The selective service regulations," Colonel Nelson said, "are specific on the subject, and it is highly desirable that every registrant, and every person interested in a registrant, thoroughly understand the procedure in order that the rights of everyone concerned may be completely protected. This information is available at all local boards."

An appeal from a classification, Colonel Nelson explained, must be made within five days after the local board has mailed the registrant's notice of classification, unless an extension has been granted by the board.

Auxiliary Notes

The American Legion Auxiliary will celebrate its 20th anniversary at its meeting on Thursday evening, December 5th at 8 o'clock. Plans are being made for a speaker and special music. A special invitation to all charter members and past presidents. We would love to have as many unit members as possible at this meeting.

Bring your gifts for the Christmas baskets. It can be either toys or jellies. If toys, please mark for boy or girl and age.

If you have any books that you no longer want, we would appreciate it very much if you would leave them at the Jack Sprat Store or bring them down to our meeting. Our community service chairman will then pick them up and distribute them to the hospitals.

Please don't forget that your dues are due. (If you have not already paid them.) You can bring them to our meeting or call Mrs. Ward Long and she will be glad to go and get them. Gains are being made in all parts of our country, as old members renew their enrollments for 1941 and thousands of new members are coming into the Auxiliary ranks. This growth is due to the fact that the Auxiliary offers eligible women such a wide field for patriotic work and the desire of women to be of every service they can to the country at this time.

Eligibility to the Auxiliary is based upon World War service of the family. If the husband, son, father or brother served in the war and is a member of the American Legion, the woman is eligible. The mothers, widows, sisters and daughters of men who lost their lives in the war are, of course, eligible, as are those of veterans who have died since the war. Women who themselves were regularly enlisted in war service, such as army nurses and navy yeomanettes, are eligible to both the Legion and Auxiliary. A number of women who have not exercised their right to Auxiliary membership and a number of others who formerly belonged are coming to the unit this year.

Hostesses will be Mrs. E. C. Karwand, Mrs. J. A. Erickson and Mrs. A. B. Almstadt.

MAROONED STUDENTS LUNCH ON TURKEY

Wayzata—It cannot be truthfully said that November's big wind blew nobody any good, for, although it made roads out of Mound impassable thus marooning 150 students in the Mound school Monday and Tuesday nights, it also permanently postponed the annual Armistice Day dinner of the Mound Legion and Auxiliary originally set for Monday night. Imagine the 'students' delight when, upon assembling Tuesday for lunch, they were greeted by huge platters of turkey with all the trimmings, the food having been purchased in preparation for the Legion dinner.

STATE EDUCATION CHIEF SUSPENDED BY BOARD NOV. 30

Education Board Charges Dr. John G. Rockwell with "Inefficiency"

In an action climaxing bitter differences between Dr. John G. Rockwell, state commissioner of education majority, Dr. Rockwell late Saturday was suspended by the board.

The 30-day suspension without pay was pending a removal hearing on charges of "inefficiency" and "actions inconsistent with the duties of his office." The hearing will be held by the board Dec. 26 at 1:30 p. m.

Mrs. A. R. Colvin, St. Paul, lone member to oppose the suspension, charged in a statement after the action was taken there were "secret and sinister reasons behind the whole thing," and it was her belief the board was "acting under direction of the governor."

Dr. Rockwell merely commented:

"The charges speak for themselves," and indicated he would make a formal statement in a few days.

H. E. Flynn, for more than a quarter-century director of high schools in the department of education, was named acting commissioner, effective Saturday.

Suspension was on motion of Mrs. Raymond M. Gould, Minneapolis, seconded by J. H. Johnson, Cambridge. The motion read:

"Be it resolved that the board find from the minutes of the meetings of this board for the last six months and from Commissioner Rockwells' actions in the Carstater removal matter and in his opposition to the appointment of Harry C. Schmid and Clarence E. Funk:

"That Commissioner Rockwell has been inefficient and is guilty of actions inconsistent with the duties of his office, and,

"That he is hereby suspended for a period of 30 days and that he be given the right to be heard on said charges and the question of his permanent removal be considered at the meeting of this board 1:30 p. m. Dec. 26".

She has lived in Benville township since 1903 and was married there on February 17, 1910 to Sivert Askeland. She was a member of the Valley Lutheran church of that community.

Rites Held Saturday for Annie M. Johnson

Funeral services were held on Saturday, November 30 at 1 o'clock at the Larson Funeral Home and at 2 p. m. at the Oak Ridge Church for Mrs. Annie Matea Johnson, who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Gustafson, on November 27. Rev. M. L. Dahle of St. Hilaire conducted the funeral and interment was made in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Johnson was born March 6, 1853 in Oslo, Norway. She was married in 1872 to Andrew Johnson and came to Albert Lea the same year. They later moved to Norden township where they homesteaded and where she has since resided.

Her husband, four children, her parents, two brothers, and two sisters all preceded her in death.

TO DEFEND MILKING SHORTHORN CHAMPIONSHIP

Among the nation's best Milking Shorthorn cattle that will be battling for top honors at the National Milking Shorthorn Show and Sale, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill., Dec. 3, will be Pride of Kingsdale, grand champion of the 1939 International Live Stock Exposition. Mattress Project for County Being Planned

Bales of choice Southern cotton will be shipped directly into Pennington county to be turned into mattresses for the use of local rural families if plans are carried through for the latest type of cooperation to remove price-depressing surpluses from the American market.

County Agent Lester A. Lerud took the initiative Friday in calling the first meeting of persons interested to consider steps for sponsoring the program in this county. Representatives of five county organizations were present to hear an explanation of the plan given by Miss Agnes Hurell, home demonstration worker from University Farm. They discussed setting up a local committee which would take the steps necessary for receiving applications and compiling the figures needed to place the cotton order from this county. The mattress program committee consists of Mrs. S. E. Hunt, Miss Edna Olson, Paul Roy, Carl R. Anderson, and Lester A. Lerud.

The United States Department of Agriculture is backing the plan whereby Minnesota farmers, who have themselves wrestled with surplus problems, will have an opportunity to turn Southern cotton surpluses into mattresses for their own use. The extension service, the Agricultural Adjustment administration, and the Surplus Marketing administration are providing leadership, while local civic groups will help with the plan. The county AAA office will certify families for eligibity.

Baled cotton and good grade ticking will be shipped here direct to be made into mattresses at work centers established in this county. Rural people to receive the mattresses will do the work of manufacturing themselves, under trained instructors, at these centers.

In order to insure the placing of the mattresses in homes where there is an actual need for them, the program is limited to families whose total net income in the preceding year has not exceeded $500, plus $50 for each member of the family in excess of four persons. Rural families are those living in the open country or in towns of less than 2,500. Families are limited to one mattress for each two members, with a maximum of three. Each family must send two adults to the center to work on the mattresses they will receive. There will be a small charge to cover needles, thread and minor local expenses.

Since some time is required in compiling local requests and getting orders filled, the local committees urges prompt action on the part of persons interested in applying. Applications may be made at the county extension office. A. A. A. community committeemen and home project group leaders will be able to furnish information for anyone who wishes to make application.

Average Motor Vehicle Tax in State Is $34.17

Forty states had higher average motor vehicles taxes than Minnesota in 1939, only seven were lower, according to a table in October "American Highways". License taxes averaged $11.77 in Minnesota, gas taxes $22.40, total $34.17 per vehicle. The average for all states was $13.47 for licenses, $26.84 gas tax, total $40.31. The figures include all vehicles. Complete figures for each class are not available, but estimates from car owners' records show that passenger car taxes average one fourth less. This would make the average tax on Minnesota cars $25.60, average for all states $30.24.

BUSINESSMEN GET CHANCE TO JOIN IN RECREATION PLAN

School Officials Provide Gym Facilities for New Program

Business and professional men of Thief River Falls will get a chance to participate in organized and supervised recreation starting this coming Tuesday night, at 7:30 in the new Lincoln high school gymnasium. Plans have been completed by school officials and the WPA recreation program to afford these men a weekly workout. "Chet" Nelson, Lincoln high school physical education instructor will be in charge of the activities, assisted by one of the recreation leaders.

Badminton, basketball and volleyball, with the latter being stressed, will be offered to the participants. It is hoped enough men will turn out so that a regular league may be formed in volleyball. Already Supt. Bye has asked his male faculty members to be on hand for the opening session. Likewise, members of the recreation board plan to be present to give this new recreation period a real sendoff.

Business and professional men, over 21 years of age, are the only ones allowed to attend these periods, which will bring to the participants something different than their daily routine. Soap, towel and shower may be had for a fee of five cents. Others wanting to furnish their own towels may do so. All those interested are asked to come equipped with gym clothes, particularly tennis shoes.

The success of this venture depends largely on the response from those invited to come, said Ferd Elstad, director, adding that a healthy and wholesome evening is assured for all those who attend.

It is intended to assist teachers in training their pupils in the fundamentals of traffic safety practices. Copies of the booklet are also being sent to every school bus driver, public libraries, 4-H clubs and safety organizations.

RED RIVER VALLEY DOCTORS CONVENE TUESDAY EVENING

The place which the medical profession will occupy in the national defense picture and the relation of public health problems to national defense were topics which provided the lecture and discussion subjects for members of the Red River Valley Medical society meeting at the Hotel Crookston Tuesday night for their annual dinner session.

Forty members of the medical society and auxiliary were seated for the dinner.

"Immunization Program and Related Problems" was the subject on which Dr. R. N. Barr, director district health services for the public health department spoke.

We wouldn't believe it either if we did not have first hand information on it but it's a fact that 22 deer were chased out of two sections of land on the game reserve, or preserve, in Smiley township Saturday afternoon. It was done for census purposes, about fifty men and boys taking part in the drive and count. How can they tell how many deer there are in the state by counting those in two sections of Pennington county? That is one of the questions we asked and the answer is that they can't. But by counting the deer in those two sections year after year, under about the same conditions, they can get a pretty fair idea of what the tendency in deer population is. The figures of this year's count are important only as they establish a base for future reckoning.

Congress is now meeting in temporary quarters, scared out of the regular meeting places by engineers who reported that the roofs of both chambers were unsafe and might collapse with a heavy fall of snow. The engineers may know what they are talking about but it sounds fishy. Our guess is that if the roofs over Congress ever go out they will fly upward and not fall downward.

If it is such a simple matter to raise a fund of 24 billion dollars a year as Townsend Pension Plan advocates say it is, then why all this fuss about financing the government's present spending program? If there is a way of taking 24 billion dollars a year away from the country's producers painlessly and in a way that will make those who pay very happy, then by all means the government's financial wizards should hear about it. And if the success of the plan depends on that money being put right back into circulation, then certainly we have an administration in Washington now that will co-operate whole heartedly and, we believe, a lot more effectively than will those citizens who have passed the 65 year mark.

It was pretty cold the other day when the thermometer registered down around the 15 below mark. The temperature will feel quite a bit warmer in a couple of months when the thermometer goes up to 15 below.

There seems to be some difference of opinion down at Crookston as to whether or not a recent article published in Collier's Magazine gave the community favorable publicity. The article, "Mr. Ball Goes to Washington," gave Crookston credit, of course, for being the home town of Minnesota's junior Senator. Mr. Don Mack of the Crookston Times thought the story was swell publicity for the home town and so expressed himself in his excellent Saturday Night Review. The reaction of some other Crookston citizens was quite different and at an indignation meeting they dispatched a long letter to the editor of Colliers setting him straight on the high productivity and mild climate of Polk County and the Red River Valley. Not having read the story as yet, we will not now venture an opinion as to whether the good people of Crookston should be mad or glad. If it will be of help to them, however, in avoiding future disagreeable consequences as a result of being the home town of Senator Ball, it will be all right with us if the birthplace of the Senator is referred to as being in the vicinity of Thief River Falls.

Two pictures interested us sufficiently to waste a half an hour of our time this week as we thumbed through the stuff that lands on our desk. One of them filled space in a German propaganda sheet that is supposed to make us love Hitler. It showed a section of railroad track in Norway, and explained that this was a part of a line built recently by the Germans. We spent ten minutes trying to find some evidence of new construction, but in vain. The vegetation growing on the banks of the cut had the appearance of being as old as the fence that bordered the right of way. The thing we marveled at was the stupidity of the propagandists who would expect us to conclude that the Germans are doing great things for Norway. The other picture was a reproduction in Business Week of a check for 116 million dollars, supposed to be one of the largest ever written. The thing that impressed us about the check was that it was written without the aid of a check protector, in long hand. After worrying about this for some time we finally concluded that there was nothing to worry about. Who in the world would want to raise a check that already paid off to the tune of 116 million dollars. It took us at least a half an hour to get by these two pictures.

BECOMES INEVITABLE RESULT—

(Milan Standard)

People of high mentality, writers in all branches of literature, scientists and persons outstanding in professional life, are coming and will continue to come to this country from the lands occupied by the Nazi military and political machine. Their coming here should be encouraged. It has been predicted that on this continent will blossom forth a new civilization whenever the old world loses its leadership due to suppression of free thought, free speech and free enterprise. If the best brains leave a country, stagnation or retrogression becomes the inevitable result.

Britain is asking for more help and there is no reason to believe that the appeal is not being made in dead earnest. There can be no question but that the situation is critical, and, that being the case, the problem confronting our country has become increasingly serious. There apparently is no need at the present time for more fighting men. It is a question of supplies. If the British were in a position to concentrate their naval forces, there is little question but that they could control the Atlantic. Desperation may force them to it, which would mean that their Pacific colonies would be at the mercy of Japan. The attempt of the Japs to conclude a quick peace in China indicates that they are already preparing for an offensive in a new direction. Loans made recently by our country to the Chinese are no doubt intended to keep the Japs too busy in China to strike elsewhere. While our country is not yet at war, in both Europe and Asia we are involved in war and the final result will depend to a large extent on the assistance we give to the nations with whom we are allied. To fail them now is to seal our own doom, for if Britain fails then we will be the next victims of the combination of dictators.

A NEVER-ENDING CRUSADE

(Dr. V. O. Watts, in Northfield News)

Do you remember the story of the dog in the manger? He could not eat the hay but he would not let the cattle eat it either.

And do you remember the other dog who lost the bone he was carrying when he greedily snapped at the one he saw reflected in the stream he was crossing?

These fables represent two human attitudes common in the world today. Some people are so envious of another's success that, regardless of consequences to themselves, they would tear down the institutions and close the opportunities which made that success possible. Others foolishly snatch at the shadow of some share-the-wealth scheme and thus sacrifice what prosperity they already have.

Out of such envy, greed and ignorance come class conflicts, mass monopolies, legalized racketeering, socialism in varied degree and kind, despotism, imperialism and war. All of these impoverish and degrade first a few, then many, and at last everyone.

Certain leading scholars say these destructive forces cannot be checked short of world-wide ruin for all free economic and political institutions. They say that only in universal suffering from conflict and slavery, such as Europe experienced in the Dark Ages following the fall of Rome, can we relearn the lessons of patience and self-discipline necessary for progressive societies.

These scholars may be true prophets or not—no one knows. But of this we can be sure—no man who knows himself will merely drift with the tide. No man who knows himself will yield to such a fate until he has given everything he has to fight it.

For if man understands his own nature he realizes that he can never live at peace with himself while he fails to strive for the best he knows—the best for others as well as the best for himself. Nor will he live at peace with himself till his own position in the struggle is clear and unmistakable for all to see.

The fight against covetousness and ignorance will never end while man is man. Nor will every battle end in victory for the forces of right and truth.

But every battle and every effort in the battle help fulfill the destiny of man.

For that destiny is not victory but struggle. It is not achievement but striving.

WHAT DIES' INQUIRY MAY REVEAL

(Grand Forks Herald)

Diplomatic relations between the United States and Germany are menaced by the findings of the house committee investigating un-American activities under Chairman Martin Dies.

Those "in the know" in Washington, outside official circles, see in the likely findings of the Dies committee the possibility that they might result in a severance of diplomatic relations between this country and the Nazis.

Official Washington presumably knows the full picture now, but should the Dies committee make a complete disclosure of the evidence it has regarding sabotage and other un-American activity, popular indignation might force diplomatic action.

Naturally, severance of diplomatic relations, should that action be taken, would not mean war though it would be a step in that direction. Likely it would have little effect in Germany, where they now consider our aid to Great Britain as an act just short of war.

There should be no pussy-footing in the matter of fifth column activities in this country. Alien meddlers and schemers can interfere materially with our preparedness plans, and they should be booted out of the country or placed under lock and key.

We have seen the result of their work in European countries already brought under the heel of Hitler. They paved the way there for comparatively easy victory; they should be crushed here before they complete their work.

FOR THE READING OF BOOKS

(Montevideo News)

A request comes for publicity on "Book Week." We decide to use it. Publishing houses that print books are interested in Book Week, but we are willing to give the idea a boost anyway.

In doing so, the opportunity should be used to tell these publishers that they put out an astonishing amount of junk along with a few good books. And won't they please slow down the presses for a while, in order to give the writers a chance to catch up; the worth-while writers, we mean.

In the putting together of good books science and soul, machine and mind, are all needed. In recent years, it seems to us, the printer has made much better use of science and machine than the author has made of soul and mind.

A special week is all right as an invitation to the general reader to interest himself and herself in the reading of books. It can always be remembered that there are, in the public library, books that have stood the test of time.

We will hear a lot less about "mandates" from the people to justify new and untried legislation, in either state or nation. President Roosevelt received only one mandate from the people last week. That was to give Britain all the aid possible, to strength the bonds between us and the Latin American nations to the south of us, and to keep us out of war unless we are attacked. And from present indications that is what the president intends to do. There has been enough reform legislation for a time, and the less stress there is on it the next few years, from either side, the better chance there will be for the national unity we need so badly.—Alexandria Echo.

What a fine thing it is that we live in a nation and under a flag and under a system of government, whereby the great affairs of men, and the great issues can be settled in the open debate by the duly elected representatives of these people, that these issues can be settled without bloodshed, without revolution, without upsetting the normal work of the nation.—Olivia Times.

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor Times:

This city and community has need of marshalling all its stupendous resources of soil, climate and abundant rainfall into the productivity that can be supported by the tremendous territory of potential working activity. Not because of any consistent effort to do so, but despite it, the city has grown to large proportions and contains some industries already that have made an enviable record in volume of business. It only needs the vision to foresee what could be done and active constructive action to make it realize its destiny in a much larger city, of payrolls, many more intensified producing farms and increase income of all other farms.

This district is still competing with the world markets due to the type of its production whereas there are many raw products that can be produced for the market that grow prolifically in this section and which can be distributed over this large trade territory through excellent distributing agencies that we already have functioning in our city but who have been compelled to rely on outside sources to supply themselves for the market. Payrolls make cities. You cannot do business with empty acres. You must do business with people who are consumers. You cannot continue to have local circulating money when most of it is being sent out of the country at so small a margin that it does not leave any here.

It does not make sense that a district which can produce the best of vegetables and berries should be dependent upon their supplies produced at distant points for our local consuming market, at least in season. Thief River Falls taps an empire that is almost fallow. Peopled and producing, a great deal of the outward flow of money can be stopped and retained for circulation here increasing to a great degree the output of the community in consumers goods from the farms. For, after all, this community can raise the raw products that people must have to live—food.

Gilbert A. Brattland.

Editor the Times:

Now that the deer season is over and most of the boys got their deer, let us get together and resolve never to have another open season in this locality until they get so thick that we farmers declare it necessary to have an open season. We get quite a kick driving along the highway and see an old buck bounce over the fence.

We have the wild life—let's keep it.

Two Cars Stolen Tuesday Evening; One Recovered

Two automobiles were stolen from their parking places in the city Tuesday evening, apparently by the same party. The car of Mrs. Minnie Kirby was taken from in front of St. Lukes hospital at 7 o'clock, later in the evening being recovered on Horace av. N. Near that spot, on Atlantic av., the T. C. Haney car was taken at 8 o'clock, and has not yet been recovered.

'Skinning Through'

James Winn, St. Joseph, Mo., reelected county clerk recently for a third term, maintained his record of just "skinning through." In his three races, his total majority was only 106 votes. In 1927 he defeated the incumbent county clerk by two votes. Six years later he won reelection by 70 votes. His latest vote margin of victory was 34.

Farm Operators Urged to Protect Their Farm Machinery Investment

The average Minnesota farmer has implements and machines valued at $1,000. On many farms the valuation is $3,000 or more, representing an investment which deserves careful management, according to H. B. White, agricultural engineer at University Farm.

Protection is most important with complicated machines such as the grain binder and combine harvester, although practically all equipment will benefit by good shelter. A combine will not last long nor give satisfactory service if permitted to rust, to be used as a rubbing post for livestock, or a roost for poultry.

Surveys have shown that farm machines seldom wear out. If properly oiled, repaired and sheltered they should give many years of good service. Housing plays an important role in keeping machinery in condition. Properly sheltered binders have only about half the repair cost of binders standing out unprotected the year around.

The cost of a machine shed will vary considerably. A building 18 feet wide can usually be built for less than $10 per foot of length. A building 60 feet long will shelter most of the implements on a quarter-section farm.

Circular 59, to be had by writing the Bulletin Room, University Farm, St. Paul, gives a convenient plan for constructing a machine shed.

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

By Ferd B. Elstad

The recreation program is sponsored by the city council in cooperation with Works Project Administration recreation leaders.

Club News

The girls club under the direction of Camille Dostal met for the third time last Monday night in the puppet theatre of the arena. A name for the group was selected and officers chosen. Wo-He-Lo is the name selected from suggestions made by club members. The following officers were elected: President, Doris Ryan; vice president, Jane Hunt; treasurer, Abigail Thomas; secretary, Eilene Grinde; reporter, Marilyn Gullingsrud; sentinel, Jean Effinger. The club consists of fourteen members and meets every Monday night from 7:15 to 9:15 in the arena puppet theatre. Plans for the coming week include decorating a Christmas tree for the theatre.

The junior craftsmens club for boys has ten members at present, but organization is incomplete. Both clubs will be responsible for editing a paper, Recreation News.

Miscellaneous

The boxing and wrestling gymnasium will be kept open throughout the winter months. All those interested in these sports are invited to make use of the facilities. Puppet shows are put on every Thursday afternoon in the arena puppet theatre at 4:15, open to the general public free of charge. Parents are also urged to send their children to the puppet project where dolls, puppets, and other articles of handicraft are being made. Chinese checkers, checkers, bean bag, jar rings, and many other games suitable for all age groups are available for participants in the upstairs arena game room. Skating in the arena will be supervised by leaders from the program, a will tobogganing at the slide. Supervision will also be provided for rinks at the local schools, where it is hoped midget hockey teams can be formed.

Parents Notice

For some time a plea has been made for parents to visit the various parts of the program. These visits have proved to many that their children are in reliable hands after school hours. It has also proved that their leisure time is not wasted. Parents are always welcome to visit the program and offer criticisms. It is those criticisms upon which the program is built. What parents and children want in the line of recreation, considering available facilities, is what recreation officials want to give them.

Rural Welfare Levies Increasing in State, Taxpayers Group Says

Despite improved employment conditions throughout the state, rural welfare and poor relief levies showed an increase of three-quarters of a million dollars the past year, according to a survey made by the Minnesota Taxpayers Association.

Welfare levies made by county boards in the rural districts were $6,557,486 in 1939, and had grown to $7,289,653 in 1940, disclosing an increase of $732,167 for the 12-month period.

The survey is complete for all but three rural counties: Cook, Itasca, and Steele, and in these instances 1939 levies were used as a basis for this year also.

Twenty-nine counties showed increases in their welfare levies over a year ago, while 19 lowered the totals somewhat. The welfare levies in approximately 81 counties were just about the same as a year ago, the taxpayers report shows.

"A startling disclosure is that about one-fourth of the counties of Minnesota now levy as much taxes for relief and welfare purposes alone, as they do for all county government expenses combined," James P. McDonnell, president of the Minnesota Taxpayers Association, said in commenting on the report.

MAN ESCAPES OWL IN TITANTIC STRUGGLE

Pipestone.—A hand to hand encounter with a snow owl last week convinced Register of Deeds Keith Thorndyke of Pipestone that this denizen of Minnesota's north woods is a formidable foe. Shot, but not killed, during the pheasant season, the owl had been imprisoned in the Thorndyke basement where it was being nourished back to health. Finding occasion to move the owl Thorndyke attempted to pick up the bird first taking the precaution to place a folden rug between him and his adversary. During the ensuing struggle one of the birds talons closed tightly on the rug, pierced both of the thick layers, went through the thumb nail on Keith's left hand and well into the tender flesh underneath. Thorndyke shot the owl when it was mistaken for a chicken hawk but not being badly wounded, it will recover. As will Keith.

SO. ST. PAUL LIVESTOCK

(By U. S. Department of Agricultural Economics and Minnesota Department of Agriculture)

South St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 3, 1940: The advance in cow prices came to a halt. After gaining sensationally last week killers claim that live costs were entirely out of line with values in the beef. So a weaker close on Monday was followed by a definite decline Tuesday that placed the general market 25c under late last week. Slaughter steer and yearling prices were also reduced, according to the Federal-State Market News Service, figuring weak to 25c lower than last Friday. Heifers shared this downturn, but bulls held steady because of scarcity. Vealers weakened on Monday, but strengthened Tuesday to compare at that time about steady with last week's close. Demand for stockers and feeders was rather dull and the sub-zero weather Tuesday was not conducive to taking on replacement material. Choice feeders Monday brought $12.50. The top on slaughter steers was $12.50, paid Monday, and some choice heifers made $11.00. Bulk of the steer and yearling crop consisted of medium to good grades at $9.00-10.50.

Strength was exhibited on the opening sessions in the hog division, and by Tuesday the accumulated gains on butchers above 180 lbs. and sows amounted to 15c over last week's close. Advances on lightweight hogs under 180 lbs. were not as clearly defined, however, average prices being 10c higher. Tuesday's top reached $6.55, paid for the bulk of the good and choice barrows and gilts above 190 lbs, with only some extreme weights downward to $5.65. Most 150-180 lb. weights cleared at $5.25-5.70, while 120-140 lb. offerings ranged from $4.75-5.25. Good sows of all weights brought $5.50. Feeder pigs were strong, selling mainly from $4.00-4.25.

Demand for fat lambs the past few days has been rather indifferent. Last Thursday lower levels were enforced and each session since has failed to check the downward trend. Considerable unevenness prevails, due partly to wider range of quality and more medium to good grades unloaded. Fat lambs are now selling 25-50c under last Friday, yearlings sharing partially in this decline, while slight gains have been made on slaughter ewes. High mark for the first two days of this week on fat lambs was $9.10, little going above $8.75 on Tuesday. Choice western slaughter ewes realized $4.50.

PLAN TO ORGANIZE INDEPENDENT CAGE LOOP IN THIS CITY

Auditorium Is Secured for Basketball Practice by Quintets

An attempt to organize an independent basketball league is being made by WPA recreation sponsors and city officials, Ferd Elstad, director, stated today. Practice started last Monday in the city Auditorium, which is open from seven to ten o'clock every weekday evening.

Already two teams have been definitely lined up for the league—the local independent team and one from the NYA school. Others interested in sponsoring teams or playing on teams in the league are asked to get in touch with recreation leaders in charge of the league. They may be found at the auditorium any time it is open for basketball. It is hoped that enough teams are entered within two weeks so that a schedule may be drawn up and games started.

Provisions has been made so that local teams may play host to teams for neighboring towns. Independent basketball tournaments will also be scheduled for the auditorium later on in the winter months.

Everyone is invited to play basketball in the Auditorium. Plans at present call for a league of six teams. If interest calls for eight or more teams, it will make for a better league.

B. W. Gabrielson Child Can Swim at 22 Months

Pictures of Sharon Gabrielson, 22-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Gabrielson, formerly of this city and now of St. Peter, were published late last week in Minneapolis papers, which acclaimed her as probably the youngest swimmer in the nation. Mr. Gabrielson, swimming coach at Gustavus Adolphus college, has trained his little daughter to the point where she can swim across a 25-foot pool, dive from the diving board and swim to the side of the pool unassisted.

Thief River Pharmacy Bowlers Defeated by Bemidji Schmidt Team

Rolling a remarkable 2840 pin total, the Schmidts team of Bemidji defeated the Thief River Pharmacy team in a total pins match bowled at Bemidji last Sunday. The Schmidt's had two games in the 990's, and only a 'blow' in the tenth frame of both games kept the Bemidji team from marking up 1000 pin totals. Walt Ekeren's 543 and Frank Kobliska's 530, were the high scores for the Pharmacy. Ed Carlson had draw with his brother Carl, who bowled with the Schmidt's, both getting 520 totals.

Prowlers Win 21 to 19 over Fosston Veterans

Paced by their veteran playmaking forward, Eddie Flasch, who scored 12 points and counted the game-winning basket in the final minute of play, the Prowlers opened their basketball season by eking out a 21 to 19 win over an all-veteran Fosston team in a game played here last Saturday night.

A slow first period saw the Prowlers go into a 5 to 1 lead, with Flasch scoring a field goal and Orrin Pederson marking up a field goal and a free throw, while Fosston was registering on Hagen's free throw. But the white-jerseyed Fosston team put on a red hot scoring drive in the second quarter, sifting through the Prowler defense for six field goals while holding the locals to three points, to give the Greyhounds a 13 to 8 lead at half-time.

The Prowlers chiseled two points off the Fosston lead in the third period, Althoff scoring two free throws and Orrin Pederson clipping in a field goal. Fosston chalking up two points on Thompson's field goal.

For three periods the inexperienced Prowlers had been outplayed by the smooth-passing Fosston team, but in the fourth period the locals began to force the play and with but four minutes of the game remaining Fosston went into a stalling game in an effort to protect their lead. Tommy Carlisle scored a field goal to cut the Fosston lead to 2 points, 19 to 17, with a minute and a half of play remaining. Eddie Flasch, on a quick break for the basket, took a pass from Don Berg and flipped in a push-up shot to knot the score. And with 45 seconds of game-time remaining Flasch hoisted a high-arching shot over the Fosston defense, the ball hitting the backboard and swishing into the basket for the game-winning points.

Eddie Flasch, with 12 points, was the high scorer for the Prowlers, and the game, with Fosston's Russ Pearson being runner-up with 6 points. Don Berg, Denny Althoff, and Johnny Parbst turned in creditable games for the locals. Fosston's short-passing game was directed by their two fine guards, Russ Pearson and Marvin Thompson, while their center Howie Shimanski did effective backboard work.

In a nip-and-tuck preliminary game, the Climax team defeated the Prowler 'B' team, 17 to 16.

Buck Robbins regional champions, the Bemidji Lumber jacks, will play the Prowlers here next Friday night.

Regional Champions Coming

Buck Robbins will bring his eighth region basketball champions, the Bemidji Lumberjacks, here tomorrow night, and according to reports the Prowlers are due for a busy evening. Robbins, who'll leave for National Guard duty in January, has a rangy, well-balanced team, a team that has been installed as the favorite to cop the regional title again this year. Winton Hubbard, a fine guard, Don Mayer, a lanky forward, and George Clausen, a reserve forward, are missing from last season's team; but Bemidji has Bob Worth, George Thorbrogger, and Jack Johnson, center, guard, and forward, respectively, as a nucleus for this year's club. Robbins had planned on dropping Worth back to guard, to use his height on rebound work, and shift Thorbrogger to forward where he would team with Johnson, and having Hector Brown playing the center position, with the other guard spot being taken by Glen Hack or Jack Vinge. Brown, Hack and Vinge won letters in basketball last year, being reserves.

Coach John Lindenmeyer was dissatisfied with the play of the Prowlers against Fosston last Saturday night, and this week he has been drilling a re-vamped line-up. Jimmy Connor and Johnny Parbst have been at the guards, Orrin Pederson at center, and Eddie Flasch and Denny Althoff at the forwards. This quintet has been working pretty well as a unit, and they are developing a fast break.

It's evident that the Prowlers, if they're to go any place this year, will have to out-speed their opponents, for they haven't the bulk to overpower their opposition.

The Prowlers have been handicapped considerably by the loss of Armand Pederson, a fine center prospect, and a player with enough burliness to take the bumps around the basket. Armand has a chronic back injury and it is doubtful if he will be available for basketball. He is to be X-rayed after the Christmas holidays, and then a definite decision will be made.

Plenty of Hockey Players

Judging by the letters, telegrams, and other means of communications that Art Senstad, Al Stenberg, Alec Campbell, and others interested in hockey, have been receiving, there must be a surplus of Canadian hockey players this year. George Beverly, Paul Kornek, Joe Novak, and Joe Popiel, are definitely sirted to play here; but such former States-Dominion league stars as Jack McVicar, Wilf Beaulieau, Dick Roche, Sid. Foy, Eddie McMillan, and Allen Cotton, have expressed themselves as being eager to play their hockey down here this year. McVicar and Foy, defensemen, played with Grafton last year; Wilf Beaulieau and Dick Roche, wings, were high scorers with Hallock some seasons ago; Allen Cotton was with Hallock last year; and Eddie McMillan, who played center ice here a couple of years ago, played hockey in Scotland last year. Wilf Beaulieau is an older brother of the Eddie Beaulieau that was at Grafton last year.

It Was Only a Preview

That Ole Engelstad vs. Walt Larson bowling match, which will be an epic affair, had a sort of preview this week. The two had a practice match—Ole having a split thumbnail, which the doctor said was worth a 15 pin handicap, but which Walt thought was only camouflage—and here are the results of the three games, with Walt winning all three: 102 to 94, 146 to 142 and 179 to 176. But note that the total pin difference was 15, and considering that Ole's split thumbnail was bona fide and worth the handicap, the match was a stand-off.

Art Holte's 264 Score

Art came very near to winning an A. B. C. medal for himself this week, getting nine straight strikes. And he had a "pocket" hit in the 10th frame, too, but came up with the 8-10 split. One of these days somebody is going to bowl a perfect 300 game, for it was only a couple of weeks ago that Morry Howick had eleven strikes in one game, getting a blow in the 8th frame.

Roy Lee on 'U' Freshman Squad

Roy Lee, all-state high school guard on the Prowlers 1938 state basketball champions, has won a place on freshman 'A' squad at the University. There are four or five all-state boys on the squad with Roy—Mel Rund and Ray Cimbura, from Breckenridge; Dick Burk, from Minneapolis North; Don Mattson, from Marshall high, Minneapolis; and Willard Remple from Mountain Lake.

RED CROSS AIDS IN RELIEF SHIPMENTS TO GREAT BRITAIN

Chairman Norman Davis Reports on Activities of Organization

Chairman Norman H. Davis of the American Red Cross, said in Washington he welcomed the announcement from London that an American Gifts Committee had been established to coordinate requests and regulate shipments of relief supplies from the United States to Great Britan.

"American Red Cross relief," Mr Davis said, "is extended to Great Britain through the two officially recognized British relief agencies, namely, the British Red Cross and the Women's Voluntary Services. In every case our aid has been in answer to specific requests from these two organizations.

"Some time ago our committee in London and David K. E. Bruce, our delegate to England, informed us that ambulances were not a vital need at this time in England," Mr. Davis said. "We were asked, however, to furnish 300 ambulances for delivery in January, and these we have ordered. We were urged to send warm winter clothing and, in reply we have sent 1,011,205 garments made by volunteers in our chapters and also have supplied 898,085 garments purchased from U. S. manufacturers. We have also sent 138,000 pairs of shoes of shoes for men, women and children and have additional supplies ready for shipment. We have requested 400,000 cubic feet of space for goods to be shipped prior to January 1 and this will include more than a half million articles of wearing apparel and additional blankets, bed sacks, etc. We have purchased 300,000 woolen blankets of which more than half have been shipped. Stoves, medical equipment, hospital garments all have been sent by the American Red Cross upon urgent statements of the needs existing in Great Britain.

"In all, the American Red Cross had made cash expenditures or commitments up to October 31 of $7,261,489 for war relief in Great Britain. This sum included large cash outlay in England for needed warm clothing, the numbers of which are not included in the above figures."

Farm and Home Week to Hear Talks on Turkeys

Turkey will be "king for a day" during the poultry sessions of the forty-first annual Farm and Home Week at University Farm, St. Paul, January 20 to 25. H. J. Sloan, in charge of poultry husbandry, says that Thursday, January 23, will be turkey day. It marks the second meeting of the Minnesota Turkey Producers' association and will bring up important business for discussion. Growers will have the opportunity of hearing Dr. J. Holmes Martin, head of the poultry department of Purdue University and one of the nation's outstanding turkey men. A turkey banquet will wind up the day's features.

STORM BRINGS BOAT ANCHOR TO SURFACE

Ortonville—Found frozen in the ice on the surface of Big Stone Lake some time after the Armistice Day blizzard was an anchor with a 20 foot chain attached weighing nearly 100 pounds. Jim Davidson, Jr., Beardsley farmer, discovered the anchor believed to be that of an early-day craft which plied the waters. By what freakish antics the heavy metal anchor buried in the mud bottom for years was raised from its resting place with chain attached, is, and probably will remain, a secret of the storm.

Attractive Exhibits Feature Book Week at Public Library

Books for adults and current works of fiction featured other displays, which attracted many favorable comments from visitors.—Photo by Waale.

AAA PAYMENTS IN STATE AGGREGATE 21 MILLION TOTAL

Conservation, Parity Payments for Minnesota Reaching Big Sum

Conservation and parity payments totaling $21,905,578.02 have been approved to date for Minnesota farmers co-operating in the 1940 agricultural conservation program, Charles W. Stickney, chairman of the state AAA committee, reported in an interview on the progress of the farm program.

"This amount will be paid on 284,526 applications for conservation, corn and wheat parity payments," Stickney said, in pointing out the work of distributing money earned by farmers through co-operation in the 1940 farm program is rapidly progressing and nearing completion.

Early completion of payments on the 1940 farm program will make it possible to present the 1941 program at an earlier date, which gives farmers ample time to plan their 1941 farming operations so they can receive the full benefits of the program.

Stickney reported $16,047,211.52 in conservation payments have been approved on 135,315 applications by November 22, as compared to $961,440.28 paid on 12,505 applications for the same period in 1939.

Construction of a new wall-eye pike field station on Upper Red Lake proceeded at Washkish this week. When completed, the project will facilitate more efficient handling of the 300,000,000 to 500,000,000 wall-eye pike eggs that are stripped from fish netted each spring.

The field station is located at the mouth of the Tamarack River. Eggs will not be hatched there, but will be shipped to other of the state's 14 hatcheries for that operation.

Provision has been made for rearing troughs where experimental work on the production of fingerling-sized wall-eyes will be carried on. Minnesota has 15 fish hatcheries and five field stations.

LAKE SWALLOWS CARS WHILE HUNTERS HUNT

White Bear—Returning to Lake Togo where hunters, including Bob Collette, Boy Oby, Fred Lenhart, Jim Haussner, and Norval Thassen of White Bear, had parked their two cars, the men were dismayed to find, not two cars awaiting their return but two gaping holes in the ice. Latest reports were that someone had gone after the men but whether or not the cars had been removed was not learned.

State Seeks Bids on 11 Road Jobs Closing 1940 Building Season

Bids for the construction of eight trunk highway and three secondary road projects totalling approximately $950,000 will be opened December 13, according to M. J. Hoffman, state highway commissioner. This final letting of the current construction season will include 11 projects located in 8 counties. In the work to be performed will be 22 miles of grading, 8.1 miles of crushed rock surfacing, 14 concrete box culverts and bridges. One of the bridges is the Interstate bridge at Winona over the Mississippi river. The section included in the December 13 letting covers the construction of super-structure for spans Nos. 15 to 20 inclusive over the main channel of the river. Joint bids for the section over the North channel will be opened at LaCrosse December 10 by the Minnesota and Wisconsin highway departments.

Must Tag Waterfowl in Order to Retain Birds 20 Days after Season

The department of conservation warned hunters that waterfowl must be tagged before they may be retained until 20 days after the close of the season as provided by federal regulations.

The duck season closed November 29. Tags must be requested of wardens within five days, or through December 4. Properly tagged ducks may be possessed until 20 days after the close of the season. The last day for such possession is December 19.

Hunters possessing deer or upland game must also have the game tagged. This may be retained, however, until April 30, 1941.

COW IMPRISONED FOR WEEK IN SNOW DRIFT

Springfield—On the Sunday following the November blizzard, a cow which had wandered away from the Andrew Colburn farm in Bashaw during the storm, was found by a group of hunters from Comfrey, buried completely in a drift of snow. The hunters spied the nose of the beast protruding from the snow bank and proceeded to investigate. Removed from the drift, the cow was found to be alive and well, although a little weak from lack of food and water.

ASK DEER HUNTERS TO REPORT ON BAGS GOTTEN IN SEASON

State Department Guesses More Than 30,000 Deer Were Killed

The department of conservation called upon deer hunters to mail in the bag report cards attached to licenses this week as one of the most successful big game seasons in years ended.

Estimates on the number of deer killed during the 11 day shooting period, which closed November 25, ranged from 30,000 to 40,000. Until hunters' reports are tabulated, exact totals will not be available.

The number of big game hunters in the recent season will not be known until county auditors file reports of licenses sold.

Small game hunters who have stored their guns until another year were also urged by the Department of Conservation to file bag reports on the form attached to the hunting licenses.

Cat Makes Way 70 Miles to Return to Old Home

When Mrs. Vernon Vickstrom visited her grandmother northeast of Argyle two months ago she was given her grandmother's pet cat, which she took in the car to her home at Grygla, seventy miles away. Shortly after arriving there, says the Argyle Banner, the cat disappeared, and last week, after being away two months, the cat turned up at its old home as well and strong as when it left, apparently having fared well on its long jaunt.

Road Sign Destruction by Vandals Decried by State Safety Engineer

The destruction by thoughtless vandals of warning and directional highway signs was decried today by W. F. Rosenwald, traffic and safety engineer of the Minnesota highway department.

"Our attention has been called to recent destruction of several warning signs on state trunk highways and on heavily traveled county roads," said Mr. Rosenwald. "Not only does this wanton destruction entail a financial loss to the state and counties through the replacement of new signs, but it constitutes a hazard which may result in fatal accidents to motorists who may fail to receive proper warning of curves, bumps, or unusual road conditions."

Pointing out that highway signs vary in cost from only a few cents each to $10 or $15, Mr. Rosenwald stated that the setting up and maintaining of road signs costs the state highway department approximately $125,000 yearly. So extensive is this work that two men in each of the 16 maintenance districts devote practically their entire time to this one function.

It is possible to take the shine from the back of trousers and skirts by sponging the shiny worn place with water containing a little ammonia, and then pressing with plenty of steam. When the garment is dry the surface should be roughed up with a piece of emery paper.

GRYGLA

THELMA SANDLAND WEDS MINNEAPOLIS MAN

Miss Thelma Sandland of Minneapolis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sandland of Grygla and Lional Carpentier, son of Mrs. Carpentier of Minneapolis, were united in marriage Saturday, November 30, by Reverend S. T. Anderson at the St. Petri church. After the choir had sung "The Church in the Valley by the Wildwood" the mothers of the bride and groom entered from the rear of the church to the strains of Lohengren's Wedding march played by Mrs. S. T. Anderson. The bridesmaid, Agnes Sandland, cousin of the bride, then entered followed by the bride and her father, who treading down the white carpeted aisle joined the groom and his best man under an improvised arch of white streamers accented with vari-colored artificial flowers. The vows were exchanged at a double ring ceremony, the time being high noon. Following the ceremony the choir sang, "Take the Name of Jesus With You."

The bride chose for her wedding a floor length gown of white satin trimmed with white Swedish lace and fashioned with a full skirt, fitted bodice, square neckline, and short, puffed sleeves. She wore a shoulder-length veil, fastened with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white snapdragons and white pompons. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace. The bridesmaid was attired in a floor-length gown of bright blue velveen, fashioned with a full skirt, fitted bodice and long sleeves. She wore a matching turban and gold accessories; she carried an arm bouquet of multi-colored snapdragons and yellow pompons. The groom was attended by his brother, Francis Carpentier of Minneapolis and the bride's brothers, Henry and Kenneth Sandland served as ushers.

The church, which was filled with a large number of neighbors and friends, had lovely decorations. A bowl of fresh flowers graced the altar, where lighted tapers added their warmth to the scene.

Immediately following the nuptials a bounteous wedding dinner was served to all present by the Ladies aid, in the church parlors. The wedding party and member of the family and the pastor and Mrs. Anderson were seated at a table decorated with pink and green streamers. The Centerpiece was a bowl of yellow pompons and lighted candles were placed at both ends of the table. The waitresses were two cousins of the bride, Mrs. Elmer Holden and Gudrun Sandland. After the dinner an array of beautiful wedding gifts was presented to the young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Carpentier left on Sunday for Minneapolis where they will make their home. The groom is employed as a garment cutter in a Minneapolis clothing factory. We join their many friends in wishing them happiness.

Relatives from a distance who attends the wedding were: Mrs. Carpentier and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carpentier all of Minneapolis and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Finstad and family of Thief River Falls.

"Early to Bed—Early to Rise"

On Friday, Dec. 13, the Junior class will present the play which for several years has been the favorite of high school classes "Early to Bed-Early to Rise". It's the story of a typical American family, batty and charming. Dad (Carrol Parnow) is forever inventing contraptions like an unbreakable egg crate or a keyless lock that won't work; the kid brother (Bud Sorenson) hates to study but loves automobiles; the cute little trick from across the alley (Violet LeVang) is all for steering the kid brother into a marriage. She's eighteen, but already considers herself an old maid; Marian, the elder sister (Adeline Nygaard) is trying hard to make a success of her job and is hopelessly in love with her boss; Aunt Abbie (LaVera Wilkins) in frantic, trying to be a cook, mother, and general cleaner-upper for the whole tribe; and last, but nobody dares to say least, is the younger sister, Patsy (Ardell Grondahl) who is crazy about animal pets—including skunks—and has struck up a staunch friendship with the owner of a pet shop. Nobody can say things don't happen in this family!

Santa's Gifts Censored In S. Africa This Year

They've cramped Santa Claus' style this Christmas in South Africa. Little Jannie may ask for a toy pistol and little Piet may want a box of lead soldiers. But they won't get them.

Toy soldiers, guns and tanks and pistols are now banned by the Union.

The reason: A recent outbreak of violence by young criminals frightened the legislature into barring any toy resembling a weapon, particularly a revolver. Water pistols are barred, and even the little percussion cap pistols are taboo.

Airplane Makes Forced Landing on Rupprecht Farm

During the snow storm on Thursday an airplane was forced down on the R. Rupprecht farm near Steiner, the pilot, Marcus Lehmon, who was driving the plane from Bemidji to Roseau, said suddenly the engine died and after making a big circle he managed to glide the plane into a plowed field. After getting the engine started and was about to start, in some way his plane got caught in a fence and smashed the propeller, after which the plane was hauled in the yard where it was left. Mr. Lehman was not injured. E. M. Broughton and son Donald, driving a car, following the airplane picked Mr. Lehman up on the high way as he was walking to Holt, and the three proceeded on to Roseau. Mr. Lehman said this was the fourth time this plane had been forced to land.

Sleds Add to Problem of Safe Winter Driving

Seeking to improve, or at least maintain the fine record of last winter when only one Minnesota child was killed in an accident resulting from a motorist striking a coasting sled, W. F. Rosenwald, traffic and safety engineer of the state Highway department, today issued a reminder to motorists and children that the coasting season is already here,—about a month ahead of its usual arrival.

"Coasting is as great a winter hazard," he said, "as bicycling is in the summer. Just as many communities have tried to supervise and regulate the use of bicycles, many are attempting to restrict the use of sleds, skis and toboggans to hills and streets which are not heavily travelled and are suited to these healthful outdoor recreations".

EAST GRAND FORKS MAN PLEADS NOT GUILTY OF MURDER

Donald Hanson Will be Tried on Charge of Slaying Mrs. Lickteig

Donald "Swede" Hanson, East Grand Forks, pleaded not guilty to a charge of first degree murder as charged in an indictment returned by a Polk county grand jury early last week, in the slaying of Mrs. Vivian Lickteig, young East Grand Forks mother, early last summer. Hanson was arraigned before Judge James E. Montague in district court Thursday and, thru George Hagen, his court-appointed attorney, entered his plea.

Hanson was ordered returned to the Polk county jail where he has been held without bond pending the grand jury's action.

The body of Mrs. Lickteig was found in a clump of brush on the river bank near her home in East Grand Forks, wrapped in a bed quilt. Hanson was immediately under suspicion and he was apprehended at his home a few hours after discovery of the body.

The suspect is alleged to have signed a confession in the presence of East Grand Forks police and Max Raines of the state bureau of criminal apprehension.

548 Major Offenders Arrested by Highway Patrolmen in October

Minnesota highway patrolmen apprehended 548 drunken, careless and speeding drivers on the trunk highways of the state during October, according to a report made by Elden Rowe, chief of the state highway patrol to M. J. Hoffmann, state Highway commissioner.

"These drivers, whose illegal and dangerous operation of their automobiles endangered the lives of countless law-abiding motorists, were arrested to protect the lives of innocent motorists and pedestrians," Mr. Rowe said. "Through the payment of fines totalling more than $12,000 for their offenses," he continued, "and by suspension or revocation of their driver's permits it is intended that they learned that driving on streets and highways is a privilege and not a right."

A total of 1,543 motorists were arrested for operating their cars in an illegal or dangerous manner. One hundred and twenty-four drunken drivers, 159 careless drivers and 265 speeding drivers were arrested. In addition, 131 motorists who failed to stop for "stop" signs and 548 driving cars with improper equipment were also arrested.

Fines imposed by the courts on the violators arrested by the patrolmen last month totalled $16,916, bringing the grand total for the first 10 months of 1940 to more than $150,000.

CAR STRIKES PORKER; SOMERSAULTS INTO DITCH

Luverne—Choosing the wrong psychological moment to cross the road, a pig was the cause of a freakish accident on a recent afternoon when it was struck by the car driven by H. C. Hansen who was en route to Sioux Falls. The moment after the two collided, Mr. Hansen eased his bruised body out of the wreckage that had been his automobile, the car having somersaulted into the ditch. So badly wrecked was the car that Hansen decided it was cheaper to buy a new car than to have the old one repaired. A search for the pig in the vicinity of the accident proved fruitless and the cause of the accident has neither been seen nor heard from since.

Legalizing Gambling Devices Proposed by Fergus Falls Senator

Slot machines, pinball games and other such devices figuring so strongly in law enforcement circles nowadays drew unexpected attention Monday.

State Senator Elmer E. Adams of Fergus Falls, announced he was drafting a bill for the January legislative session "licensing certain varieties of gambling" to develop new tax revenue and protect the public which invests a "fabulous" sum in this manner each year.

Each recent legislature has been marked by attempts to license slot machines or lotteries or some such gesture under the guise of providing extra revenue for relief or other emergency projects.

But this new gesture coming from such a heretofore uncompromising foe of legalized gambling as Senator Adams gives the subject a new complexion.

The plan doubtless will precipitate a sharp scrap during the long winter legislative months and senator Adams in a statement describing his proposal concludes:

"It is expected that this proposed measure will have the opposition both of the owners of the slot machines and those who are horrified at the thought of licensing and controlling something which cannot be suppressed."

President Lends Aid to Sale of Christmas Seals

The best possible defense for our country calls for increased efforts against tuberculosis, national and state leaders point out in urging cooperation in the Christmas seal sale. President Roosevelt says: "In military preparedness, tuberculosis a communicable disease, which kills more persons between the ages of 15 and 45 than any other disease, might interfere with mustering the best possible manpower. Therefore, the 34th annual nationwide Christmas Seal Sale of the tuberculosis associations takes on added significance this year. It should receive more than ever before the fullest possible support of all the people of the country."

Joyous Christmas Was Frowned on By Early Settlers

The joy and singing now associated with Christmas was once forbidden by ultra-pious churchmen of Puritan England. Their disciples who founded New England carried the same repressions for many generations.

In the middle ages Christmas became the greatest of festivals, celebrated with fetes, nativity plays and general jollity. Many of our rollicking carols date back to this gay period of yule rejoicing.

Such pomp and merriment marked the Christmas of Shakespeare's England, when a 12-day festive period was observed. Work was abandoned and young and old gave themselves over to merrymaking.

The Puritans frowned upon the pleasures of the season, however, so in 1644 Parliament prohibited any festivities and ordered the day kept as a fast.

TOURISTS SPEND 150 MILLION IN STATE THIS YEAR

Figure Estimated at 10 Per Cent over 1939 Season by Bureau

Summer vacationists spent in excess of $150,000,000 in Minnesota this year, according to figures given out by the state tourist bureau.

The bureau figures are based on an estimated 10 per cent increase over 1939, for which year the U. S. department of interior travel bureau credits the state with a total of $138,066,000. This makes the 1940 total $151,872,600. The Conoco travel bureau, a nationwide agency, claimed $165,000,000 as the state's 1939 total.

The tourist bureau's 10 per cent boost estimate is based, in part, on returns from 2500 questionnaires sent out to summer resort owners, chambers of commerce and other tourist groups in the state.

The survey shows that 63 per cent of the resorts in the state either had as good or better business as in 1939. Of those claiming better business, improvement ranged all the way from 3½ to 240 per cent, while 37 per cent of the total claimed losses ranging from "slightly less" to as heavy as 25 per cent less.

An interesting disclosure was the fact that 86 per cent of the summer resorts reporting stated that they stayed open later in the fall. This indicates to bureau officials that the tourist season is definitely being lengthened in the state from its former closing date on Labor Day.

END BATTLE BETWEEN HORNLOCKED BUCKS

Roseau—Discovering two large buck deer locked in mortal combat, Richard and Fred Brown of Moranville township near Roseau, took advantage of the situation, each getting their deer quota on the spot. Although the outcome was different than that which the animal kingdom anticipated, it met with the approval of the Brown brothers. Bucks so locked by their horns remain so until both die.

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor Times:

You ask pension advocates to state specifically how their particular plans are to be financed and I am glad to present this information on the Townsend plan.

The Townsend Plan is to be financed by a tax of two per cent of gross income of all persons and companies over and above $3000.00 per year, that amount being exempt from the tax. In connection with this plan raising any large amount of money you say, 'A small tax, unfortunately, raises only a small fund'. I have before me the figures given out by the Federal Reserve and used by the group of professors of the Chicago University in their pamphlet number 20, issued Jan. 1936. The figures show National Income in 1929 to be eighty one billion dollars and a National Business of Twelve Hundred Billion Dollars, the gross transactions for the year. May I suggest that you take your pencil and figure out what this small tax of 2 per cent on Twelve Hundred Billion Dollars amounts to. It looks to me like the tidy sum of Twenty Four Billion Dollars, quite a sizable sum and sufficient to pay eight million retired people, two thousand dollars yer pear, and have one half of that amount left to apply on the reduction of the National Debt. We should not confuse National Income with the gross transactions of the country, the fund comes from the later and not from the National Income. You also want to know who pays the tax. In previous articles I have stated that it is not paid by the Government or by any legitimate business in consumer goods, the general wholesale and retail trade of the nation. The Government acts as the collector and distributer and is reimbursed for every cent of expense in connection with that service. We do not claim exemption from loss on that class of business which is strictly gambling but we do claim that your business will not suffer or any other legitimate business.

In a later issue of your paper I will be glad to explain just how the collection and distribution of funds for this plan will be effected without hardship to anyone.

Yours respectfully,
T. J. Welch

Editor of the Times:

I am inspired to write this in response to your recent invitation in your Editorial Columns, where you said you would be very grateful to anyone who could convince you that taking money from one person or group and handing it to another person or group could make times better. I take it that your article was inspired by some knowledge of that movement known as the Townsend Plan, or some similar idea.

The discussion of this subject necessarily places that thing called money into the stellar role, and as such we must confine ourselves to the fact that money is a medium of exchange, and a universal medium of exchange, more particularly a legal institution to be utilized by society.

For the sake of brevity I will not dwell on the art of taking money by force, which is robbery. Nor need I dwell upon such institutions as The Community Chest, which is no less than the "greatest of the three"—Faith, Hope and Charity. And again, there is no need to include money which has been transferred thru court procedure, which is justice.

Money which, through legislative processes, passes from one person or group to another, if inspired through either charity or justice, cannot harm anyone. For if it passes from the needy to the greedy it foments revolution. If vice versa it makes better times in the mind of the one spiritually and in the stomach of the other physically. In the instance of the Townsend Plan, which proposes to put money into circulation in order that commodities may move off the shelves and be replenished by more of the same and which are produced by labor with the aid of capital, and which plan makes it compulsory for the receiver of the money in question to use it up within a prescribed time, such money most certainly improves our economical problem—better times. Such a plan is not new. It is the essence of all business, labor, sports, society or ecclesiastical well being. Such a plan, in no way differs from any present or past social plan in operation in the country or elsewhere, except that it is carried on in its most perfect and normal possibility, raises its own revenues also, and raises them without protest or difficulty. And if one understands this thing called money he will see where this plan is just another prosperous business in which everyone has his work to do, and from which everyone derives his peace of mind and moves toward his creator.

To illustrate, using even such a thing called illegal money: An excounterfeiter decided to reform and go straight and hung out his shingle as a lawyer. At a moment of distress for some change with which to purchase gasoline for his car he repaired to his attic to make just one more ten dollar bill. This he spent for his immediate needs of one kind and another taking no money in exchange. The ten dollar bill made its rounds from the oil station to the butcher, the baker, and the candlestick maker, and finally parked itself in the pocket of one farmer who needed legal advice and services. Accidentally this farmer came to the lawyer who originated the ten dollar bill and the lawyer knowingly and willingly took it in payment of his bill for services. Laughing he tore it up into bits and threw it into the wastepaper basket. Now who was injured by this bill? We may suspect that even a banker got it and passed it on. Indeed to the extent of ten dollars value a number of persons were prospered. When, oh when! will this subject be taught in the public schools?—so that Democracy will learn that it cannot borrow itself out of debt?—so that the United States of America and its Constitution may remain safe behind the Statue of Liberty Enlightening the World?—so that war hungry nations will fear us instead of feeling contempt for us?

PROGRAM RECENTLY HAS BEEN EXPANDED

Fire Insurance Policies on School Property Are Renewed

The local board of education at its December session Monday evening was informed by Supt. Morris Bye that the advisory committee on national defense training, recently appointed by local organizations, would be ready in a few days to submit its recommendations to the board as to the part the schools of this community should play in the national program.

Arrangements were made to hold a joint meeting next Monday evening. Mr. Bye stated that the advisory group, now made up of representatives of employers and labor, will be enlarged this week to include three farmers, who will represent the interests of rural youths.

It was pointed out that within the past month the defense training program has been broadened to include general pre-employment training for rural and non-rural youths from ages 17 to 24 inclusive, and training courses for youths employed on NYA projects.

The board at its meeting Monday voted to renew fire insurance policies covering school property in the city, which expire January 8, 1941. Sharing in writing the policies are 16 local agencies. Approved for payment was a total of $7,500 in bonds due the state of Minnesota and payable July 1, 1941.

Mr. Bye reported that total enrollment in the school system was 1669 on November 22, an all-time high mark. Making up the number were 775 boys and 894 girls. The board authorized payment of December salaries to faculty members on December 20 in advance of the Christmas holidays.

It was announced that a school event of next week will be a Christmas program to be given Friday afternoon, December 20, at 2 o'clock by the Lincoln high school band and chorus in the school auditorium. That evening the Detroit Lakes quint will meet the Prowlers in a basketball game in the Lincoln school gym.

Rev. C. Wessman was chosen as field representative. The local church was requested to provide building and equipment.

"A Bible School is a great asset to any city and community. It is hoped that this worthy undertaking may soon be established," said Rev. V. L. Peterson, pastor.

The local board will meet only once a week until further notice. The next meeting will be Monday, December 16, following which the group will meet regularly on Tuesdays.

Stressing the importance of registrants notifying the board of any change of address, it was revealed that the services of the U. COUNCIL ACTS ON MANY ITEMS TUESDAY NIGHT

Receives Park Board Report Covering Expenditures to December 1

MAY RETIRE WARRANTS OUTSTANDING IN CITY

$13,000 Auditorium Bonds are Paid up Before Due Date

The city council at its December session Tuesday evening transacted a variety of business, including the approval of side walk, curb and gutter assessment, granting of several building permits, and the acceptance of a report from the park board listing expenditures for the current year to December 1.

City Clerk P. G. Pederson also announced, that in accordance with a recent action of the council, a total of $13,000 in Auditorium bonds held by the state of Minnesota were retired last week in advance of their due date. The bonds were scheduled to mature at dates ranging from 1941 to 1948.

The current payment makes a total of $47,000 in city bonds retired in 1940, Mr. Pederson stated. In addition the council discussed plans to retire at an early date approximately $9,000 in locally held warrants drawing six per cent interest.

No property owners being present to object to a $602.55 assessment for sidewalks, curbs and gutters, mostly in the downtown district, the assessment was approved, and owners of the affected property were given until February 1, 1941, to pay the amounts due without interest. A hearing on a $457 storm sewer assessment on Riverside av. was set for January 14.

Roy Barzen, president of the park board, presented a statement prepared by Carl Larson, superintendent, showing total disbursements for the year to December 1, totaling $5,934.56, this amount including many non-recurring items in the way of permanent improvements. The council authorized the transfer of $1,000 from the current expense fund to the park fund to make up a deficit in the latter fund, thus permitting the board to start the coming year with a clean slate. Appearing with Mr. Barzen were Dr. A. R. Hulbert, Gaston Ward and Lawrence Bjorkman, also members of the park board.

The area NYA office located in the Civic and Commerce room asked that changes be made in the partition dividing off its quarters in the north end of the room, the expense to the city being estimated at slightly more than $50. The council authorized the change, but declined to bear any portion of the expense.

The council approved the transfer from Oscar Mesenbrink to Elmer M. Larson, formerly of Twin Valley, of licenses affecting Monson's Cafe on East Third st., and authorized a similar transfer from P. N. Pederson to R. Brandon affecting the Tiny Tavern.

The largest of several building permits approved covered a new residence to be erected by Melvin J. Peterson on Arnold av., north of Eighth st. at an estimated cost of $3,000. Mrs. Marie Jacobson was given a permit to erect a small residence at a cost of $800 on Tindolph av. S.

NURSE SERVICE IN RURAL SECTION OF COUNTY IS ENDED

Miss Ruth George Finishes Three Months Work in Rural Schools

The following report on the Red Cross nursing service in the Pennington county rural schools during the past three months was prepared by Mrs. E. J. Richards, publicity chairman of the local Red Cross chapter:

The Pennington County Red Cross chapter last spring, secured the services of Miss Ruth George, Red Cross nurse, for three months in the rural schools this fall. To carry on this work the local chapter donated $300 and received $300 from the Sarah Delano Fund which was left to be used in counties that were unable to sponsor the work alone. A committee composed of men and women from the city and county, with Mrs. A. W. Swedenburg as chairman planned a program to be carried out.

During her three months of service, Miss George inspected 1208 children in the chapter area and 126 children of pre-school age, with 422 parents present at the time of inspection. She made 23 visits to homes of school children and eight pre-natal cases, and visited two crippled children.

Children with defective vision were cared for, one boy having cataracts on both eyes will be given attention at the University hospital. A boy in a serious condition, having an abscess on the breast bone was given medical care and is again attending school, and a boy having a crippled arm will be taken to a clinic. In St. Hilaire and Goodridge high school classes were held in home hygiene and care of the sick, and 30 certificates of award will go to girls in these schools.

The committee and all rural teachers cooperated with Miss George in her work in the county, and in interviews with the medical profession she found them to be in favor of a Red Cross nursing service in Pennington county.

The Pennington County Public Health association has offered to furnish paper cups and handkerchiefs for all schools in the county, one school having an open pail and dipper for all to drink from.

The Pennington County chapter feels that this project has been worth while and that they may hope to look forward to another three months of nursing service next fall, and in the future, a full time nurse.

Plum Pudding

Mrs. Bruno Beiswenger has a wonderful recipe for plum pudding. It is so simple to make and can be made several days before using which will then only need to be reheated. Why not try it for that Christmas dinner this year? Mrs. Beiswenger is an English woman and they do dote on their puddings which are truly marvelous. Here's her recipe that includes suet which is plentiful this time of the year. Take about three cups of bread crumbs and soak it with a half cup of scalded milk. Let this cool and add four tablespoons of sugar, beaten yolk of two eggs (the whites to be added last), one cup seeded raisins, cut and floured, one-half cup finely chopped figs (if desired), one half cup chopped nuts, one half cup citron (finely cut). Chop one half cup suet and cream good with your fingers then add this to the mixture with two tablespoons of grape juice or any other fruit juice you happen to have on hand from some sauce. Don't forget your spices which are half a teaspoon nutmeg, one fourth teaspoon cinnamon, one fourth teaspoon cloves, one eighth teaspoon mace and one half teaspoon salt. Then the egg whites are added gently. Turn all this into well-greased containers, such as those empty one pound tin boxes to tea. Punch holes in cover with a nail to let steam escape. Steam for six hours. Cut in slices and top with a dash of ice cream, or whipped cream, or a sauce. It's a perfect ending to a turkey dinner on Christmas Day when the "gang" comes over for that joyous feast.

MAN NEARLY SHOT FOR EIGHTH TIME

Middle River—A bullet whizzing by his ear on the opening day of the hunting season as Henry Tollefsrud of Spruce Valley township stooped to pick up an arm load of wood, made him come to a decision, this marking the eighth deer season during which he has almost been annihilated by bullets, and once outside of deer season for good measure. Mr. Tollefsrud has decided to appeal to his congressman to see if greater restrictions could not be placed on hunters. And in all fairness, he can hardly be blamed.

FLEN FARMER TREED BY ANGRY DEER

Moorhead—Being treed by an angry bull is one thing, and while not too pleasant, is not much out of the ordinary. However, when a farmer, peacefully pursuing his duties on a farm, is chased up a tree by a cantankerous old deer, that constitutes news. Such was the recent case reported by Game Warden Robert E. Streich who, having received other complaints about the same deer, has applied to the state conservation department for a permit to destroy the ornery animal. The buck's ugly disposition is attributed to his advanced age, believed to be close to 12 years old.

WINTER SESSION AT N. W. SCHOOL TO OPEN JAN. 6TH

Supt. T. M. McCall Cites Students' Requirements for Admission

The Northwest School of Agriculture at Crookston will open for registration for the winter term on January 6. Superintendent T. M. McCall announces that courses of special interest and value will be offered in the fields of agricultural engineering, livestock and crop production, home economics, business, and all academic subjects. Students lacking credit for college entrance will have opportunity to make up academic and vocational credits.

The new equipment in electric arc and oxyacetylene welding will be of special interest and value to boys who do the shop work at home or who go into industrial work. The courses in farm motors, tractors, and field machinery, shop work, mechanical drawing are fitting boys for specialized work.

Boys and girls who are eighth grade graduates, who live in rural school districts which do not offer accredited high school work and who are under twenty-one years of age may enter the schools of agriculture, which are a part of the University, with state tuition aid and at a cost of only board and room if they reside on the campus. Prospective students, not graduates of the eighth grade, transfer students from accredited high school districts, and students over twenty-one years of age pay a small tuition fee to enter the school of agriculture.

Kenneth Maidment Ruled Guilty in Hit-Run Case

Following a lengthy hearing conducted Monday in municipal court, Judge Lincoln Arnold Wednesday handed down a decision holding Kenneth Maidment was the driver of the hit-run car that struck Harry Sevre in St. Hilaire December 1. Maidment was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or to serve ninety days in jail, imposition of the sentence being deferred when his attorney indicated an appeal to district court would be filed. Numerous witnesses were presented at the hearing for both the prosecution and the defense.

Mr. and Mrs. Reichmann Bruised as Car Upsets

While rounding a curve north of St. Hilaire en route from Grand Forks to this city late Monday morning, the E. Reichmann car driven by Mr. Reichmann, accompanied by his wife, skidded on an icy section of the highway and overturned in the ditch. Mr. and Mrs. Reichmann escaped with bruises and minor cuts, while their car was badly damaged.

Oscar Vigen Tells of His Trip to Chicago

Oscar Vigen, Rocksbury 4-H club worker, who last weekend returned from a trip to the 4-H Club Congress at Chicago, has prepared the following account of his journey for readers of the Times:

I wish to take this opportunity to describe a few of the most important incidents in connection with the National 4-H Club Congress and the International Livestock Exposition to the many 4-H Club members which I had the privilege to represent.

Mr. A. J. Kittleson and the State 4-H Club Staff had charge of the regular State delegation while Mr. F. J. Kolar had charge of and directed the Watonwon County 4-H Club band which had the honor of representing Minnesota at the Club Congress.

The group made the journey to Chicago on new, modern, streamlined, air-conditioned trains which was a new experience to many of us.

Our delegation stayed at the Morrison Hotel while in Chicago. Five other mid-western states also made their home at this hotel. Other state delegations were quartered at the Stevens, Auditorium, and Congress Hotels.

Sunday, December 1, was our first day spent in Chicago, the forenoon of which we spent attending church as a group. During the afternoon the 1,500 boys and girls attending the Club Congress were treated to a 45-mile motor coach tour through Chicago. The tour began in front of the Auditorium Hotel and passed south on Michigan Avenue past the Stevens Hotel and Grant Park in which is found the Field Museum, Adler Planetarium, Shedd Aquarium, and Soldier Field, all located on man-made land—land made by filling in the lake. As we continue homeward we view the harbor, the Navy Pier, the Outer River Bridge and Chicago River Locks and climax our tour by an opportunity to gaze in wonderment at the beautiful skyline of Chicago.

Sunday evening all 4-H Club members and leaders were guests of the Sunday Evening club. This club was organized in 1907 to maintain a service of Christian inspiration and fellowship in the business center of Chicago and to promote the moral and religious welfare of the city. Community singing and choir music were a part of the program, the feature being a stirring address by Dr. Daniel Poling, pastor of the Baptist Temple in Philadelphia and head of the World Christian Endeavor Society and a great evangelist and youth leader.

Monday morning all delegates rode the elevated railroad to the International Livestock Exposition where we were greeted by Mr. B. H. Heide, manager of the Exposition. After viewing the splendid exhibits at the International we boarded motor coaches to go to the Medinah Temple to be guests of Wilson and Co. During the afternoon Mr. T. E. Wilson presented us with outstanding entertainment, the feature being a half-hour broadcast of the program over 135 N. B. C. Stations. Mr. Wilson had chosen outstanding young people of the sports world to appear on this broadcast, such as Patty Berg, Tom Harmon, Bobby Reese, Bob Feller and Miss Harwick of England. Miss Harwick expressed the belief that if young people had had the privilege to organize freely and express themselves in Europe as they had in America the present war would have been avoided. Following the entertainment we were dinner guests of Thos. E. Wilson, chairman, Wilson and Co., and National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work. In the evening all 4-H club delegates and leaders paraded in the arena of the International Livestock Exposition.

Tuesday morning the boys were breakfast guests of Swift and Co., followed by an educational tour through the plants of Swift and Co.

At twelve o'clock noon we were presented with luncheon and entertainment, Panther Room, Sherman Hotel, guests of the National Livestock Marketing association. Toward evening of the same day we visited the Art Institute which is the third largest in the world.

Wednesday forenoon we were guests of the International Harvester Co., on a tour through the Tractor Works and the McCormick Twine Mill. At noon we were luncheon guests of International Harvester officials and the entertainment by Wayne King and his orchestra.

Wednesday evening our activities rose to a climax, the occasion being the Nineteenth National 4-H Club Banquet, Grand Ballroom, Stevens Hotel. Awards were presented to national winners, a 4-H drama was presented by a Chicago Theatre Company, and also the National 4-H Dress Revue. Arthur Olson, Mower County, Minnesota, served as toastmaster and music was furnished by Mr. Louis A. Bachmann and Orchestra.

The following morning we went to the Field Museum of Natural History where we visited the Hall of the Races, prehistoric animals, etc. Our time here was limited as we had to depart for home at noon.

The Minnesota potato exhibit was placed first and several Minnesota 4-H members received $200 to $300 scholarships.

You may ask, "Why the National 4-H Club Congress?" The National Congress has as its objectives to broaden the vision and viewpoints of rural youth by visiting points of agricultural, Industrial, Civic and Cultural interest and also an opportunity to meet people of other states and other outstanding people who have achieved. Secondly it desires to build in rural young people a pride in and respect for agriculture and its contribution to society. The National 4-H Club Congress also assists in creating a public consciousness of the prestige and accomplishments of the 4-H club and also to recognize and stimulate achievement among 4-H club and also to recognize and stimulate achievement among 4-H club members.

WOMAN, OVER SEVENTY RUNS OWN TRAP LINE

Baudette — Three score years and ten may be the average life span for most people, but Mrs. J. L. Behncke, whose home is south of Pitt, although three years past that mark, does not even intend to get out carpet slippers and take it easy by the fireside. No, indeed. In fact, she entered the offices of County Auditor M. C. Weeks on a recent Monday morning and took out a trappers' license. She intends to run her own fur line this winter.

FINAL PLANS SET FOR R. R. VALLEY SHOWS FEB. 3 TO 7

Special Events Planned for Each of Five Days of Exposition

Final plans for the 31st annual Northwest School Farmers' Week and Red River Valley Winter Shows, February 3-7, inclusive, are now being completed. T. M. McCall, president of the board of managers of the Winter Shows, states that more than $6200 in cash prizes will be offered for exhibits in livestock, crops, and poultry during the Shows.

An item of interest to the dairymen of the Red River Valley is the addition of the Brown Swiss breed of cattle to the 1941 competition. Five breeders of Brown Swiss cattle will exhibit herds at the forthcoming show. The dairy breeds now recognized by the show include: Holstein, Guernsey, Jersey, Milking Shorthorn and Brown Swiss.

The directors of the Red River Valley Livestock association have arranged a definite judging schedule for the week whereby visitors to the show can see judging of livestock done each day from Monday through Thursday.

Original plans called for a one-day combination sale of purebred foundation stock; however, the flood of consignments to the sale has made it necessary for the Sales Committee, after a drastic elimination of animals, to announce a two-day sale. The sale of sheep and swine will be held on Thursday afternoon, February 6 with the sale of cattle set for Friday afternoon, February 7.

A wool exhibit prepared by the state and national wool pools will be one of the outstanding educational exhibits at the Show during the week. The annual meeting of the Minnesota Wool Pool will be held in conjunction with the Winter Shows on Wednesday, February 5. The Livestock Feeders will observe an all Sheep Day, February 5, for their educational program with Dean W. C. Coffey, Dean of the College of Agriculture, University of Minnesota, as the program leader.

Two out of every five persons killed in Minnesota traffic accidents are pedestrians, according to the Minnesota Highway Department. Of the 216 traffic deaths in Minnesota in the first six months of this year, 85 involved pedestrians.

Physicians Urge Early Attention to Infections of Ear, Nose and Throat

Most deafness is the unhappy end result of neglected colds and other acute infections of the nose and throat, according to a bulletin issued today by the Minnesota State Medical Association's committee on public health education.

For that reason the physicians in this bulletin urge people of all ages never to neglect such infections. Above all, they say, never be careless when the inflammation extends to the passages leading to the middle ear, with earache, running ears or a blocked feeling in the ear as symptoms.

The trouble may seem to clear up when the acute infection subsides; but hearing may be impaired without anyone's noting it. If this impairment is not detected quickly, it may progress to complete loss of hearing some day. In the meantime, it is capable of retarding the progress of the child at school and warping his development for years to come.

"Loss of hearing is one of the saddest of all handicaps that affect children," the doctors declare. "It should be discovered at the earliest possible moment so as to cure the condition if possible, or at least to control its progress, also to protect the child from the unhappy fate that overtakes so many deafened children—that of being regarded as dull, unruly and inattentive."

SONS OF NORWAY LODGE TO ELECT OFFICERS TONIGHT

The Sons of Norway lodge will conduct its annual election of officers at a meeting in the lodge hall this evening, T. J. Iverson, secretary, announced today.

Keep the doors of your car closed while driving. At least a dozen serious accidents have occurred on Minnesota highways this year in which people—usually young children—have fallen out of moving vehicles.

Oakland Park Sanatorium and the efforts of its officers and staff members in the control of tuberculosis in this area were praised in an article appearing in the January issue of Everybody's Health, published by the Minnesota Public Health Association. In recent years there has been a notable decrease in the number of deaths resulting from tuberculosis in the counties served by the institution. Excellent results obtained here in the control of the disease are attributed to the thoroughness with which tests of school children have been conducted thruout the area and also the splendid facilities provided by the sanatorium for cases requiring confinement. It is encouraging to know that good progress is being made in the war on tuberculosis and it is especially gratifying to learn that exceptionally good results are being obtained in our own territory. A word of thanks and a round of cheers for those who are responsible for the good record, including the hundreds of people who have co-operated wholeheartedly with sanatorium officials. A cheer, too, for those who have bought Christmas Seals, the proceeds of which have made it possible to greatly extend the field service of the organization.

Senator B. L. Kingsley of Minneapolis proposes that the highway department be placed under a five man commission and that greater power to control department expenditures be retained by the legislature. That of course would make the department a political plaything with which the politicians could have a lot of fun. Such a change would not be in the interests of efficiency. Under any system it is possible to have mismanagement and inefficiency and the present system is not fool-proof, but under the present system it is possible for a capable and honest commissioner to operate the department as it should be operated, in the interests of good roads and not in the interests of a political machine. Mike Hoffman is doing a swell job as commissioner. Under his administration the state is getting good value for every road tax dollar. Leave well enough alone.

Soo Line payroll figures in Thief River Falls have been totaling in the neighborhood of $35,000 a month since the fall rush started. An average of about 300 cars a day are being handled in and out of here and the prospects seem to be bright for a fairly steady run of business thruout the winter. How important is the Soo Line payroll in the life of the community? Well, in terms of butterfat, one of our leading cash crops, the railroad payroll would compare favorably with the cream checks issued by the local creamery which manufactures a million pounds of butter a year. And no one, certainly, would say that the creamery is not an important institution in the city.

Icy streets and slow moving automobiles is an ideal combination for the kids and hitching rides has become a popular sport among the youngsters. Hitching rides on automobiles is extremely dangerous however and the police are trying to put a stop to it. Chief Stenberg asks the co-operation of car drivers, requesting that the names of boys seen hitching rides be reported at once.

We are not disturbed by the possibility of being denied the music of some of our leading song writers in the radio programs of the near future. For some reason or other the new songs never seem to grip us until about the time everybody else is tired of listening to them. We can get along with the old stuff for awhile. We are not greatly concerned either with the argument between the song writers and the song buyers. Having no idea what a fair price would be for permission to use a song in an entertainment broadcast, we do not know whether or not the song writers are being underpaid, although the stuff they grind out does indicate that some of them must suffer terribly.

A friend of ours was upset this week by a thing we thought should have made him very happy. A fellow had paid him a couple of dollars that he had borrowed from him several years ago. We couldn't understand why that should put him in the dumps but he reasoned it out this way. He had been an easy mark for the fellows who always needed a lift until pay day. It had always been difficult for him to say no but gradually, as one promiser after another had failed to perform, he had hardened, and was just getting to the point where he was beginning to enjoy turning thumbs down to all requests for assistance. And just when he was dead certain there wasn't an honest man in the world, this fellow had to come along and pay back an old loan that he had been certain he never would collect, restoring his faith in mankind and making him an easy prey once more for the friends who are always short of cash. He figured that getting back that two dollars would cost him many times that amount in the new loans his rejuvenated sense of social responsibility would compel him to make. He was very discouraged.

It would be unfortunate if the disagreement between the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Dies Committee should result in curtailment of the activities of either group. We like both of them and can see no good reason why they shouldn't be able to work together. Each serves a good purpose, the Dies Committee in arousing the country to the dangers that threaten it from within, and the F. B. I. in its silent but effective search for actual criminals. The F. B. I. could not properly do what the Dies Committee is doing in arousing the nation, and the Dies Committee, at best, can make but a superficial study of the activities of the various subversive groups that seek to destroy us. The two agencies should work in harmony, aiding each other in ascertaining the facts and presenting the facts to the people.

It seems downright wicked to refuse to send food to the hungry masses in Hitler-conquered Europe but it also seems downright foolish to give them aid when it is certain that such aid will strengthen the dictators and improve their chances for victory. If there is some basis for the hope that hunger may lead to a revolution that will end the war, then there is justification for withholding aid at the present time. We are glad it is not our responsibility to make the decision but if it were our responsibility we might decide that along with the provisions we would send an army to see to it that the provisions went to the right people.

CHANGE IN COLLAR STYLES

(Christian Science Monitor)

A revolution in education has been quietly under way in the United States for some time. The Order of Overalls is overcoming barriers erected during the Era of the White Collar.

Educators, parents, and laymen recognize that we cannot educate 80 per cent of the nation's youths for 10 per cent of its job possibilities. There are many opportunities in overalls today; there are many less chances in white-collar fields. Of the 130 occupational tasks, for example, listed by the national defense advisory board, the greatest number is of the manual type.

We are regaining respect for honest handwork. We are a mechanical nation. Tools will continue to be a vital support of society. In wide areas, native craftsmen are once more turning out handmade articles. The public appreciates good workmanship as proved by its purchases. A change of fashions in collar styles is a happy omen.

21 Lives are Saved in First Three Months of Publishers' Campaign

Although traffic deaths in Minnesota are nine above the "budget" goal set by the Minnesota Editorial Association when its members launched their "Save 100 Lives" campaign September 1, the first three months of the traffic accident prevention drive have resulted in the saving of 21 lives in the state, as compared with the same period a year ago. And, but for one disastrous accident which claimed nine lives, the exact goal would have been achieved.

This means that during the 91-day period of the campaign, from September 1 to November 30, one life was saved in traffic every 4⅓ days—one life saved every 104 hours for three consecutive months.

During September, October and November of 1939, there occurred 195 Minnesota traffic deaths. In organizing their campaign and setting up a budget for monthly traffic fatality reductions, the editors fixed their goal for these three months at a total of not more than 165 fatalities. Up until December 1, 174 had been reported.

The excess of actual deaths over allowable deaths budgeted was exactly that of the number of lives lost in the early November tragedy near Pipestone when 8 passengers in one car, returning from a funeral, plowed into a truck which entered the highway from a side road, killing all passengers in the car and the driver of the truck.

PUBLIC OPINION

To the Editor:

Following up my article on the subject of pensions which you published last week, I offer the following in explanation of my statement that no legitimate business suffers any loss under the Townsend Plan but on the contrary, is benefited. Let me ask you what the difference is between a bill you present to the merchant for advertising and a bill presented to him by the County, State or Nation for taxes. The fact is there is no difference whatever. The dollar he gives you is the same kind of a dollar and increases his expense just that much. There is however a very great difference in the use made of the two dollars after they leave his hand. The dollar he gives you is put to work to bring him more business and does bring him more business, enough more to pay for the extra goods that go out and to put back in his pocket the money he gave you and a little more to add to his regular profit. Surely you believe this or you would hold merchants who come to you with their ads week after week as being very poor business men. I take it for granted that you believe they come to you, not to lose money but because they have found it pays them to do so. Thus we find that a very large amount of money is taken daily, weekly and monthly from the mercantile group and given to the advertising group and according to your process of figuring, as indicated in your previous statements, some one must have lost, for you have said "you can not give a large sum of money to one group unless you take it from another group". I believe we agree that the merchant does not return to you each week to throw money away and you will admit that you do not lose anything by the transaction so the only party left to consider is the public.

Does the public have to pay the bill. They do not pay the bill. If you think the public pays the bill, scan the prices in any of the ads in the Times and compare them with the going prices, you will not find them higher, they are generally lower. If the merchant is reimbursed and the public is buying as cheaply or cheaper, who or what pays the tax you have imposed upon the merchant? The same agency produces it that will produce the 2% on business under the Townsend Plan, extra volume of business under a competitive and profit system.

The dollar a businessman advances to establish the operation of the Townsend Plan, is put to work on a big job and a swift job and it comes back to him with more dollars in the hands of the pensioners who must spend their pension money and keep the business ball a rolling.

There is a class in business who are not quite so fortunate under the Townsend Plan. The gambling element. On Nov. 8th last month, I figured the gross amount of the transactions on the New York Stock Exchange, from figures given in the Sunday issue of the Mpls. Star-Journal. The total value of all stocks sold amounted to seventy million dollars. Had the Townsend Plan been in operation on that day, these high class gamblers would have donated to the pension fund one million four hundred thousand dollars and the New York Stock Exchange does less than one half of the stock exchange business of the country.

They are the birds that will lose a few fine feathers and unfortunately the pensioners can not come to their rescue, gambling is not a part of the Townsend Plan.

Yours respectfully, T. J. Welsh.

Think of Children, Not Only Yourself, When Buying Toys

Don't buy the toy just because it pleases your fancy. Keep the child in mind, too. Miniature dogs with wagging tails are fascinating to parents but they won't keep the child happy very long. Miss Elisabeth Irwin, who is principal of New York's Little Red School House, says large blocks, tool chests or hand-manipulated derricks make much better gifts.

Keeping in mind the child's age and taste, durability of the toy and a few well-chosen scientific principles, she offers these rules to you who are Santa Clauses this Christmas:

1. Choose toys which stimulate the child's imagination, rather than mechanical toys. Trains that run by hand are an example.

This new Arabian pony, which scoots along as the rider bounces up and down, is a sample of the toy which helps children exercise large muscles.

2. Choose toys which help children exercise their large muscles, like large blocks, trapezes, boards to fit over saw horses. Roller skates, sleds, bicycles and other athletic toys are also good.

3. Find toys that don't break easily. If you buy tools, be sure the hammer head won't fly off. Inexpensive miniature automobiles may break down after a few trips around the parlor floor.

4. Buy games of skill, not of chance. Select games involving counting and building.

BAYBERRY CANDLES For Christmas

This young lady is not going to use her sprig of berries for decoration. She is doing what hundreds of housewives around the East coastline are doing during the Christmas season—preparing to make bayberry candles. The berries are boiled for their wax, which is purified and made into the candles that give off the distinctive aroma when burned.

Here you see a phase in the mass production of bayberry candles for the Yule season. Great bunches of wicks are dipped simultaneously until they are of desired thickness.

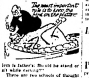
—Being Directions On How to Carve Christmas Turkey

Gather round ye masters of the Christmas dinner table. Uncle Sam will teach you a lesson!

The government has issued an official bulletin on the proper technique for carving the Christmas turkey.

The bulletin rules on such important problems as whether the father should stand or sit while doing the honors and the position of the turkey on the platter. All you have to do is read this, and carving the festive bird will be a lead-pipe cinch.

"The turkey rides on the platter back down," says the bureau of home economics. "The first problem is father's: Should he stand or sit while carving?"

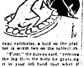


The most important rule is to keep the bird on the platter.

There are two schools of thought on this subject, and the government grants father his constitutional rights to do as he pleases. But it is suggested, after deliberation, that a short person had best stand and a tall person should sit for the most effective work. Are you short or tall?

The next problem, says the bulletin, is the point of attack. It is here that many a head of a house, the bureau believes, has lost the Christmas spirit through ignorance or awkwardness—or just plain stubbornness.

Only a few simple rules need be followed. The most important, of course, is to keep the bird on the platter, because it's rather difficult to work on the floor. Also, the bureau estimates, a bird on the platter is worth two on the tablecloth.



The next problem is the point of attack

"First," the bureau said, "remove the leg from the body by grasping it in your left hand (but what if you're left handed?) and cutting straight down to the hip joint. Remove the wings and the other leg.

"Then place the fork squarely across the breastbone toward the end of the keel, to anchor the bird while you carve the breast in slices; using a slightly sawing motion."

If you don't like the shape of your turkey, or the distribution of dark and white meat, well—why not have your wife carve in the first place?

Christmas Season Celebrated Before Christ Was Born

Strange as it seems, the Christmas season was celebrated long before Christ was born. Of course, it wasn't called Christmas then, but many religious and pagan ceremonies were held during the Christmas period.

This period is celebrated by the Jews as the Festival of Lights or Dedication. According to Jewish history, a large force of Maccabees defeated an army of Syrians in 165 B. C. The victors began the work of purifying the desolate Jerusalem, completing their task on December 25. The Jews have celebrated the eight days previous to December 25 ever since that time.

The proximity of Christmas to the winter solstice caused many pagan ceremonies to be held during that period. In Scandinavian countries, great fires were kindled in the middle of December to defy the Frost King.

Centuries before this, the ancient Druids of England observed this season in their roofless temples. Torches blazed as strange ceremonies were performed, dealing with the cutting of the mistletoe.

Several accepted Christmas customs of today originated with the old Roman celebration of Saturnalia. The higher class of free Romans exchanged presents with their friends. Inside houses, candles were lit and the rooms and halls adorned with laurel and green trees.

These festivals in honor of the god Saturnus were started before the earliest recorded history of that great empire. The pagans celebrated from December 17 to 24 in honor of their sun god. Among the slaves and lower classes, the celebration was transformed into unrestrained orgies.

Even the ancient Egyptians celebrated the Midwinter festival. Near the end of December they rejoiced over the birth of Horus, son of the god Isis.

The last religious celebration to be held on Christmas day appeared in the middle of the Fourth century, A. D. At this time various dates assigned to the birth of Christ were examined; and the Catholic church in Rome proclaimed December 25 to be Christmas.

It's Easy to Select A Christmas Tree That Holds Needles

IF YOUR Christmas tree shed its needles early last winter, you probably had the wrong kind of tree.

All trees will drop their leaves after they are cut and stored in a warm room, but some kinds hold their leaves far longer than others. Trees used most commonly on Christmas are the spruces, fir, hemlock, pine and redcedars.

Spruces are the least desirable of all evergreens because they are the first to shed their needles. A spruce can be identified by grasping a branch tightly, as its sharp pointed needles will prick your hand.

The ideal Christmas tree is the fir. It resembles the spruce except that its needles are not sharp. The needles stay on the tree for a long time, and become a golden brown before they finally drop. Needles of a Douglas fir are flat and soft to the touch. This popular tree can be recognized by examining the cones which have small appendages on each side.

Hemlocks tend to shed their foliage early when kept indoors at a warm temperature. The distinguishing feature of this tree is the two white lines on the lower side of each of its needle-like narrow leaves.

Pines have never been very popular as Christmas trees, in spite of the fact they do not shed their needles early. This is probably due to their unsymmetrical appearance, which does not closely resemble the conventional Christmas tree. Their longer needles are associated in clusters of three or five.

Redcedars are occasionally used as Christmas trees in neighborhoods where they grow wild. The foliage is tiny and scalelike, and is prickly to the touch. It grows berries instead of cones.

No matter what kind of Christmas tree you select, it will hold its needles longer if it is standing in water. Place a little water in the base of your Christmas tree stand, and you will be bothered less with falling needles than you were last year.

Basket of Preserves Makes Welcome Gift

A gift that anyone will appreciate is a basket of your own preserves. Take a half dozen or so of your prettiest and most delicious ones, tie gay bows of red ribbon around the tops, and put them in a wicker container. Then tie another bow on the handle and insert a card.

Be Thrifty—Read The Times.

Christmas Carol

☆

By Henry W. Longfellow

I hear along our street
Pass the minstrel throngs;
Hark! They play so sweet,
On their Hautboys, Christmas songs!
Let us by the fire
Ever higher
Sing them till the night expire!

In December ring
Every day the chimes;
Loud the gleemen sing
In the streets their merry rhymes.
Let us by the fire
Ever higher
Sing them till the night expire!

Shepherds at the grange,
Where the Babe was born,
Sang with many a change
Christmas carols until morn.
Let us by the fire
Ever higher
Sing them till the night expire!

These good people sang
Songs devout and sweet;
While the rafters rang,
There they stood with freezing feet
Let us by the fire
Ever higher
Sing them till the night expire!

Nuns in frigid cells
At this holy tide,
For want of something else,
Christmas songs at times have tried.
Let us by the fire
Ever higher
Sing them till the night expire!

Who by the fireside stands,
Stamps his feet and sings;
But he who blows his hands
Not so gay a carol brings.
Let us by the fire
Ever higher
Sing them till the night expire!

Bethlehem Unchanged In Twenty Centuries

Bethlehem, "royal David's city," is still a city set on a hill. It is about six miles from Jerusalem.

It is a city of flat-roof homes which look cozy enough, and its narrow streets have an air of friendliness.

More Christians live in Bethlehem than in any other town in Palestine. On its hillsides you may still see shepherds with their flocks, while blinking overhead are the everlasting stars.

COUNTY WILL BE REPRESENTED AT FARM, HOME WEEK

Attendance Group Named to Plan Details for Local Delegation

Committees have been set up in every county of the state to assist in making arrangements for the 1941 Farm and Home Week at University Farm, St. Paul, January 20-25. Pennington county's attendance committee, named to work out plans for people attending from this area, includes Mrs. V. C. Noper, Mrs. Freeman Allen, R. J. McKercher, and E. H. Pomeranke.

J. O. Christianson, director of short courses, says Farm and Home Week is the largest short course offered at University Farm during the year. Classes in latest farming and homemaking methods, leadership sessions, exhibits and assemblies have been planned to round out a complete program of instruction and entertainment.

Rural women will find their program in homemaking headed by speakers of national importance. From Chicago will come Mrs. Clara Gebhard Snyder of the Wheat Flour Institute, and from Washington, D. C., Mrs. Harriet R. Howe of the American Home Economics association. A textile exhibit will be brought from Milwaukee by Mrs. Sylvia Shiras of the Household Research Center.

Community, 4-H and rural youth leadership sessions again will form an important part of the week's events. The school of agriculture will offer its program Monday through Friday during the short course.

Big names scheduled include Edgar Guest, famous poet, Wilfred Laurier Husband, internationally known lecturer and photographer; Dr. Carl Taeusch, Bureau of Agricultural Economics U. S. Department of Agriculture, and President Guy Stanton Ford of the University of Minnesota.

Hitching Sleds to Cars Dangerous, Illegal, Says Highway Safety Chief

Children, and grown-ups too, were issued a warning this week by W. F. Rosenwald, traffic and safety engineer of the Minnesota highway department, to refrain from hitching toboggans, sleds, bicycles or other similar devices onto motor vehicles or street cars. Every winter, according to Mr. Rosenwald, several serious accidents result from this illegal and dangerous practice.

"Many children," said Mr. Rosenwald, "seeking excitement, have hitched sleds or toboggans onto cars, trucks, busses or streetcars. They have not stopped to think of the danger they are courting by their actions. And to add to the seriousness of the situation, the motorists do not realize they are towing a sled or toboggan behind their cars."

Motorists cannot be held responsible for accidents which may occur when a sled or toboggan is hitched onto a car without the driver's permission, Mr. Rosenwald emphasized.

DEER MADE GOOD USE OF REFUGES, SURVEY REVEALS

Moved into Protected Areas During Recent Open Season

A preliminary census indicating that deer made good use of at least one game refuge during the recent hunting season was reported by the department of conservation this week.

CCC boys from Camp S-144 at Akeley under direction of Paul R. Highby, Department mammologist, surveyed a typical square mile of the 8,960 acre Paul Bunyan refuge in Hubbard county located southeast of Itasca State Park.

Two censuses were made. The first, a few days before the hunting season started, showed 12 deer. The same area counted immediately after the shooting period contained 22 deer.

The Department cautioned that these figures are not necessarily conclusive, and there is no proof the ratio will apply to all game refuges in the deer country. Similar surveys of several other refuges are not yet tabulated.

A deer count in the Smiley refuge 13 miles southeast of Thief River Falls by interested sportsmen disclosed a bull elk or Wapiti to be in the area. Apparently the animal had wandered 45 miles from the northeast where a herd of animals were released on the Upper Red Lake refuge some years ago.

The elk was sighted by several persons participating in the drive. Tracks of a second elk, believed a cow, were found nearby. Farmers in the area had reported seeing a "moose" wandering the vicinity for several weeks.

Grygla Youth Returned to State Institution

Arrested in this city Wednesday of last week on a shoplifting charge, Berge C. Nordvick, 26, of Grygla, on parole from a state institution, was to be returned to that institution today. Questioned in connection with the theft of the T. C. Hanes car, recovered last Thursday in a private driveway between Main and Knight aves., Nordvick denied responsibility.

The Inhalator when purchased will be kept at the Thief River Falls Fire Hall and will be available to the residents of Thief River Falls, St. Hilaire, Hazel, Erie, Goodridge, Mavie, Oklee, Wylie, Viking, Grygla, Gatzke, Holt, Middle River, Newfolden, Plummer and surrounding rural vicinity at any time without charge. PROWLERS BOW TO BEMIDJI QUINTET BY SCORE OF 43-26

Local Quint, However, Shows Improvement in Play over First Tilt

Playing their customary deliberate style of basketball, and benefiting by their weight and height advantage, the Bemidji high school Lumberjacks, champions of the eighth region, defeated the Prowlers in a well-played game here last Friday night, by a 43 to 26 score.

The Prowlers played better basketball in losing to Bemidji than they did in winning from Fosston in their opening game, but their inexperience and lack of consistent basket shooting permitted Bemidji to control the game. Denny Althoff, at forward, Orrin Pederson, at center, and Babe Peterson, at guard, turned in fine games for the locals. Denny being particularly aggressive in scrambling for the ball, and Orrin showing improvement on rebounds and defensive play, while Babe, who was the Prowlers' high scorer with 8 points, was breaking fast and passing sharply and accurately.

Eddie Flasch, usually the Prowlers' hot-shot, was handicapped considerably by a strained knee ligament, which made it painful for him to make his pivots and drives for the basket. Johnny Campbell, forward, and Lenny Lorentson, guard, were other Prowlers who revealed improvement in their play.

The Bemidji attack was spearheaded by black-haired Jack Johnson, forward, and stocky George Thorbrogger, guard, with Bob Worth, center, playing a strong game under the backboard. Johnson, who's a jinx to the Prowlers, scored 12 points on 6 field goals, and four of these goals were scored on one-handed tosses. Jack would break across the free throw circle, receive a hook pass from one of the guards, make a pivot, and poke a one-handed shot at the basket, and four times the ball dropped into the net, while his other attempts were always close. Thorbrogger was Bemidji's long-range threat, with his shots over the Prowler defense. These long shots served to loosen the locals' defense and open up the floor for the Lumberjacks' block-plays.

In an entertaining preliminary game, the Senior Red Devils edged out the Prowler 'B' team, 26 to 23. Moon Mullens, Red Aalbu, and Jim Ferguson, were the high scorers for the Seniors, while Owen Borchert and Bob Powell led the 'B' team scoring.

The Prowlers journey to Grand Forks Friday for a game with Glenn Hubbard's Grand Forks Central high school quint.

Another Bingo Party Is Set for Saturday Night

The last of a series of five-cent bingo parties being held in advance of the opening of the hockey season next week will be staged in the municipal Auditorium Saturday evening, December 14, at 8 o'clock. Prizes will include poultry, coffee, sugar and blankets. Proceeds of the affair will go into the hockey club treasury.

By Huch Olson

The Senior Red Devils

I'll have to mention them, for then I'll be doing my good turn for the week, and it will give me a chance to say that the Red Devils are 'more sinned against than sinning'. But all kidding to one side, they are a pretty classy basketball team, new suits, etc. Their starting lineup has Moon Mullens and Red Aalbu at forwards, Russ Williams at center, and Jimmy Ferguson and Helmer Ostrom at the guards. Moon and Red, at the forwards, have all the motions, and they are capable of making a basket now and then. And Fergy at guard, with his stiff arm, will score more points than will the man that he's covering. In addition to these colorful players, the team is managed and coached by Lloyd Dave McMillan Alnes.

Grafton Claims Gustafson

Frank Gustafson, defense man with Hallock last year, and who's been signed to play hockey here this year, is being claimed by the Grafton Millionaires. It seems that some of the Grafton team officials were in Winnipeg last week and had an interview with Frank and secured an understanding, but not a signed contract, that Gustafson was to play with Grafton this season. In the meantime George Beverly met Gustafson and told him that Thief River Falls needed a defense man, with the result that Frank last Sunday agreed to play his hockey down here. Grafton now claims a priority on Gustafson's services.

have a claim to Jack McVicar, a have a claim to Jaack McVicar, a Grafton defense man. Several weeks ago the local management in correspondence with McVicar apparently came to the conclusion that Jack was to play hockey here; but Grafton, on their hockey-player-getting junket to Winnipeg, signed McVicar to their club. It looks like an 'even Stephen' affair.

This Frank Gustafson is a younger brother of the Hugh Gustafson that played first base for the Winnipeg Maroons some years ago and who is playing hockey with the Philadelphia Ramblers.

Indications are that the Grafton Millionaires, and they are aptly named, will be the 'bear-cat outfit' in the league. They are managed by Gordy Teel, who's played Association hockey; and they have an agreement with the St. Paul club whereby they will receive several promising players; and some from Ramer hockey players are to report to Grafton; and yet they have established a ten man blanket bend at the border, so that they can import ten Canadian hockey players if the need arises. They aren't missing very many tricks up there.

It's a Feud

That basketball game between 'J. K.' Stadum's Independents and Wes Barrell's Cowboys, whenever it can be arranged, will be a dog-cat-dog affair. These two outfits have been growling at each other for the past month, with threats and boasts being tossed around. 'J. K.' will have Wayne Bredeson, Earl Nicholson, Loren Jung, Carl Lee, Don Olson, and himself on the Independents; while Wes claims that he will put the following lineup out on the floor: Bob DuChamp and Billy Claffy at forwards, Si Kompelien at center, [illegible] Ude at [illegible].

The chief difficulty in completing arrangements for the game will be to secure a referee capable of keeping the bloodshed at a minimum.

Hanson Co-captain of Gusties

Bob Hanson, stocky-built 155 pound center of the Gustavus football team, state champions, was honored by his mates when he was elected co-captain of the 1941 team. In addition to football, Bob is one of the aces of Bump Gabrielson's Gusty swimming team.

Nash-Finch Co. Bowlers Lose to Crookston Team

By a poorly rolled second game, in which they totaled only 711 pins, the local branch of the Nash-Finch Co. dropped a three-game total pins match with the Crookston team by a narrow 121 pin margin here last Sunday.

MINNESOTA LIEN LAW IS UPHELD BY STATE HIGH COURT

No Foreclosures Yet Made Against Old-Age Aid Recipients

Minnesota's homestead lien law, upheld Friday by the state supreme court, is still being subjected to study for elimination of situations that might work unfairly on old age pension recipients, Governor Stassen said Friday night.

The governor, in Indianapolis to fill a speaking engagement on the work of his administration, told The Minneapolis Tribune over long distance telephone that "the law will continue to be administered carefully."

A major point in his 1939 legislative program, the homestead lien act became one of the most controversial in political discussion throughout the state. Demands have been made that the 1941 legislature repeal it and indications are that a repealer will be introduced.

The decision, however, bolstered the governor's position in connection with continuing the law and may have the effect of confining legislative action to ironing out quirks he may discuss in his message to the legislature.

The main point is," Governor Stassen said, "we have not at any time endeavored to use the foreclosure provisions of the law. We have been on the lookout for occasions in which some unfair result might develop, but to date I am happy to say there has been no complaint on the actual operation of the law. As a matter of fact, the Minnesota lien law is much more lenient than those now in force in 21 other states. So far, we have not foreclosed a single piece of property."

Telephone Companies Plan Expenditure of $7,440,000 in State

Plans for the expenditure of $7,440,000 for telephone construction work throughout Minnesota in 1941 are announced by A. J. Rau, manager of the local telephone exchange. This amount, nearly two million dollars greater than in 1940, includes improvements and replacements scheduled by both the Northwestern Bell Telephone company and The Tri-State Telephone and Telegraph company, which together provide telephone service in 151 Minnesota towns and cities and long distance service throughout the state. Construction amounts planned for 1941 are about evenly divided between additions to central office equipment and extensions and replacements of outside telephone cable and other lines. Increased residential building in many communities requires the construction of added telephone facilities to meet growing requirements for telephone service.

Farmers Union Groups Meeting in St. Paul

The federal wheat and corn loan program has "broken down", with present and future penalties being charged against the farmers of the Northwest, 2,500 delegates to the annual Farmers Union convention in St. Paul were told Tuesday by M. W. Thatcher, General Manager of the Farmers Union Grain Terminal Association.

Mr. Thatcher, national legislative representative of the Farmers Union, made this charge in his annual report to the convention at St. Paul's Hotel Lowry.

Sessions in progress this week include those of the Grain Terminal Association, the Farmers Union Live Stock Commission Company and the Farmers Union Central Exchange. Officers and directors of the parent groups, representing hundreds of local co-ops in Minnesota, the Dakotas, Montana and Wisconsin, will be elected.

Marshall Co. Free from 1940 Traffic Fatalities

With less than a month of 1940 remaining, only two Minnesota counties—Chippewa and Marshall remain in the traffic "death-free" group, according to latest reports of the Minnesota Highway departments safety division. Neither of these counties has had a traffic death within its borders in the eleven months of this year and their aim during the few remaining weeks of this year is to maintain their unblemished records and to go into the new year leading in the statewide campaign to "Save 100 Lives". In 1939, Chippewa county was charged with five traffic fatalities and Marshall county with three, so if they maintain their present "death-free" records until the end of the year, they will have "saved" a total of eight lives this year.

ELECTRICAL DISPLAY NOT APPRECIATED

New Richland—Although in the thickest of the great World War battles, Walter E. Johnson of New Richland asserts he got the scare of his life Monday evening of last week. Putting heavy paper around the foundation of his dwelling in preparation for cold weather, Johnson was overtaken by darkness and in finishing the job, drove a nail accidentally through a conduit containing a pair of electric wires. The resulting highly colorful pyrotechnical display was more than Mr. Johnson could handle. Walter Stavenau of the Northern States Power Co. arriving to end the display by simply separating the wires.

EAST GRAND FORKS MAN ADMITS GUILT AND IS SENTENCED

Donald Hanson Is Sentenced to Life Imprisonment for Murder

The trial of Donald (Swede) Hanson, 24, of East Grand Forks, charged with the killing of Mrs. Donald (Vivian) Licktelg, 21, also of East Grand Forks, ended abruptly at 3:30 p. m. Thursday when Hanson entered a plea of guilty to second degree murder, and was sentenced to life in the Minnesota penitentiary at Stillwater.

The plea was entered before District Judge J. E. Montague in Polk county district court at Crookston after two days of testimony. It was the result of a conference between Hanson, members of his family and his court-appointed attorney George Hagen of Crookston after the state rested its case.

Hanson was on trial on a first degree murder charge to which he previously pleaded not guilty after being indicted by a Polk county grand jury two weeks ago.

Following a half hour recess Thursday afternoon Hagen asked the court to accept the plea of guilty to second degree murder and Judge Montague accepted.

North Star Farmers Club Meets

After a short business session at the meeting of the North Star Farmers club last Thursday evening, a very interesting talk was given by F. J. McLaughlin, who is associated with the Farmers Union. This was followed by an enjoyable program which had been arranged by John Stewart, Edna Hesse and Ragna Hougen. Several selections were rendered by the Goodridge high school band under the direction of Vern Hagen. Donna Grovum and Jacqueline Shetler of Thief River Falls brought much applause with their tap dance numbers, accompanied by Jewel Warner at the piano, as did the girls' trio consisting of Jean Bucholz and Jean and Dorothy Holbrook with their, "Song of the Cat". Mrs. Gust Austad gave a Norwegian brogue reading, "Mable's Wedding" followed by "Cellis", sung by Ardith Kelley of Thief River Falls. The concluding number of the program was a piano solo by Arthur Lundmark.

Following the program lunch was served by Mrs. Bennie Meek, Mrs. Russell Thieling, and Arlyn Bush, after which an evening of dancing was enjoyed, music being furnished by the Berger Brothers of Wannaska.

Village Has Fire "Scare"

People were sent scurrying from all directions early on Sunday morning when the fire siren was sounded at four a. m. Some local lads returning from a dance had noticed smoke pouring from Haynes Cafe and turned in the alarm. With the help of the chemical engines and the hastily organized bucket brigade, the fire, which was caused by an overheated wall behind the heating stove in the card room at the rear of the cafe, was soon brought under control. If this had not been accomplished, untold damage would no doubt have resulted as several buildings in the block are built wall-to-wall. The fixtures and equipment in the adjoining Beauty Salon and Bush's Barber shop were all removed to places of safety before the outcome of the fire was determined. The greatest damage to the Haynes Cafe was caused by smoke and water and some interior redecorating will be necessary.

In the hurry and excitement of fire fighting on Sunday morning, Raymond Sorenson, who was assisting with water carrying, had the misfortune of stepping on a nail and receiving a very painful foot injury which confined him to his bed for a few days.

Shaded part of map shows where the November sleet storm wrecked telephone lines.

When the Storm Struck

On Monday morning, November 11, a drizzling rain in southern Minnesota began to freeze and form ice on telephone wires. By late afternoon a heavy snow was falling. About the same time, sleet and snow storms developed in parts of Iowa, South Dakota and Nebraska.

The weight of the ice on the telephone wires, coupled with falling temperatures and a strong wind, caused many telephone lines to break, cutting off about 200 cities and towns from telephone communication.

This Company and its subsidiaries, the Tri-State and Dakota Central telephone companies, had more than 10,000 wire breaks and over 2,000 poles down in the territory indicated on the above map. The telephone property loss of these companies was nearly $100,000. This brings to more than $3,000,000 the amount it has cost this Company and its two subsidiaries the last 10 years to repair property damaged or destroyed by storms.

Restoration of telephone service interrupted by the November storm was accomplished in the usual manner. Trained telephone men were assembled in the affected areas as quickly as possible and immediately started to work repairing the lines. In this storm, about 850 men were required. They continued work in spite of cold weather and nearly impassable highways in some localities until service was restored, practically all of which was done in two or three days.

In emergencies such as this, much valuable time is saved because we are prepared to meet them. This Company and its subsidiary companies, as a part of the Bell System, have promptly available to them the resources of the entire System. Supplies for rebuilding lines are rushed from our own and the Western Electric warehouses. Crews of telephone men with trucks, tools and materials are rushed to the scene of trouble. Standardized materials and methods make it possible to restore service with the utmost speed.

STATE BOARD WILL ATTEMPT TO HOLD JOBS OF DRAFTEES

Lieutenant Colonel Nelson Cites Law Governing Subject

Lieutenant Colonel J. E. Nelson, director of selective service in Minnesota, announced today that steps are now being taken to aid trainees who will have completed their one year service under the selective service act to regain their former positions and to attempt to secure work for such of the trainees who have no regular jobs.

Colonel Norman D. Dean, adviser on occupational deferment of the state staff, has been appointed by Col. Nelson to organize facilities to assist men as far as possible. Col Dean will receive aid from existing agencies, both federal and state, in conducting surveys preparatory to actual establishment of a re-employment office supervised by the selective service headquarters.

Colonel Nelson reminded employers that the selective service law defines conditions under which an employer must rehire a former worker after he has completed his year of training, and that the law applies to all men inducted into the land and naval forces equally. He also said that he had received telegraphic instructions from national headquarters in Washington that every effort should be made to reinstate in former jobs all men who have been rejected after physical examinations by local board physicians and at reception centers, and that steps should be taken to alleviate hardship and suffering in such cases.

Colonel Nelson declared: "When a man responds to a call for military training, he is fulfilling his obligation to his country. When, for some reason beyond his control, he is prevented from entering the armed forces, he nevertheless should be considered as having discharged his responsibility and should be protected in doing so." He stated that every employer should remember that he renders a "patriotic service" by rehiring men rejected at induction centers because they failed to meet the army physical standards.

Prizes won on 11 exhibits at the county and state fairs total $357 and total livestock sales are certified by County Agent George C. Landsverk as $719. The boy received a handsome gold watch as the state award in the annual Thomas E. Wilson meat animal contest.

MATTRESS ORDERS NOW BEING PLACED IN PENNINGTON CO.

More Applications Necessary to Insure Success of Project

A number of applications for mattresses have already been received at the county extension office from rural people who are planning on participating in the county mattress program. Whether the county can take advantage of this program this year will depend on how many applicants will participate. About 120 applications must be received. The county committee in charge of the program urges all who plan to participate to send their applications to the county agent's office by December 20.

It will take at least six weeks after the applications are approved before the mattress making work will get under way. Consequently, it is quite necessary to have all applications completed in the near future.

The mattresses will be made under the direction of a trained supervisor at each of the mattress making centers. The location of the centers will depend largely on what quarters are available for housing the project, and also on the number of applicants in the area.

Several groups are cooperating in staging this program in the county. The project is under the supervision of the county extension office and the county AAA committee. A local committee representing the county board of commissioners, the Farm Security Administration, the home project groups, and the local AAA committees, along with the county agent are formulating the plans for the program. Any questions regarding the program should be made to any of the above mentioned groups.

Champion Steer Is Sold for Record $3,498 at Chicago Livestock Show

The 1,060-pound Hereford, best beef animal exhibited at the 41st International Livestock exposition in Chicago, brought $3.30 a pound, nearly 20 times the highest price paid on the day's open market.

Miss Asay, an 18-year old Mt. Carroll, Ill., junior college freshman, smiled for a moment when the $3,498 check was handed to her, then hugged "Sargo", white faced steer, and wept.

The two had been close companions since Miss Asay bought the animal 11 months ago for $50 when he was six months old. He won $835 in prize money for her at various exhibitions.

Thursdays' price, nearly two and one-half times that paid for last year's winner, was bid by the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. of Akron, Ohio. Later the company gave the steer to the Champion Farmers of America, an organization of 125 farmers, representing all phases of agriculture in the country.

If YOU ARE TEMPTED to CUT DAIRY RATIONS

Study this Chart

¾ Rations Prove False Economy—Give 50% Less Milk Production

Cows on full rations, states a well-known nutritional authority,* "...producing about 1 pound of butterfat daily will use about half their feed for body maintenance. The remainder is available for milk production. When fed a three-quarter ration a cow can use only approximately ⅓ of her feed for producing milk."

So if you are tempted to cut dairy rations—don't. It's false economy. Remember you get approximately 50% less milk by cutting your feed 25%.

The Real Answer to Lower Costs is Good Cows, Proper Management, and Sufficient Balanced Rations

The importance of balanced feeding is vital. Beyond your roughage, you need proteins, minerals and vitamins well blended and in harmony with each other—a dry feed that is easily digestible. Our dairy feeds have all these qualifications. They contain the amount of Iodine approved by the Iodine Educational Bureau, Inc. Iodine helps the digestion of rich fats and proteins. It also aids in mineral assimilation. It saves feed, because the feed is better utilized.

Feed your cows full rations...get extra milk...and save money. This is the formula that has made our dairy feeds popular among dairymen that study feeding costs.

Some folks still can't believe their eyes

Going over Buick dealers' reports on our 1941 models, we find an unusual thing happening.

Time and again cars come in for the usual inspections with an extra note of instructions—"Please check the gas gauge needle."

Even after hundreds of miles, people mistrust their eyes when they see its snail-like pace from the Full mark toward Empty—they don't see how it's possible for a car as big as Buick to go so far on so little.

But it does—and for good reasons.

The whole Fireball engine was designed and built to get the most good out of modern gasolines.

And the simple secret of Compound Carburetion is that it keeps your engine running on its most frugal diet for all normal driving—and provides full feed only when you need, want and call for the lift of extra wallop.

Meantime even the gears are helping save money—for the regular high gear in a Buick gives you the economy of the so-called "gas-saving" top speeds you hear boosted so enthusiastically.

The big thing is, of course, that this is no small car that's setting these economy figures. There are all the room, size, impressiveness, comfort and downright thrilling performance you expect from a Buick.

But we assure you that it isn't because the needle's out of kilter that it goes down so slowly. It's simply because it's in a Fireball Buick.

Mattress Project

Undoubtedly everyone here has heard about that mattress project planned for this winter. It is almost too good to be true, folks, to get a brand new mattress with choice southern cotton and good grade ticking. What family doesn't need a new mattress? Here is the lay out, with no if or buts about it. It's all on the level. Mrs. Adam Lendobeja, who is the present Smiley township chairman, has been around to several families explaining the idea and has found every one to be most enthusiastic about it. This mattress project is absolutely not a relief program. It is an extension project available to a large percentage of rural folks. Any farm family with a net income of $500 or less is eligible. The cotton and ticking are supplied by the government with the idea of removing all the price-depressing surpluses from the American market. All you have to pay for the mattresses is the thread and probably a small charge will be made for some of the equipment used. Work centers will be established throughout the county. It may be possible, we hope, to have a work center at the spacious Smiley Hall. Trained instructers will assist the rural women or men in manufacturing the mattresses. Every two members of a family are entitled to one mattress, but any family cannot receive more than three mattresses. Each family must send two adults to the work center to work on the mattresses they are to receive.

The Bethania Ladies Aid that was to be held at the home of Mrs. Adam Lendobeja Thursday, Dec. 19 has been postponed by Mrs. Lendobeja because of the serious illness of her uncle, Peter Jacobson.

Larson Funeral Home

THIEF RIVER FALLS — ST. HILAIRE, MIDDLE RIVER — HOLT, MINNESOTA

Dear friends:

The march of time brings many changes in our profession.

In the matter of words, for instance, we have outgrown the old title "Undertaker". The correct word now is Funeral Director, or Funeral Service Operator. Coffin has been discarded for casket, hearse for funeral coach, shrouds for burial garments.

These changes reflect the modern trend. We like the new words better? Don't you?

Respectfully,

Carl B. Larson

RED LAKE RIVER PROJECT TOPIC HERE ON FRIDAY

Many Towns Represented at Flood Control Meeting in C. C. Rooms

SEN. E. L. TUNGSETH PRESIDES AT SESSION

Members of Tri-State Commission Talk on Project's Present Status

Nearly 100 members and officials of numerous Red River Valley communities assembled Friday in the Civic and Commerce association room to hear a discussion of the present status of the Red Lake river and other flood control and water conservation projects now being considered by federal agencies.

State Senator E. L. Tungseth, president of the Red Lake River Flood Control association, sponsor of the meeting, presided, and in his opening remarks stressed the necessity of maintaining a constant effort to secure a realization of the projects. Mayor W. W. Prichard extended greetings to the gathering.

Present at the meeting were members of the Tri-State Waters commission engaged in furthering the project, their number including Harry Holt of Grand Forks, chairman; Dean Holm of St. Paul, executive secretary; Earl E. Howard of Wheaton; and A. T. Brandt of Moorhead.

In a brief address Mr. Holt stated that he recognized the impatience of the public with the slow progress in getting the project under way, but pointed out that the routine prescribed by law must be followed. He added that the Red Lake river project will be in the division engineer's office by May 1, 1941, and that it then will go to the board of army engineers in Washington for approval before submission to Congress. Mr. Holt said he is confident that arrangements will be made to start work on the project as soon as the present national emergency is ended.

C. P. Bull of the state department of agriculture was present to represent Commissioner R. A. Trovatten, and expressed the department's warm interest in the project. Others who spoke briefly were Robert Berger and T. G. Holum of the flood control section of the U. S. department of agriculture, who made an appraisal of the local area last year. They stated that the department's final report, which is not yet completed, will supplement that of the army engineers.

Among other speakers was Walter Olson of the division of drainage of the state department of conservation, while representatives of numerous northwest communities also were called on for brief talks.

Before adjourning, the meeting adopted resolutions urging on Congress the importance of carrying out the various projects in connection with the national defense plan, and expressing thanks to all officials who are extending their cooperation. Serving on the resolutions committee were W. W. Elain of Crookston, E. D. Rydeen of Clearbrook, Mr. Homme of Grafton and Senator Tungseth.

G. Pederson announced this week. The issue, held by the state of Minnesota, drew interest at the rate of four per cent.

Bond maturities in 1941 again will be heavy, aggregating $43,000, Mr. Pederson stated. Included are the last of the paving bonds issued in 1920, as well as the final installment of municipal light plant and funding bonds issued in 1930.

In the following years payments will be much lighter, aggregating $14,000 in 1942 and $22,000 in each of the years 1943, 1944 and 1945.

COUNCIL ACTS TO REPEAL ORDINANCE ON REFRESHMENTS

Accepts Low Bids on Water Main and Sewer Pipe Friday Night

The city council at an adjourned session last Friday evening instructed City Attorney Theodore Quale to prepare an ordinance repealing the present refreshment ordinance, put into effect in the prohibition days, no longer serves a useful purpose, the situation being covered by the beer sale ordinance now in effect.

The American Cast Iron Pipe company, low bidder, was awarded the contract to supply pipe for water mains on its bid totaling $1,625.70, while a contract for sewer pipe was awarded to the Skatstad-Daniels Lumber company on its low bid of $338.02.

The council also authorized the transfer of $6,260.75 from the current expense fund to the permanent improvement fund to be used in the retirement of $9,215.94 in city warrants issued in 1938 and 1939.

The R. J. Lund agency was authorized to renew the Anchor Casualty company policy protecting the city on its employer's liability coverage. The policy expires January 1.

At a well-attended session of the Pennington County Taxpayers association Wednesday afternoon in the Civic and Commerce association room, a unanimous vote of approval was given to a resolution submitted by E. M. Bennes, who had been appointed chairman of a resolutions committee at the last meeting of the group.

The resolution, addressed to the county board, called the attention of that body to the fact that Pennington county at the beginning of this year had a bonded indebtedness of $613,000, considerably more than the total debt had been five years ago. Requesting the board to study ways and means of gradually reducing the debt over a period of years, the resolution stated that the association was willing to render all possible aid in working out a program.

At the opening of the meeting President A. J. Rau, who conducted the session, called on City Assessor T. M. Thronson for a discussion of the procedure followed in assessing real estate and personal property within the city of Thief River Falls, together with suggestions for the guidance of assessors present from the rural areas.

Mr. Rau stated that the association officers favored arranging a school for assessors in the county next spring to aid in bringing about more equitable valuations on real estate and personal property thruout the county.

Also brought up for brief discussion at the meeting were highway expenses, relief costs and old-age pension payments.

COURSES MAY START BY JANUARY 15TH

Open to Youths Not Attending School Between Ages 16-25

At a special meeting of the board of education Monday evening, the board approved a report of the local advisory committee on national defense training submitted by C. W. Pope, chairman, calling for the establishment in Lincoln high school of courses in training for national defense, as recommended by the federal government.

Supt. Morris Bye was authorized to inaugurate courses in electricity, metal work and woodwork for youths of ages between 16 and 25, and to advertise for bids covering the necessary equipment. As outlined in the report, the courses would be offered from 4:30 to 11 p. m. daily from Monday to Friday, providing for six hours of instruction each day and continuing for a period of ten weeks. Eligible to enroll would be any out-of school youths between the ages of 16 and 25, either rural or non-rural. No costs for the students would be involved.

Chairman Pope stated that the shop facilities in Lincoln high school are well adapted to the training courses.

Dividing the Food Dollar

One of the things that knits the brow of the woman who is just beginning to keep house is the question, "How can I lay out my food money to best advantage?" Too few girls have had the experience before marriage of buying food for a family. Many a girl has learned how to pick out good vegetables, or to purchase meat thriftily, from having watched her mother buy. But that's as far as it has gone; she has little idea of the proportion of the food budget that should go to those meats and vegetables.

It may not be practical for a girl to have charge of the family food buying for a period before marriage, but there are other ways of learning how to avoid ill-balanced buying. Among the good books in which helpful information along this line is to be found is Henry Sherman's "Chemistry of Food and Nutrition," in which is included a food budget prepared by Miss Lucy Gillett.

According to this, worked out by the U. S. Food Administration during the last war, the following divisions—easy to keep in mind—are made:

Meat, fish, eggs ..... 20% or less
Milk and cheese ..... 20% or more (as much as 33% for low cost diets)
Breads and cereals 20% or more
Vegetables and fruits 20% more or less
Fats, sugar, other groceries, etc. .... 20% or less

Such an allotment of the food money should keep the young homemaker—or an older one trying to work out a systematic plan that will insure good nourishment for her family—from making the mistake of buying expensive roasts, that taste delicious, but have no more food value than carefully-concocted stews, and then skimping on fruit or milk, in order to come out even. She will, if she is trying to keep within very narrow limits of spending, and lives where eggs are relatively inexpensive, try to work out many clever ways of serving eggs, in order to be able to buy a really good steak now and then.

Many persons think of milk as being a highly important food when there are young children in the family, but rarely use much when there aren't. They're making a mistake, from the economy point of view—let alone health. For despite the fact that milk, being liquid, deceives many people into not thinking of it as a food, its value is very high. It is worth noting that for low cost diets as much as one-third of the whole food allowance may profitably be put into milk and cheeses.

Most of us, until fairly recently, have not been careful to see that we spend as much on vegetables and fruits as we do on bread and cereals. Because starchy foods are pleasant to the taste of most people, we tend to cater to our taste, rather than to our needs. Nor do we always use our fruit and vegetable money wisely. Because it is easier to buy and eat a quarter's worth of apples than it is to make an attractive dessert of seven cents' worth of prunes, we pass up the humble prune for the shining, relatively expensive apple. Or, we serve a can of peas, at fifteen cents more often than we do a home-canned quart of tomatoes that cost only a third as much.

So much of a home's happiness centers around the wise use of the hard-earned money that comes into that home that it is well worth a good deal of time and effort for mothers to give their daughters the send-off into married life of as much experience and information as possible about making the food dollar yield every one of its hundred cents in value.

A hardness comparable to stone and the appearance of stucco are said to be the outstanding qualities of a new finish which is applicable to wallboard and other surfaces. This new product is a specially formulated oil composition to which is added white sand for mixing and application with ordinary brushes. When dry it may simulate stucco or can be made to assume an orange-peel stipple appearance. The finish is available in white, burgundy, tropical green, blue gray, tan and dusty pink colors.

Wool and Lamb Outlook Is More Favorable for '41, Says "U" Farm Man

Factors affecting the prices paid for wool and lambs indicate a slightly higher income from these products in 1941, according to University Farm economists who have made a study of outlook reports of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Increases in recent months of wage payments to industrial workers and increased factory consumption of wool, with supplies relatively steady, point to a strengthening of prices over the 1940 level.

The prospects are good in spite of a somewhat larger lamb crop this year and some increase of lamb feeding in the cornbelt.

Economists summarize the sheep outlook this way.

(1) Increased consumer demand and higher prices for wool will offset expected increase in supplies of lamb and mutton.

(2) Since numbers of sheep have not fluctuated greatly in the last 10 years, the 1941 lamb crop is not likely to represent any great increase over the past few years.

(3) Increasing numbers of beef cattle, with good supplies of hogs and sheep, will probably result in a material increase in meat production during the next few years. Increased consumer demand for meats will be necessary to offset the larger supplies if a downward trend is to be avoided. This increased demand appears to be forthcoming for at least the next year, perhaps longer.

Jobless Compensation Conference Topic at U

Thirty-three important Minnesota organizations including such groups as the American Legion, State Federation of Labor, Northwest Lumbermens' association, Northwest Daily Press association, Minnesota Bankers association, Committee for Industrial Organization and Minneapolis Retail Grocers association, are meeting at the University of Minnesota's center for continuation study this week for a conference on unemployment compensation. The meeting will be an all-day affair Wednesday, December 18, under auspices of the division of employment and security, State of Minnesota, and the school of business administration and the continuation center at the university.

U. S. Government Buys Big Schermerhorn Farm Located Near Mahnomen

Mahnomen County's largest farm and one of the best improved and equipped farms in the northwest—the Schermerhorn Ranch—was sold last week to the Department of Interior, and will be put in trust to the Chippewa tribe of Minnesota. The farm comprises 8,000 acres, says the Mahnomen Pioneer.

Although not divulged, it has been reported that department officials are planning an extensive program of rehabilitation at the farm, and as time passes, the program will prove beneficial to the county as a whole.

The government will not take possession of the farm for possibly a year.

Copper Roofs

For centuries copper roofs have been used on buildings throughout the world because that material provides both stateliness and charm, as well as the economy of permanence. Copper roofing is rustless and durable and tends to increase in beauty with age and service. Under most atmospheric conditions the metal takes on a color similar to statuary bronze and eventually acquires the characteristic velvety green patina which blends so well with stone, brick, wood and foliage.

'41 SOIL PAYMENT PLAN IS GIVEN BY STATE CHAIRMAN

Stickney Says Payments to be Substantially Same as This Year

Rates of payment to Minnesota farmers cooperating in the 1941 agricultural conservation program were announced today by Charles W. Stickney, chairman of the state AAA committee.

Conservation payments for corn and wheat will be 9 and 8 cents respectively, the same as the 1940 rate, while potatoes will be 2.3 cents, a decrease of 0.4 cents from 1940. The payment for general soil-depleting crops has been increased from 09 cents to $1.10 per acre, while the payment for cigar filler and binder has been reduced from 9 to 8 cents per pound.

The 1941 rates for computing the soil-building allowance are 60 cents an acre for non-depleting acreage as compared to 49½ cents in 1940. Commercial vegetables will be 70 cents an acre, an increase of 7 cents over the 1940 rate, while commercial orchards will draw $1.80 per acre, the same as in 1940.

Principal change noted in the 1941 rates makes available a greater share of the funds for use in carrying out approved soil-building practices, which is a continuance of the AAA policy to place more emphasis on soil conservation.

Minnesota farmers can earn payments by staying within their total soil-depleting acreage allotments, their special acreage allotments, and for carrying out soil-building practices.

Fire Department Called out Often in Past Week

The local fire department responded to a half-dozen calls during the past week, little material damage resulting from any of the blazes. Chimney fires were extinguished at the Sig Wold home on East Eighth St., the O. O. Kompelien home at the north end of Horace av., and the O. Seeland home on Tindolph av. Fire originated from a short circuit in a wall in the W. K. Hoefer residence on LaBree av. N. last Friday, it being necessary to open up the partition to put out the blaze. No damage resulted from a fire Tuesday morning at the Connie Haugen home on St. Paul av. S.

Ed O'Hara, proprietor, stated that cutting will continue until the company's two large ice houses in the city have been filled.

Hide Away Extra Toys So You'll Have Reserve For 'Indoor' Days Later

Most children are flooded with so many toys on Christmas day that they're positively bewildered and therefore jump from one plaything to another uncertainly. This is why so many child experts recommend that mothers take away and store out of sight certain of the youngsters' new possessions. When a spell of bad weather comes later to keep the children in the house, bring out one or more of the toys in this reserve supply. Or do it when you have special company of your own and want to be sure of peace and quiet. There are two reasons for this. First, children enjoy playing intensively with a few things than being "snowed under" with too many gifts. In the second place, some of the toys they receive at Christmas time may be too complicated for their age.

Too many toys confuse the child.

Twenty-seven thousand motorists were arrested in Minnesota last year for breaking the rules of the road. Were you in this group? Don't be a repeater—you may regret it!

The 220 miles of the Red Lake Electric Co-operative, Inc., are all completed except for the clean-up work, according to E. F. Kiland of Red Lake Falls, superintendent, and the system will be ready for the "juice" when it is turned on from Grand Forks, N. D., provided that 80 per cent of the homes are wired and ready to receive it, says the Red Lake Falls Gazette.

S. O. Sorkness of the Sorkness Construction Co., which has the contract for the construction of the Minn-Kota Power Co-operative transmission line from Grand Forks, N. D., to Shevlin, which will feed the Red Lake Electric lines, says that 60 miles of poles have been set, from five miles south of Terrebonne to eight miles east of Grand Forks, but the wire is not yet strung all the way.

The Sorkness company has a crew of some 30 and can set 25 miles of poles a week in moderate weather but the sub-zero temperatures of late have made it necessary to blast holes with dynamite.

Before the current can be turned onto the transmission lines at Grand Forks from the North Dakota State Mill which will be the temporary source of supply until the completion of the new Minn-Kota power plant, it will be necessary to build a sub-station, work on which has not yet been started said Mr. Sorkness.

The contract for this sub-station was originally let at the same time as that for the transmission lines, but was held up and new bids called for. The completion of this necessary unit may be delayed by the shortage of material. Many factories are going into production of war materials and deliveries of their regular products are appreciably slowed down.

Scholarship Winners at N. W. School Announced

Five scholarships, amounting to $250, have again been awarded to students of the Northwest School of Agriculture at Crookston by the Sears, Roebuck and Co. of Chicago. According to Superintendent T. M. McCall of the Northwest School, the scholarships are awarded to boys who have done outstanding work in 4-H club projects or with other rural groups and who intend to continue farming. Superintendent McCall states "during the four years the scholarships have been awarded, twenty outstanding boys and girls have been given incentive and encouragement to better equip themselves for rural life." The winners of the 1940 scholarships, include Lyle Clow of Hallock, Kittson county; Roland Morrison of Dalton, Ottertail county; Clifton Carter of Fosston, Polk county; Harlan Beucler of Audubon, Becker county; and Lionel Landby of Swift, Roseau county.

No Game Birds Starving To Date, Report Reveals

Asserting that no food shortage confronts upland game birds as yet, the department of conservation this week after a checkup described as false reports that birds are "starving" or are hard pressed in some localities.

Reports from the field indicate, the department said, that ample food is available, though pheasants have to "work for it" in scattered regions. Other reports indicated pheasants and other species are patronizing cooperative black amber cane plantings made last spring.

Anticipating the time when critical food shortages may develop, the department this week distributed 28 sacks of winter feed, along with grit supplies, to every game warden.

More than 550,000 life insurance endowment policies matured last year, paying nearly a quarter of a billion dollars in cash to these policyholders, according to the Institute of Life Insurance.

DAIRY 4-H GIRLS HONORED

TWO Minnesota girls are seen here at the conclusion of a demonstration they gave this summer showing local, state and national audiences how to combine dairy dishes into an appetizing and wholesome meal. They are Mabel Ritchie, left, and Mary J. Cope, both 17, near Bemidji. A cheese noodle dish with vegetable white sauce is the main item which they serve with a salad and dessert containing dairy products, bread, butter and milk. As state winners the team was named by State Club Leader A. J. Kittleson to demonstrate at the recent National Dairy Show at Harrisburg, Pa., where the girls won northern state honors and 15-jewel gold watches given by the Kraft Cheese Company, donor also of their show trips. They were coached by Ada Todnem, county home agent and Juanita Nilson, state club agent. Conducted by the extension service for the first year, 29 counties participated in the contest, designed to teach youth to know and demonstrate the value of dairy foods.

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

By Ferd R. Elstad

The Recreation program is sponsored by the city council in cooperation with Works Projects Administration recreation leaders.

Club News

The Wo-He-Lo group, girls' recreation club held their regular meeting in the puppet theatre last Monday night. Plans were completed for their Christmas party to be held at their next meeting in the arena upstairs. The party is scheduled for next Monday night. The remaining time of the last meeting was spent playing social games.

The Junior Craftsmen's club held their first meeting Monday night in the craft shop. Plans for the club were discussed and explained by recreation leaders in charge. Election of officers was postponed until the next regular meeting to be held this coming Monday night.

Puppetry

Puppet construction and work on new plays will continue, but no shows will be held until after the holidays. Children and parents interested in this field are urged to come to the theatre during the holidays and inspect the work of participants. Many children are already enjoying their work in puppetry and are benefiting by this work.

Craft and Handicraft

Bob-sleds have been turned out in large numbers at the shop. One group is particularly interested in making nut bowls. Another group is repairing old toys, these to be given out to needy families. One adult participant is making a fine desk. Still another is making a table and chair set. These are only a few of the many things that can be made at the shop.

In the handicraft department girls are finishing up the work on wooden slippers. Several girls have started on tray covers made from oil cloth. A few of the girls are making Christmas gifts such as doll clothes and aprons.

Tobogganing

The toboggan slide at Tindolph park was opened last Saturday. According to reports from the one in charge of the slide, large numbers have made use of the winter recreation facility. No charge is made at the slide, but a fee must be paid for toboggans rented at the slide. The slide is supervised by two men at all times to insure safety for the children. The slide is open from 7 until 10 o'clock week days, and from [illegible] Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

Miscellaneous

Basketball recreation nights at the high school will be suspended until after the holidays. [illegible]

With the shipment from this city of 46 carloads of dressed turkeys during the Christmas marketing period which came to its end last Saturday, a total of 104 carloads were forwarded from Thief River Falls during the months of November and December, approximately fifty per cent more than the total marketed in the last two months of 1939.

Dec. 31 Is Last Day to Apply for Grain Loans

December 31 is the last day Minnesota farmers can complete wheat, barley and rye loans, Chas. W. Stickney, chairman of the state AAA committee, announced today. It is also the deadline for filing applications for 1940 parity payment on wheat and corn. To date, more than 12 million bushels of wheat, barley, and rye have been placed under loan in this state.

12 Volunteers to Date in Pennington County

Twelve Pennington county young men of draft age to date have registered for army service, it was announced this week at the office of the local draft board. All or part of the group will be included in the next draft quota from this county, which is expected to be called early in the coming year.

SMILEY

The splendid recipe for that Plum Pudding of one of our local women, Mrs. Bruno Beiswenger, was supposed to have been in this column in last week's paper but it was placed in the "For Your Cookbook" column on page four. Look it up and clip it out. It's a recipe worth having!

Ove Nordahl accompanied by his fiancee, Miss DeVona Berg, and Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Nora and son Jerald made a trip to Minneapolis Thursday where they visited at the home of Mr. Nordahl's and Mrs. Nora's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Rickley (Josephine Larson). The group returned Saturday.

Mrs. A. M. Barstad is quite ill with pneumonia. Martha Hammer is employed in the house at present. Smiley folks hope for Mrs. Barstad's recovery.

Business callers at the Jim McCrum home Wednesday were Major G. Schilbred and Frank Stenecki of Thief River Falls.

Christ Pederson was confined to the hospital in Thief River Falls last week for rupture. He has been living the past several months in a small house on the N. E. Johnson farm. The Eddie Hanson family are residing on Christ's own farm this winter.

Broadcasters

Ove and Arnold Nordahl, two local guys, are doing pretty swell with Jolly Aasely's band. So, too, with Primo Cardoni who resides with them. The band group journey every Tuesday to Grand Forks where they play popular and old time tunes over station KILM at 8:30 P. M. Send in your request numbers, anything you like in the way of music and they'll play it for you. Listen to the boys every Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rude and daughters moved Saturday. They are now living in Thief River Falls where Mr. Rude is employed. The Rudes have lived on the Nils Nelson farm near Washington school the past half year.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burtness and youngsters Patricia and Richard of Silverton visited Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. Burtness' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Burtness.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCrum attended the play "George In a Jam" at Steiner Saturday evening. The play was presented by the Steiner community club followed by a lunch and social hour. The play itself was wonderfully enacted by the ten young folks. They did fine, everyone of them. Evidences of fine directing could be noticed. Proceeds for the evening's entertainment will go towards erecting a new club hall in Steiner. Let's hope their plans will be fully realized.

A few bits of information on the mattress project are herewith mentioned. The first, that the value of a full double mattress ranges from fifteen dollars ($15.00) to eighteen dollars ($18.00); the second, that it takes one whole day to make a mattress; the third, that two adults must be present as it will be much easier to work and it will go faster since one holds and the other stitches. The adults do not necessarily need to come from the same family; the fourth, that work will begin in February at the Smiley hall.

The Anderson brothers have been hauling hay for Olaf Larson from a farm west of Thief River Falls.

Hummer School Notes

Those who had perfect attendance for the second six weeks period were Robert, Walter and Franklin Haynes. Those having the highest scholastic records and honor awards were Robert Haynes, Franklin Haynes, and Kenneth Brekke.

The pupils are divided into two squads headed by Kenneth Brekke and Frances Offerdahl for the Christmas Seal campaign. Each side is represented by an automobile speeding down a "Highway to Health" marked with double barred crosses. The pupils hope to earn paper handkerchiefs as a reward.

The pupils and teacher, Miss Swanson, are trying to get twenty members to the "Bird Club" from the Farmer magazine. Each member receives a bird book, button and a certificate of membership. If twenty members plus fifty cents are secured by the pupils, their school gets a copy of "This Is Our Land."

All pupils have been busy with room decorations, invitations to the Christmas program and gifts as are projects. Now the big event is the Christmas program Friday evening, Dec. 20. Everyone is invited to come.

Smiley School Notes

Perfect attendance awards went to Jean Nelson and Bruce McCrum. The 1st and 2nd grades have finished their study on different kinds of cloth. They made booklets with samples of cloth and origin of each.

Jean Nelson had a 100% average in spelling and Stanley Wiener had a 100% average in arithmetic. The Christmas party will be held Friday afternoon, Dec. 20. The pupils are making gifts for their parents for Christmas.

Although it was generally known that he had been in poor health for some time, announcement of the death of Judge M. A. Brattland Friday afternoon came as a shock to the community. A long time resident of Ada, Mr. Brattland had made his home in this city only a few years, but during that time he had made many friends among local residents. His was a kindly and genial disposition. In politics he had always been identified with the liberal cause and was sincere in his sympathies with the unfortunate. In the district which he served there are many who will remember him with respect as a man of high ideals, a little impatient perhaps with the weaknesses of man, endeavoring by his efforts, and by an excellent example, to make this world a little better world in which to live.

World news reports these days are not a cheerful background for the "peace on earth, good will toward man" spirit of the Christmas season and, under the circumstances, we had just about decided to pass up the annual Merry Christmas wish to one and all this year. With men tearing at each other's throats in so many parts of the world, to express a Merry Christmas wish seemed almost sacrilegious. We didn't like it. Then, the other morning, we concluded things weren't so bad after all. Here's what did it. It was miserably cold and our head was pulled so far into the overcoat as we walked up the street that we nearly bumped into a big brute of a man. He really was a tough looking fellow, hard and husky, a typical movie bad man, the kind any jury would convict just on suspicion, and we were glad to walk around him. It was then that we noticed what he was doing. Of all things. He was breaking up a slice of toast and throwing the bits to a couple of sparrows and they didn't seem to be a bit afraid of him. If they weren't, why should we be, so we stopped and passed the time of day with him, and when we left him, still tossing toast to the birds, things seemed brighter and we decided it's a pretty good world after all. In spite of everything that is wrong, there is a lot of good in even the bad people of this wicked world, and so, to everybody, one and all, we say Cheerio and Merry Christmas.

Thief River Falls has a double interest in the appointment of a successor to Judge M. A. Brattland. The city naturally is interested in retaining the judicial seat. Not for that reason alone, however, is the community solidly behind the candidacy of Theodore Quale for the office. We may still retain the judicial seat even if Mr. Quale is not appointed. The community is solidly behind Mr. Quale because of his own excellent qualifications. The lawyers with whom he has practiced many years testify to his fitness for the office both from the standpoint of his knowledge of law and the personal characteristics which would make him fair and impartial in his decisions. The fact that members of all political parties in the community are supporting him wholeheartedly and that he is receiving the endorsements of both business and labor groups is a fine personal tribute to him. It isn't often that a community unites solidly behind a man or an issue and in this instance we have not heard a dissenting voice.

Observers report that prospects are greatly improved for development of the St. Lawrence waterway project. Our country and Canada are now pretty well agreed on a program of water power site improvements along the river, made necessary by a greatly increased demand for power. There is reason to hope that in negotiating for power rights, the countries will also adjust the few differences that stand in the way of the waterway development. That would be a good break for the Northwest, something, perhaps, we could thank the war for.

Minnesota and Michigan made the most substantial gains in population of any of the states in the north-central region of the country, and (this is why we mention it) our section of the state made the biggest gain in Minnesota. Final census figures are not yet available but the preliminary reports indicate that the comparisons are going to be very favorable to us.

THE FARM OUTLOOK
(The Fargo Forum)

Farmers of North Dakota and the Minnesota Red River Valley, planning their 1941 program of activities, might well consider the information presented by Mr. Harry G. Anderson, extension economist at the North Dakota Agricultural college. Mr. Anderson is recently back from a conference at Washington where he sat in with the economists from other states and the United States Department of Agriculture to study the 1941 farm outlook. That conference reached the conclusion that while the gigantic defense program of the nation will greatly speed up business, which will mean increased demand from consumers as many unemployed go back to work and others work more steadily and more intensively, there is not likely to be any great upward spiraling of the prices of farm products. Those products, which are expected to benefit most from the increased buying power of America's working millions, will be meats, dairy and poultry products and some fruit and vegetables.

THE VALLEY VS. COLLIERS

Now that we have read the story, we still are not mad at Colliers for publishing an article on the life of our new Senator in which this section of the country is represented as being a particularly disagreeable place for people to live in. The Senator himself might be justified in shooting the author who wrote it and the publisher who gave it space but we'll leave it to him to square his own accounts.

The story was written in the fulsome style of the biographies leading citizens like to pay for in books that are distributed in towns like this several times a century. As a piece of writing it did not smell sweet but we doubt that it contains sufficient provocation to justify another war and so we will string along with the Grand Forks Herald in its sensible reaction, expressed as follows:

> The article is quite interesting, and probably its general outline of Senator Ball's career is accurate. But the writer has followed one tradition which ought long ago to have been discarded.
>
> Many of our public men have started in humble surroundings, and it has become the fashion for the biographer who writes the story of such a man's life to overemphasize the hardships of his youth. The writer in this case falls into that error. He tells us that Senator Ball's boyhood was spent on a farm near Crookston, Minnesota, and to make an impressive case for his subject he tells his readers how tough life is on a farm in the Red river valley. There are two or three spring months, he writes, that are fairly comfortable, but the summer months are harsh and burning, and as for the winter—which occupies most of the year—there are no words to describe its terrors.
>
> Now the fact is that on the farm near Crookston young Ball had about the kind of experiences which are common to farm boys all over the country. Doubtless he was needed for chores, and later for field work, when he would much rather have gone fishing, and doubtless he did his job and let the fishing wait. Sometimes he got his feet wet plodding across a muddy field, and probably he got his ears nipped occasionally on his way to school in the winter. Farm boys have such experiences in Maine, in Illinois, wherever the farm is far enough north to have occasional cold snaps in the winter.
>
> But if the farm boy in the Red river valley has a tough time of it he doesn't know it until somebody tells him. As a rule he is a happy youngster, full of life and fun, liked sometimes by the fact that work must be done, but on the whole adjusting himself comfortably to the situation. Rarely can he properly be considered under-privileged, and his life is as comfortable and pleasant as are the lives of most other boys.

"THE ROOT OF ALL EVIL."

Jordan Independent uses as heading to an editorial about Scott county naughtiness "Money is the Root of All Evil." Intimates it's a quotation from the Bible. Our special Scott county investigator says to tell Jawn he'll buy him a quart of Scotch if he can find any such statement in the book mentioned.—Fairmont Sentinel.

That's a safe offer. John will not call the bluff. He never would take time off to look up anything in the Bible. But, Jack Ploof, who owns a Bible in his wife's name, tells us that the statement referred to first appeared in "Poor Richard's Almanac."—Olivia Times.

To all of which the erudite editor of the Jordan Independent makes complete answer. He refers the Fairmont editor to the tenth verse in the sixth chapter of Paul's letter to Timothy. There the words are found. As to the reward offered the Jordan man reports: "But keep the quart, Major, I wouldn't know what to do with it, unless hand it right back to you."

It may be a little late to get into this round, but someone should call attention to the complete thought stated by Paul in his much quoted bit of wisdom. It was not that "money is the root of all evil." It was, and there is a great difference here, that "The love of money is the root of all evil." One of the brothers will kindly take up the discourse at this point and elucidate.—Montevideo News.

DON'T RUN OVER MY LITTLE GIRL
(Kiwanis Magazine)

Today my daughter, who is 7 years old, started to school as usual. She wore a dark blue dress with a white collar. She had on black shoes and wore blue gloves. Her cocker spaniel, whose name is Coot, sat on the front porch and whined his canine belief in the folly of education as she waved goodbye and started off to the hall of learning.

Tonight we talked about school. She told me about the girl who sits in front of her, the girl with the yellow curls, and the boy across the aisle who makes funny faces. She told me about her teacher, who has eyes in the back of her head, and about the trees in the school yard, and about the big girl who doesn't believe in Santa Claus. We talked about a lot of things—tremendously vital, unimportant things; and then we studied spelling, reading, arithmetic—and then to bed.

She's back there now—back in the nursery—sound asleep, with "Princess Elizabeth" (that's a doll) cuddled in her right arm.

You guys wouldn't hurt her, would you? You see, I'm her daddy. When her doll is broken or her finger is cut or her head gets bumped, I can fix that—but when she starts to school, when she walks across the street, then she's in your hands.

She's a nice kid. She can run like a deer and darts about like a chipmunk. She likes to ride horses and swim and hike with me on Sunday afternoons. But I can't be with her all the time! I have to work to pay for her clothes and her education. So please help me look out for her. Please drive slowly past the schools and intersections—and please remember that children run from behind parked cars.

Please don't run over my little girl.

WHEN UNITY IS GOOD
(Grand Rapids Herald-Review)

National unity may be a great patriotic cause. It may be bunk. That all depends. We know nations where national unity is very great. One is Germany, another is Italy, still another is Japan. Citizens of the United States do not wish national unity that springs from dictatorship which gives orders. There are times and places when all questions of public policy should be discussed frankly and openly. There are issues in which general agreement is not to be expected. We need national unity if the nation is attacked. We do not wish national unity in an aggressive war. National unity should be expected upon policies which preserve democracy. There should be no national unity on policies which destroy democracy. There [illegible] unity upon sound financial policies of government. Unity upon unsound policies would be fatal. We need unity back of sound and reasonable policies of national defense. Unity back of wasteful things will be most harmful. The policies of the national government need criticism, suggestion, debate and argument. When the right policies are established then the nation needs unity to defend and promote them. America needs unity for the right things. Unity upon wrong things will be disastrous.

PUBLIC OPINION

Dear Editor:

It seems a crime our health authorities are so much asleep. To think they would allow all the children of the city to assemble at the auditorium Saturday, when there are several cases of whooping cough, also some scarlet fever. Little children, unaccompanied by anyone, jammed and squeezed in the mob. What would have happened if a fire broke out?

Don't the health authorities know how serious whooping cough is?

Of course, we are never warned in Thief River Falls when there are any contagious diseases. A small piece in the paper would probably do a world of good for children subjected to whooping cough on the street, in the theatres and elsewhere. Isn't a state law children with the cough are to be kept at home?

Christmas Decorations Have Deep Meaning

Not many, probably, know of the deeper meaning associated with the three plants we ordinarily use for Christmas decorations, an authority writes. The holly has prickles and red berries. By the prickles we confess the bitter life of Jesus on earth. His watchings. His fastings. His weariness. His crown of thorns. By the berries we confess that He shed His blood for sinners.

The yew has little outside bark but only a small rind, to teach us not to make a great outside show of religion; it is a lasting timber, suggesting the soundness of a Christian; it has many branches, meaning plentifulness in good works; and it is always green and prospering, even as the Christian should always grow and thrive in grace.

The laurel has the significance of victory. Jesus came into the world to loose the bands of sin and to ascend up into Heaven, leading captivity captive.

When Pere Noel Comes to France

A French Christmas is a children's Christmas. The French Santa, "Pere Noel," comes on Christmas eve with gifts to pack into empty shoes. In southern France the burning of the Yule log is a ceremony when wine is poured over it as it blazes in the hearth.

Many Christmases

Christmas is located in Florida, Kentucky, Maine and Arizona. All are small towns. But on December 25 it is Christmas everywhere.

Eighteenth Century Maid Servants

Some idea of the duties of a maid servant in the Eighteenth century may be formed from an advertisement in the Pennsylvania Packet on September 23, 1780 which listed the requirements as follows: Ability to manage the female concerns of the country business, as raising small stock, dairying, marketing, combing, carding, spinning, knitting, sewing, pickling and preserving.

A Burglar for Christmas
By Roland Flagel

IT WAS midnight on Christmas Eve. Seven-year-old Jack, having baffled the sandman since eight o'clock, tossed back the covers and crept downstairs.

Now, at long last, he would learn the truth about Santa Claus. Man or myth? Chimney sweeper or a lovable old red-nosed gentleman?

When the clock struck one Jack was still sitting patiently in the chair by the fireplace, watching the embers glow and wane. Tinsel on the nearby Christmas tree glistened. It was all very exciting, but where was Kris Kringle?

The noise Jack heard a moment later might have been Santa but it didn't come from the chimney.

Quickly the boy jumped back in the shadows while he heard the dining room window raise slowly. A gush of cold air, heavy footsteps, and then Jack heard the window close.

Frightened, he crept forward until he could see where blue moonlight filtered into the dining room. There Jack saw—not Santa Claus but a masked burglar, systematically looting the silverware!

Seconds later his softly slippered feet carried the lad upstairs into his parents' bedroom. The boy shook his father.

"Dad!" he whispered loudly, eyes blazing. "Dad! Wake up!"

"Grummph," came the sleepy answer.

"A burglar, Dad! Wake up! Call the police!"

Not waiting, Jack reached for the bedside telephone himself. His mother still slumbered.

"Operator!" he asked. "Send the police over to our house right away! There's a burglar downstairs!"
